5 WILD PARADE

3 ALERT KITTEN

4 ABOGADA

2 SHEZTENTHEHARDWAY

RED SAILS has had two challenging trips in a row from the inside post in sprints and has landed on the edges on both occasions; she now goes around two turns and draws the rail for the third time in a row.

SHEZTENTHEHARDWAY had two races early in the year including a second outing of the season May 13th when she stretched to a route and had a peak performance despite some trouble on the second turn; she is up in value for this.

ALERT KITTEN competed March 31st at Turfway for $15,000 against non winners of two on the synthetic surface there and unfortunately as the favourite got into a key race and finished third beaten a long length after driving throughout the stretch; the winner has scored three in a row and the runner up has reportedly come back to win; for the move here for Michael Maker she drops even lower for $10,000 and Jalon Samuel has the mount; she goes a route around two turns.

ABOGADA had a May 27th seasonal bow at a route and it was the first ride for apprentice Kimura; he moved her through along the inside and opened up a lead in the stretch but was caught by a closer and finished a gallant second; this will be her second start of the campaign.

WILD PARADE missed eleven months and then made it back May 25th to try a route as the favourite for Norm McKnight but that was an exhausting trip and she visibly grew weary; she has had an opportunity for an interim work and should be even tighter for this in her second start of the year.

GOLDEN PINEAPPLE came from Tampa and her fitness was a big reason for her win May 25th for $7,500 as she received a smart winning ride from Chernetz to cruise by just at the last moment; she now takes on non winners of two.

3 CAPTAIN GENIUS

7 CHILL

5 RED FEVER

2 VALIANT FLAME

COLLEEN'S SAILOR was in a key race May 6th for $40,000 at six furlongs and his speed was wasted in an early chase against opposition that was just too difficult; he now drops sharply for $20,000 and goes to turf; he worked on grass recently; he seeks his initial share on turf.

VALIANT FLAME loves Tapeta and showed that repeatedly in San Francisco; he made a couple of stops at Oaklawn Park in the winter without producing and was entered here May 16th but scratched; he has had an opportunity to work a couple of times since then for Norm McKnight and Hernandez will ride with this shift to the grass.

CAPTAIN GENIUS attracted a claim back in April of 2015 and finally made it back to the races in February of 2017 at Tampa where he was a popular winner first time off the claim; significant time has elapsed and he comes off the shelf for Mark Casse running now for just $20,000 and he has entered for the lawn for the first time.

FAVORITE HEIR handled the grass well enough at Gulfstream February 16th for $16,000 when claimed; his only start here came in a protected spot where he was overwhelmed and he couldn't keep up through the stretch; he shortens in distance and goes to turf a footing over which he is a six time winner.

RED FEVER was on turf at six furlongs when coming home from Gulfstream May 26th but closed from the outside and despite drifting in the stretch needed just couple of more jumps to displace, Chill, but had to settle for second; there is a half furlong added here.

MACHO BREW had a May 26th seasonal bow at a route for $16,000 and missed narrowly and was claimed by Blair Miller; he makes adjustments here cutting back from a route to a sprint and going from Tapeta to turf in search of his first grass win.

CHILL has now won two in a row including a race on grass last time which was his third lifetime triumph on turf; in that event he set the pace and held off the bid of, Red Fever, who is here; more distance is added tonight and there are some rivals dropping down.

PAT DADDY made a strong but premature move at a route May 11th and then hung in the stretch; he comes down in value, shortens in distance and goes to turf seeking his second win on the lawn.

JADE DRAGON was getting his first race since September of 2016 and he makes his way back for Andrew Smith and has had a full work tab the past while.

RACE #3

2 SPARKLE SAMMY

4 HALO LAELIA

3 BELLA'S STORM

5 SCARLET BOW

SILLY SIMON dropped down and found the right spot May 21st and moved on the pace and was clear at the end under perfect handling by Sutherland for Pat Parente and Centennial Farms; she now goes for twice the price.

SPARKLE SAMMY had her seasonal bow May 11th and dropped down for $20,000 to try and ensure a victory and she went just five furlongs; she was on the lead and opened up; she comes right back at the same price against three year olds but must travel an extra furlong; Halo Laelia, also has pace speed.

BELLA'S STORM moved inside chasing the leader on the turn May 11th but slipped back to be sixth when the front runner persisted; changes tonight including dropping sharply for $20,000 and adding lasix while traveling a shorter distance.

HALO LAELIA is getting her first start since last October when she went on the front end all the way at five furlongs for a maiden score; she has had prepping through May and the early part of this month getting ready and figures to line up on the pace with Sparkle Sammy.

SCARLET BOW took up early in a race on grass two starts ago and didn't recover; most recently, she had a good stalking trip in traffic but then couldn't quicken in the lane; she departs consecutive out of the money finishes on the turf and goes to Tapeta at only six furlongs.

BONJOUR has run at higher levels in both races this season; she ran willingly April 28th when a weakening fourth; most recently, she was out of the money on turf; she drops sharply for $20,000, shortens to six furlongs and goes from turf to Tapeta.

RACE #4

10 THEREALQUAFF

2 PUZZLING KITTEN

4 REMEMBER GIZMO

3 DANNY'S RUSH

TOXICOLOGIST is getting his first start of the year and he had a steady diet of turf racing last season and provided some good fringe closes in summer time races on the lawn; in his finale he took an awkward first step and that put him far behind and he never did catch up.

PUZZLING KITTEN a homebred for Kenneth and Sarah Ramsey comes in for Michael Maker and is a son of, Kitten's Joy; he has been training at Indiana Grand but a chance here to run on the turf is an attraction to start his career; he gets Hernandez; lasix and blinkers are used.

DANNY'S RUSH got shuffled back on turf in his seasonal bow May 25th in a protected spot; he now comes down a level and has had an interim work getting ready to go back to the turf.

REMEMBER GIZMO is a runner of considerable size and so traveling just six and a half furlongs was difficult for him and once he fell behind he didn't have much chance; perhaps he will like the more open spaces of this turf course.

MIGHTY ZEUS made a run up inside in contention last time when facing better than he encounters here; he faltered to twelfth in that event and now depreciates in value to go for only $16,000.

SILENT DANCE made a move outside last time and was used in the middle stages but stalled in the lane and finished eighth; he is up in value with a chance to go to turf.

LOYALTY BOY made his way back May 11th but beat just a single runner in that race at an elevated level; he did have earlier prepping in Florida; he now gets to drop for $16,000 and discover the lawn.

WONNESTRUT has had just a single run this season and that came at a protected spot where he did not threaten after being bumped at the start; he drops for half the price of that event.

FOXY B started the season May 25th for $32,000 on a drop and had sharp early speed but was traveling quite quickly up front in pursuit and then weakened in the lane; he gets to run for half the price and Moran takes over.

THEREALQUAFF had a May 6th seasonal bow and showed life on the outside when a distant fourth and the top two were coming back from Gulfstream and the third place finisher has already come back to win; he tries a mile on turf.

AWESOME JOEY is by, North Light, and so getting to the turf should help; he has had just a single run this season in too difficult a spot where he was long odds; he does have sharp early speed to offer and Husbands now climbs aboard at this lower level.

RACE #5

3 MY BORROWED ANGEL - BEST BET

6 SILENT SINNER

4 MONSOON RAIN

5 DIRTY GIRL

KALLAN had a successful seasonal bow May 14th thanks to some earlier prepping that had her ready to go on the pace all the way with Hernandez aboard for maiden $32,000; he is aboard, Silent Sinner, here and Sutherland will take over with this boost to $40,000.

OPEONGO had a clear early lead on the turf last time but the long stretch was too much for her and she faltered; she had been a good second in this category just two starts ago on Tapeta; Husbands now takes over.

MY BORROWED ANGEL was well prepared by Mike Wright to win May 11th; she jumped out to the early lead and was ridden to the advantage which she kept through the stretch along the inside; she was home in good time for five furlongs; the runner up has already come back to win smartly; for this second start she adds lasix and now goes six furlongs and Garcia is aboard once again; she had a June 6th work on the training track in 1.02.1 getting ready.

MONSOON RAIN had a win last September but was a fringe player the rest of the season; this will be her first start of the year and she competes for the claiming portion of this event traveling six furlongs on Tapeta for Jim Ensom.

DIRTY GIRL went from five furlongs when second on Tapeta to a seven furlong turf race last time where she travelled well but the winner was too good and she hung in fourth; she now shortens to six furlongs and goes back to Tapeta.

SILENT SINNER had a successful debut last August at five furlongs while in front with Hernandez; second time out she overreached going to a stake race and finished ninth beaten about nine lengths in that key race from which the first, second and fifth place finishers have all come back to win; this will be her seasonal bow for Mike De Paulo and Hernandez has the mount; she was prepping on the training track May 28th in 1.00.2 and has since come to Tapeta for an easy trial.

ENCHANTED TALE concluded last season with consecutive out of the money finishes and begins this season in the care of Norm McKnight; she has had quicker preps in her build up to this return including a move June 7th in 46.3; Kirk Johnson has the mount.

GIMBALA finally took her maiden win in her seventh approach May 16th and she had an ideal setup with an outside swinging move under good handling from Hernandez to be clear at the end; he is handling, Silent Sinner, here and Da Silva will move in for Robert Tiller.

MY SILENT PRESENT came three wide from the second flight attending the pace last time but then hung in a five furlong return race; she goes six furlongs here from the outside with Singh now aboard.

3 LOVIN SPOON PHIL

2 CLASSY SCARLETT

1 COREY'S BEST

5 FLAMENCO DANCER

COREY'S BEST is getting her first start since last December when she was a winner for $19,000 against non winners of two; she resurfaces in the care of Paula Loescher and has been training at her new home at Fort Erie getting ready; she goes long in this seasonal bow.

CLASSY SCARLETT was winter raced in Maryland and came home May 27th to run effectively at a route at this price range; she was running on ok late in an event where closers were doing the best running and the speed weakened.

LOVIN SPOON PHIL started the year May 25th as one of two in the race for Robert Tiller and the stable did win with, New Sensation, while this one reported in last, yet, not that far away; for this second start the big drop comes for just $10,000 in hopes of cashing in; Da Silva moves in to ride in this more likely situation.

ZDENKA attended the pace in her seasonal bow and finished fourth about four lengths behind the third place finisher, Classy Scarlett, who is here; apprentice Fukumoto has the mount.

FLAMENCO DANCER attended the pace last time but didn't stay the trip in contention when fifth while, Classy Scarlett, was third and, Zdenka, was fourth; apprentice Kimura gets the call

SAN NICOLA BREEZE started the year May 11th at seven furlongs and was outside trying to close but finished fourth as the heavy favourite was clear; the runner up has already come back to win; she settled for fourth and now stretches around two turns.

SAYYESTOXCELENCE had a May 27th seasonal bow and was typically aggressive on the pace but weakened at a crucial time despite taking sharp support in that event.

RACE #7

2 AFLEET CONNECTION

7 LADY BELLA

8 TWO TRIBES

10 ROSY'S RAINBOW

5 LADY WITH CLASS

AWESOMEENDSWITHME is getting her first start of the year and she concluded last year with a run at this level going farther; she started up on the turn and was strong in the stretch in third; she goes just seven furlongs in this return for Krista Cole.

AFLEET CONNECTION was hard ridden to a third place finish last time and stayed within range most of the way; she is dropping down and stretching out to seven furlongs to run farther than ever before.

ONLY ESSA had a protected seasonal bow May 18th and sat quietly inside and was tenth finally; for this second start, she gets to drop sharply for $25,000 and departs turf and goes to Tapeta at a longer distance.

I HAVE FEELINGS had a nice race May 21st at seven furlongs where the slow pace was in her favour and she landed third against, Kallan, who was entered in race five today; she comes right back at seven furlongs with a drop for $25,000; she rates a look.

LADY WITH CLASS ended last season with wide losses; she begins this season by dropping for $25,000 and has tried to build momentum in the morning for Sid Attard; she travels seven furlongs and Contreras gets the call.

BOTTLED UP debuted May 21st and running from off the pace was difficult to do and she didn't threaten; the blinkers are on and she is down in price and she has had an interim work.

LADY BELLA has been in two protected races so far and the opposition has been overwhelmingly difficult and she has been out of the money both times; she takes the big drop for Mark Casse and Hernandez rides.

TWO TRIBES is twelve races into her career and is now dropping down to the $25,000 mark; she was fourth last time at this distance for $32,000 and looks to be situated for a good run.

DULCEDO a debut runner, was an auction purchase for Barbara Minshall and debuts here for Roger Pozzo at seven furlongs for $25,000; she has worked regularly over five furlongs and then had a recent gate work; Kirk Johnson has been enlisted.

ROSY'S RAINBOW debuted May 19th for Nick Gonzalez against better and finished an ok fourth with, Afleet Connection, in third; she is an obvious one to drop down with a chance.

MISNEACH a debut runner for Tom O'Keefe was an inexpensive auction purchase and will travel seven furlongs here from the challenging outside post; she worked six furlongs recently getting ready and has practiced from the gate as well; Sutherland rides.
