Betting Basics

Some essentials to get you started with making a wager.

1 How to wager

Place your bet by visiting a teller, or using a self-serve terminal.

To place a bet here are just 5 things you need to know:

- 1 Name of racetrack (choose from any track in the simulcast feeds)
- 2 Number of the race
- 3 Amount of your bet (e.g. $2)
- 4 Type of bet (see step 2)
- 5 Horse's number (see step 4)

Once you have decided what you want to bet, head to the nearest seller's window and use the sample statement as your guide:

Hello, (Racetrack), race 6, $2 to WIN on Horse #4

How to use a self-serve terminal:

- 1 Swipe your Cash Card/Insert Cash
- 2 Enter the initial PIN #1234 (then choose a new PIN)
- 3 Press/Tap the track you would like to bet: (defaults to current race)
- 4 Tap the Horse Number: #4
- 5 Press/Tap the Bet Type: WIN
- 6 Press/Tap the Bet Amount: $2
- 7 Press/Tap the Race Number: Race #6
- 8 Press Green "Make BET" button
- 9 Press/Tap the "Finish with Receipt" button
- 10 Be sure to check your ticket to confirm it's the bet you wanted

To get a Cash Card or for assistance ask a teller, or a staff member.

2 Types of bets

Single horse bets (minimum $2.00 bet is required)

Bet type	Level of difficulty	Explanation and expectation
Win	U U U	Your horse must finish 1st; payoff determined by the win odds.
Place	U U	Your horse must finish 1st or 2nd; payoffs better than to show.
Show	U	Your horse must finish 1st, 2nd, or 3rd; modest payoffs.

Exotic multiple-horse bets

Bet type	Level of difficulty	Explanation and expectation
Exacta*	U U U U	Your horses must finish 1st and 2nd in exact order; riskier bet that can pay a little or a lot, depending on the horses' odds.
Daily double	U U U U U	Pick the winners of two designated consecutive races.
Pick 3, Win 4, Pick 5, Pick 6	U U U U U U	Select the winners of a designated set of consecutive races. The wager must be made prior to the start of the first race in the multi-race wager.
Triactor*	U U U U U U U	Your horses must finish 1st, 2nd, and 3rd in exact order; can be expensive to play if you use a lot of horses.
Superfecta*	U U U U U U U U	Your horses must finish 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th; big payoff possible.

* Exotic bets require the horses to finish in the EXACT order you select, unless you "BOX" the bet, in which case your selections can finish in any order.

All of the numbers and letters in the program might seem confusing or overwhelming at first, but focusing on these sections makes choosing a horse simple.

- Horse's number in the race
- Horse's post position colour
- Horse's colour, sex, age, sire (father), dam (mother), sire of the dam
- Morning line odds
- Horse's name
- Driver and Driver Record (Name, # of wins, # of 2nds, # of 3rds, winning %)

- Trainer information
- Horse's Lifetime record (with best win time, track size, track, age, lifetime wins and lifetime earnings)
- Horse's current record (# of races, # wins, # of 2nds, # of 3rds, and money earned)

4 The odds

Odds are also important to consider when choosing your horse. Horses that are thought to have a better chance of winning will typically have lower odds.

Morning line odds

Odds listed in the race program are the "morning line" odds. These are predictions of how the public will bet on the race. They are set by the track's handicapper when the race program is published, before the wagering starts.

The actual odds will be posted on the Television or in-field on the Tote Board before the race; they change up until post time, depending on how customers are betting on each horse in the race.

Calculating a $2 win prize

To calculate a win prize, find the Odds of a horse on the Television or Tote Board (in-field board).

Multiply the first number by 2, then divide that number by the second digit (if there is one), and then add $2. Simple as that!

Odds	1/2	2/1	7/2	5/1	10/1
Pays	$3.00	$6.00	$9.00	$12.00	$22.00

Helpful facts for betting

- Some racetracks have a television simulcast commentator who tries to identify winning horses (handicaps) between the races. Listen and see if you can pick up any good tips to bet on.
- A good betting method is to choose horses with current odds two to three times higher than their morning line odds.

3 Tips to remember

WIN BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 32% of the time
PLACE BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 53% of the time
SHOW BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 67% of the time

* Numbers listed above are approximate, may vary by racetrack.

WOODBINE™

Woodbine Entertainment and its' employees are honoured to engage in the sport of horse racing and entertainment activities in the meeting place of Etobicoke. Woodbine Racetrack is located within the traditional and treaty Lands of the Mississaugas of the Credit. Known as Adoobiigok, the "Place of the Alders" in Michi Saagiig language, the region is uniquely situated along the Humber River Watershed, which historically provided an integral connection for Anishinaabe, Haudenosaunee, and Wendat peoples between the Ontario Lakeshore and Lake Simcoe/Georgian Bay regions. The territory is covered by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, an agreement between the Anishinaabe and the Haudenosaunee to peaceably take care of the land and resources around the Great Lakes. Woodbine is honoured to care for this land, our human and equine athletes, and provide a place to race responsibly.

Race 1 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#4 LMC WAGON WHEEL, an Ontario Sires Stakes Gold winner at two, came out firing on April 18th with a solid effort in defeat. After starting from the widest post, he forged to the front passing the quarter, only to be immediately overtaken. He got off the pylons on the far turn and he followed the eventual winner home to finish a clear second while trotting his own last quarter in a snappy 27 3/5, the same time that he recorded in the final quarter of his qualifier. He is sharp, he fits well here, and he draws better. He gets the nod to start up the $75,000 guaranteed Pick 5.

#2 COVER BAND is a Propulsion gelding that showed some talent in an abbreviated campaign at two. After making a big late charge in his debut, he impressed with a blowout maiden win in his second start, then trotted a huge mile to just miss in a leg of the Millard series. His promising rookie season apparently got derailed by sickness. He shows up now off a couple of qualifiers in Florida, and he was better in the second one in which he stayed flat. We already know he can fire well fresh, and I expect that he will move forward here in this sophomore debut. He is another to consider for the early Pick 5

#9 KADIDDLE comes into this race off a strong effort even though she finished only fifth. She never saw the pylons and sat on fourth-over cover that never advanced as the top two opened a gap on the field. She was pointed widest turning for home, and she finished with interest and good energy to get the smallest cheque, trotting her final quarter in an impressive 27-flat. She would need some things to go her way obviously, starting from the same wide post, but she is worth a look at a price off that effort last week.

#8 CHICAGO HALL got over bet last week when he met up with a filly that had won both of her 2025 starts coming into the race. He led to the quarter, then gave up the lead to that filly, who would go on to score the threepeat. He lacked room early in the stretch, but he had clearance late and was one-paced coming to the wire while holding off some closers for third. He will likely get put into this race early again, and I expect him to take a slice once again, likely rounding out the Tri or Super.

#4 BLUE PACIFIC hasn't been able to beat her stablemate Century Jamila in the last four starts as that mare has been on a huge roll, but she gave an indication in her last start that she is ready to end that losing streak tonight. After being taken back to fifth – which is unusual for her – she embarked on a first-over journey after watching her stablemate cut a slow opening half of 56 3/5. She engaged her stablemate around the final turn, but she could not get past her in the lane. She kept coming though, and she was closing on her at the wire. She obviously had the worse trip, and she paced a 53 3/5 back half in defeat. I think she races more aggressively this time and I'll give her the nod to turn the tables.

#3 CENTURY JAMILA – what can you say about her other than she has been outstanding the past three months? After starting her season winning one of her first five races, she caught fire and has taken six straight wins starting on Valentine's Day. In the process, she moved up the ladder to this top class and she has been the queen of the Fillies and Mares Preferred for the past four starts, beating Blue Pacific in all four. She has shown that she has grit, taking three of those wins by a neck or less. She can win on the lead or sit and chase the leader down. She is the obvious one to take down and no one will be surprised if she rattles off a seventh straight victory.

#5 ODDS ON PLATINUM is a wild card in here, making her four-year-old debut coming off an excellent sophomore season where she earned more than $750,000 on the strength of some Grand Circuit wins and a victory here in the $300,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Superfinal. She also acquitted herself well in the Jugette. She was prepped in Florida, and in her most recent qualifier she finished third behind two of Doc Moore's fast male pacers. I think she is capable in here, but the two Menary trainees are so sharp, I think she may need a start or two before taking them down. I'll use her underneath tonight.

#6 LYONS BETTORDAY comes off a nice effort where she closed from second last to finish a close third to the two Menary trainees picked ahead of her here. She rode Blue Pacific's good cover to the lane, and she tipped wide then gradually closed on the top two. She is improving, and while I don't see her scoring the upset tonight, she can close for another slice and finish in the Tri or Super.

Race 3 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#4 GASLIGHT HALL had an adventurous, yet impressive sophomore debut here last week. Closing as the 2 to 5 favorite, he was pointed to the front by James Macdonald after leaving from the best post. He broke stride just before bending into the opening turn and he lost at least 10 lengths before regaining his stride. He recovered and by the time they reached the final turn, he latched onto third-over cover. He tipped widest in the lane and passed all but the second-over horse who was taking a second consecutive win. He got set back to sixth for interfering with two rivals while trying to get to the outside and out of the way while on that break he made early in the mile. He should be formidable tonight if he can stay trotting.

#2 GETTHEGREEN was a very predictable 2 to 5 maiden winner in his 2025 debut coming in off a rookie season where he finished strong and took second money in the $300,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Superfinal. In that maiden breaking win, he was sent straight to the front, and he left no doubt, leading all the way without letting any rival get close enough to mount a challenge. He should be a speed threat right back tonight and he is the most likely winner if the top pick takes another misstep.

#10 WILDTURKEY HANOVER comes off a nice performance last week where he left more alertly as expected then produced a late rally. He was the first to move from fourth in the third quarter and he was relentless in his chase of a leader who went on to score a third straight win in three starts so far this year. The obvious concern here is the widest post, but if he can beat a few of these off the gate, he would be in with an upset chance. He will likely get overlooked by most bettors because of the post draw and to me that makes him useable on early multi-race tickets.

#7 THAT DUDE trotted some good miles here last fall before getting derailed by sickness that likely affected his performance in the Harvest Series final based on his slow last quarter that night. He qualified against a fast colt that finished second in the New Jersey Classic last year and raced in the Mohawk Million. He is capable of taking a share vs. these and he is worth a look at a price for the bottom of Tri and Super bets.

Race 4 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#4 AARDIES MONEY N entered last week's North American debut off two qualifiers, the second one much better than the first. Her winning qualifier on April 18th seemed to set her up for a good initial local start. In that mile, she was allowed to sit in fifth early, and just past the opening quarter, she was sent to the outside by driver Billy Davis Jr. She unleashed a wicked 28-flat brush to effortlessly take command, and she was never in danger from there. She kicked home in 27 2/5 while under tight lines. Flash forward to last Friday where she added Lasix. Her trouble was immediate at the start when she gapped the gate and ended up last of 10 early, which was an impossible spot. She was pointed to the outside in the third quarter and sent widest on the final turn, then she blazed home in 26-flat. Getting that race in and now moving off the rail post should have her primed for a better effort tonight, and she gets top billing here.

#9 LADY CAFE AU LAIT produced her second strong effort in a row in defeat last week and she should be one of the main contenders tonight. Closing as the 3 to 2 favorite last week, she was parked past the half to make front, and she held the lead to late in the mile where she finally got picked off by the third choice who was taking her third win in as many starts in 2025. She finished ahead of the top pick here, and she could be the one to catch again tonight. She is the other one that I would consider using on multi-race tickets.

#2 FOXY SEASIDE has already won at this non-winners of two level, and it was a resounding victory on February 28th over Kandy Kiss whom she faces tonight. She moved into a much tougher classification in her next start, taking on tough Coco Jojo, and it was predictable that she would just take a share that night. She adds Lasix for this return race, and while I don't love that she broke in her qualifier, she can be part of the Tri in here if she behaves tonight.

#8 KANDY KISS was narrowly beaten in the Spring Series final last week in another good effort, but that was her third second-place finish in a row and fifth in eight starts. After leaving out for position, she sat a good following trip and emerged between rivals in the lane with every chance to take the win. She couldn't fend off a longshot closer in the end and she fell just short. I'm at the point where I need to see her show the willingness to seal the deal. I'll use her underneath tonight.

Race 5 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#4 ALL ABOUT ART was sent off at 85 to 1 in his most recent start at Flamboro Downs with good reason when you consider that coming into that race, he had earned only one fifth-place cheque and had broke stride in three of those starts. But it seems a lightbulb went off that night, because he produced a very good second half closing effort. He was sent widest racing down the backstretch for the final time, and despite losing valuable ground on the final turn, he just kept coming. The 27 4/5 kicker that he paced was the fastest of his career to date. I'm going to take a stab with him here coming off that vastly improved effort.

#8 ZANDER was bet down to 3 to 5 favorite last week, and while he didn't get the job done, he didn't rave poorly either. After floating off the gate in fourth, he continued on to the front, only to be quickly overtaken by the second choice. That rival stole a 29 3/5 third quarter then turned on the afterburners and flew home in 26 4/5 making it very hard for Zander to bridge the gap. This Dali colt will likely head to the front again tonight and he stands a good chance of breaking his maiden versus these in his 12th try.

#10 SILKY CHOICE raced only two times last year, but he was good right out of the gate in his debut where he finished third to a big favorite sent out by Ian Moore, and he paced a 27 1/5 kicker in defeat. His lone qualifier for this sophomore debut is encouraging in that he made a late first-over move and paced a 26 3/5 closing quarter. He is tricky here starting from the worst post for this first start at three, but if he can get put into the race, he could be the one to fend off late. He is worth using if sent postward at a good price.

#2 WICKED EXPRESS had a decent rookie season, taking three seconds and one fourth from his four starts and showing enough speed to contend in this field if he is sharp enough. He broke stride in his first qualifier this year, and he just followed in the second one, with the main goal surely being to get around and stay flat. He did kick home in 27-flat, so he should be ready to contend for at least a share. I'll use him on the bottom of Tri and Super bets.

Race 6 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#7 CHEESE PARTY lands in a good spot here in the first leg of this Pop Up series. Two starts back she took the fastest mark of any of these this year getting up on the wire to beat a field similar or perhaps a bit better than the one she meets here. The wide post likely won't be much of a factor here because she is likely to drop back and take the overland route anyway. She has the biggest late kick of any of these, and she should get the job done if she gets a reasonable trip.

#5 LADY GET LUCKY was the first leader last week and she got overtaken at the quarter, then made a break in stride that took her out of the race. She was good in the last Pop Up series that she competed in during March, finishing second in the two preliminary legs and third in the final. She faced tougher than these in her last three starts and she should be in the mix if she behaves tonight. She gets Doug McNair back tonight and he has a good history with her highlighted by him steering her to her lifetime mark of 1:50 4/5 here last September. She could lead all the way in this spot.

#3 FLIGHT CREW N came back from a sick scratch last week and she got aggressive at the start of the race which could bode well for tonight's mile in this short field. Last week, she left hard and landed in the pocket, then got shuffled to third on the pylons when there was a leadership change. She tried to rally along the pylons in the lane and finished evenly. She should be sharper for this second start back from a sick scratch, and she should be aggressive again tonight. She is a threat to win racing on the lead or racing from the pocket.

#4 REDLANDBETHANYJEAN was going well at The Raceway in London until she tried the top class last week and finished an even sixth. In her two starts previous to that one, she closed well in both. She gets the hottest driver at this track tonight, and she should be good for a share in this spot.

Race 7 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#4 HELLO DARKNESS took two thirds from two starts but his second start was better in that he finished faster, pacing his final quarter in 27-flat. In that race last week, he moved on third-over cover following the favorite, and when that rival took the lead in mid stretch, he cut inside him and closed between horses to just miss second. He is going to get raced more aggressively one of these weeks, and tonight may be the night as he lands in a field, he may be able to dominate on the front end. He gets top billing here as the likely favorite.

#9 PAC MAN HANOVER showed a bit of ability last year in a short four-race season taking a couple of shares and showing a decent closing kick. He showed he is ready for this sophomore campaign on April 14th with a dominant win on the engine, then came back and paced an even mile in a race where he raced in mid pack in a mile where the back half was paced in 54 1/5. He came his own last quarter in 26 3/5 which should have him on his toes tonight. He would be a big threat if he gets sent like he did in that April 14th qualifier, and he is the other one that I would consider using on multi-race tickets.

#5 CORPORATE BUSINESS brings a 1 for 16 record to the track tonight, but he has finished several times in the past two months. In his most recent start, he left for position and sat in until the stretch where he started to look for room. He eventually found a lane and he closed between horses to get fourth, a half length behind the choice. He gets a good draw to work with tonight, and he can get another useful following trip in this spot and take a share.

#1 SEAS THE DAY is a cleverly named colt from a two-foal 2022 crop from an aged stallion that has shown a bit of promise this season in two starts at The Raceway in London. He came out in his sophomore debut and notched a shocking 36 to 1 upset then showed that was no fluke when he came back to finish second, dropping more than four seconds in the process. He is one that I can see getting an inside following trip here and taking a small share. I'd consider him for the bottom of the Tri or Super.

#1 FOREVERAFTERALL last week followed up on a promising sophomore debut with an even better effort to get the job done and take her second win. After the leader and favorite took advantage of a couple of early breakers to open up a big lead in the first quarter, this Stag Party filly rallied well along the pylons in the stretch, uncorking a 26 4/5 final quarter to chase down that drifting out leader in deep stretch. She took a new life's mark that is easily the fastest in this field, and she gets the leading driver back tonight. She is the clear filly to beat here, but she likely won't offer much of a price.

#5 SOMETHING IN BLUE, the stablemate to the top pick in here, is the other filly in here that comes off an impressive win and she will likely be the one that the choice needs to chase down in this spot. Coming into her sophomore debut off two solid qualifiers, she was pointed right to the front from her wide post, and once she landed there, she rated kindly as her driver stole a 1:00 4/5 middle half. She faced a final turn challenge and engaged in an all-out sprint with the rival that tried to get past her. She dug in, paced home in 27-flat, and got the job done. She might have a tactical advantage on her stablemate in this spot and she may offer more value as the one with the leading driver will probably go off as the favorite.

#7 DARLENES ANGEL finally gets to shake unbeaten monster filly and last year's Horse of the Year Chantilly. After facing her in three of her last five starts last year at two, that rival showed up in her lone qualifier for this sophomore debut on April 25th. She paced a nice final quarter in that qualifier, tipping out from last and passing a couple of rivals in the fastest quarter of the race, and pacing her own final quarter in 26 2/5. She faces tougher than these for most of last year's campaign, and she has a shot in here if she gets put into the race early enough.

#3 LITTLE PAPI qualified on April 28th against a colt that was a Grand Circuit winner last year and came up only a head short in the Battle of Waterloo. While she was no match for that good colt, she did follow him and win the race for place, finishing well clear of the rest. That was a decent effort, and I could see her taking another following trip and landing in the Tri or Super tonight in this sophomore debut.

#2 RITCHIE RICH has been good in every one of his starts this year except his season opener on April 3rd where he broke stride twice. Since then, he has improved in every start, and he was particularly impressive last week, uncorking a 26 4/5 final quarter to rally for a win at this level. He also holds the distinction of being the only winner from post 10 in a trotting race so far this year, and he won easily that night. The other 44 horses that tried have failed. He faces a field with some other improving rivals tonight, but he is razor sharp and he has shown versatility, and he gets the call to notch the threepeat.

#8 ARTFUL DODGER came into last week's sophomore debut off a qualifier that set him up perfectly for his sophomore debut. In that mile, he was restrained early, and he followed well to the far turn where he was edged off the pylons. He proceeded to trot a 28-flat kicker to get up for third with teamster Macdonald crossing the wire with tight lines. Flash forward to last week, where he went right down the road as the favorite in an impressive effort where he left his rivals in the trotting a 27 2/5 final quarter. He faces tougher tonight, but he may be up to it.

#5 FILM AT ELEVEN faced two tough rivals to kick off her sophomore season and she finished second to both. In her initial 2025 start, she fell a nose short to a repeat winner, who has now come back to win again, and is now three for three this year. Last week, she was a victim of pace as the rival that overtook her at the half that was trotted in 58 4/5 then unleashed a 56 2/5 back half, making her uncatchable. This filly may be in a little tough here, too. I prefer to use her underneath in this spot.

#1 CABALLERO had one start back where he was used hard to make front then came under assault in the third quarter from the eventual winner. He held the lead to the three quarters then tired in the stretch, and he should get some benefit from that four-year-old debut. Starting from the rail tonight, he will likely land in mid pack early. I see him sitting and rallying and he could sneak into the bottom of the Tri or Super.

#3 ANGOSTURA HANOVER hinted four starts back that she was coming up to a good race when she was urged hard leaving the gate trying to make front. In her very next start, that aggressive approach was rewarded as she did make the lead in a fast first half that night and she kept going on the lead to take a new life's mark. Since then, she was a close fourth at the top level, then she was given an easy trip last week and closed to take the smallest cheque. She now draws perfectly for a big speed try and she should get a more aggressive steer in this spot. I'll give her the nod in a competitive field of mares.

#7 GLENBORO was hard used to make front last week then she accepted the pocket following her stablemate. She rode the pocket to the head of the lane and looked inside, and she got a clear run along the pylons in mid stretch. She zoomed up the pylons only to be overtaken by a rival that was absolutely airborne late, pacing a 26-flat kicker to pass them all. She has taken only one win in 14 starts this year after going 9 for 45 in 2024, but she is sharp, and this is a good level for her. She is in with a decent chance tonight.

#8 SETTN A PRECEDENT was the first leader last week, then she took a mid race shuffle following some leadership changes. She was locked up to the eighth pole, where she angled to the three wide path. Once she got clearance, she was closing well at the wire, almost picking off Glenboro for 2nd. That was her fastest mile of the year so far, and she is sharp and dangerous if she can work out a trip starting from the widest post. She is worth a look for late multi-race tickets at what should be an overlaid price.

#1 SHES GOT IT ALL didn't spend much of last week's mile riding the pylons as she couldn't find a spot to drop in until after the quarter, then she pulled again not long after finding that spot. She raced first up in the back half finishing evenly in a good effort when you consider that she lost ground on both turns. She can't get parked out on the first turn tonight, and she should be part of the Tri or Super in this spot.

#2 POWDER PLAY hasn't scored a win yet this year, but that should change tonight in this opening leg of a Pop Up series. Her lack of a win helps her in this case because she is able to meet the average earnings threshold in the condition by only $15 per start. She has faced tougher than these all year and she comes in off a decent effort where she paced a 54 2/5 back half that included a 26 4/5 kicker. I think the leading driver takes no chances here in a field where she stands out. I expect that she will be sent right down the road.

#6 LADYTERRA ships in from London in excellent form racing primarily in the top class there, and she was hot driver Bob McClure's choice over the #5 in this race. She draws best and she will likely be put into the race leaving the gate as she tends to do her best work racing close to the front. She raced at this track for all of the 2024 season taking two wins from 15 starts and going winless in the last eight races of the year. I'm not sure she can beat the choice here if that rival brings her best race to the track, but she does seem like the logical alternative for those looking for a backup horse on multi-race tickets.

#4 ONE LAST BET is winless in 2025, but she tries hard every week, and she has probably been unlucky to not take home a single win so far. Last week, she tried a middle move to the front, and she got out sprinted late in the mile in a three across battle. I think she does her best work when she sits and rallies, and that is likely the style that she will deploy tonight. I see her closing late to take a spot in the Tri.

#5 TRIBAL DANCER gets a driver change tonight with Bob McClure opting for Ladyterra, but that shouldn't change the style in which she is typically raced. As usual, she will likely blast for the front leaving the gate and look to work out a winning trip. I could see her racing in Powder Play's pocket for most of this mile then trying to get past that rival in the lane. If she can work out that kind of trip, she would be in with a shot at a price. She is worth a look for late multi-race tickets on the chance that trip might materialize.

Race 12 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#4 WICKEDPACE had a big rookie season that included two Ontario Sires Stakes Gold wins, a second in the Battle Of The Belles, and a second in the Gold Superfinal. She comes into this sophomore debut off two good qualifiers. In her most recent one, she was the only filly that finished reasonably close to 2024 Horse of the Year Chantilly. This seems like a good spot for her to kick off her three-year-old season, and she gets top billing starting from a good post.

#7 PERFECTLY CHIC was a Grand Circuit winner at two, winning the Eternal Camnation stakes as the 4 to 5 favorite in August. She was ready to go in her debut as she raced first-over after starting from post nine and finished second to the top choice in this race. So, we know she races well fresh, and the intent will likely be there. She is one of the best ones in here and I wouldn't be shocked if she knocked off the choice tonight.

#8 ABSOLUTION came into last week's race off a sick scratch after taking two wins in a row versus non-winners of four at Flamboro Downs. She was dismissed as a 27 to 1 longshot, and she certainly outraced her odds. Pulling third-over on the final turn after the leader stole a 59 1/5 middle half, she was pointed to the middle of the track in midstretch. She really kicked into a high gear approaching the wire and she couldn't have been pacing any faster when the wire hit. The 25 3/5 kicker catches the eye, but she will still likely be overlooked in this field starting from a wide post. She is in tough facing the two sophomores, but I think she can come on late and take another share at a price.

#5 MISS DUTTON gets needed post relief tonight after dropping back to last from post 10 last week, then making up seven lengths in the 56-flat back half. Getting a middle of the gate post and aggressive teamster J.R. Plante in the bike, she is likely to get a better start tonight, and she is one that I can see tripping out racing close to the front and sticking around for a share at a price.

#10 WICKED N SINGLE was a Gold winner at two, Grand Circuit placed, and she won the Battle Of The Belles but she was set back to third due to a pylon violation. There isn't much doubt she is one of the better ones in here, but she has much bigger fish to fry this summer, and there is no reason to get her roughed up from post 10 to kick off her year. I see her sitting and rallying for a share tonight.

CONDITIONS AND ALLOWANCES IN HARNESS RACING - IMPORTANT TO KNOW

The conditions of a race determine whether a horse is eligible to enter. For example many races are restricted to horses that have won a certain number of races or a certain amount of money in a specified number of starts. Many races are restricted to horses entered to be "claimed" (offered for sale) at a specific price.

Allowances in the claiming price itself are given to colts and geldings, four-year-olds and younger and to mares, five-year-olds and younger.

The purpose of the allowance is to keep younger horses more competitive when racing against older and more experienced rivals. Mares are given extra consideration in claiming events because of their potential as broodmares.

The accompanying chart shows what the allowances are, but an example may make them easier to understand. The chart indicates that three-year-olds receive a 50% allowance in claiming races. This means that a three-year-old entered in a $20,000 claiming race carries an actual claiming price of $30,000 (50% higher).

Fillies and mares receive an additional 25% allowance in claiming races. Details of the race conditions and claiming price (if any) are given at the top of each race in the program.

	CLAIMING RACES	ALLOWANCES	CONDITION RACES
2 year olds	100%		50% on 2024 earnings
3 year olds	50%		25% on 2024 earnings 50% on 2023 earnings
4 year olds	25%		25% on 2023 earnings

ALLOWANCES FOR PURSE EARNINGS

When Fillies/Mares compete against Colts/Geldings (normally on the trot) Fillies/Mares will receive an additional 25% on the condition of the race.
ie: nw $5,000 (FM $6,250) last 5 or $12,000 (FM $15,000) last 10 starts.

Effective January 1st 2012
CPMA will be instituting several new rule changes with regards to the following pari-mutuel pools:

- Pick Pools
- If there are no winners in any leg of a Pick N pool, the entire pool is refunded.
 - If there is a change of surface in any leg that is NOT made known to the public prior to wagering for that pool closing, that leg will pay on all runners.
 - A pool is no longer refunded if the 1st leg in the pool is cancelled or declared no contest.
 - Pick-3: If at least 2 legs are declared no contest or cancelled, the pool is refunded.
 - Pick-4, 5 or 6: If at least 3 legs are declared no contest or cancelled, the pool is refunded.

EXPLANATION OF THE LASIX PROGRAM

After careful study and consultation with Ontario Horsemen's groups, racetrack operators and veterinarians, Agriculture Canada and the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario passed legislation allowing the controlled (or supervised) administration of furosemide, more commonly called "Lasix". "Lasix" is used to alleviate the symptoms of exercise induced pulmonary hemorrhaging in racing horses. Horses will undergo an endoscopic examination of the trachea by a veterinarian licensed by the Ontario Racing Commission and endorsed by an official veterinarian before being allowed on the medication list. Once qualified, horses will be treated with "Lasix" within four hours plus or minus 15 minutes of a scheduled race in a secure retention area under the super vision of racing officials. All horses on "Lasix" must remain on the program for a minimum of 100 days while racing in this jurisdiction.

- L Denotes horses treated with Lasix.
- (L) Denotes horses treated with Lasix today who were not so treated for their last start.
- (L) Denotes horses treated with Lasix for their last start but not so treated today.

Pari-mutuel wagering and drug control services are provided under the supervision of the Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency, an agency of Agriculture and the Minister of Agriculture. All pari-mutuel pools are calculated and distributed in accordance with the Pari-Mutuel Betting Regulations. The Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency can be contacted at 1-800-268-8835 or locally at 613-759-6100 or E-Mail: cpmawebacpm@agr.gc.ca

RULES AND INFORMATION REGARDING CANADIAN HARNESS AND FOREIGN SEPARATE POOL EVENTS

GENERAL

All pari-mutuel pools are calculated and distributed in accordance with the regulations and directives as issued by Agriculture and Agri-Food Canada ("The Regulations"), under the approval and supervision of the Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency. The Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency can be contacted at 1-800-268-8835 or 613-759-6100 or Email: cpmawebacpm@agr.gc.ca. A complete version of the CPMA regulations can be found at <http://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/regulations/SOR-91-365/>.

All tickets should be held until the result of the race is declared official and prices are posted.

No person under the age of 18 shall purchase or cash a ticket or voucher.

A claim of receiving an incorrect payment or incorrect change must be made to the Mutuel office of the association within twenty four hours of buying or cashing a valid ticket or voucher.

No ruling made by the Stewards/Judges or the Ontario Racing Commission with regard to distribution of purse money or the placing of horses in the order of finish, after the race has been declared official, shall have any bearing on the pay-out prices or distribution of pari-mutuel pools.

Change boards and Photo Finish display monitors are located in the Grandstand. In addition, Photo Finish pictures are shown on the closed-circuit television system. Customers are reminded that mutuel clerks are responsible for all shortages. When making a wager, customers must present sufficient funds at the time of purchase to cover the wagers requested.

ENTRIES AND MUTUEL FIELDS

"Entry" means two or more horses in the same race which, for the purpose of pari-mutuel betting, are coupled or considered as the same betting interest. The most common reason for the coupling of horses in an Entry is the fact that they are owned by the same person.

"Mutuel Field" means two or more horses in the same race which, for the purpose of pari-mutuel betting, are coupled because the number of horses in the race exceeds the number which can be handled separately by the pari-mutuel system. Subject to the Regulations, a bet on one horse of an Entry or Mutuel Field shall be considered a bet on all horses in that Entry or Mutuel Field.

DAILY DOUBLE BETTING (INCLUDING LATE DOUBLE)

A Daily Double bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of the two races specified for the Daily Double. Tickets not selecting the winner of the first half of the Daily Double and all tickets in the second half of the Daily Double not coupled with the declared official winner of the first half of the Daily Double are not winners and are not refunded no matter what circumstances affect the running of the second half of the Daily Double.

Should a horse or horses (not coupled with another starter) be excused from starting in the second race of the Daily Double after the first race of the Daily Double has closed for betting, holders of all Daily Double tickets on such horses, coupled with the winner of the first Daily Double race, shall participate in a Consolation Double pool. (Effective Jan 1, 2012)

EXACTA (Also known as Exactor)/TRIFECTA (Also known as Triactor)/SUPERFECTA

An Exacta, Trifecta, Superfecta is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the first two, three and four horses respectively, representing different betting interests to finish in the exact official order of finish, in the race on which the pool is operated.

SWINGER (Also known as OMNI)

A Swinger is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select horses to finish in any order from the official first 3 positions.

JACKPOT HI-5

A Jackpot Hi-5 bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the exact order of finish of the first 5 runners in the specified Jackpot Hi-5 race. If there are races that have an entry, (i.e. 1 & 1A and/or 2 & 2B), Jackpot Hi-5 will not offer a wager consisting of both halves of the same betting interest. Example: If the same betting interest finishes first and second in a Jackpot Hi-5, the payout would be 1st, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th.

That jackpot portion of the pool will only be paid out if there is a single winning ticket. If there are multiple winning tickets that have correctly chosen the first 5 runners of the race, they will receive 50% of the pool for that day. The other 50% will go over into the Jackpot carryover. If there are no winning tickets with the exact order of finish of the first 5 runners, 100% of the current day's pool will be carried over into the Jackpot.

PICK 3 & PICK 4 BETTING

The Pick 3 & Pick 4 bets are betting transactions in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of three or four successive races specified for the Pick 3 & Pick 4 respectively.

Winning tickets for the Pick 3 & Pick 4 are determined in the following sequence: A) winners of all legs, B) most winners, then refund. If there is a change of surface in any leg that is NOT made known to the public prior to wagering for that pool closing, that leg will pay on all runners. If there are no winners in any leg of a pool, the entire pool is refunded.

PICK 5 BETTING

The Pick 5 bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of five successive races specified for the Pick 5 respectively.

If no one has correctly selected all 5 winners, the entire net pool is carried over to the next available PICK 5.

PICK 6 BETTING

The Pick 6 bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of six successive races specified for the Pick 6 respectively.

If no one has correctly selected all 6 winners, the entire net pool is carried over to the next available PICK 6.

PICK 5 & 6 BETTING

If at least 1 race as part of the Pick 5 or 6 has been cancelled or declared "No contest", but not more than the specified below under Refunds, the net pool shall be distributed to those selecting the most # of winners and NOT include any carryover from a previous pool.

PICK 3, PICK 4, PICK 5 & PICK 6 SCRATCHES

In the event a Pick 3, Pick 4, Pick 5 or Pick 6 ticket designates as a selection a horse which is scratched, excused or determined by the Stewards/Judges to be a non-starter in any of the races comprising the Pick 3, Pick 4, Pick 5 or Pick 6 the favourite, as evidenced by the amount wagered in the win pool at the time of the start of the race in which the scratch occurred, will be substituted for the non-starting selection. In the event that the money bet in the win pool for two or more favourites is identical, the selection with the lowest program number shall be substituted for the non-starting selection.

However, if a scratch occurs in any leg of the Pick 3, Pick 4, Pick 5 or Pick 6 pools before the pool is closed, a ticket including the scratched horse may be cancelled.

REFUNDS

Subject to the Regulations, all monies in all pools on a race are refunded in the event that the race is cancelled, declared off or declared no contest, and all monies bet on a horse are refunded if the horse is a late scratch or does not receive a fair start. These refunds will be communicated to the public through various means such as betting terminals, video display, changes boards and our website.

The Pick(n) pool shall be cancelled and all Pick(n) wagers for the individual performance shall be refunded if:

- Pick-3: at least 2 legs are declared no contest or cancel. (Effective Jan 1, 2012)
- Pick-4, 5 or 6: at least 3 legs are declared no contest or cancel. (Effective Jan 1, 2012)

Where a horse that is part of an Entry is a late scratch or does not receive a fair start and at least one horse of that Entry receives a fair start in the race, all tickets purchased on the Entry remain valid and the purchase price of any such ticket shall not be refunded.

COMMON POOL WAGERING (INTERTRACK BETTING)

In the unlikely event of a communications or computer system failure that prevents pools from merging with the host track's pools before the end of a race, CPMA regulations require that the site must refund all tickets for that race. This refund will be communicated to the public through various means such as video displays, change boards and messages on our website.

FAIR START

If a horse has reached the Fair Start Pole (located 200 feet before the Starting Pole) by the time the mobile gate has reached the Starting Pole, that horse is deemed to have had a fair start. It makes no difference whether or not the horse is on or off stride at that precise moment. Under current policy and regulations, which are designed to be as fair as possible to all bettors on all starters, there is no Recall - a repeat of the entire starting procedure - when a horse does not reach the Fair Start Pole before the gate reaches the Starting Pole. Monies bet on such a horse are refunded in accordance with the regulation concerning refunds.

LOST & OLD TICKETS

WEG issued tickets or vouchers are valid indefinitely, however, they cannot be cashed at a mutuel teller after 2 years from date of issue. Please mail tickets, along with your name and address, to Mutuel Manager, P.O. Box 156, Rexdale, Ontario, M9W 5L2, keeping a photocopy for future reference.

For "Lost Tickets" originally sold at a Woodbine Entertainment Group racetrack or Teletheatre, please enquire at the Mutuel office at Woodbine, Greenwood Teletheatre, or Mohawk. Policy may be subject to change retroactively in the event regulatory bodies amend existing regulations.

ASSOCIATION PERCENTAGE, AND TAXATION/LEVY

The Woodbine Entertainment Group deducts and retains the following percentages from wagers placed at our own licensed sites which are then shared with the horsepeople, host and simulcast associations and the Ontario Racing Commission.

WOODBINE MOHAWK LIVE: Win, Place & Show: 13.65%. Swinger 14.7%. Trifecta & Pick 4: 21.7%. Double & Exacta 17.2%. Jackpot Hi-5, Pick 5 & Pick 6: 11.7%. All other 23.0%

Horsepeople receive a further 2% on all wagers, except Trifecta wagering where it is 4%. The Ontario Provincial Government retains 0.5% on all bets placed in Ontario. The Canadian Government (through a revolving fund cost recovery basis) retains 0.8% on all wagers placed in Canada for provision of drug control, and audit services.

While every effort is made to provide accurate information in the program, Woodbine Entertainment Group assumes no liability for errors or omissions.
