• Sporting a record of five wins and five seconds from 15 starts, Awesometank comes into the Grade 1 $1 million Ricoh Woodbine Mile off an awesome effort in the Grade 1 Beverly D. Stakes on August 10.

• The $600,000 Beverly D., a 1 3/16-mile event run over the Arlington turf, represented Awesometank's first North American engagement. Now, the four-year-old daughter of Intense Focus focuses her sights on the Canadian green scene, in a grass event that's attracted some serious turf talent.

• "She ran a terrific race in Chicago," said trainer William Haggas. "She took to the training really well. As soon as she got there, she loved being ponied on the track. She was relaxed and calm. I knew she was going to run well because she'd gone into the race well."

• Owned by Lee Yuk Lun, Awesometank enjoyed prosperous times across the pond, racking up some impressive efforts, including a pair of two-race win streaks. In her second-to-last start before heading to Arlington, the dark bay, bred by Eminent Kind Ltd., finished second in the Group 3 Princess Elizabeth Stakes at Epsom.

• After a fourth, sixth and a second to launch her career, Awesometank broke her maiden in her fourth start, a sevenfurlong turf Handicap event in September 2017 at Newmarket. She followed that effort up with another victory two weeks later at York, a neck score over one mile on the grass.

• Finishing fourth in her final start of 2017, Awesometank returned after a 208-day break, going on to record her second two-race win streak. She took a one-mile race last May at Chelmsford and was back in the winner's circle in July, posting another victory at a mile, this time at Sandown.

• "We've had her from a yearling," noted Haggas. "She's always been a very sound, very tough, very consistent filly. She upgraded her performances in Chicago. The plan is to leave her in America now. After she runs in Canada, she'll go down to Keeneland to run. We'll take it from there."

• Will Awesometank enjoy running over the Woodbine turf? "It's a big, galloping track," said Haggas of the E.P. Taylor Turf Course. "And that's what she's used to. I don't see why not."

Owner – Lee Yuk Lun

Mr. Lee Yuk Lun Alan has sent out a modest number of starters over the past five racing seasons, posting five wins from 18 races. Awesometank is his highest profile runner. He also owns Awesomedude, a son of Australia, who has four starts to date.

Trainer - William Haggas

William Haggas, who trains horses for Queen Elizabeth II, spent time with John Winter and Sir Mark Prescott before taking out his own license and training his first winner, Tricky Note (1987), from his Somerville Lodge base where he has been since 1987. Since then, almost 1,700 winners have emerged from the yard with 2017 being his most successful campaign. In 2011, Haggas, who is married to Maureen, daughter of the great Lester Piggott, became a member of the elite band of trainers to have saddled two Epsom Classic winners when Dancing Rain won the Oaks to add to Shaamit's 1996 Derby victory. In 2014, he added more Group 1 winners to his tally when Mukhadram triumphed in the Coral-Eclipse at Sandown and Rivet was victorious in the Racing Post Trophy at Doncaster in 2016. Last year, Haggas' successes included Urban Fox winning the Group 1 Pretty Polly Stakes, and Sea Of Class, who took the Group 1 Darley Irish Oaks. She followed up with an emphatic Yorkshire Oaks score before losing by a neck when second to Enable in the Prix de I'Arc de Triomphe. Haggas' other Group I successes include Count Dubois (Gran Criterium), Chorist (Pretty Polly Stakes), King's Apostle (Prix Maurice de Gheest), Aqlaam (Prix du Moulin), Dancing Rain (German Oaks) and Rosdhu Queen (Cheveley Park Stakes).
