Betting Basics

Some essentials to get you started with making a wager.

1 How to wager

Place your bet by visiting a teller, or using a self-serve terminal.

To place a bet here are just 5 things you need to know:

- 1 Name of racetrack (choose from any track in the simulcast feeds)
- 2 Number of the race
- 3 Amount of your bet (e.g. $2)
- 4 Type of bet (see step 2)
- 5 Horse's number (see step 4)

Once you have decided what you want to bet, head to the nearest seller's window and use the sample statement as your guide:

Hello, (Racetrack), race 6, $2 to WIN on Horse #4

How to use a self-serve terminal:

- 1 Swipe your Cash Card/Insert Cash
- 2 Enter the initial PIN #1234 (then choose a new PIN)
- 3 Press/Tap the track you would like to bet: (defaults to current race)
- 4 Tap the Horse Number: #4
- 5 Press/Tap the Bet Type: WIN
- 6 Press/Tap the Bet Amount: $2
- 7 Press/Tap the Race Number: Race #6
- 8 Press Green "Make BET" button
- 9 Press/Tap the "Finish with Receipt" button
- 10 Be sure to check your ticket to confirm it's the bet you wanted

To get a Cash Card or for assistance ask a teller, or a staff member.

2 Types of bets

Single horse bets (minimum $2.00 bet is required)

Bet type	Level of difficulty	Explanation and expectation
Win	U U U	Your horse must finish 1st; payoff determined by the win odds.
Place	U U	Your horse must finish 1st or 2nd; payoffs better than to show.
Show	U	Your horse must finish 1st, 2nd, or 3rd; modest payoffs.

Exotic multiple-horse bets

Bet type	Level of difficulty	Explanation and expectation
Exacta*	U U U U	Your horses must finish 1st and 2nd in exact order; riskier bet that can pay a little or a lot, depending on the horses' odds.
Daily double	U U U U U	Pick the winners of two designated consecutive races.
Pick 3, Win 4, Pick 5, Pick 6	U U U U U U	Select the winners of a designated set of consecutive races. The wager must be made prior to the start of the first race in the multi-race wager.
Triactor*	U U U U U U U	Your horses must finish 1st, 2nd, and 3rd in exact order; can be expensive to play if you use a lot of horses.
Superfecta*	U U U U U U U U	Your horses must finish 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th; big payoff possible.

* Exotic bets require the horses to finish in the EXACT order you select, unless you "BOX" the bet, in which case your selections can finish in any order.

All of the numbers and letters in the program might seem confusing or overwhelming at first, but focusing on these sections makes choosing a horse simple.

- 1 Horse's number in the race
- 2 Horse's post position colour
- 3 Horse's colour, sex, age, sire (father), dam (mother), sire of the dam
- 4 Morning line odds
- 5 Horse's name
- 6 Driver and Driver Record (Name, # of wins, # of 2nds, # of 3rds, winning %)

- 7 Trainer information
- 8 Horse's Lifetime record (with best win time, track size, track, age, lifetime wins and lifetime earnings)
- 9 Horse's current record (# of races, # wins, # of 2nds, # of 3rds, and money earned)

4 The odds

Odds are also important to consider when choosing your horse. Horses that are thought to have a better chance of winning will typically have lower odds.

Morning line odds

Odds listed in the race program are the "morning line" odds. These are predictions of how the public will bet on the race. They are set by the track's handicapper when the race program is published, before the wagering starts.

The actual odds will be posted on the Television or in-field on the Tote Board before the race; they change up until post time, depending on how customers are betting on each horse in the race.

Calculating a $2 win prize

To calculate a win prize, find the Odds of a horse on the Television or Tote Board (in-field board).

Multiply the first number by 2, then divide that number by the second digit (if there is one), and then add $2. Simple as that!

Odds	1/2	2/1	7/2	5/1	10/1
Pays	$3.00	$6.00	$9.00	$12.00	$22.00

Helpful facts for betting

- Some racetracks have a television simulcast commentator who tries to identify winning horses (handicaps) between the races. Listen and see if you can pick up any good tips to bet on.
- A good betting method is to choose horses with current odds two to three times higher than their morning line odds.

3 Tips to remember

WIN BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 32% of the time
PLACE BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 53% of the time
SHOW BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 67% of the time

* Numbers listed above are approximate, may vary by racetrack.

WOODBINE™

Woodbine Entertainment and its' employees are honoured to engage in the sport of horse racing and entertainment activities in the meeting place of Etobicoke. Woodbine Racetrack is located within the traditional and treaty Lands of the Mississaugas of the Credit. Known as Adoobiigok, the "Place of the Alders" in Michi Saagiig language, the region is uniquely situated along the Humber River Watershed, which historically provided an integral connection for Anishinaabe, Haudenosaunee, and Wendat peoples between the Ontario Lakeshore and Lake Simcoe/Georgian Bay regions. The territory is covered by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, an agreement between the Anishinaabe and the Haudenosaunee to peaceably take care of the land and resources around the Great Lakes. Woodbine is honoured to care for this land, our human and equine athletes, and provide a place to race responsibly.

Race 1 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#5 FADEAWAY HANOVER comes off one of his strongest efforts of the year last Monday, even though he didn't get the job done as the 7 to 5 co-favorite. After dropping back early, he was following a rival that gapped out briefly on the backstretch. He was sent to the outside before the half and latched onto cover that only gained gradually. He angled wide entering the stretch and gained on the leader, and he dug in to preserve second when a rival came flying down the centre of the track late. He gets Doug McNair in the bike for a second consecutive start, and he moves to the middle of the gate which should be key here. Expecting that he will get a more aggressive steer tonight, I'll call him to kick off the $75,000 guaranteed Pick 5.

#8 RIGHT HERE HANOVER is clearly a faster and more effective gelding at three, and he looked good beating non-winners of two here on May 9th. He got an aggressive steer from Bob McClure in that mile, being sent to the front in the second quarter, then getting overtaken by the 1 to 5 favorite. From there, he road the pocket to the lane and got a bit of a break when the leading favorite drifted off the pylons. Still, he powered through on the inside trotting his final 1/4 in 27 2/5 to get the job done. He is an improving racehorse that still has some upside, and he is worth a look for the early Pick 5 at what should be a square price.

#1 SOUTHWIND MILK had a good rookie season, and she was certainly ready to fire at the start of the year, winning three straight, her initial start being a blowout win where she trotted a 27 1/5 kicker. Her final start was one of her best. In that Grand Circuit event, she raced first up challenging for the entire back half, and she hung in there, getting beaten only a length and holding off some closers while finishing third. She chased 'O Brien winner Monalishi in her lone qualifier this spring and we know she can improve sharply here as she did at two. I don't love the rail post for her, but she can overcome it if she can leave in the top five. She is another possibility for the Pick 5 in a good betting race to kick off the card.

#3 P L ROBERT G is yet another sharp contender here who comes off a solid closing effort where he trotted the fastest mile of his career. He was never getting close to the winner who was trotting a lifetime best mile, but he did catch the pocket sitter for second, and that one has already come back to beat the top pick in this race. With so many live contenders in here, it makes sense to price shop. The winner could be the one that gets the best trip.

Race 2 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#7 BETTER IN HEELS is a filly that I am going to side with here mainly on the driver change angle. She comes out of the fastest mile of her life with owner/trainer Paul Davies in the bike, and he did provide her with a good trip in that mile. After leaving third, she took a mid race shuffle then found room to exit the pylons on the last turn and she latched onto third-over cover. Davies found her a lane in mid stretch, and she closed some ground while pacing a 27 2/5 kicker. The one factor that we have staring us in the face is the driver change to Jody Jamieson two starts back which resulted in an upset win in the Spring Series final. Davies hands the lines to Jamieson again tonight and this is where I will land for my top pick.

#4 ALL MY WISHES is a filly that debuted for a new barn here in her sophomore debut on May 8th, coming out of a sneaky good qualifier. In that mile, she started to make a move between horses turning for home, the in the final eighth she chased down a rival for fourth in a race within a race to get fourth. She looked good pacing to the wire, accelerating to the end. Flash forward to that three-year-old debut where she drew the widest post; she blasted out for the lead and took a shuffle then in the stretch got through some confusing caused when the filly that was leading made a nasty break. She accelerated between fillies and got up on the line to dead heat with the big favorite. That filly has already come back to win again. This one will need to be faster tonight, but she still has some upside, and she is worth a look at what should be a good price.

#3 COEURATOUT DU LAC finished a close third as the favorite in the Spring series final when beaten by the choice. She came back to face better, and she made front from post nine, took a shuffle then stayed on down along the inside to finish a close fifth before getting set back for a pylon violation. She is a contender here, but I think she gets over bet because of the fast final time of that race, and I'm willing to try to beat her out of the Pick 5.

#6 MY GELATO fires back quickly after finishing an even fourth versus maidens on Thursday night. I like that she gets the best post tonight, and she likely won't get bet much here. I won't be surprised if she sneaks into the Tri or Super at a price.

#1 GAINES HANOVER came out as a five-year-old ready to fire and he is in perhaps the best form of his career right now. His two efforts in defeat to Canada's best trotter, Logan Park, were terrific and sandwiched in between was a blowout win over some overmatched rivals on a week that Logan Park skipped. He faces a new challenger tonight in returning Highland Kismet, but the way he has been finishing his miles this spring should make him tough to beat. He was over bet last week when bet down to 1 to 5 against Logan Park, but he was disadvantaged by sitting through a 58 2/5 middle half then trying to rally into the teeth of a 26 2/5 final quarter. I don't think he'd repeat those tactics here, and he gets top call.

#7 HIGHLAND KISMET didn't race at two, but that patience paid off as he earned more than $727,000 racing as a sophomore in his initial year on the racetrack. He was a dominant Grand Circuit winner here in The Goodtimes, and an argument could be made that he was best in the Hambletonian, racing first up in a monsoon-like rainstorm providing cover for eventual winner Karl. He shows too good qualifying wins with trainer Mark Etsell in the bike, and he hands the lines to the leading driver now for this four-year-old debut. He might have his hands full with Gaines Hanover here, but this is a top quality gelding that would surprise no one if he came out and won tonight.

#2 OSCEOLA was accurately described as a "boom or bust" type by another handicapper last week, and that refers to his gait issues that come to the fore every once in a while. Racing in an easier field last week than he did the week before, he boomed, heading straight to the front and leaving no doubt. This is a tougher chore facing the top two choices, and he will likely land in the Tri or Super.

#3 FASHION FRENZIE continues to be a good earner, and he hasn't missed the board yet this year. He will always use his good tactical speed to get positioned near the front, and it almost always works out that he gets a good piece of the purse. I don't see him beating either of the top two here, but he could edge Ocela for the show spot.

#7 SOUTHSIDE EDDY was picked on top here last week off a solid effort two weeks back in a fast race. Well, last week, he tried racing first-over in a 1:49 3/5 mile registered by streaking Blue Hunt, and that was mission impossible. He gets to drop in class now, and the last time he raced at a level similar to tonight's was on March 1st. On that night, he raced in the pocket most of the way and won by a head. I don't mind that he finished eighth last week as that will help his price tonight. Getting off the rail post should help, and I'll stick with him.

#1 ARTIES IDEAL comes out of the same race as the top pick, and he finished ahead of him after following along the pylons most of the way. Two starts back, He was simply an unlucky loser, because he looked like he had the race wrapped up at the 1/16th pole then got picked off by Hungry Man who looked one paced, but then found another gear and really surged in the last few strides. He fits great at this level, and he should get put into the race early again. He's hard to leave off early multi-race tickets.

#9 BET THE BB exits some tough claiming handicaps, the most recent one a 1:48 4/5 mile that is the fastest race in Canada so far this year. He should find this class a bit easier, but he will need to overcome the nine hole. I think Travis Cullen will try to send him harder than he did two starts back when he dropped back to ninth leaving the gate. He can be a threat if he gets out into the flow and finds a live helmet to follow. He is worth a look in a spot where he should offer a square price.

#2 THUNDER COUNTRY didn't show much last week racing one class higher from a wide post and chasing Blue Hunt around the track. But two starts back, racing at this level, he raced huge first-over and almost knocked off that same rival. He should be more effective at this level, especially starting from a better post. If he goes off around his 8 to 1 morning line quote, he will likely be a good value play in this field.

Race 5 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#3 SID THE KID is one a seconditis streak where he has been the runner up in five straight starts, but there is reason to believe he can end that string and break through for his second win of the season tonight. He turned up his game in the recently concluded Ontario Graduate series, trotting two 1:52 and change miles in a row, and he didn't do it with the aid of easy trips. Two starts back, he did all the work on the engine, and he looked like a winner turning for home, but brilliant trotter Paquet would not be denied. In the final, he again led early and gave up command to Paquet at the half. He was a clear second at the wire, and the perhaps the most important factor for him tonight is that he won't have to face Paquet again. I think he can get the job done tonight racing from close range.

#1 MARS HILL had intent to leave hard from the nine-hole last week, but five other rivals to his inside had the dame idea and that would not be good for him. He managed to tuck in fifth just past the quarter, then got shuffled back to last before he could get off the pylons on the far turn. He closed well in the lane to get up for fifth, and he could get a lot better trip and racing luck starting from an inside post this time. I think Doug McNair will put this Muscle Hill stallion into the race early tonight, and that makes him a threat.

#6 NASEY has a similar profile as the top pick having finished second or third in his last seven starts and eight of his last nine. He looked good at the head of the stretch last week, but he was yet to face the late onslaught of Spartan General, who was motoring home in 26 3/5 down the middle of the track and was not going to be denied. This Indian bred gelding will get good position early starting from post six and he is another that could do in here with the right trip.

#7 PHOENIX was given no chance by bettors last week racing at the Preferred 2 level and missing regular driver Bob McClure. He probably surprised some when he rallied for third behind dominant Osceola. That result showed how sharp he is, and he gets McClure back in the bike for this mile. I don't see him knocking off all of the top three choices in here, but he has a good shot of being part of the Tri or Super.

Race 6 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#1 FLUID makes the quick return after racing well here on Thursday night. Coming into that race, she exited two miles where she suffered interference, and she was expected to at least contend for a share chasing big favorite Dedication, who had won her debut for Millar Farms. This filly found the pocket following Dedication and she was right there in contention turning for home. She ended up being locked up tight in the pocket for the entire stretch drive, finishing with pace that she couldn't use. She should be loaded with energy for her sires stakes debut here, and she gets Doug McNair in the bike for the first time. I'll give her the call to upset.

#7 SUGAR PIE HONEY – like most Nick Gallucci trained Millar Farms horses – came ready to rock for her seasonal debut, and she looked razor sharp rolling past the leaders in the stretch. She took a new life's mark in that win, and she now tries sires stakes company again. Last time she faced Grassroots rivals, she scored a first-over win in the Consolation last September. It's likely that the leading driver will position her closer to the front leaving the gate tonight, and she should be the one to fend off late. She fits well in this field, and she is a hard one to leave off middle Pick 5 tickets that starts in this race.

#4 PICK ME UP HANOVER took six wins in eight starts last year, her season culminating with a victory in the $75,000 Grassroots final. She has had two starts that don't look pretty on paper, but those two miles against some tough older mares should serve her primed for this initial Grassroots start of her sophomore season. Her most recent mile where she blasted to the front from post eight and followed a fast early pace can be a good speed tightener. She is expected to be much better tonight, and she's worth a look for multi-race tickets.

#2 KANDY KISS finished fifth in her most recent start, but she faced some tough older mares in that race, notably the winner, Aardies Money N, who made a huge middle move to the front and led all the way from there. That move resulted in Kandy Kiss getting shuffled, and the covered trip she got that night should be a good primer for this Grassroots start against her own age group. She has recorded only one win in nine starts but she was right there in three straights starts prior to her last mile. Tyler Borth chose her over the choice, and she figures to go close tonight. I prefer to use her underneath in this spot.

Race 7 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#4 MRSTERY DEAL brings a 0 for 13 record to the track tonight, but I think this can be the spot where he gets off the schneid. He comes into tonight's race having raced well in three straight starts against excellent four-year-old trotter Paquet in the Ontario Graduate series, and he performed well in all three miles. In the first two legs, he showed good gate speed then rode following trips to two thirds. In the final, He tried a late wide move that wasn't going to work in a 27 3/5 final quarter, but he did get up to take the smallest cheque. The late speed he showed in that series – sub-28 final quarters in all three miles – should play well here. He gets the call to score the upset tonight.

#6 GRAMBLING HALL is another that tried the Ontario Graduate series, and he finished well behind Mrstery Deal in the opening leg, but that was his four-year-old debut, and he is a different horse now having two more starts, each one an improvement on the one before. He improved sharply in his second start when finishing third against non-winners of three company. That better effort resulted in his odds dropping from 36 to 1 two starts back to 7 to 5 last week, and he made no mistake. Starting from the best post, he went straight to the front and left no doubt, never letting a rival get close to him. He beat two decent horses in Fadeaway Hanover and P L Rainbow Dash, and he is a big threat to repeat once again starting from the best post.

#9 MASSTERCRAFT is another one that raced in all three legs of the Ontario Graduate series, and he came out of that series and raced well in defeat at this class level last week in a fast race for the class. After driving to the front in a fast opening quarter, he let one rival go then sat a good pocket trip. He was unable to challenge that strong leader in the stretch, but he rolled home a clear second. Off that improved effort he is worth a look here, and he should offer a good price starting from a wide post.

#5 BELLA CAVALLA hinted at a return to her best form two starts back when she finished closest at the wire than she did in her previous four starts. She came back last week and grinded out a first-over win aided by a slowing late pace. She moves up now to a level where she has typically finished on the edges in the past. I see her closing for a small share tonight.

Race 8 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#2 FOREVERAFTERALL had limited success in a seven-race campaign at two last year, including a third-place finish in a Grassroots race in 1:54 4/5 in her second start. She is clearly an improved, faster filly in three starts this year, and she will be the top pick to take her first Grassroots win tonight. Especially noteworthy is the strong late speed that she has shown in her last two starts, pacing 26 4/5 and 27 1/5 kickers when she had never finished off a mile faster than 28-flat in her eight previous starts for a purse. The leading driver, who drove her to a good second-place finish in her last start, sticks here. He should give her every opportunity to score the win in this seven-horse field.

#3 TALL DARK LADY is famous for being the full sister to double millionaire Tall Dark Stranger's full sister, but that hasn't resulted in any wins so far in 10 lifetime starts. She comes in off a good sophomore debut where she absolutely flew off the gate from post 10 and touched down on the lead a couple of strides before passing under the wire for the first time. She took a mid race shuffle then re-rallied gamely late to get third behind a blowout winner. It wouldn't be a big shock if she makes front and proceeds to lead all the way for her maiden win for Team McNair. She is the other one that I would consider using in the opening leg of the late Pick 5.

#4 DARLENES ANGEL was ambitiously campaigned at two last year, contesting several OSS Gold races, and the Battle of The Belles, and he has limited success, although she did hit the board in her second start in a Gold race. She takes a more conservative approach early in this stakes season, trying the Grassroots where she likely fits better. She produced two good closing efforts in both starts and she should be as tight as a drum for this race. She has shown in the past that she can fly off the gate, she made front in the Gold mid-season final last year racing against Chantilly. She is another in with a shot here.

#1 LADY GAMBLER took her maiden win two starts back via a big middle move to the front in a solid effort. She was subsequently raced conservatively when finishing several lengths behind Darlene's Angel, but she did fire a 27-flat kicker. I can see her closing in this short field and landing in the bottom of the Tri or Super.

Race 9 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#7 MARKET BANKER jumped into this series in leg 2 last week, and he got pounded down to 8 to 5 favorite and he came through for favorite bettors, rallying from eighth at the half for a comfortable one length win. Now he gets the widest post, but I don't see that being much of an issue in a seven-horse field. I think driver Chris Christoforou has the opportunity to beat a couple of these rivals off the gate, and if he can land fourth or fifth early in this mile, he will be very hard to hold off. He is razor sharp now, and he is clearly the one to beat in a field where some rivals have recurring gait issues.

#4 SHADRACK HANOVER's start last week where he showed speed from post 10 then made another move to the front on the final turn gives him hope of upsetting in this smaller field. In his favor is there are not many in here that indicate they want to leave the gate hard based on recent lines. He could get a much easier trip racing on the lead or from the pocket tonight, and that gives him a chance to score a Pop Up series final. The leading driver sticks with him, and he is worth a look at what should be a good price tonight moving into the Auciello barn for this start.

#3 CRYSTAL BALLER closed strongly in both preliminary legs to hit the board, but his late gains were helped by slow final quarters. Last week, he looked like he might win until Market Banker appeared on the scene on the far outside in deep stretch, but he did preserve second. I think he will get bet here, and he can often be a victim of pace and trip. I see him closing for another slice tonight.

#5 PESO HANOVER was picked on top here last week under the assumption that he would be laying closer than sixth at the half based in previous efforts. He ended up on Shadrack Hanover's decent cover, and he tipped off that and took the lead and held it to the eighth pole. He got picked off by the closers as the pace slowed. Moving to the middle of the gate gives him a better chance to race closer to the front, and he could get a nice trip and a good piece of this purse.

BEST BET: MARKET BANKER

Race 10 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#3 BETTOR OF THE WEST was one that I was against last week not only because he failed to get the job done as the 3 to 5 favorite two starts back, also because he had only notched one win in his previous 33 starts. He didn't get a win last week, but I thought he raced well in defeat. After leaving to get position from post nine, he moved first-over in the third quarter and wore down the leader, but in the process, he provided perfect cover for the eventual winner. He is in very good form now, and he gets the call to take his second win in 35 starts here.

#6 P L OZZY raced okay in his seasonal debut when fourth to Blue Hunt (who then came back to repeat) and off that mile, with improvement expected he got bet down to 9 to 5 last week. He worked out a great trip following favored Uncle Shank A, and he looked poised to pounce on the far turn. He got fumbly gaited turning for home and made an uncharacteristic break in stride. Assuming all is well with him, he has a good chance of making front and leading all the way tonight with the class drop to the bottom conditioned level, and he will be the one to beat if he stays flat.

#5 BAYFIELD BEACH is 0 for 12 so far this year and he comes out of a very fast Pop Up series race where he had little chance after dropping to the back at the start. He gets Tyler Borth in the bike tonight, and I think he will get sent for position near the front starting from the middle of the gate. He hit the board the last two times he raced in this bottom class, and he should be around the money again tonight. He is a good one to use on the bottom of Tri and Super bets.

#1 GRAVITATIONAL exits the same race as P L Ozzy, and he produced his fastest mile of 2025 in defeat, although he was just following along, and he did no real work in that mile. He should improve on the class drop tonight and it is notable that Billy Davis Jr. chose him over Bayfield Beach. This gelding is capable of passing a few of these tonight, and he is another one to consider using on the bottom.

#8 LETS GET ROCKED raced huge in defeat when claimed by Garry Merner last week, and off that impressive effort he gets top billing here. After leaving hard for position, he was soon on the move to the front. After taking command passing the quarter, he then got overtaken for the lead. He was out again at the half, and he made front again, then came under attack. He rebuffed that challenge and opened up on the turn. He repelled his closest challengers in the lane, only to be overtaken late by Kyles Art who sat a much easier trip and saved everything for a stretch. Off that strong effort, this gelding is the clear top pick here.

#9 JJ TOMMY is one of four claimed horses that gets sent out by a new barn in this race, all four of them lined up on the outside of the gate. He was part of the wicked opening pace in the same race that the choice exits, and he ended up missing a cheque. He gets sent out for trainer Barrington racing off the claim, which is a proven winning formula. Even though he draws worst, he is in with a decent shot here on the barn change, although Trevor Henry sticks with Kyles Art over him. He is a second one to consider for late multi-race tickets.

#1 KYLES ART might have a dream lineup on the gate here that can set up his late rally for a second consecutive win. With the four claimed horses leaving from the four widest posts, and some of them likely to get claimed again, it seems certain that the early pace will be swift again, and that plays right into this gelding's wheelhouse. If some of those rivals knock heads and soften each other up, he could roll up for a second consecutive win. Starting from the rail, he could be at the mercy of pace and trip, but there is a chance it can all work out his way.

#6 TANGO SEELSTER is racing well and getting claimed, but he is an infrequent winner that tried several racing styles recently to no avail. He gets the best post here, and he should be able to work out a decent trip, but he seems like one that is best used on the bottom of the Tri and Super at this point.

Race 12 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#6 SOUTHWIND SAMBUCCA was very impressive winning at this level two starts back, making two making two separate moves to the front then keeping a clear advantage to the wire. He tried the Pop Up series ast week, but that race was too fast and the winner too tough. He posted the same final time as he did when winning two starts back, and now he is back to the level where he can do some damage. Starting from the middle of the gate he should be given every chance by driver Henry, and he could prove tough to catch and beat in this field.

#5 HF PANS SHADOW is one that caught the eye last week, flying down the middle of the track passing rivals to get fourth. That was a strong effort and a much improved one when compared to his mile two starts back. When Team Hensley gets these deep closers at their sharpest, they can string several good races together in a row – see Caviar N Crackers. The best value for this one might be found in late Pick 5 and Pick 4 tickets because I think he will get bet down from his 10 to 1 morning line quote.

#10 LOOKINLIKEAMILLION would probably be rated higher here if he drew better than the worst post because I think he fits much better racing at this bottom conditioned level. He has two wins this year both at huge odds, and in the second one, he showed that he can park a long way and keep coming. Still, it's hard to find a winning trip for him from post 10 and he is probably best used underneath.

#4 KINGSTON PANIC dropped, popped, and stopped as the 8 to 5 favorite last week, so he is hard to love in this spot. I think he looks for a covered trip this time though considering the way he faded on the lead last week. He could be part of the Tri or Super at a decent price tonight.

#3 HARRY G scored a big upset in the Pop Up series two starts back on the strength of a stellar James Macdonald drive. He was overmatched last start in a 1:50 3/5 mile and understandably made no late gains. He will likely pass a few of these in the final quarter and he can get a small share tonight facing easier.

CONDITIONS AND ALLOWANCES IN HARNESS RACING - IMPORTANT TO KNOW

The conditions of a race determine whether a horse is eligible to enter. For example many races are restricted to horses that have won a certain number of races or a certain amount of money in a specified number of starts. Many races are restricted to horses entered to be "claimed" (offered for sale) at a specific price.

Allowances in the claiming price itself are given to colts and geldings, four-year-olds and younger and to mares, five-year-olds and younger.

The purpose of the allowance is to keep younger horses more competitive when racing against older and more experienced rivals. Mares are given extra consideration in claiming events because of their potential as broodmares.

The accompanying chart shows what the allowances are, but an example may make them easier to understand. The chart indicates that three-year-olds receive a 50% allowance in claiming races. This means that a three-year-old entered in a $20,000 claiming race carries an actual claiming price of $30,000 (50% higher).

Fillies and mares receive an additional 25% allowance in claiming races. Details of the race conditions and claiming price (if any) are given at the top of each race in the program.

	ALLOWANCES CLAIMING RACES	CONDITION RACES
2 year olds	100%	50% on 2024 earnings
3 year olds	50%	25% on 2024 earnings 50% on 2023 earnings
4 year olds	25%	25% on 2023 earnings

C.P.M.A. Regulation Changes

Effective January 1st 2012
CPMA will be instituting several new rule changes with regards to the following pari-mutuel pools:

- Pick Pools
- If there are no winners in any leg of a Pick N pool, the entire pool is refunded.
 - If there is a change of surface in any leg that is NOT made known to the public prior to wagering for that pool closing, that leg will pay on all runners.
 - A pool is no longer refunded if the 1st leg in the pool is cancelled or declared no contest.
 - Pick-3: If at least 2 legs are declared no contest or cancelled, the pool is refunded.
 - Pick-4, 5 or 6: If at least 3 legs are declared no contest or cancelled, the pool is refunded.

EXPLANATION OF THE LASIX PROGRAM

After careful study and consultation with Ontario Horsemen's groups, racetrack operators and veterinarians, Agriculture Canada and the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario passed legislation allowing the controlled (or supervised) administration of furosemide, more commonly called "Lasix". "Lasix" is used to alleviate the symptoms of exercise induced pulmonary hemorrhaging in racing horses. Horses will undergo an endoscopic examination of the trachea by a veterinarian licensed by the Ontario Racing Commission and endorsed by an official veterinarian before being allowed on the medication list. Once qualified, horses will be treated with "Lasix" within four hours plus or minus 15 minutes of a scheduled race in a secure retention area under the super vision of racing officials. All horses on "Lasix" must remain on the program for a minimum of 100 days while racing in this jurisdiction.

- L Denotes horses treated with Lasix.
- (L) Denotes horses treated with Lasix today who were not so treated for their last start.
- (L) Denotes horses treated with Lasix for their last start but not so treated today.

Pari-mutuel wagering and drug control services are provided under the supervision of the Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency, an agency of Agriculture and the Minister of Agriculture. All pari-mutuel pools are calculated and distributed in accordance with the Pari-Mutuel Betting Regulations. The Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency can be contacted at 1-800-268-8835 or locally at 613-759-6100 or E-Mail: cpmawebacpm@agr.gc.ca

RULES AND INFORMATION REGARDING CANADIAN HARNESS AND FOREIGN SEPARATE POOL EVENTS

GENERAL

All pari-mutuel pools are calculated and distributed in accordance with the regulations and directives as issued by Agriculture and Agri-Food Canada ("The Regulations"), under the approval and supervision of the Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency. The Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency can be contacted at 1-800-268-8835 or 613-759-6100 or Email: cpmawebacpm@agr.gc.ca. A complete version of the CPMA regulations can be found at <http://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/regulations/SOR-91-365/>.

All tickets should be held until the result of the race is declared official and prices are posted.

No person under the age of 18 shall purchase or cash a ticket or voucher.

A claim of receiving an incorrect payment or incorrect change must be made to the Mutuel office of the association within twenty four hours of buying or cashing a valid ticket or voucher.

No ruling made by the Stewards/Judges or the Ontario Racing Commission with regard to distribution of purse money or the placing of horses in the order of finish, after the race has been declared official, shall have any bearing on the pay-out prices or distribution of pari-mutuel pools.

Change boards and Photo Finish display monitors are located in the Grandstand. In addition, Photo Finish pictures are shown on the closed-circuit television system. Customers are reminded that mutuel clerks are responsible for all shortages. When making a wager, customers must present sufficient funds at the time of purchase to cover the wagers requested.

ENTRIES AND MUTUEL FIELDS

"Entry" means two or more horses in the same race which, for the purpose of pari-mutuel betting, are coupled or considered as the same betting interest. The most common reason for the coupling of horses in an Entry is the fact that they are owned by the same person.

"Mutuel Field" means two or more horses in the same race which, for the purpose of pari-mutuel betting, are coupled because the number of horses in the race exceeds the number which can be handled separately by the pari-mutuel system. Subject to the Regulations, a bet on one horse of an Entry or Mutuel Field shall be considered a bet on all horses in that Entry or Mutuel Field.

DAILY DOUBLE BETTING (INCLUDING LATE DOUBLE)

A Daily Double bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of the two races specified for the Daily Double. Tickets not selecting the winner of the first half of the Daily Double and all tickets in the second half of the Daily Double not coupled with the declared official winner of the first half of the Daily Double are not winners and are not refunded no matter what circumstances affect the running of the second half of the Daily Double.

Should a horse or horses (not coupled with another starter) be excused from starting in the second race of the Daily Double after the first race of the Daily Double has closed for betting, holders of all Daily Double tickets on such horses, coupled with the winner of the first Daily Double race, shall participate in a Consolation Double pool. (Effective Jan 1, 2012)

EXACTA (Also known as Exactor)/TRIFECTA (Also known as Tractor)/SUPERFECTA

An Exacta, Trifecta, Superfecta is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the first two, three and four horses respectively, representing different betting interests to finish in the exact official order of finish, in the race on which the pool is operated.

SWINGER (Also known as OMNI)

A Swinger is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select horses to finish in any order from the official first 3 positions.

JACKPOT HI-5

A Jackpot Hi-5 bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the exact order of finish of the first 5 runners in the specified Jackpot Hi-5 race. If there are races that have an entry, (i.e. 1 & 1A and/or 2 & 2B), Jackpot Hi-5 will not offer a wager consisting of both halves of the same betting interest. Example: If the same betting interest finishes first and second in a Jackpot Hi-5, the payout would be 1st, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th.

That jackpot portion of the pool will only be paid out if there is a single winning ticket. If there are multiple winning tickets that have correctly chosen the first 5 runners of the race, they will receive 50% of the pool for that day. The other 50% will go over into the Jackpot carryover. If there are no winning tickets with the exact order of finish of the first 5 runners, 100% of the current day's pool will be carried over into the Jackpot.

PICK 3 & PICK 4 BETTING

The Pick 3 & Pick 4 bets are betting transactions in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of three or four successive races specified for the Pick 3 & Pick 4 respectively.

Winning tickets for the Pick 3 & Pick 4 are determined in the following sequence: A) winners of all legs, B) most winners, then refund. If there is a change of surface in any leg that is NOT made known to the public prior to wagering for that pool closing, that leg will pay on all runners. If there are no winners in any leg of a pool, the entire pool is refunded.

PICK 5 BETTING

The Pick 5 bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of five successive races specified for the Pick 5 respectively.

If no one has correctly selected all 5 winners, the entire net pool is carried over to the next available PICK 5.

PICK 6 BETTING

The Pick 6 bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of six successive races specified for the Pick 6 respectively.

If no one has correctly selected all 6 winners, the entire net pool is carried over to the next available PICK 6.

PICK 5 & 6 BETTING

If at least 1 race as part of the Pick 5 or 6 has been cancelled or declared "No contest", but not more than the specified below under Refunds, the net pool shall be distributed to those selecting the most # of winners and NOT include any carryover from a previous pool.

PICK 3, PICK 4, PICK 5 & PICK 6 SCRATCHES

In the event a Pick 3, Pick 4, Pick 5 or Pick 6 ticket designates as a selection a horse which is scratched, excused or determined by the Stewards/Judges to be a non-starter in any of the races comprising the Pick 3, Pick 4, Pick 5 or Pick 6 the favourite, as evidenced by the amount wagered in the win pool at the time of the start of the race in which the scratch occurred, will be substituted for the non-starting selection. In the event that the money bet in the win pool for two or more favourites is identical, the selection with the lowest program number shall be substituted for the non-starting selection.

However, if a scratch occurs in any leg of the Pick 3, Pick 4, Pick 5 or Pick 6 pools before the pool is closed, a ticket including the scratched horse may be cancelled.

REFUNDS

Subject to the Regulations, all monies in all pools on a race are refunded in the event that the race is cancelled, declared off or declared no contest, and all monies bet on a horse are refunded if the horse is a late scratch or does not receive a fair start. These refunds will be communicated to the public through various means such as betting terminals, video display, changes boards and our website.

The Pick(n) pool shall be cancelled and all Pick(n) wagers for the individual performance shall be refunded if:

- Pick-3: at least 2 legs are declared no contest or cancel. (Effective Jan 1, 2012)
- Pick-4, 5 or 6: at least 3 legs are declared no contest or cancel. (Effective Jan 1, 2012)

Where a horse that is part of an Entry is a late scratch or does not receive a fair start and at least one horse of that Entry receives a fair start in the race, all tickets purchased on the Entry remain valid and the purchase price of any such ticket shall not be refunded.

COMMON POOL WAGERING (INTERTRACK BETTING)

In the unlikely event of a communications or computer system failure that prevents pools from merging with the host track's pools before the end of a race, CPMA regulations require that the site must refund all tickets for that race. This refund will be communicated to the public through various means such as video displays, change boards and messages on our website.

FAIR START

If a horse has reached the Fair Start Pole (located 200 feet before the Starting Pole) by the time the mobile gate has reached the Starting Pole, that horse is deemed to have had a fair start. It makes no difference whether or not the horse is on or off stride at that precise moment. Under current policy and regulations, which are designed to be as fair as possible to all bettors on all starters, there is no Recall - a repeat of the entire starting procedure - when a horse does not reach the Fair Start Pole before the gate reaches the Starting Pole. Monies bet on such a horse are refunded in accordance with the regulation concerning refunds.

LOST & OLD TICKETS

WEG issued tickets or vouchers are valid indefinitely, however, they cannot be cashed at a mutuel teller after 2 years from date of issue. Please mail tickets, along with your name and address, to Mutuel Manager, P.O. Box 156, Rexdale, Ontario, M9W 5L2, keeping a photocopy for future reference.

For "Lost Tickets" originally sold at a Woodbine Entertainment Group racetrack or Teletheatre, please enquire at the Mutuel office at Woodbine, Greenwood Teletheatre, or Mohawk. Policy may be subject to change retroactively in the event regulatory bodies amend existing regulations.

ASSOCIATION PERCENTAGE, AND TAXATION/LEVY

The Woodbine Entertainment Group deducts and retains the following percentages from wagers placed at our own licensed sites which are then shared with the horsepeople, host and simulcast associations and the Ontario Racing Commission.

WOODBINE MOHAWK LIVE: Win, Place & Show: 13.65%. Swinger 14.7%. Trifecta & Pick 4: 21.7%. Double & Exacta 17.2%. Jackpot Hi-5, Pick 5 & Pick 6: 11.7%. All other 23.0%

Horsepeople receive a further 2% on all wagers, except Trifecta wagering where it is 4%. The Ontario Provincial Government retains 0.5% on all bets placed in Ontario. The Canadian Government (through a revolving fund cost recovery basis) retains 0.8% on all wagers placed in Canada for provision of drug control, and audit services.

While every effort is made to provide accurate information in the program, Woodbine Entertainment Group assumes no liability for errors or omissions.
