Betting Basics

Some essentials to get you started with making a wager.

1 How to wager

Place your bet by visiting a teller, or using a self-serve terminal.

To place a bet here are just 5 things you need to know:

- 1 Name of racetrack (choose from any track in the simulcast feeds)
- 2 Number of the race
- 3 Amount of your bet (e.g. $2)
- 4 Type of bet (see step 2)
- 5 Horse's number (see step 4)

Once you have decided what you want to bet, head to the nearest seller's window and use the sample statement as your guide:

Hello, (Racetrack), race 6, $2 to WIN on Horse #4

How to use a self-serve terminal:

- 1 Swipe your Cash Card/Insert Cash
- 2 Enter the initial PIN #1234 (then choose a new PIN)
- 3 Press/Tap the track you would like to bet: (defaults to current race)
- 4 Tap the Horse Number: #4
- 5 Press/Tap the Bet Type: WIN
- 6 Press/Tap the Bet Amount: $2
- 7 Press/Tap the Race Number: Race #6
- 8 Press Green "Make BET" button
- 9 Press/Tap the "Finish with Receipt" button
- 10 Be sure to check your ticket to confirm it's the bet you wanted

To get a Cash Card or for assistance ask a teller, or a staff member.

2 Types of bets

Single horse bets (minimum $2.00 bet is required)

Bet type	Level of difficulty	Explanation and expectation
Win	U U U	Your horse must finish 1st; payoff determined by the win odds.
Place	U U	Your horse must finish 1st or 2nd; payoffs better than to show.
Show	U	Your horse must finish 1st, 2nd, or 3rd; modest payoffs.

Exotic multiple-horse bets

Bet type	Level of difficulty	Explanation and expectation
Exacta*	U U U U	Your horses must finish 1st and 2nd in exact order; riskier bet that can pay a little or a lot, depending on the horses' odds.
Daily double	U U U U U	Pick the winners of two designated consecutive races.
Pick 3, Win 4, Pick 5, Pick 6	U U U U U U	Select the winners of a designated set of consecutive races. The wager must be made prior to the start of the first race in the multi-race wager.
Triactor*	U U U U U U U	Your horses must finish 1st, 2nd, and 3rd in exact order; can be expensive to play if you use a lot of horses.
Superfecta*	U U U U U U U U	Your horses must finish 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th; big payoff possible.

* Exotic bets require the horses to finish in the EXACT order you select, unless you "BOX" the bet, in which case your selections can finish in any order.

All of the numbers and letters in the program might seem confusing or overwhelming at first, but focusing on these sections makes choosing a horse simple.

- Horse's number in the race
- Horse's post position colour
- Horse's colour, sex, age, sire (father), dam (mother), sire of the dam
- Morning line odds
- Horse's name
- Driver and Driver Record (Name, # of wins, # of 2nds, # of 3rds, winning %)

- Trainer information
- Horse's Lifetime record (with best win time, track size, track, age, lifetime wins and lifetime earnings)
- Horse's current record (# of races, # wins, # of 2nds, # of 3rds, and money earned)

4 The odds

Odds are also important to consider when choosing your horse. Horses that are thought to have a better chance of winning will typically have lower odds.

Morning line odds

Odds listed in the race program are the "morning line" odds. These are predictions of how the public will bet on the race. They are set by the track's handicapper when the race program is published, before the wagering starts.

The actual odds will be posted on the Television or in-field on the Tote Board before the race; they change up until post time, depending on how customers are betting on each horse in the race.

Calculating a $2 win prize

To calculate a win prize, find the Odds of a horse on the Television or Tote Board (in-field board).

Multiply the first number by 2, then divide that number by the second digit (if there is one), and then add $2. Simple as that!

Odds	1/2	2/1	7/2	5/1	10/1
Pays	$3.00	$6.00	$9.00	$12.00	$22.00

Helpful facts for betting

- Some racetracks have a television simulcast commentator who tries to identify winning horses (handicaps) between the races. Listen and see if you can pick up any good tips to bet on.
- A good betting method is to choose horses with current odds two to three times higher than their morning line odds.

3 Tips to remember

WIN BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 32% of the time
PLACE BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 53% of the time
SHOW BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 67% of the time

* Numbers listed above are approximate, may vary by racetrack.

WOODBINE™

Woodbine Entertainment and its' employees are honoured to engage in the sport of horse racing and entertainment activities in the meeting place of Etobicoke. Woodbine Racetrack is located within the traditional and treaty Lands of the Mississaugas of the Credit. Known as Adoobiigok, the "Place of the Alders" in Michi Saagiig language, the region is uniquely situated along the Humber River Watershed, which historically provided an integral connection for Anishinaabe, Haudenosaunee, and Wendat peoples between the Ontario Lakeshore and Lake Simcoe/Georgian Bay regions. The territory is covered by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, an agreement between the Anishinaabe and the Haudenosaunee to peaceably take care of the land and resources around the Great Lakes. Woodbine is honoured to care for this land, our human and equine athletes, and provide a place to race responsibly.

Race 1 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#2 NO CONTROL got his feet wet twice in very fast miles to kick off his five-year-old season, and he closed well in the first one that was paced in 1:50 1/5, then could only race evenly in the second one that was paced in a rapid 1:49 2/5 by a razor sharp horse that was claimed that night. He has done his best work racing on or close to the front in the past, and maybe tonight is the night that the hammer gets dropped and he gets asked to leave hard. I'll give him a slight nod to kick off the $75,000 guaranteed early Pick 5.

#10 AMERICAN HISTORY hasn't raced this low since early March when he finished second to a Menary trainee that stole three quarters in 1:25-flat. He came back two weeks later and ripped off a vicious two-move 1:49 3/5 winning mile in the first leg of the New Holland Series. Since then, he has faced unbeatable Brue Hanover in three straight then a decent Preferred 2 field last week where he showed little. It's possible that the class drop and the return of Louis-Phillipe Roy in the bike will wake him up tonight. If he gets put into the race, and sniffs the lead at any point, he could score the upset here and notch a rare win from post 10.

#1 LOUS WORLD was good here in his last start after shipping in from Flamboro when finishing second to the prohibitive favorite. He left out for the lead and was overtaken by a longshot on the first turn, then he found himself sitting third at the half after another leadership change. When the eventual winner advanced first up in the last turn, Lous World was able to slide off the pylons and follow him. He chased the favorite home and held safe for second in a good effort. He took his lifetime mark of 1:51-flat here last summer and he fits okay in this field. I could see him scoring an upset tonight with the right trip.

#4 CODENAME CIGAR BOX was second at this level two starts back to a horse that came right back a week later to win at the Preferred 2 level. He then stepped up and he was an even fourth behind three rivals any of which would likely be favored in this field. He is in his best form right now and he should be in the mix versus these. I see him landing in the Tri or Super tonight.

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#1 COCO JOJO kicked off her four-year-old season with a dominant win as the huge favorite versus non-winners of three in early Mach, then she stepped up to face much tougher and almost won. Next, she tried the best older mares on the grounds and took a cheque in a decent effort, and all of those starts set her up for this Canadian Sired Graduate Series for Canadian sires four-year-old pacing mares. She served notice on April 18th that she intended to be the boss, going right down the road never facing a serious challenge. Now, in this final, she faces the same four mares that she beat that night, and it would be a big upset if any of that quartet knocked her off. She will be a popular single in the second leg of the Pick 5.

#5 COLLUSION HANOVER raced okay in her 2025 debut when beaten less than two lengths by some salty older mares. That decent effort got her bet down to second choice in the first leg of this series, and she sat a great trip in third most of the way before overtaking Sorcha Seelster at the end of the mile to finish second. I like that she got a tightener mile in last week where she sat at the back after leaving from the worst post and closed mildly at the end. Based on that recency edge, she seems like the one most likely to score the upset if the top choice falters tonight. In that first leg there was zero movement in the entire mile. They tend to race 'em more when there is $78,500 on the line like there is in this final.

#4 SORCHA SEELSTER sat the perfect trip in leg 1, riding in Coco Jojo's pocket, and she couldn't hold down the place spot in the end. She makes her fifth start of the year tonight, so I suppose there could be an argument that she will be at her sharpest now, but I prefer to use her on the bottom of the Tri based on what I saw in leg 1.

#2 ONE MORE BET followed along in leg 1 and finished a well beaten fourth, ahead of Resilience. She had a tightener a week later in the same race that was contested by Collusion Hanover, and she was beaten by one length by that foe. It seems as though another small share is the best that she can hope for in this final facing the same three rivals that she couldn't get close to in leg 1.

Race 3 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#4 ACAPULCO SUNBURN is one that was picked on top here last week based on the drop into a claimer and previous success he had at this track when in for a tag. He went off at 12 to 1, his bad post surely baked into his price, and he might have been best in that race, yet doomed by that post. He rallied best that night, but he had too far to come. Yet he flew home in 26 3/5 to get third in a sharp effort. He draws better tonight and is racing off the claim for a barn that is clicking with a 24 per cent win rate so far this year. He gets the nod.

#1 STASH IT AWAY is another that races off the claim and he comes out of the same race as the choice after holding that rival off by a neck for second, essentially saved by the wire. He started fast and grabbed the pocket in that race, rode it to the lane, then got a clear run up the pylons but he couldn't go with the winner late. He gets sent out by the second leading trainer here, and he gets Travis Cullen in the bike. He should be right there again.

#3 CABOT BEACH is interesting here invading from Ohio coming out of some decent conditioned fields and arriving in good form. He has raced at this track several times in the past and he took a 1:52 1/5 win here last February. He gets sent out by Team Ratchford and draws well. He is one that could trip out and come late to notch a surprise win. He merits a look for early multi-race tickets.

#6 LARCENY raced well in a preliminary leg of the last Pop Up series two starts back when he was aggressive at the start. He worked out a pocket trip that night, and he was closing on the leader in deep stretch. His trip in the final of that series wasn't as good as he drew poorly and dropped back at the start then had the impossible task of trying to come from last at the half when the leader was setting strong fractions throughout a 1:51 1/5 mile. He draws best now, and he will likely look to get a trip racing close to the front as he did two starts back. He can get a good piece of this if he finds a spot close to the front leaving the gate.

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#6 HAZARDOS was destined to get bet down from his 9 to 2 morning line quote last week for a variety of reasons: he looked like a faster racehorse at three as he has produced two final quarters in his qualifiers that were both faster than every one in his four races for purses last year. He came into that sophomore debut off a nice qualifying effort on April 14th when second to the well-regarded colt that won the Dream Maker final last year who had already jogged in a non-winners of three race following that qualifier. So, it was no surprise that he closed as the 7 to 5 favorite, nor that he powered home in 26 4/5 to get the job done. He gets the leading driver tonight in a spot where he looks good to repeat, and I'll stick with him.

#8 COASTINE is interesting here because he finished last season off with a bang in Indiana, scoring four straight wins but then he raced okay in his sophomore debut here on Monday night after he didn't set the world on fire in three qualifiers in April. After starting from the worst post and dropping back to last, he moved off the pylons at the head of the land and closed willingly between horses, passing a couple of rivals in the lane. He could be much better here starting from a better post, especially if he gets sent forward leaving the gate. He is worth using at a price in Exactor and Tri bets, and perhaps on deeper Pick 6, Pick 5 and Pick 4 tickets.

#10 TIP OF TIME showed some ability at two right at the start of his career, taking a second and a win in Grassroots races, and taking a mark of 1:54 2/5 in his second start. He certainly looks fast enough for these, and he looks well prepped in Florida by Doc Moore, most recently finishing second to millionaire Coach Stefanos who won the Breeders Crown for sophomore male pacers last fall. The biggest factor here is obviously post 10, but this Shadow Play colt showed he could leave in 26 1/5 from post nine last year in a Grassroots race. So, it comes down to intent and how hard he might get raced from out there with a full Ontario Sires Stakes buffet on his menu this summer. I'd demand a price understanding he is likely capable versus these, but could get a conservative drive.

#7 WICKED DANCER is another one in here that has had one race back, drew post 10, dropped to the back, and closed mildly that can and likely will improve tonight. He raced only four times at two, taking a win in his second start and going unplaced in the other three starts. I think he has a chance to close and sneak into the Tri or Super tonight.

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#2 LITE UP THE WORLD looked like he could be any kind and that the sky was the limit for him last year at two. His debut mile featured a wicked closing effort where he motored home in 25 4/5 to just miss. He followed that promising mile up with two identical 1:51 3/5 wins one at 1 to 5 and the next at 1 to 9. He was made the 1 to 9 favorite in the Dream Maker final with bettors fully expecting his win skein to continue. He broke at the start of that race and was distanced and he wasn't seen again at two. He looks ready to roll here based on his qualifier on April 21st where he went down the road and paced a 26 1/5 kicker while under no urging from regular driver James Macdonald. More importantly, he was well mannered and good gaited, showing no signs that he could go off stride. He gets the call to win at first asking as a three-year-old.

#5 TH KAY C CRUNCH had a decent rookie season last year, taking a win and earning close to $90,000. In his second start, he finished second to the top choice in this race, riding his pocket for most of the mile after taking the first lead, and he was beat less than two lengths. He was fast enough to land a spot in the Metro Pace final and he won a Pennsylvania Sires Stake in the summer. He comes into this race off two good qualifiers, and he is the likely beneficiary in this field if the choice falters.

#1 SMILING DANCER kicked off his career in the Prospect series last summer, and he performed well enough to work his way up to the Gold Level of the Ontario Sires Stakes, even taking a cheque in the $300,000 Superfinal in his last start of the season. He finished fast in both of his qualifiers leading to this sophomore debut, and he is probably a good one to use underneath tonight.

#9 FRANCO SANTANA N is a New Zealand invader that comes in off an interesting qualifier where he blazed to the opening quarter in 26-flat, backed the pace down to the tune of a 1:02 1/5 middle half, then sprinted home in 26 3/5 to preserve the win over TH Kay C Crunch. He has obvious high speed, but I think his issue in here is going to be post position as there are others that figure to leave. I'll use him underneath in this local debut.

Race 6 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#2 PAQUET showed flashes of brilliance in his three-year-old campaign after being unraced at two and based on his performances in the opening two legs of this series, he might be serving notice that he will be a horse to deal with in the older trotting ranks this year. His four-year-old debut was a workmanlike effort where he took the lead in a 29 2/5 second quarter then predictably never let any of his rivals get close. It was last week's winning effort that really caught the eye. He was raced more conservatively and seemingly in a bad spot on the last turn, but Jody Jamieson sent him wide, and it became apparent early in the stretch that he simply had a different gear than the leader and he would get there for the win despite needing to make up several lengths. He did something that night that a large majority of racehorse can't do. He is the obvious horse to beat in this final and he will almost surely get raced more aggressively. He could get bet down to 1 to 9 though and we will need to look for value underneath.

#3 WILLYS HOME RUN makes her third start back and after trying a first up approach that didn't work in leg 1, she took back from a wide post and trotted a 54 3/5 back half in defeat while not threatening. I think she could get a good covered trip here racing closer to the front as she will likely be buried, save ground then look for room late. I'll try to beat the obvious second choice Sid The Kid out of the Exacta with this mare.

#7 SID THE KID couldn't have raced any better in defeat last week. He just couldn't match strides with Paquet in the lane, but not many can. He has raced great for Doug McNair in both legs of this series, and it's very likely that he will be riding in Paquet's pocket this time. He has finished second in four straight starts and it will be no surprise if he adds a fifth runner up finish here.

#6 MRSTERY DEAL is a solid performer that tries hard every week, and he comes into this final having finished third in both preliminary legs. He has good tactical speed that he typically uses to get position early and that allows him to get inside following trips then come on late to take shares. He draws the best post for the third straight race, and he should be part of the Tri or Super again. He has taken shares in seven of 12 starts so far this season.

BEST BET: PAQUET

Race 7 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#7 JACK PANIC raced well last week in a tougher class chasing the claimed winner Nazare who no one was ever catching in that race. He left well enough to get position then tried a first-over move in the third quarter of that 1:49 2/5 mile. Neither he nor any other horse in that race could advance, but he paced an uncovered 27 2/5 final quarter and hung onto third. Now, he gets to drop to his lowest level since last July where he jogged in a race with the condition: horses that have started for a purse of $15,000 or less in one of last four starts. He is winless this year which is likely mostly due to the tough company he has been racing in. He has a good chance to get untracked here.

#2 PACINO HANOVER got to drop to this level last week in his fifth start back, and he almost pulled a rabbit out of a hat to take his second win of the season. After drawing the worst post, he dropped back to last and sat there until just past the opening quarter when he was sent to the outside, the first horse to move. By the time they reached the half, he found himself racing fifth-over. He kept advancing, following the eventual winner, and he passed them all except for that rival. He moves inside off that excellent effort, and he is an obvious horse to use on multi-race tickets in a spot where he will get raced more aggressively, and figures to get a better trip.

#9 SOUTHSIDE EDDY dropped to this level last week and he got much more aggressive, making a big move to the front in the third quarter and coming close to getting the job done. He led in the stretch for the first time since last December and only got passed for second late by Pacino Hanover. He obviously fits better at this level and his driver J.R. Plante isn't shy to send one from the outside. He will likely get overlooked at the windows tonight, and he is a price horse to consider for multi-race tickets.

#3 UNCLE SHANK A is another dropper that should improve tonight. He landed in a tough spot for his first start of 2025, facing Nazare and drawing post nine. He got to stretch his legs, now he faces easier and draws better. I could see him tripping out racing near the front and sticking around for a share. He is one to consider at a price for the bottom of Tri and Super bets.

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#6 JABBERWOCKY caught the eye two starts back finishing like a jet even though he was only fourth at the wire. He went off as the second choice last week off that effort and it wasn't surprising to see him blast and look for the pocket last week, hoping to sit then chase down Brue Hanover. He squandered that great trip and disappointingly didn't have the same kick after racing up on the pace. He draws best here, and he lands in a nine-horse field where it's likely some of them will mix it up early. He almost surely will revert to a closing style tonight, and he will definitely go off at a higher price. I'll stick with him and shoot for the upset.

#5 BRUE HANOVER shows all wins since he shipped north and it's hard to argue with perfection. In his most recent start, though, he looked – for the first time since shipping north in mid March – like a horse that might get beat this year. After setting reasonable fractions and turning for home with a clear lead, he saw that lead shrink late in the mile when sharp rival Write Me A Rose came calling. He prevailed while under Travis Cullen urging and Write Me A Rose ran out of racetrack. None of them win forever and he missed a week now. I'll try to beat him in this spot.

#9 WRITE ME A ROSE couldn't be any sharper right now, coming off a win where he took a third quarter breather then dug in and fought off the pocket sitter late. That followed a strong effort versus Brue Hanover where he was airborne late and ran out of real estate. He is a very fast racehorse when he is at the top of his game. His issue in this Preferred pace tonight is drawing the widest post. If he can float out and land in the top five early, he is in with a chance in this field.

#2 NAZARE was vicious last week when claimed, going right down the road from an outside post and not letting any rival get close to him, and taking a new life's mark in the process. He has been razor sharp since the end of March but this is a big step up in class to face the best older pacers on the grounds. He will likely race close to the front again tonight, and I think he can stick around for a share.

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#8 COZ IM SPECIAL moved in one post position tonight due to a late scratch, and that may not seem significant, but she just won from this same post eight at this class level, so, it doesn't mean nothing either. In that winning mile, she was sent first up in the third quarter, and she edged past tough rival Ms Quick Sand, then held safe to the wire. She faces a similar field tonight and she gets the call to repeat off that game victory.

#4 CHICKABELL takes a class jump here racing off the Garry Merner claim, and she almost certainly will close at a square price after going off as the favorite at odds of 6 to 5 or lower in five of her last six starts. She has been raced aggressively in most of those races, winning four of them while finishing second once and third once. She has the feel of a mare that James Macdonald will keep covered up for most of the mile on the class rise tonight, then pounce late with to score the upset and she is one to consider as a potential value play for multi-race tickets.

#7 STYLE FOR A MILE disappointed as the big favorite here on April 12th after returning from New Jersey where she raced well in defeat two starts back on March 28th. All four of her wins in 2024 came at this racetrack at higher levels than tonight, so there is no question that the speed and talent are there when she is on her game. I don't love the stale date for her, but it is foolish to completely dismiss any horse that this barn sends to the track at this point. Her price will surely be much better than 1 to 5 tonight, too.

#3 BETTERNOTMACHME is one that brings the same race to the track almost every week, She will blast off the gate and likely be the first leader heading into the opening turn. Then she will let one or two go and accept a trip where she rides a helmet throughout, then she will look to rally late. That style has served her well so far this year as she has taken three wins and six other shares in 13 starts. It seems unlikely that she can beat all of these, but I see her sticking around to land in the bottom of the Tri or Super.

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#1 CENTURY KOMODO followed up his spectacular closing win on April 12th with a workmanlike front end win in the first leg of this series last week where he got an easy ride to the three quarters, then sprinted home in 26 4/5 to seal the deal. It was kind of amazing that he did not go off favored last week, coming off a sensational win in his previous start. I don't think the rail is a bad post in this spot, and I'll stick with him in this Canadian Sires Graduate Series Final.

#5 FUNTIME BAYAMA got over bet down to favorite over the choice last week, possibly getting hammered down to partially based on reputation. As it turned out, he was content to follow to the last turn then he popped out and tried to get past the choice racing first-over in the fastest quarter of the race. He got picked off for second on the wire by the horse that sat last and saved his move for the lane. That wasn't a bad effort for a horse that hadn't raced since last July, and I give him more of a chance to beat the choice tonight than I did last week.

#4 CHAIN GANG was in to go on April 28th, but his 2025 debut was put on hold due to sickness. He came back a week later in the first leg of this series and he raced great considering he was coming off a sickness. He sat to the three quarters where he pulled and followed Funtime Bayama to the lane, then he powered down the middle of the track in deep stretch to catch Funtime Bayama for second. While he isn't without a chance tonight, he could be at a tactical disadvantage in this short field, and he offers no value as a 9 to 5 shot in the morning line. I prefer to use him underneath in this spot.

#3 MERIGO MAGIC was the first leader last week then he accepted the pocket trip following Century Komodo to the three quarters where he popped out and took his shot. That tactic didn't work out as he ended up last of five. He can take a share here if he stays covered up longer then looks to rally in the stretch and he could sneak into the bottom of the Tri with some racing luck.

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#1 JK VICTORY has been a good horse for The Stable, and he lands in a cozy spot in this Pop Up series because he has not earned an average of $1,700 per start so far in 2025. He has a stale date, but I wonder if he was stopped on to make sure he didn't exceed the earnings threshold. The 1:50-flat win that he recorded in March at The Meadows stands out on this page, and if he is tight enough having missed four weeks, he should get the job done versus this group. The question here is what price are you willing to accept when considering this horse's inactivity.

#6 SERIOUSLY HANOVER is winless this year so far, but he comes out of a good race where he was raced aggressively and stuck around for a share, and he fits well in this spot. That effort followed a race where he went first up and chased and unyielding Wheels On Fire to the wire. He is at his sharpest now, and he will likely get sent hard again starting from the best post. He has a decent chance to win here either leading all the way of racing from the pocket and he is the other one that I would consider using in the late Pick 4 and Pick 5.

#5 CENTURY INSPECTOR is one that will catch the eye of trip handicappers based on last week's mile. He was the first leader heading into the opening turn, then ended up being third on the rail at the half following two leadership changes. He was under a big Jody Jamieson hold on the far turn as he awaited somewhere to race. That room never appeared until deep stretch when there were only a few strides left in the race, and he had no time to pass rivals. He could do here with a clean trip, and he is another contender in with a chance.

#7 GENTLEONMYMIND had no chance in the Pop Up series final after dropping to the back at the start then trying in vain to close in a 1:51 1/5 mile. He has a good late kick on his best day, and he should be helped by the small field here. I could see him passing a few of these in the final quarter and getting up for a small share. He is worth considering for the bottom of the Tri and Super.

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#5 BEN LOOKIN is making a habit of floating out, letting the dust settle, then marching to the front in the middle of the race, and that strategy paid off with a big win over non-winners of two last week. Despite being required to pace a 54 1/5 middle half to make front, he still drew off and crushed his rivals while taking a new life's mark. He closed as the 6 to 5 favorite that night and converted in style. Now, stepping up to face non-winners of three, his price should be better. I'll stick with him off that impressive score.

#1 WALLACE HARTLEY was one that was expected to do well coming back from a break last week, and he absolutely raced his eyeballs out in defeat. After making front from the best post, he was defiant on the backstretch, but that strategy got him embroiled in a three-wide battle. He fought off both of those rivals but lost the war to the pocket sitter. He can get a better trip tonight likely following a helmet after starting from the rail post, and he is a contender right back.

#7 HONOLULU VACATION is a sharp rival that beat the choice here on April 19th, then came right back to score again at tonight's non-winners of three level, converting as the lukewarm 5 to 2 favorite. He got as perfect a trip as you could map out that night. After forging to the front leaving the gate, he sat the pocket and watched a trio of rivals engage in a three-wide war on the backstretch. He got a clear shot at the softened up leader in the lane and got past him for the repeat score. He had racing luck in his favor, but horses that can leave for position often get those kinds of trips. He is a contender right back in the same class tonight.

#8 SAUBLE WILSON exits the same race won by Honolulu Vacation and he got a worse trip than that rival and landed third in a good sophomore debut effort. After getting hung out three wide bidding for the front on the first turn, he wisely dropped in fourth and followed the wild action to the lane. He got jammed up early in the stretch looking for room the eventually found some on the inside. He raced evenly to the wire, and he could go much better here moving in two posts. He is another in with a shot here.

#10 FIFTH AND FIVE will get some attention here because he was an Ontario Sires Stakes Gold winner at three and he took a cheque in the end of season Superfinal. While I don't for a second doubt his quality, I'm willing to take a shot against him starting his season from post 10 in a field with several sharp rivals. There is no reason to over race him from the widest post with a ton of stakes money on the table this summer.

CONDITIONS AND ALLOWANCES IN HARNESS RACING - IMPORTANT TO KNOW

The conditions of a race determine whether a horse is eligible to enter. For example many races are restricted to horses that have won a certain number of races or a certain amount of money in a specified number of starts. Many races are restricted to horses entered to be "claimed" (offered for sale) at a specific price.

Allowances in the claiming price itself are given to colts and geldings, four-year-olds and younger and to mares, five-year-olds and younger.

The purpose of the allowance is to keep younger horses more competitive when racing against older and more experienced rivals. Mares are given extra consideration in claiming events because of their potential as broodmares.

The accompanying chart shows what the allowances are, but an example may make them easier to understand. The chart indicates that three-year-olds receive a 50% allowance in claiming races. This means that a three-year-old entered in a $20,000 claiming race carries an actual claiming price of $30,000 (50% higher).

Fillies and mares receive an additional 25% allowance in claiming races. Details of the race conditions and claiming price (if any) are given at the top of each race in the program.

	CLAIMING RACES	ALLOWANCES	CONDITION RACES
2 year olds	100%		50% on 2024 earnings
3 year olds	50%		25% on 2024 earnings 50% on 2023 earnings
4 year olds	25%		25% on 2023 earnings

ALLOWANCES FOR PURSE EARNINGS

When Fillies/Mares compete against Colts/Geldings (normally on the trot) Fillies/Mares will receive an additional 25% on the condition of the race.
ie: nw $5,000 (FM $6,250) last 5 or $12,000 (FM $15,000) last 10 starts.

C.P.M.A. Regulation Changes

Effective January 1st 2012

CPMA will be instituting several new rule changes with regards to the following pari-mutuel pools:

Pick Pools

- If there are no winners in any leg of a Pick N pool, the entire pool is refunded.
- If there is a change of surface in any leg that is NOT made known to the public prior to wagering for that pool closing, that leg will pay on all runners.
- A pool is no longer refunded if the 1st leg in the pool is cancelled or declared no contest.
- Pick-3: If at least 2 legs are declared no contest or cancelled, the pool is refunded.
- Pick-4, 5 or 6: If at least 3 legs are declared no contest or cancelled, the pool is refunded.

EXPLANATION OF THE LASIX PROGRAM

After careful study and consultation with Ontario Horsemen's groups, racetrack operators and veterinarians, Agriculture Canada and the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario passed legislation allowing the controlled (or supervised) administration of furosemide, more commonly called "Lasix". "Lasix" is used to alleviate the symptoms of exercise induced pulmonary hemorrhaging in racing horses. Horses will undergo an endoscopic examination of the trachea by a veterinarian licensed by the Ontario Racing Commission and endorsed by an official veterinarian before being allowed on the medication list. Once qualified, horses will be treated with "Lasix" within four hours plus or minus 15 minutes of a scheduled race in a secure retention area under the super vision of racing officials. All horses on "Lasix" must remain on the program for a minimum of 100 days while racing in this jurisdiction.

- L Denotes horses treated with Lasix.
-  Denotes horses treated with Lasix today who were not so treated for their last start.
-  Denotes horses treated with Lasix for their last start but not so treated today.

Pari-mutuel wagering and drug control services are provided under the supervision of the Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency, an agency of Agriculture and the Minister of Agriculture. All pari-mutuel pools are calculated and distributed in accordance with the Pari-Mutuel Betting Regulations. The Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency can be contacted at 1-800-268-8835 or locally at 613-759-6100 or E-Mail: cpmawebacpm@agr.gc.ca

RULES AND INFORMATION REGARDING CANADIAN HARNESS AND FOREIGN SEPARATE POOL EVENTS

GENERAL

All pari-mutuel pools are calculated and distributed in accordance with the regulations and directives as issued by Agriculture and Agri-Food Canada ("The Regulations"), under the approval and supervision of the Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency. The Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency can be contacted at 1-800-268-8835 or 613-759-6100 or Email: cpmawebacpm@agr.gc.ca. A complete version of the CPMA regulations can be found at <http://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/regulations/SOR-91-365/>.

All tickets should be held until the result of the race is declared official and prices are posted.

No person under the age of 18 shall purchase or cash a ticket or voucher.

A claim of receiving an incorrect payment or incorrect change must be made to the Mutuel office of the association within twenty four hours of buying or cashing a valid ticket or voucher.

No ruling made by the Stewards/Judges or the Ontario Racing Commission with regard to distribution of purse money or the placing of horses in the order of finish, after the race has been declared official, shall have any bearing on the pay-out prices or distribution of pari-mutuel pools.

Change boards and Photo Finish display monitors are located in the Grandstand. In addition, Photo Finish pictures are shown on the closed-circuit television system. Customers are reminded that mutuel clerks are responsible for all shortages. When making a wager, customers must present sufficient funds at the time of purchase to cover the wagers requested.

ENTRIES AND MUTUEL FIELDS

"Entry" means two or more horses in the same race which, for the purpose of pari-mutuel betting, are coupled or considered as the same betting interest. The most common reason for the coupling of horses in an Entry is the fact that they are owned by the same person.

"Mutuel Field" means two or more horses in the same race which, for the purpose of pari-mutuel betting, are coupled because the number of horses in the race exceeds the number which can be handled separately by the pari-mutuel system. Subject to the Regulations, a bet on one horse of an Entry or Mutuel Field shall be considered a bet on all horses in that Entry or Mutuel Field.

DAILY DOUBLE BETTING (INCLUDING LATE DOUBLE)

A Daily Double bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of the two races specified for the Daily Double. Tickets not selecting the winner of the first half of the Daily Double and all tickets in the second half of the Daily Double not coupled with the declared official winner of the first half of the Daily Double are not winners and are not refunded no matter what circumstances affect the running of the second half of the Daily Double.

Should a horse or horses (not coupled with another starter) be excused from starting in the second race of the Daily Double after the first race of the Daily Double has closed for betting, holders of all Daily Double tickets on such horses, coupled with the winner of the first Daily Double race, shall participate in a Consolation Double pool. (Effective Jan 1, 2012)

EXACTA (Also known as Exactor)/TRIFECTA (Also known as Triactor)/SUPERFECTA

An Exacta, Trifecta, Superfecta is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the first two, three and four horses respectively, representing different betting interests to finish in the exact official order of finish, in the race on which the pool is operated.

SWINGER (Also known as OMNI)

A Swinger is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select horses to finish in any order from the official first 3 positions.

JACKPOT HI-5

A Jackpot Hi-5 bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the exact order of finish of the first 5 runners in the specified Jackpot Hi-5 race. If there are races that have an entry, (i.e. 1 & 1A and/or 2 & 2B), Jackpot Hi-5 will not offer a wager consisting of both halves of the same betting interest. Example: If the same betting interest finishes first and second in a Jackpot Hi-5, the payout would be 1st, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th.

That jackpot portion of the pool will only be paid out if there is a single winning ticket. If there are multiple winning tickets that have correctly chosen the first 5 runners of the race, they will receive 50% of the pool for that day. The other 50% will go over into the Jackpot carryover. If there are no winning tickets with the exact order of finish of the first 5 runners, 100% of the current day's pool will be carried over into the Jackpot.

PICK 3 & PICK 4 BETTING

The Pick 3 & Pick 4 bets are betting transactions in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of three or four successive races specified for the Pick 3 & Pick 4 respectively.

Winning tickets for the Pick 3 & Pick 4 are determined in the following sequence: A) winners of all legs, B) most winners, then refund. If there is a change of surface in any leg that is NOT made known to the public prior to wagering for that pool closing, that leg will pay on all runners. If there are no winners in any leg of a pool, the entire pool is refunded.

PICK 5 BETTING

The Pick 5 bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of five successive races specified for the Pick 5 respectively.

If no one has correctly selected all 5 winners, the entire net pool is carried over to the next available PICK 5.

PICK 6 BETTING

The Pick 6 bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of six successive races specified for the Pick 6 respectively.

If no one has correctly selected all 6 winners, the entire net pool is carried over to the next available PICK 6.

PICK 5 & 6 BETTING

If at least 1 race as part of the Pick 5 or 6 has been cancelled or declared "No contest", but not more than the specified below under Refunds, the net pool shall be distributed to those selecting the most # of winners and NOT include any carryover from a previous pool.

PICK 3, PICK 4, PICK 5 & PICK 6 SCRATCHES

In the event a Pick 3, Pick 4, Pick 5 or Pick 6 ticket designates as a selection a horse which is scratched, excused or determined by the Stewards/Judges to be a non-starter in any of the races comprising the Pick 3, Pick 4, Pick 5 or Pick 6 the favourite, as evidenced by the amount wagered in the win pool at the time of the start of the race in which the scratch occurred, will be substituted for the non-starting selection. In the event that the money bet in the win pool for two or more favourites is identical, the selection with the lowest program number shall be substituted for the non-starting selection.

However, if a scratch occurs in any leg of the Pick 3, Pick 4, Pick 5 or Pick 6 pools before the pool is closed, a ticket including the scratched horse may be cancelled.

REFUNDS

Subject to the Regulations, all monies in all pools on a race are refunded in the event that the race is cancelled, declared off or declared no contest, and all monies bet on a horse are refunded if the horse is a late scratch or does not receive a fair start. These refunds will be communicated to the public through various means such as betting terminals, video display, changes boards and our website.

The Pick(n) pool shall be cancelled and all Pick(n) wagers for the individual performance shall be refunded if:

- Pick-3: at least 2 legs are declared no contest or cancel. (Effective Jan 1, 2012)
- Pick-4, 5 or 6: at least 3 legs are declared no contest or cancel. (Effective Jan 1, 2012)

Where a horse that is part of an Entry is a late scratch or does not receive a fair start and at least one horse of that Entry receives a fair start in the race, all tickets purchased on the Entry remain valid and the purchase price of any such ticket shall not be refunded.

COMMON POOL WAGERING (INTERTRACK BETTING)

In the unlikely event of a communications or computer system failure that prevents pools from merging with the host track's pools before the end of a race, CPMA regulations require that the site must refund all tickets for that race. This refund will be communicated to the public through various means such as video displays, change boards and messages on our website.

FAIR START

If a horse has reached the Fair Start Pole (located 200 feet before the Starting Pole) by the time the mobile gate has reached the Starting Pole, that horse is deemed to have had a fair start. It makes no difference whether or not the horse is on or off stride at that precise moment. Under current policy and regulations, which are designed to be as fair as possible to all bettors on all starters, there is no Recall - a repeat of the entire starting procedure - when a horse does not reach the Fair Start Pole before the gate reaches the Starting Pole. Monies bet on such a horse are refunded in accordance with the regulation concerning refunds.

LOST & OLD TICKETS

WEG issued tickets or vouchers are valid indefinitely, however, they cannot be cashed at a mutuel teller after 2 years from date of issue. Please mail tickets, along with your name and address, to Mutuel Manager, P.O. Box 156, Rexdale, Ontario, M9W 5L2, keeping a photocopy for future reference.

For "Lost Tickets" originally sold at a Woodbine Entertainment Group racetrack or Teletheatre, please enquire at the Mutuel office at Woodbine, Greenwood Teletheatre, or Mohawk. Policy may be subject to change retroactively in the event regulatory bodies amend existing regulations.

ASSOCIATION PERCENTAGE, AND TAXATION/LEVY

The Woodbine Entertainment Group deducts and retains the following percentages from wagers placed at our own licensed sites which are then shared with the horsepeople, host and simulcast associations and the Ontario Racing Commission.

WOODBINE MOHAWK LIVE: Win, Place & Show: 13.65%. Swinger 14.7%. Trifecta & Pick 4: 21.7%. Double & Exakta 17.2%. Jackpot Hi-5, Pick 5 & Pick 6: 11.7%. All other 23.0%

Horsepeople receive a further 2% on all wagers, except Trifecta wagering where it is 4%. The Ontario Provincial Government retains 0.5% on all bets placed in Ontario. The Canadian Government (through a revolving fund cost recovery basis) retains 0.8% on all wagers placed in Canada for provision of drug control, and audit services.

While every effort is made to provide accurate information in the program, Woodbine Entertainment Group assumes no liability for errors or omissions.
