Betting Basics

Some essentials to get you started with making a wager.

1 How to wager

Place your bet by visiting a teller, or using a self-serve terminal.

To place a bet here are just 5 things you need to know:

- 1 Name of racetrack (choose from any track in the simulcast feeds)
- 2 Number of the race
- 3 Amount of your bet (e.g. $2)
- 4 Type of bet (see step 2)
- 5 Horse's number (see step 4)

Once you have decided what you want to bet, head to the nearest seller's window and use the sample statement as your guide:

Hello, (Racetrack), race 6, $2 to WIN on Horse #4

How to use a self-serve terminal:

- 1 Swipe your Cash Card/Insert Cash
- 2 Enter the initial PIN #1234 (then choose a new PIN)
- 3 Press/Tap the track you would like to bet: (defaults to current race)
- 4 Tap the Horse Number: #4
- 5 Press/Tap the Bet Type: WIN
- 6 Press/Tap the Bet Amount: $2
- 7 Press/Tap the Race Number: Race #6
- 8 Press Green "Make BET" button
- 9 Press/Tap the "Finish with Receipt" button
- 10 Be sure to check your ticket to confirm it's the bet you wanted

To get a Cash Card or for assistance ask a teller, or a staff member.

2 Types of bets

Single horse bets (minimum $2.00 bet is required)

Bet type	Level of difficulty	Explanation and expectation
Win	U U U	Your horse must finish 1st; payoff determined by the win odds.
Place	U U	Your horse must finish 1st or 2nd; payoffs better than to show.
Show	U	Your horse must finish 1st, 2nd, or 3rd; modest payoffs.

Exotic multiple-horse bets

Bet type	Level of difficulty	Explanation and expectation
Exacta*	U U U U	Your horses must finish 1st and 2nd in exact order; riskier bet that can pay a little or a lot, depending on the horses' odds.
Daily double	U U U U U	Pick the winners of two designated consecutive races.
Pick 3, Win 4, Pick 5, Pick 6	U U U U U U	Select the winners of a designated set of consecutive races. The wager must be made prior to the start of the first race in the multi-race wager.
Triactor*	U U U U U U U	Your horses must finish 1st, 2nd, and 3rd in exact order; can be expensive to play if you use a lot of horses.
Superfecta*	U U U U U U U U	Your horses must finish 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th; big payoff possible.

* Exotic bets require the horses to finish in the EXACT order you select, unless you "BOX" the bet, in which case your selections can finish in any order.

All of the numbers and letters in the program might seem confusing or overwhelming at first, but focusing on these sections makes choosing a horse simple.

- Horse's number in the race
- Horse's post position colour
- Horse's colour, sex, age, sire (father), dam (mother), sire of the dam
- Morning line odds
- Horse's name
- Driver and Driver Record (Name, # of wins, # of 2nds, # of 3rds, winning %)

- Trainer information
- Horse's Lifetime record (with best win time, track size, track, age, lifetime wins and lifetime earnings)
- Horse's current record (# of races, # wins, # of 2nds, # of 3rds, and money earned)

4 The odds

Odds are also important to consider when choosing your horse. Horses that are thought to have a better chance of winning will typically have lower odds.

Morning line odds

Odds listed in the race program are the "morning line" odds. These are predictions of how the public will bet on the race. They are set by the track's handicapper when the race program is published, before the wagering starts.

The actual odds will be posted on the Television or in-field on the Tote Board before the race; they change up until post time, depending on how customers are betting on each horse in the race.

Calculating a $2 win prize

To calculate a win prize, find the Odds of a horse on the Television or Tote Board (in-field board).

Multiply the first number by 2, then divide that number by the second digit (if there is one), and then add $2. Simple as that!

Odds	1/2	2/1	7/2	5/1	10/1
Pays	$3.00	$6.00	$9.00	$12.00	$22.00

Helpful facts for betting

- Some racetracks have a television simulcast commentator who tries to identify winning horses (handicaps) between the races. Listen and see if you can pick up any good tips to bet on.
- A good betting method is to choose horses with current odds two to three times higher than their morning line odds.

3 Tips to remember

WIN BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 32% of the time
PLACE BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 53% of the time
SHOW BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 67% of the time

* Numbers listed above are approximate, may vary by racetrack.

WOODBINE™

Woodbine Entertainment and its' employees are honoured to engage in the sport of horse racing and entertainment activities in the meeting place of Etobicoke. Woodbine Racetrack is located within the traditional and treaty Lands of the Mississaugas of the Credit. Known as Aadoobiigok, the "Place of the Alders" in Michi Saagiig language, the region is uniquely situated along the Humber River Watershed, which historically provided an integral connection for Anishinaabe, Haudenosaunee, and Wendat peoples between the Ontario Lakeshore and Lake Simcoe/Georgian Bay regions. The territory is covered by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, an agreement between the Anishinaabe and the Haudenosaunee to peaceably take care of the land and resources around the Great Lakes. Woodbine is honoured to care for this land, our human and equine athletes, and provide a place to race responsibly.

Race 1 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#8 LANDING ON TIME makes his first start for new connections here tonight after changing hands in November following a decent rookie season. He made it known in his April 28th qualifier that he is ready to do battle. After being sent straight to the front, and never let any rivals get close and he stepped off a 56 1/5 back half and powered home in 27 3/5. We know that he fires fresh because he jogged in 1:56 4/5 in his career debut here last July. He faced some good colts last year and he took a share in the lucrative Kentucky Sires Stakes Final. If he reproduces the same impressive mile from his April 28th qualifier, his rivals will likely be racing for second tonight. He gets the call to kick off tonight's $75,000 guaranteed Pick 5.

#5 GO BLUE comes off a decent effort that was a bit adventurous shortly after the start of the mile. He was intent on showing speed starting from the widest post, and both he and the horse lined up directly to his left got carried wide around the first turn when a rival broke stride and tried to get to the outside and out of harm's way. He managed to drop into the pocket and follow to the last turn where he popped out to mount a challenge. He took over the lead and looked good to the eighth pole where he was passed by a rival that was taking a second straight win, and the early breaker who then got set back for interference. I'm not sure that he can beat the top pick if that one brings his best effort, but he should be an Exacta factor in this spot.

#10 FRENCH VODKA took a while to get going in his rookie season last year, but he turned things around in his fourth start where he was beaten only a head, then he parlayed that strong effort with a win and a second to finish off the year. His two qualifiers are fine, but he is up against it here kicking off his sophomore season starting from the widest post. I think he drops back and rallies here, and he can round out the Tri or Super.

#7 EXTENDED SESSION is a $220,000 Lexington sale grad that looked terrific winning his first three starts last year. He then broke stride three times in a row, requalified, and showed speed and stopped in a Grand Circuit race as a 5 to 2 second choice. I don't love either of his qualifiers and I'll take a wait and see approach with him tonight.

Race 2 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#2 CONTROL ROCKS had a nice sophomore debut here last week, which was a big improvement on his debut at two, which was his only race for a purse in his rookie season. In last week's mile, he took back at the start then commenced an outside move at the half. He ended up third-over on cover that never advanced much so he was peeled to the far outside turning for home. He ran in a couple of times in early stretch and had to be steadied, but once he got his stride straightened out, he flew late, and he was going best at the wire. The 27 2/5 kicker that he produced was unsurprising when you consider that he paced a 26 4/5 final quarter in his qualifier on April 25th. He is clearly improved and faster, and trainer Jack Darling will likely get the running in issue remedied quickly. He gets top billing here in what looks like a good spot for him.

#1 WICKED EXPRESS brings an 0 for 5 record to the track tonight, and he has finished in the runner up spot in four of those five starts, but there is reason to believe that tonight could be his night to graduate. In his sophomore debut last Friday, he raced first up against a leading 2 to 5 shot that set a moderate pace to the three quarters then fired a 27 3/5 kicker which was the fastest quarter of the race. He ended up third, elevated to second due to a pylon violation by the runner up. I could see him getting the job done tonight if he can work out a better trip.

#6 CORPORATE BUSINESS has had a busy season so far, already making 13 starts from which he has taken a win and five other shares. Last week, he left out hard enough to find the pocket following a sharp Shawn Steacy trainee. He rode a perfect trip to the lane where he took his shot on the leader and was gaining gradually to fall short by a half a length. He finished ahead of the top pick in this race, but he obviously got a much better trip in that race. He draws best and he surely will get put into the race, but I couldn't take a short win price on him here considering that he is one for 17 lifetime.

#9 SHADOW OF AN ANGEL is a three-year-old Shadow Play gelding that qualified twice last year but never made it to the races. He shows two qualifiers this spring, the second one much better and faster than the first and he could be a good one to use on the bottom of the Tri and Super at what will likely be a big price in this debut.

Race 3 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#7 GREEN GLIDER had a terrific tightener for this SBOA elimination which should set her up for a good try here in this strong field. After dropping back to last of nine from the widest post, she moved outside past the half and ended up on fourth-over cover. In the stretch, she cut inside and closed with a flourish for third, trotting a 26 3/5 kicker which was the fastest final quarter in the race. Moving up from non-winners of two she faces much tougher here but that will help her price. She can leave much quicker than she did last week; in both of her wins last season she led most of the way. I'll side with her expecting to get a square price.

#5 LIL SWEET, last season's winner of the $300,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Superfinal, indicated that she is ready to roll in this sophomore debut with a dominant qualifying win on April 28th. After setting a moderate early pace, she kicked home to an impressive win with driver Doug McNair keeping her to task with only mild encouragement. She was so dominant in that mile that the #4 in this race finished five and a half lengths back in second then it was another eight and a half lengths back to the filly that finished third. She is sharp and dangerous, and she would obviously be no surprise in this spot.

#1 EXQUISITE TASTE couldn't be entering this stake elimination any sharper, having won all three of her starts as a sophomore, beating males in two of those three races. This follows a rookie season where she was winless in 11 starts, but she did finish third to Lil Sweet in the Superfinal. She has shown herself to be versatile in the tree victories this year, and she is another sharp filly in with a chance in a great betting race.

#4 TELLERS CHOICE couldn't stay with Lil Sweet in that qualifier on April 28th, but they don't pay purses for those races, and she likely got what she needed out of it in preparation for this sophomore debut. She comes off a good rookie season highlighted by a dominant win in the Grassroots final, followed up by a fourth in the Superfinal in a mile where she got an impossible long trip. She should be part of the Tri or Super tonight.

#9 FUNNY BUSINESS is one that I am going to try here on blind faith with the switch to leading trainer Menary's barn. He continues to strike at a very high rate, connecting with 37 per cent of his starters for wins. He excels with horses that move into his barn. Two that come to mind are Brue Hanover, who is six for six racing out of the Menary barn since shipping north, and Century Komodo, who won his first two starts for Menary then fell a nose short in the Ontario Graduate Final. This filly comes in off a decent effort in the Ontario Spring Series final, and she should offer a good price here starting from an outside post.

#3 DARLENES ANGEL won only one time in 10 starts last year, but she faced some tough fillies on many occasions, and she did hit the board in an OSS Gold Race. She produced a nice closing effort in her sophomore debut here on May 2nd, sitting in until the top of the stretch then rallying widest for third while running in a bit in the lane. She kicked in 27-flat and also flashed home in 26 2/5 in her qualifier on April 25th. She draws better tonight, and she can get a better trip. She is one that merits a look for early multi-race tickets.

#1 ONEFORMYBABY is one of two Millar Farms fillies making their sophomore debuts here. This daughter of Hes Watching comes in off a decent rookie campaign where she broke her maiden in a Grassroots race and was a close fourth in the $175,000 Battle Of The Belles. Her two qualifiers signal that she is ready: On April 25th, she powered home in 27-flat to win then she finished a distant second to the mighty undefeated Chantilly. Trevor Henry, who drove her a couple of times last year takes the lines tonight and he will likely put her into play from the rail. She is another one that can win in this competitive field.

#4 SUGAR PIE HONEY is the other Nick Galucci trained Millar Farms filly in here and she also had a decent rookie campaign where she took two wins and three other shares in nine starts and was a good third in the Harvest Series Final in her last start in the fall. She was conservatively driven in her two qualifiers which is common tactics from the leading driver as he aims to save for races with purses. Her closing for second in both indicates that she is ready for action, and she should be in the mix tonight.

Race 5 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#3 SILKY CHOICE kicked home in 26 3/5 in his lone qualifier this spring on April 25th indicating that he was ready for his sophomore debut. Unfortunately for him, he drew post 10, and winning from there has been close to mission impossible so far this year. After getting plugged in sixth early in the mile, he moved third-over around the final turn and closed with good energy to finish fourth, while coming home in 27 1/5. Now, he draws much better and he should be tighter. I think regular driver Jody Jamieson will put him into play leaving the gate tonight and he gets top billing.

#2 NOVA BLU comes into this race off a strong first-over effort where he made a big first-over move to get into contention in the third quarter. He forged to the front turning for home, but in the process, he was providing golden cover for the 7 to 5 favorite. That rival simply got too good of a trip, and he was not going to be denied. That was the second strong first-over effort in a row for this Tall Dark Stranger gelding. He can do in this spot if he can find a live helmet to follow this time.

#1 FREIGHT DAYS AWEEK raced great in defeat last week, while finishing a length and a quarter ahead of the choice. After floating out in fourth, he drove on around the opening turn and headed to the front. Soon, he would be overtaken by the 2 to 5 favorite and eventual winner. After the first-over horse dropped in front of him when the leader started to pull away, he angled out in the lane and came on again to get second. He was set back to third due to a pylon violation, but that didn't take away from his solid effort. He has the gate speed to get away well from the rail, and he is in with a shot tonight.

#7 COOKIE AIR was bet down to even money favorite last time based on a nice closing effort in his sophomore debut on April 21st. In his second start back, he floated out and let the dust settle then he drove on to the front, but it took him close to three eighths of a mile to clear. He was still right there at the eighth pole, but he got passed by three rivals in deep stretch. I think he reverts to closing tactics tonight and closes for a share.

Race 6 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#5 MONALISHI was nothing short of outstanding last year, earning more than a half a million while taking two Grand Circuit wins and an OSS Superfinal victory and winning divisional honors at the 'O'Brien Awards. Her most impressive win was a 1:52 2/5 score in the Peaceful Way final where she stormed home from the back. She signalled that her rivals will probably be in for more of the same as sophomores with her 1:54 4/5 blowout qualifying win a week ago. Beat her to greet the cashier.

#6 BRIGHT GREEN has already had four starts this spring and she is starting to peak now, coming in off a 1:55 1/5 front end score on April 24th. She draws best in here and she will likely get put into the race by regular driver Louis-Phillipe Roy leaving the gate, but she would probably need to drop two seconds to challenge the choice, assuming that rival brings her A game tonight. She had finished in the top three in nine of her 14 starts and she is a good one to use underneath tonight.

#2 SPRITE SEELSTER followed up on a nice qualifying victory with an even better winning performance last week. After dropping back early from post eight, she moved to the outside in the third quarter, but she gapped cover on the final turn while the 1 to 2 favorite moved on the leader. She looked beaten until inside the eighth pole where she showed grit and courage to get past the leader while trotting a 27-flat kicker racing over a wet track. She is razor sharp, but she is in tough here. I see her rounding out the Tri or Super tonight.

#7 NOT PASSABLE is one that was tabbed as a Best Bet here last week in her debut based on an excellent winning effort in a qualifier on April 18th. Last week she was driven conservatively to the stretch, but perhaps also confidently, because once she found a lane and was pointed to open racetrack, she motored up on the far outside to bail out the chalk players. That was an impressive effort, but she steps into the deep end tonight and a small share is likely her ceiling tonight.

#3 TRICKY WICKY made her sophomore debut on April 25th off two good qualifying miles, and she raced well in defeat in that spot. After flashing 27-flat opening quarter speed to make front, she was passed by the 8 to 5 favorite at the half, then she sat the pocket and followed while the first up challenger got up to take her third consecutive win in 2025. Pacing a 1:53 3/5 mile with a 27 2/5 kicker was a good start to her three-year-old season, and she fits well in this field. She gets the nod to take her first win of the year.

#1 SPOILED BEAUTY had missed a week when she lined up on the gate last week, but she still was intent on making front early, driving on between horses going into the first turn to assert herself on the engine. She was passed on the backstretch by the big favorite who went on to take the lead and this filly followed her home, staying for fourth. She can be sharper tonight, and she will likely look for a helmet to follow starting from the rail. I could see her tripping out and getting the job done in this spot. She is one to consider for late multi-race tickets at what should be a square price.

#6 WICKED CRUIZER had a decent rookie season, taking two wins from eight starts and two minor shares while amassing more than $38,000 in earnings. She showed that she can race well fresh when she finished third in her debut in a $95,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Gold race. In her most recent qualifier on April 28th, she followed a colt around the track that won a Grand Circuit race at two and just missed in the Battle of Waterloo. She should be well prepped for this sophomore debut, and she is worth a look starting from the best post tonight.

#8 OUTTATHISWORLD DEO raced well at the end of 2024, taking a leg and the final of the Harvest Series while taking a mark of 1:53-flat in the final. So, we know that she has the speed to go with these. She didn't show much in her sophomore debut, but she did kick in 27 2/5 which should have her sharper for this second start back. She gets off the rail post tonight which could facilitate a better spot closer to the front early in this mile. She is one to consider for the bottom of the Tri and Super at what should be a good price.

Race 8 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#6 COVER BAND showed a gap of three weeks between his last qualifier and his sophomore debut last week, but he still got bet down to 3 to 1 third choice and the way he raced justified the attention that he got at the windows. After settling in mid pack early, he moved first up in the third quarter then had the second choice pull late in front of him briefly sending him three wide on the final turn. He then followed that rival's cover to the lane and took a while to get in high gear in the stretch. In the final eighth, he closed best to finish a clear second. Returning in a week, he should be sharper, and he draws the best post tonight. He is the clear top pick here to take his second win in this fifth start.

#7 RIGHT HERE HANOVER is the other one in here that comes in off a solid second place finish in his sophomore debut. The $15,000 Greenshoe yearling used the best post to get a good start and land in third early. From there, he moved first up in the third quarter and provided the winning cover for the clear second choice. He should get sent forward leaving the gate again tonight, and he could find a live helmet to follow this time. He is the other one that I will use on late multi race tickets.

#1 HP LUCAS came into last week's race with little expectation from the betting public after finishing fourth in a slow race at Flamboro Downs in his sophomore debut. But he clearly outraced his 84 to 1 closing price, flashing big early speed to take control from post 9. He held a clear lead to just outside the eighth pole where two rivals started to converge. He was passed by that duo, but he finished well clear in third, and he was only three quarters of a length behind Right Here Hanover at the wire. That was a solid effort, and he should be in the mix to take another share tonight at a good price, but nowhere near that 84 to 1.

#10 WONDROUS BLUE CHIP broke in both of his first two starts at two last year, then he requalified and raced well in three straight starts, including a 1:55 2/5 front end score at this non-winners of two level. He raced over his head in the Mohawk Million then was put away for the year. The $205,000 Harrisburg yearling buy dropped four seconds in his second qualifier this spring and he will likely drop more time here, but he draws worst and will likely land on the edges in this first start at three.

Race 9 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#6 LADY GET LUCKY took a sizable class drop last week and she got pounded down to 2 to 5 favoritism despite having broke stride in her previous start. She got Doug McNair in the bike last week, and he sent her right to the front and controlled the race from start to finish. Starting from the widest post in this short field of six, the strategy will most likely be the same with her looking to blast and last again. However, she will have the mare on the rail to contend with and she could get pocketed up by her in the middle stages then look to re-rally. I'll give this mare a slight nod in what appears to be a two-horse race on paper.

#1 LADYTERRA came into the first leg of this series sharp last week after producing a good rally to get third in the top class in London on April 25th. She was sent straight to the front, and improved her position from there, making two left turns and dominating a decent mare, Powder Play. She was three-fifths of a second faster than Lady Get Lucky and she is the one that mare will have to take down tonight. She will probably look to take control of this race in the opening half then try to outsprint that rival. She could be hard to catch if she turns home with the lead again. It makes sense to use both mares in the opening leg of the late Pick 5 that starts in this race.

#4 FIRSTOFANERA got positioned in the pocket early last week and followed Lady Get Lucky around the track and she could have finished second with better racing luck. With Lady Get Lucky sticking to the pylons, there was no room on the inside and this mare had to idle and wait for somewhere to go. She tried to force her way out in the two path late, but she never got full clearance. She lost a three-way battle for place that she likely would have won if she had clear sailing. She is the one that is most likely to land in the bottom of the Tri in a race where it will be hard to uncover any value. A straight Tri using only one combo might be the way to go.

#3 ONE LAST BET is 0 for 15 so far this year, but she has earned more than $1,000 per start on average by being competitive in most starts and showing she can finish close using a variety of racing styles. Last week, she deployed closing tactics as expected and she rallied from second-over to get up for third. She will likely look for a live helmet to follow here and I'm not sure she will find one. A smaller share is likely for her in a race that likely won't have a lot of movement.

Race 10 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#7 B SONNY was a dominating winner here two starts back, making a big middle move in a fast opening half to make front, then controlling the race from there on his way to a new lifetime mark. Coming off that sharp win he was bet down to second choice last week despite starting from the worst post, and he never got anything going after dropping back to ninth at the start. I'll chock that unimpressive line up to drawing the worst post and expect major improvement tonight with him getting a much better starting spot. He is the clear top pick here and the expectation is that he will race closer to that strong effort two starts back.

#5 STEELWHEEL HANOVER hinted that he was coming around to his best form two starts back when he improved sharply and produced a decent late rally, so he wasn't a bad play at 35 to 1 in retrospect. We can't go back in time and bet him at that huge price, though, and he will take a lot more action here after beating the top choice and others last week. He is the obvious danger to the top pick coming off that strong winning effort. I prefer to use him underneath with the expectation that B Sonny will get aggressive again tonight.

#1 ARAGONITE made a strong first-over move last week that benefitted Steelwheel Hanover who latched onto his helmet then prevailed in the drive to the wire. He stuck around for a small share in what was his best effort in his past three starts. Drawing the rail tonight, he might be the one that finds the live helmet and pounces late. With only one win in 13 starts so far this year, I don't love him on top, but there is a trip scenario that can put him right there on the wire if it plays out. He likely won't get bet much in this field and there are worse longshots that you could land on tonight.

#4 ABOVEMYPAYGRADE got hammered down to even money last week and he got sent straight to the front, but he got attacked by Aragonite in the third quarter and he couldn't repel that challenge. He raced better two starts back when he made a late wide move and closed for third. I think he sits and rallies here and lands in the bottom of the Tri or Super.

Race 11 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#9 SHOOT THE WHISKEY takes a big class drop for Team Cullen here, after missing cheques in five of her last six starts, and this is a spot where she should do some damage. She has already won twice in 2025, both wins coming at the non-winners of $8,000 last five level, and she was right up on the pace in both of those victorious miles. This is a field that she dominates on her best day, and I don't mind her getting the widest post because she can be the last one to clear to the front then lead the way from there. She is the clear top choice racing in a spot where she is supposed to win.

#7 ALABAMA HANNAH has taken only one win in 2025, but she is the other class dropper in this field, and she did finish ahead of Shoot The Whiskey last week after sitting an inside trip for the entire mile after leaving from the rail. The class drop should mean that she gets put into play by Billy Davis Jr. leaving the gate, and there is a good chance that she will be the first leader then give up the front to the top choice and race in the pocket to the lane. It would be no surprise to see those two fight it out down the lane for the win.

#2 CHICKABELL tried her luck at a higher level last week and she was simply outclassed, so she drops back into the $20,000 optional claimer where she races best. She typically races first up when she competes at this level and I'm not sure that approach will work tonight facing the two class droppers. She should go much better in this spot tonight, but I prefer to use her underneath the two top picks who appear to have a class edge in this spot.

#5 ONLYTHEGOODDIYOUNG did okay to lose by only three lengths last week considering the long trip that she got. Despite being parked out for the entire mile, she was still able to produce a 27 2/5 kicker. She took no money at the windows that night and she won't get bet here, either. She could be a good one to use on the bottom of Tris and Supers to try to add some value.

Race 12 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#5 TRIBAL DANCER could do no better than fourth in the opening leg of this series, but she did follow the fastest winner around the track before tiring a bit late. She seemingly lands in an ideal six-horse field here because she is one of few that shows leaving ability. She will likely get sent hard at the start by Travis Cullen and look to go right down the road, or at worst, race from the pocket. She gets top billing in a spot where she seemingly holds a tactical edge on her five rivals.

#4 POWDER PLAY was the clear second choice to Ladyterra last week, and she did produce a late rally to get second behind that 2 to 5 dominant winner. She dropped back early from the rail, and moved third-over on the last turn, but she was forced to pull widest coming off the final turn when the mare racing first-over started to back up. She closed best on the far outside to nail Tribal Dancer for place. I could see her getting raced more aggressively tonight by the leading driver, but her 0 for 12 record this year is concerning. I'm inclined to try to beat her assuming that she will go off favored here.

#6 BETTER BE DONNA N exits the same race as the choice, and she followed that rival to the third quarter where she tried a first-over move on the leader and was rebuffed. She is one that has raced on the lead many times in her 239-race career in which she has taken 40 wins. I think she is the other one that will blast off the gate here and look to make front or find the pocket. She is another one in with chance in this short field which could feature a slow early pace.

#2 CHEESE PARTY raced well in defeat in leg 1 of this series last week closing to get second behind Lady Get Lucky, and she certainly looks like one of the best ones in here on form. My concern with her is that in her last 10 starts, she has shown absolutely no gate speed. The closest she was at the quarter in any race was fifth and that came in a six-horse field in London where she drew post four and beat only the mare that started from the widest post off the gate. This is one that will get bet that I am inclined to try to beat out of multi-race tickets being that she is at a tactical disadvantage on paper.

Race 13 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#2 ON TIME DELIVERY had a claim in on him last week, so it was a bit surprising to see him raced first-over, which isn't his best trip. He raced okay considering, but he does his best work racing on the lead or from the pocket. He goes for trainer Carm Auciello tonight in this first start off the claim and he draws okay for his preferred style. I think he gets a more aggressive steer this time, and he gets the nod to finish off the late Pick 5.

#9 D A CAPTAINOBVIOUS left out for position last week and he was third early but then took a major shuffle as the lead changed hands. He found himself racing on the pylons on the turn in an impossible spot. In the stretch, he navigated a way through the traffic, and once he found clear racetrack, he flew late to be a clear second. He will likely offer a square price tonight, and he is worth a look in the anchor leg of multi-race tickets.

#3 PHONE NINE ONE ONE hinted two starts back that he was coming around to his best form when passed some rivals in a fast $20,000 conditioned claimer at Flamboro Downs. Flash forward to his most recent start where he got a key driver change to Travis Cullen, and that teamster worked out a nice second-over trip and got the job done. He is a key contender right back starting from a good post from which he can work out another trip.

#5 BEACH COWBOY raced in a claimer only once this year and it came at this level. Interestingly, he was coming off an ugly line where he finished ninth – like tonight – and he converted for an upset win that night. He adds Lasix here and he will likely get put into play leaving the gate. He is another possibility in a race with no standout.

#6 JIMMY WHISPERS moves from the worst post to the best one tonight after pacing an even race from post 10 last week. That factor alone puts him in the picture when you consider that the last two times he drew a post on the middle of the gate he finished a close second. He has taken only one win from 16 starts this year, however, and he is likely best used underneath.

CONDITIONS AND ALLOWANCES IN HARNESS RACING - IMPORTANT TO KNOW

The conditions of a race determine whether a horse is eligible to enter. For example many races are restricted to horses that have won a certain number of races or a certain amount of money in a specified number of starts. Many races are restricted to horses entered to be "claimed" (offered for sale) at a specific price.

Allowances in the claiming price itself are given to colts and geldings, four-year-olds and younger and to mares, five-year-olds and younger.

The purpose of the allowance is to keep younger horses more competitive when racing against older and more experienced rivals. Mares are given extra consideration in claiming events because of their potential as broodmares.

The accompanying chart shows what the allowances are, but an example may make them easier to understand. The chart indicates that three-year-olds receive a 50% allowance in claiming races. This means that a three-year-old entered in a $20,000 claiming race carries an actual claiming price of $30,000 (50% higher).

Fillies and mares receive an additional 25% allowance in claiming races. Details of the race conditions and claiming price (if any) are given at the top of each race in the program.

	ALLOWANCES CLAIMING RACES	CONDITION RACES
2 year olds	100%	50% on 2024 earnings
3 year olds	50%	25% on 2024 earnings 50% on 2023 earnings
4 year olds	25%	25% on 2023 earnings

ALLOWANCES FOR PURSE EARNINGS

When Fillies/Mares compete against Colts/Geldings (normally on the trot) Fillies/Mares will receive an additional 25% on the condition of the race.
ie: nw $5,000 (FM $6,250) last 5 or $12,000 (FM $15,000) last 10 starts.

THE MORNING LINE reflects the track oddsmaker's estimate of what each horse's odds will be at post time. The actual odds are established by the amounts wagered by the public on each horse in the win pool.

C.P.M.A. Regulation Changes

Effective January 1st 2012
CPMA will be instituting several new rule changes with regards to the following pari-mutuel pools:

Pick Pools

- If there are no winners in any leg of a Pick N pool, the entire pool is refunded.
- If there is a change of surface in any leg that is NOT made known to the public prior to wagering for that pool closing, that leg will pay on all runners.
- A pool is no longer refunded if the 1st leg in the pool is cancelled or declared no contest.
- Pick-3: If at least 2 legs are declared no contest or cancelled, the pool is refunded.
- Pick-4, 5 or 6: If at least 3 legs are declared no contest or cancelled, the pool is refunded.

EXPLANATION OF THE LASIX PROGRAM

After careful study and consultation with Ontario Horsemen's groups, racetrack operators and veterinarians, Agriculture Canada and the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario passed legislation allowing the controlled (or supervised) administration of furosemide, more commonly called "Lasix". "Lasix" is used to alleviate the symptoms of exercise induced pulmonary hemorrhaging in racing horses. Horses will undergo an endoscopic examination of the trachea by a veterinarian licensed by the Ontario Racing Commission and endorsed by an official veterinarian before being allowed on the medication list. Once qualified, horses will be treated with "Lasix" within four hours plus or minus 15 minutes of a scheduled race in a secure retention area under the super vision of racing officials.

All horses on "Lasix" must remain on the program for a minimum of 100 days while racing in this jurisdiction.

- L Denotes horses treated with Lasix.
- (L) Denotes horses treated with Lasix today who were not so treated for their last start.
- (L) Denotes horses treated with Lasix for their last start but not so treated today.

Pari-mutuel wagering and drug control services are provided under the supervision of the Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency, an agency of Agriculture and the Minister of Agriculture. All pari-mutuel pools are calculated and distributed in accordance with the Pari-Mutuel Betting Regulations. The Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency can be contacted at 1-800-268-8835 or locally at 613-759-6100 or E-Mail: cpmawebacpm@agr.gc.ca

RULES AND INFORMATION REGARDING CANADIAN HARNESS AND FOREIGN SEPARATE POOL EVENTS

GENERAL

All pari-mutuel pools are calculated and distributed in accordance with the regulations and directives as issued by Agriculture and Agri-Food Canada ("The Regulations"), under the approval and supervision of the Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency. The Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency can be contacted at 1-800-268-8835 or 613-759-6100 or Email: cpmawebacpm@agr.gc.ca. A complete version of the CPMA regulations can be found at <http://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/regulations/SOR-91-365/>.

All tickets should be held until the result of the race is declared official and prices are posted.

No person under the age of 18 shall purchase or cash a ticket or voucher.

A claim of receiving an incorrect payment or incorrect change must be made to the Mutuel office of the association within twenty four hours of buying or cashing a valid ticket or voucher.

No ruling made by the Stewards/Judges or the Ontario Racing Commission with regard to distribution of purse money or the placing of horses in the order of finish, after the race has been declared official, shall have any bearing on the pay-out prices or distribution of pari-mutuel pools.

Change boards and Photo Finish display monitors are located in the Grandstand. In addition, Photo Finish pictures are shown on the closed-circuit television system. Customers are reminded that mutuel clerks are responsible for all shortages. When making a wager, customers must present sufficient funds at the time of purchase to cover the wagers requested.

ENTRIES AND MUTUEL FIELDS

"Entry" means two or more horses in the same race which, for the purpose of pari-mutuel betting, are coupled or considered as the same betting interest. The most common reason for the coupling of horses in an Entry is the fact that they are owned by the same person.

"Mutuel Field" means two or more horses in the same race which, for the purpose of pari-mutuel betting, are coupled because the number of horses in the race exceeds the number which can be handled separately by the pari-mutuel system. Subject to the Regulations, a bet on one horse of an Entry or Mutuel Field shall be considered a bet on all horses in that Entry or Mutuel Field.

DAILY DOUBLE BETTING (INCLUDING LATE DOUBLE)

A Daily Double bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of the two races specified for the Daily Double. Tickets not selecting the winner of the first half of the Daily Double and all tickets in the second half of the Daily Double not coupled with the declared official winner of the first half of the Daily Double are not winners and are not refunded no matter what circumstances affect the running of the second half of the Daily Double.

Should a horse or horses (not coupled with another starter) be excused from starting in the second race of the Daily Double after the first race of the Daily Double has closed for betting, holders of all Daily Double tickets on such horses, coupled with the winner of the first Daily Double race, shall participate in a Consolation Double pool. (Effective Jan 1, 2012)

EXACTA (Also known as Exactor)/TRIFECTA (Also known as Triactor)/SUPERFECTA

An Exacta, Trifecta, Superfecta is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the first two, three and four horses respectively, representing different betting interests to finish in the exact official order of finish, in the race on which the pool is operated.

SWINGER (Also known as OMNI)

A Swinger is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select horses to finish in any order from the official first 3 positions.

JACKPOT HI-5

A Jackpot Hi-5 bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the exact order of finish of the first 5 runners in the specified Jackpot Hi-5 race. If there are races that have an entry, (i.e. 1 & 1A and/or 2 & 2B), Jackpot Hi-5 will not offer a wager consisting of both halves of the same betting interest. Example: If the same betting interest finishes first and second in a Jackpot Hi-5, the payout would be 1st, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th.

That jackpot portion of the pool will only be paid out if there is a single winning ticket. If there are multiple winning tickets that have correctly chosen the first 5 runners of the race, they will receive 50% of the pool for that day. The other 50% will go over into the Jackpot carryover. If there are no winning tickets with the exact order of finish of the first 5 runners, 100% of the current day's pool will be carried over into the Jackpot.

PICK 3 & PICK 4 BETTING

The Pick 3 & Pick 4 bets are betting transactions in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of three or four successive races specified for the Pick 3 & Pick 4 respectively.

Winning tickets for the Pick 3 & Pick 4 are determined in the following sequence: A) winners of all legs, B) most winners, then refund. If there is a change of surface in any leg that is NOT made known to the public prior to wagering for that pool closing, that leg will pay on all runners. If there are no winners in any leg of a pool, the entire pool is refunded.

PICK 5 BETTING

The Pick 5 bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of five successive races specified for the Pick 5 respectively.

If no one has correctly selected all 5 winners, the entire net pool is carried over to the next available PICK 5.

PICK 6 BETTING

The Pick 6 bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of six successive races specified for the Pick 6 respectively.

If no one has correctly selected all 6 winners, the entire net pool is carried over to the next available PICK 6.

PICK 5 & 6 BETTING

If at least 1 race as part of the Pick 5 or 6 has been cancelled or declared "No contest", but not more than the specified below under Refunds, the net pool shall be distributed to those selecting the most # of winners and NOT include any carryover from a previous pool.

PICK 3, PICK 4, PICK 5 & PICK 6 SCRATCHES

In the event a Pick 3, Pick 4, Pick 5 or Pick 6 ticket designates as a selection a horse which is scratched, excused or determined by the Stewards/Judges to be a non-starter in any of the races comprising the Pick 3, Pick 4, Pick 5 or Pick 6 the favourite, as evidenced by the amount wagered in the win pool at the time of the start of the race in which the scratch occurred, will be substituted for the non-starting selection. In the event that the money bet in the win pool for two or more favourites is identical, the selection with the lowest program number shall be substituted for the non-starting selection.

However, if a scratch occurs in any leg of the Pick 3, Pick 4, Pick 5 or Pick 6 pools before the pool is closed, a ticket including the scratched horse may be cancelled.

REFUNDS

Subject to the Regulations, all monies in all pools on a race are refunded in the event that the race is cancelled, declared off or declared no contest, and all monies bet on a horse are refunded if the horse is a late scratch or does not receive a fair start. These refunds will be communicated to the public through various means such as betting terminals, video display, changes boards and our website.

The Pick(n) pool shall be cancelled and all Pick(n) wagers for the individual performance shall be refunded if:

- Pick-3: at least 2 legs are declared no contest or cancel. (Effective Jan 1, 2012)
- Pick-4, 5 or 6: at least 3 legs are declared no contest or cancel. (Effective Jan 1, 2012)

Where a horse that is part of an Entry is a late scratch or does not receive a fair start and at least one horse of that Entry receives a fair start in the race, all tickets purchased on the Entry remain valid and the purchase price of any such ticket shall not be refunded.

COMMON POOL WAGERING (INTERTRACK BETTING)

In the unlikely event of a communications or computer system failure that prevents pools from merging with the host track's pools before the end of a race, CPMA regulations require that the site must refund all tickets for that race. This refund will be communicated to the public through various means such as video displays, change boards and messages on our website.

FAIR START

If a horse has reached the Fair Start Pole (located 200 feet before the Starting Pole) by the time the mobile gate has reached the Starting Pole, that horse is deemed to have had a fair start. It makes no difference whether or not the horse is on or off stride at that precise moment. Under current policy and regulations, which are designed to be as fair as possible to all bettors on all starters, there is no Recall - a repeat of the entire starting procedure - when a horse does not reach the Fair Start Pole before the gate reaches the Starting Pole. Monies bet on such a horse are refunded in accordance with the regulation concerning refunds.

LOST & OLD TICKETS

WEG issued tickets or vouchers are valid indefinitely, however, they cannot be cashed at a mutuel teller after 2 years from date of issue. Please mail tickets, along with your name and address, to Mutuel Manager, P.O. Box 156, Rexdale, Ontario, M9W 5L2, keeping a photocopy for future reference.

For "Lost Tickets" originally sold at a Woodbine Entertainment Group racetrack or Teletheatre, please enquire at the Mutuel office at Woodbine, Greenwood Teletheatre, or Mohawk. Policy may be subject to change retroactively in the event regulatory bodies amend existing regulations.

ASSOCIATION PERCENTAGE, AND TAXATION/LEVY

The Woodbine Entertainment Group deducts and retains the following percentages from wagers placed at our own licensed sites which are then shared with the horsepeople, host and simulcast associations and the Ontario Racing Commission.

WOODBINE MOHAWK LIVE: Win, Place & Show: 13.65%. Swinger 14.7%. Trifecta & Pick 4: 21.7%. Double & Exacta 17.2%. Jackpot Hi-5, Pick 5 & Pick 6: 11.7%. All other 23.0%

Horsepeople receive a further 2% on all wagers, except Trifecta wagering where it is 4%. The Ontario Provincial Government retains 0.5% on all bets placed in Ontario. The Canadian Government (through a revolving fund cost recovery basis) retains 0.8% on all wagers placed in Canada for provision of drug control, and audit services.

While every effort is made to provide accurate information in the program, Woodbine Entertainment Group assumes no liability for errors or omissions.
