Betting Basics

Some essentials to get you started with making a wager.

1 How to wager

Place your bet by visiting a teller, or using a self-serve terminal.

To place a bet here are just 5 things you need to know:

- 1 Name of racetrack (choose from any track in the simulcast feeds)
- 2 Number of the race
- 3 Amount of your bet (e.g. $2)
- 4 Type of bet (see step 2)
- 5 Horse's number (see step 4)

Once you have decided what you want to bet, head to the nearest seller's window and use the sample statement as your guide:

Hello, (Racetrack), race 6, $2 to WIN on Horse #4

How to use a self-serve terminal:

- 1 Swipe your Cash Card/Insert Cash
- 2 Enter the initial PIN #1234 (then choose a new PIN)
- 3 Press/Tap the track you would like to bet: (defaults to current race)
- 4 Tap the Horse Number: #4
- 5 Press/Tap the Bet Type: WIN
- 6 Press/Tap the Bet Amount: $2
- 7 Press/Tap the Race Number: Race #6
- 8 Press Green "Make BET" button
- 9 Press/Tap the "Finish with Receipt" button
- 10 Be sure to check your ticket to confirm it's the bet you wanted

To get a Cash Card or for assistance ask a teller, or a staff member.

2 Types of bets

Single horse bets (minimum $2.00 bet is required)

Bet type	Level of difficulty	Explanation and expectation
Win	U U U	Your horse must finish 1st; payoff determined by the win odds.
Place	U U	Your horse must finish 1st or 2nd; payoffs better than to show.
Show	U	Your horse must finish 1st, 2nd, or 3rd; modest payoffs.

Exotic multiple-horse bets

Bet type	Level of difficulty	Explanation and expectation
Exacta*	U U U U	Your horses must finish 1st and 2nd in exact order; riskier bet that can pay a little or a lot, depending on the horses' odds.
Daily double	U U U U U	Pick the winners of two designated consecutive races.
Pick 3, Win 4, Pick 5, Pick 6	U U U U U U	Select the winners of a designated set of consecutive races. The wager must be made prior to the start of the first race in the multi-race wager.
Triactor*	U U U U U U U	Your horses must finish 1st, 2nd, and 3rd in exact order; can be expensive to play if you use a lot of horses.
Superfecta*	U U U U U U U U	Your horses must finish 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th; big payoff possible.

* Exotic bets require the horses to finish in the EXACT order you select, unless you "BOX" the bet, in which case your selections can finish in any order.

All of the numbers and letters in the program might seem confusing or overwhelming at first, but focusing on these sections makes choosing a horse simple.

- 1 Horse's number in the race
- 2 Horse's post position colour
- 3 Horse's colour, sex, age, sire (father), dam (mother), sire of the dam
- 4 Morning line odds
- 5 Horse's name
- 6 Driver and Driver Record (Name, # of wins, # of 2nds, # of 3rds, winning %)

- 7 Trainer information
- 8 Horse's Lifetime record (with best win time, track size, track, age, lifetime wins and lifetime earnings)
- 9 Horse's current record (# of races, # wins, # of 2nds, # of 3rds, and money earned)

4 The odds

Odds are also important to consider when choosing your horse. Horses that are thought to have a better chance of winning will typically have lower odds.

Morning line odds

Odds listed in the race program are the "morning line" odds. These are predictions of how the public will bet on the race. They are set by the track's handicapper when the race program is published, before the wagering starts.

The actual odds will be posted on the Television or in-field on the Tote Board before the race; they change up until post time, depending on how customers are betting on each horse in the race.

Calculating a $2 win prize

To calculate a win prize, find the Odds of a horse on the Television or Tote Board (in-field board).

Multiply the first number by 2, then divide that number by the second digit (if there is one), and then add $2. Simple as that!

Odds	1/2	2/1	7/2	5/1	10/1
Pays	$3.00	$6.00	$9.00	$12.00	$22.00

Helpful facts for betting

- Some racetracks have a television simulcast commentator who tries to identify winning horses (handicaps) between the races. Listen and see if you can pick up any good tips to bet on.
- A good betting method is to choose horses with current odds two to three times higher than their morning line odds.

3 Tips to remember

WIN BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 32% of the time
PLACE BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 53% of the time
SHOW BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 67% of the time

* Numbers listed above are approximate, may vary by racetrack.

Woodbine Entertainment and its' employees are honoured to engage in the sport of horse racing and entertainment activities in the meeting place of Etobicoke. Woodbine Racetrack is located within the traditional and treaty Lands of the Mississaugas of the Credit. Known as Adoobiigok, the "Place of the Alders" in Michi Saagiig language, the region is uniquely situated along the Humber River Watershed, which historically provided an integral connection for Anishinaabe, Haudenosaunee, and Wendat peoples between the Ontario Lakeshore and Lake Simcoe/Georgian Bay regions. The territory is covered by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, an agreement between the Anishinaabe and the Haudenosaunee to peaceably take care of the land and resources around the Great Lakes. Woodbine is honoured to care for this land, our human and equine athletes, and provide a place to race responsibly.

Race 1 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#7 NOT PASSABLE is a promising filly that caught the eye in both her April 18th qualifier where she powered up late to win via a 27 2/5 kicker, and her pari-mutuel debut on May 1st. In that debut mile, she got pounded down to 3 to 5 favorite on the strength of that sharp qualifier. She took a mid race shuffle and looked like she was in a tough spot early in the stretch. Driver Jody Jamieson found her a lane late in the stretch, and she stormed home on the far outside to get up for the win at first asking. She was then thrown into the deep end facing much more experienced fillies in the SBOA stakes, including last year's 'O Brien Award winner Monalishi. She took a cheque in the elimination but was never in contention in the final. This Grassroots field should be more within her scope, and I'll give her the nod to start up the $75,000 guaranteed Pick 5.

#5 FOXY AMEE was excellent at the start of her rookie campaign, taking three wins and two seconds in her first five starts, including an OSS Gold win. She showed in many of those races that she could take air and keep advancing and she also won on the lead. She has had some gait issues this spring after never breaking once in 10 starts at two (two qualifiers and eight races for purses). She starts her season in a Grassroots race which follows the same pattern that worked for her last year as she was a winner in that debut race. She adds trotting hobbles tonight and that key equipment change can fix her breaking issues. She is the one to beat if she stays trotting.

#2 IBELIEVEINANGELS raced better in her second start of the season, where she got more aggressive at the start and ended up sitting a nice pocket trip chasing the favorite. She shows a second-place finish in the Grassroots final last year on her card, so we know that she fits versus these. She will probably get raced aggressively again tonight, and she should be razor-sharp making her third start of the year. She is another possibility for the Pick 5.

#9 P L STEVIE took some wagering action for her debut based on her good qualifying effort, and she showed promise in that race, closing in 27 4/5 to take the smallest cheque in a race that was dominated by a 1 to 9 favorite. She found her best stride in that race in the last few strides and that mile should serve as a good tightener for this Grassroots debut. I can see her passing a few of these in the back half and landing in the bottom of the Tri or Super.

Race 2 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#1 LANDING ON TIME couldn't have looked much better in victory when making his first start for new connections on May 9th after changing hands last November following a decent rookie season. He made it known in his April 28th qualifier that he was ready to rock, and he followed up on that good qualifier with an even better effort winning his sophomore debut. After floating out from post eight and tucking in fifth, he advanced first-over in the third quarter, took over command, then impressively powered away from his non-winners of two rivals. He steps up to non-winners of three now, but he picks up the leading driver. He has a good chance of doubling up versus this group.

#6 MARKET BANKER raced well in three straight starts after being scratched sick on April 14th, and the betting public made him the favorite to win the Pop Up series final last week. He broke at the start and was pulled up, but that was because he had broken equipment before the start of the race. He was refunded, and that line is a toss. Looking at his performance from two starts back, he looked good rallying from eighth at the half to win comfortably. He should be the main threat tonight starting from the best post from which he will likely start more alertly.

#7 WENDELL BLUE CHIP had a solid rookie season, earning more than $88,000 from three wins and two other placings from 10 starts. His big win came in the Grassroots Final here in late September and he came back to take a cheque in the Superfinal before getting put away for the year. His qualifiers indicate that he is ready to roll, but I'm not sure he is ready to trot in the 1:54 range which we already know the top pick can do. He also has a sophomore stakes season in his sights, and he will likely take back at the start and rally for a share.

#4 SOUTHWIND MILK took a while to get going in her sophomore debut, but she did manage to produce a 27 2/5 kicker to get the final cheque. She was Grand Circuit placed at two, and she is another gearing up and getting fit for her stakes season. Racing against some older males here, a small share is probably her ceiling.

PURSE $25000. ONTARIO SIRES STAKES: GRASSROOTS LEG 1. 3 YEAR OLD TROTTING FILLIES. STARTING FEE $400 CDN ($300 USD).

Race 3 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#6 INCANTATION has had six starts so far this year leading to this first Grassroots start, and she exits two fast races against some tough company. Her most recent start, contested against some male trotters, was a good effort that should have her primed for this sires stake. She was the first leader from post six and she gave up command to the 2 to 5 favorite just past the quarter. From there, she followed to the wire and just got picked up for second while finishing a close third. Now she faces only her own gender in a Grassroots race, and two of her three wins last year were taken in these typed of races. Jody Jamieson will likely send her right to the front and look to control the race from the outset, and she gets top billing here.

#3 D A DREAM GIRL tried the front end on May 15th when she was sent postward as the 8 to 5 favorite, and that didn't work out for her although she did stick around for a small share. In her first two starts of the year, when she deployed a closing style, she got better results, including taking her maiden win on April 24th with a strong first-over move in the final quarter. Her sub-28 closing speed should play well here, assuming she sits back and closes again, which I think she will. She is the other one that I would consider using on early multi-race tickets.

#2 YS QUEEN BETH raced well in both of her first two starts as a sophomore, and she is in the mix here in her sires stakes debut. She looked terrific powering down the middle of the track to break her maiden on May 8th, then stepped up to non-winners of two and finished evenly. She should be able to take a share tonight with her good late speed.

#7 SHAMPOO GIRL broke her maiden in her debut here last year winning from post 10 as a two-year-old. That is a rare feat not often seen on this track or any other that starts them 10 across, so you know there is some quality here. There is also plenty of risk when you consider that she has broke in four of her seven miles (including qualifiers). I would need a price to play here that I probably won't get tonight, so I will tab her for next time.

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#4 TRICKY MCWICKY took a tow month break between March and May ad he requalified well on May 5th with his trainer in the bike. Two weeks later he showed up in this class level with Doug McNair in the bike, and he took some play considering he drew post nine for that first start back. He floated out for position, and he got in a bit of an early wrestling match with McNair on the first turn, eventually giving in and dropping in fifth. He pulled first up at the half and challenged and eventually passed the leader, only to be overtaken by the winner who sat in and shot up the pylons late. He stayed game and was picked up for second on the wire for second by the #3 in this race. That was a strong effort, and I think he will try for the front this week. He gets top billing.

#3 SHOW STOP was let go at 19 to 1 last week despite dropping back down to a level where he was beaten by only a length and a half two starts previous. He got away sixth from the rail and latched onto the good cover of Tricky Mcwick and rode it to deep stretch where he tipped and drove. He was a bit unlucky to get beat by a rival that stayed in and eventually found the inside lane which cleared out for him just in time. That was a good effort and getting off the rail here should be a positive for him. He figures to be the main threat to the choice tonight.

#8 ARMOR SEELSTER is morning line favorite probably on the strength of some okay closing efforts in fast miles in the recently concluded Pop Up series. He shows no recent gate speed, but that doesn't mean that J R Plante won't try to leave with him. In his lone victory of the year in February, Plante pointed him to the top leaving the gate and he led by open lengths for the entire mile. I'm inclined to bet against him here considering his 1 for 16 record this year, but he isn't without a chance.

#7 KINGSTON PANIC was sent off as the 8 to 5 favorite two starts back when he dropped to this level, and he tried the front end, and he went from first to worst in the stretch. Last week, he left in mid pack and took a covered trip, the rallied for the smallest cheque, pacing his final quarter in 27 3/5. I could se him sitting and rallying and sneaking into the bottom of the Tri or Super tonight.

#3 GREEN GLIDER is the "now" filly in this three-year-old trotting filly division, having won impressively in both the SBOA elimination and final after trotting a storm on the end of her sophomore debut mile where she finished third, and she will take beating here in this first OSS Gold leg. In the SBOA final, she raced first-over, providing perfect cover for favored Monalishi, and she held that rival at bay in a strong effort. She gets regular driver Trevor Henry back after a one race absence, and she is the one to beat here.

#1 MONALISHI fell short in the SBOA final after getting a good following trip behind Green Glider, but one race doesn't define a season. She showed at two that she can trot faster than she did last week, and I wonder if she will try to get the jump on her main rival tonight and look to fend her off. This multiple Grand Circuit winner will be the one that the top pick will need to worry about again, and it won't be shocking if she turns the tables.

#5 ROXIE HART caught the eye approaching the wire in that SBOA final because she was the one that was closing the best on the far outside, just missing third at the wire. She showed in her two wins in the Spring Series that she can lay closer to the front early in the mile, and I think she will look to get a quicker start here starting from the middle of the gate. She should be part of the Tri or Super tonight if she brings the same late kick that was saw in the stretch drive last week.

#8 LIL SWEET will probably be the forgotten filly in here after getting beaten twice in a row by the top pick in this race and only managing a sixth-place finish in the SBOA final, but we still have her OSS Superfinal win from last year staring up at us from the track program, and she will likely be heard from before the summer is over. Strating from a wide post tonight, however, she is likely best used underneath.

Race 6 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#1 MASSTERCRAFT comes into this race winless in 2025, but he raced well at this level in two straight, and he has a good chance of breaking through tonight. Last week, he mounted a first-over challenge chasing the 7 to 5 favorite and he won the battle but lost the war. The leader drifted off the pylons in the lane, and that allowed the pocket sitter – who had won his previous start – a free run up the pylons. That was the difference in the race. He lands in a race that seems laden with closers and devoid of those that want the front early and he has a good chance of controlling this race from the outset. He gets the nod to kick off the late Pick 5 that starts here.

#8 P L RAINBOW DASH caught the eye flying down the middle of the track and eating up ground quickly in the stretch in her four-year-old debut. After getting positioned in sixth earlier, she was kept inside and that resulted in her being shuffled back to last on the far turn. She was wheeled widest turning for home, and she simply ran out of racetrack while closing on the leaders quickly. She only took one win last year, but she is capable in this field if she is withing striking distance turning for home.

#2 TRUFFLES TOO is the other one in here that figures to be pointed for the front leaving the gate after trying the front end last time and just getting picked off by a scant nose right on the line. That was his best effort since winning at a level higher than tonight's in mid February, and he retains the leading driver tonight. He should be a threat racing on or near the lead, and he is another one to consider for the late Pick 5.

#3 WHAT ABOUT ELMO dropped to this level last week after racing against Paquet in three straight starts, and he was let go as a 48 to 1 longshot that night. He sat in sixth for most of the mile, then latched onto third-over cover around the last turn. Tyler Jones pointed him to the middle of the track, and he gradually gained on the leaders as he got into high gear in the final sixteenth. He fell only a neck short of catching Masstercraft in that race, and he can close for another share here.

PURSE $25000. ONTARIO SIRES STAKES: GRASSROOTS LEG 1. 3 YEAR OLD TROTTING FILLIES. STARTING FEE $400 CDN ($300 USD).

Race 7 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#4 TELLERS CHOICE comes into this first Grassroots event of the year having chased Green Glider around the track twice in the SBOA elimination and final. She showed speed in both of those starts and she should be sharp as she faces easier company tonight. Last season, two of her three wins came in Grassroots races, including a dominant three and a half length victory in the $75,000 Final. She followed that up with a good effort from post nine to get fourth in the Superfinal. She gets Louis-Phillipe Roy back in the bike, and he drove her to those two Grassroots wins last year. It seems very likely that he will point this filly to the front early in this mile and look to control the race from there. She is the clear to pick here in a spot where she should improve sharply.

#2 OCEANVIEW RUMOURS produced a nice closing effort in her seasonal debut after leaving from a wide post, and that performance should set her up nicely for this her Grassroots debut. After dominating racing on the Maritimes last summer, she shipped to Mohawk Park in the fall and made an immediate impact, winning a leg of the Harvest Series in a lifetime best 1:55 1/5. She was knocked out by sickness and missed the final of that series then resurfaced on May 15th where she got that useful tightener in. The leading driver sides with her over another in here that won her last start. She will likely be the main threat to the choice tonight.

#9 GREEN MANS JOY is clearly better at three. After taking only one second-place finish from 10 starts last year, she already has a win and two seconds from four starts this season. She was driven aggressively in the three starts where she hit the board and took a closing approach from post 10 where she closed for a slice. He can get a good trip racing close to the front tonight and land in the Tri.

#5 SHESAMANALISHI raced here Thursday night in the rain over an off track and she looked like a winner until deep stretch when a rival that was unused until the final eighth found a seam to angle to her outside and got up to nip her on the line. There is little question that she will be sharp for this race returning quickly and she could better this prediction of she gets a good following trip again.

BEST BET: TELLERS CHOICE

Race 8 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#6 LETS GET ROCKED races out of the Corey Giles barn after being claimed last week in a race where he tried to leave from post eight but was forced to drop back and take a seat in fifth when four rivals to his left also blasted out of there, leaving him no choice but to abort his front end mission. He moved second-over at the half and gapped his cover on the turn, then came on late in the stretch, gaining ground but not positions. He draws best and keeps the leading driver here and I think he will get pointed to the front, where he does his best work. He gets the nod in a race with a few possibilities.

#2 KYLES ART has won three of his last six and two in a row at this level and six of 16 this year and he seems to be a horse that finds winning trips by sitting back watching rivals battle, then taking advantage late when they tire. Last week, he left hard enough from the rail to land in fourth and he sat in until the stretch. It was when Lets Get Rocked gapped cover in early stretch that this Kyle Fellows pupil found racing room, and he took advantage to notch the repeat win. He will likely look for a similar trip tonight, and it's likely that he will find room again in this seven-horse field. A threepeat is a good possibility.

#7 JJ TOMMY unsurprisingly blasted off for the lead with a claim in on him last week, and he did all the work only to be picked off late by fresh Kyles Art. He was haltered by the Harris brothers, and he will no doubt get sent from the widest post looking to go down the road tonight. I prefer to use him underneath in this spot, but he could get brave if left unchallenged for too long.

#5 TANGO SEELSTER produced an eye-catching stretch move five starts back on April 21st, and he has got bet in every start since with some punters expecting him to follow up on that effort with a winning mile at some point. He has only been able to finish on the edges and last week, he sat a great trip and had a clear shot at the leader in deep stretch, but he spun his wheels as the 2 to 1 second choice. I'm a non-believer at this point and he seems best used underneath in this spot.

Race 9 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#6 SPARTAN GENERAL couldn't be going any better right now, coming off a lifetime best performance where he absolutely stormed home in 26 3/5 beating Nasey, who has since come back to win. In that winning mile on May 12th, he advanced on third-over cover to the final turn, making it up to fourth before being turned loose at the head of the lane. He sailed past the leaders while getting no urging whatsoever from driver Christoforou. He draws the best post here which probably means he will beat a couple of these rivals off the gate. He won from post six on April 14th. He steps up tonight, but this isn't the strongest Preferred 2 trot. He can get the job done if he is close enough at the head of the stretch.

#3 GHOSTLY CASPER raced at the top level chasing the likes of Logan Park, Gaines Hanover and Amigo Volo in five of his six starts this year. In the one start where he dropped and avoided those very tough rivals, he dominated on the lead on May 5th. He beat Spartan General on that occasion when that rival tried to close from 10 lengths back at the head of the lane. It seems very likely that he will be the one to catch on the class drop tonight. I could see the top two picks battling for the win in deep stretch.

#5 NASEY is having a terrific year from an earnings standpoint, taking home more than $64,000 on the strength of nine top two finishes from 17 starts so far. He hasn't missed the board in his last eight starts, and that streak will likely continue tonight as he leaves from a good post and should get the mid pack position that he wants. He should be part of the Tri once again utilizing his good closing speed.

#8 LOCATELLI drops from the top class, but he draws worst, and he rarely shows any gate speed, so it's logical to assume that he will be dropping back to last and looking to rally. His class and good late speed can carry him past a few rivals in this spot and he can land in the bottom of the Tri or Super.

Race 10 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#5 MYFRIENDJOSE got hot in early May winning two straight before going down to defeat when he stepped up to the non-winners of $15,000 last five level last time. He made front early then let a rival go, and he had trouble keeping up to that new leader around the far turn. He re-rallied a bit late to stop the clock in 1:53 1/5 which was the exact same time he trotted the mile in when he won the week before. It may have just been a case of being in too tough on that occasion. If he trots in 1:53 1/5 tonight on the class drop, he should be right there on the wire. He gets the nod starting from the middle of the gate which gives him every opportunity to march right to the front leaving the gate and grab the front and possibly find a winning pocket trip.

#8 SPARKS FLY's strategy will be no secret tonight racing on the class drop. He will want the lead, and starting from the widest post, he will probably be the last one to clear to the front. Last time he raced at a class similar to tonight's he controlled the race and kicked home in 27 2/5 to convert, a two-length winner in the end. He can get brave if left unchallenged, and he is a contender here, but he might provide the perfect target for the top pick, who could find himself racing in his pocket to the stretch.

#2 BELLA CAVALLA comes off a brave first-over effort where she wore down the leader and eventually got up for a narrow victory. She scratched due to injury a week later, but it is logical to assume that she is okay if she only missed one week. This is a tougher spot for her, and she typically finishes on the edges when she races at this class level. Its likely that she will pass a few of her rivals in the final quarter of this race and she is a good one to use on the bottom of the Tri and Super.

#1 GIGONDAS got Doug McNair in the bike last week, and that teamster provided the winning steer to get this gelding home for his first win of 2025. He faces much tougher in this spot tonight, but he is capable of sitting a trip racing in the top four and sticking around for a share. He is worth a look at a price for use underneath.

Race 11 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#7 HF PANS SHADOW tipped his hand two starts back when he closed with a big rush in deep stretch to get fourth after tipping wide on the final turn. He was still sent postward at close to nine to one last week, and he parlayed a good following trip into his second win of the year. He was bottled up turning for home, the third one back racing on the inside and he had to wait for room. Once he found room along the pylons, he accelerated quickly to surge for the victory. When Team Hensley gets them good, they often race well for several starts in a row. I'll give this gelding the call to repeat.

#1 LOOKINLIKEAMILLION was used hard to make front last week after starting from the 10-hole, and he tired late to finish close to four lengths behind the HF Pans Shadow. Drawing inside racing at this lowest conditioned level for the second time, he will likely look for a helmet to follow, and I think he can go much better tonight. He is the other one that I would consider using in the late Pick 4.

#6 WANNABEABIGSTAR has regularly been racing against tougher than he meets tonight and that is why he is quoted as the 2 to 1 favorite in the morning line. He adds Lasix coming off a sick scratch and he is an obvious contender on paper. He comes into this race with a stale date, however having missed five weeks, and for that reason, he is one that I will try to beat in this spot.

#2 THEMASKEDCRUSADR N finished his last two miles in 27 and change but he couldn't get close to the leaders in identical 1:51 3/5 miles. This should be a better spot for him, and I think he will improve in what looks like an easier field. I can see him passing a few of these late and landing in the bottom of the Super or High-5.

#3 BAYFIELD BEACH is 0 for 13 this year so far, but he has taken shares regularly lately, finishing third in three of his last four starts. He made a couple of moves in his most recent race last week, and he stuck around for a slice. He could better this placing if he can work out a good trip again racing close to the front. He is a good one to use in all positions underneath the top two.

CONDITIONS AND ALLOWANCES IN HARNESS RACING - IMPORTANT TO KNOW

The conditions of a race determine whether a horse is eligible to enter. For example many races are restricted to horses that have won a certain number of races or a certain amount of money in a specified number of starts. Many races are restricted to horses entered to be "claimed" (offered for sale) at a specific price.

Allowances in the claiming price itself are given to colts and geldings, four-year-olds and younger and to mares, five-year-olds and younger.

The purpose of the allowance is to keep younger horses more competitive when racing against older and more experienced rivals. Mares are given extra consideration in claiming events because of their potential as broodmares.

The accompanying chart shows what the allowances are, but an example may make them easier to understand. The chart indicates that three-year-olds receive a 50% allowance in claiming races. This means that a three-year-old entered in a $20,000 claiming race carries an actual claiming price of $30,000 (50% higher).

Fillies and mares receive an additional 25% allowance in claiming races. Details of the race conditions and claiming price (if any) are given at the top of each race in the program.

	ALLOWANCES CLAIMING RACES	CONDITION RACES
2 year olds	100%	50% on 2024 earnings
3 year olds	50%	25% on 2024 earnings 50% on 2023 earnings
4 year olds	25%	25% on 2023 earnings

ALLOWANCES FOR PURSE EARNINGS

When Fillies/Mares compete against Colts/Geldings (normally on the trot) Fillies/Mares will receive an additional 25% on the condition of the race. ie: nw $5,000 (FM $6,250) last 5 or $12,000 (FM $15,000) last 10 starts.

THE MORNING LINE reflects the track oddsmaker's estimate of what each horse's odds will be at post time. The actual odds are established by the amounts wagered by the public on each horse in the win pool.

C.P.M.A. Regulation Changes

Effective January 1st 2012

CPMA will be instituting several new rule changes with regards to the following pari-mutuel pools:

Pick Pools

- If there are no winners in any leg of a Pick N pool, the entire pool is refunded.
- If there is a change of surface in any leg that is NOT made known to the public prior to wagering for that pool closing, that leg will pay on all runners.
- A pool is no longer refunded if the 1st leg in the pool is cancelled or declared no contest.
- Pick-3: If at least 2 legs are declared no contest or cancelled, the pool is refunded.
- Pick-4, 5 or 6: If at least 3 legs are declared no contest or cancelled, the pool is refunded.

EXPLANATION OF THE LASIX PROGRAM

After careful study and consultation with Ontario Horsemen's groups, racetrack operators and veterinarians, Agriculture Canada and the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario passed legislation allowing the controlled (or supervised) administration of furosemide, more commonly called "Lasix". "Lasix" is used to alleviate the symptoms of exercise induced pulmonary hemorrhaging in racing horses. Horses will undergo an endoscopic examination of the trachea by a veterinarian licensed by the Ontario Racing Commission and endorsed by an official veterinarian before being allowed on the medication list. Once qualified, horses will be treated with "Lasix" within four hours plus or minus 15 minutes of a scheduled race in a secure retention area under the super vision of racing officials.

All horses on "Lasix" must remain on the program for a minimum of 100 days while racing in this jurisdiction.

- L Denotes horses treated with Lasix.
- (L) Denotes horses treated with Lasix today who were not so treated for their last start.
- (L) Denotes horses treated with Lasix for their last start but not so treated today.

Pari-mutuel wagering and drug control services are provided under the supervision of the Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency, an agency of Agriculture and the Minister of Agriculture. All pari-mutuel pools are calculated and distributed in accordance with the Pari-Mutuel Betting Regulations. The Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency can be contacted at 1-800-268-8835 or locally at 613-759-6100 or E-Mail: cpmawebacpm@agr.gc.ca

RULES AND INFORMATION REGARDING CANADIAN HARNESS AND FOREIGN SEPARATE POOL EVENTS

GENERAL

All pari-mutuel pools are calculated and distributed in accordance with the regulations and directives as issued by Agriculture and Agri-Food Canada ("The Regulations"), under the approval and supervision of the Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency. The Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency can be contacted at 1-800-268-8835 or 613-759-6100 or Email: cpmawebacpm@agr.gc.ca. A complete version of the CPMA regulations can be found at <http://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/regulations/SOR-91-365/>.

All tickets should be held until the result of the race is declared official and prices are posted.

No person under the age of 18 shall purchase or cash a ticket or voucher.

A claim of receiving an incorrect payment or incorrect change must be made to the Mutuel office of the association within twenty four hours of buying or cashing a valid ticket or voucher.

No ruling made by the Stewards/Judges or the Ontario Racing Commission with regard to distribution of purse money or the placing of horses in the order of finish, after the race has been declared official, shall have any bearing on the pay-out prices or distribution of pari-mutuel pools.

Change boards and Photo Finish display monitors are located in the Grandstand. In addition, Photo Finish pictures are shown on the closed-circuit television system. Customers are reminded that mutuel clerks are responsible for all shortages. When making a wager, customers must present sufficient funds at the time of purchase to cover the wagers requested.

ENTRIES AND MUTUEL FIELDS

"Entry" means two or more horses in the same race which, for the purpose of pari-mutuel betting, are coupled or considered as the same betting interest. The most common reason for the coupling of horses in an Entry is the fact that they are owned by the same person.

"Mutuel Field" means two or more horses in the same race which, for the purpose of pari-mutuel betting, are coupled because the number of horses in the race exceeds the number which can be handled separately by the pari-mutuel system. Subject to the Regulations, a bet on one horse of an Entry or Mutuel Field shall be considered a bet on all horses in that Entry or Mutuel Field.

DAILY DOUBLE BETTING (INCLUDING LATE DOUBLE)

A Daily Double bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of the two races specified for the Daily Double. Tickets not selecting the winner of the first half of the Daily Double and all tickets in the second half of the Daily Double not coupled with the declared official winner of the first half of the Daily Double are not winners and are not refunded no matter what circumstances affect the running of the second half of the Daily Double.

Should a horse or horses (not coupled with another starter) be excused from starting in the second race of the Daily Double after the first race of the Daily Double has closed for betting, holders of all Daily Double tickets on such horses, coupled with the winner of the first Daily Double race, shall participate in a Consolation Double pool. (Effective Jan 1, 2012)

EXACTA (Also known as Exactor)/TRIFECTA (Also known as Triactor)/SUPERFECTA

An Exacta, Trifecta, Superfecta is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the first two, three and four horses respectively, representing different betting interests to finish in the exact official order of finish, in the race on which the pool is operated.

SWINGER (Also known as OMNI)

A Swinger is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select horses to finish in any order from the official first 3 positions.

JACKPOT HI-5

A Jackpot Hi-5 bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the exact order of finish of the first 5 runners in the specified Jackpot Hi-5 race. If there are races that have an entry, (i.e. 1 & 1A and/or 2 & 2B), Jackpot Hi-5 will not offer a wager consisting of both halves of the same betting interest. Example: If the same betting interest finishes first and second in a Jackpot Hi-5, the payout would be 1st, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th.

That jackpot portion of the pool will only be paid out if there is a single winning ticket. If there are multiple winning tickets that have correctly chosen the first 5 runners of the race, they will receive 50% of the pool for that day. The other 50% will go over into the Jackpot carryover. If there are no winning tickets with the exact order of finish of the first 5 runners, 100% of the current day's pool will be carried over into the Jackpot.

PICK 3 & PICK 4 BETTING

The Pick 3 & Pick 4 bets are betting transactions in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of three or four successive races specified for the Pick 3 & Pick 4 respectively.

Winning tickets for the Pick 3 & Pick 4 are determined in the following sequence: A) winners of all legs, B) most winners, then refund. If there is a change of surface in any leg that is NOT made known to the public prior to wagering for that pool closing, that leg will pay on all runners. If there are no winners in any leg of a pool, the entire pool is refunded.

PICK 5 BETTING

The Pick 5 bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of five successive races specified for the Pick 5 respectively.

If no one has correctly selected all 5 winners, the entire net pool is carried over to the next available PICK 5.

PICK 6 BETTING

The Pick 6 bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of six successive races specified for the Pick 6 respectively.

If no one has correctly selected all 6 winners, the entire net pool is carried over to the next available PICK 6.

PICK 5 & 6 BETTING

If at least 1 race as part of the Pick 5 or 6 has been cancelled or declared "No contest", but not more than the specified below under Refunds, the net pool shall be distributed to those selecting the most # of winners and NOT include any carryover from a previous pool.

PICK 3, PICK 4, PICK 5 & PICK 6 SCRATCHES

In the event a Pick 3, Pick 4, Pick 5 or Pick 6 ticket designates as a selection a horse which is scratched, excused or determined by the Stewards/Judges to be a non-starter in any of the races comprising the Pick 3, Pick 4, Pick 5 or Pick 6 the favourite, as evidenced by the amount wagered in the win pool at the time of the start of the race in which the scratch occurred, will be substituted for the non-starting selection. In the event that the money bet in the win pool for two or more favourites is identical, the selection with the lowest program number shall be substituted for the non-starting selection.

However, if a scratch occurs in any leg of the Pick 3, Pick 4, Pick 5 or Pick 6 pools before the pool is closed, a ticket including the scratched horse may be cancelled.

REFUNDS

Subject to the Regulations, all monies in all pools on a race are refunded in the event that the race is cancelled, declared off or declared no contest, and all monies bet on a horse are refunded if the horse is a late scratch or does not receive a fair start. These refunds will be communicated to the public through various means such as betting terminals, video display, changes boards and our website.

The Pick(n) pool shall be cancelled and all Pick(n) wagers for the individual performance shall be refunded if:

- Pick-3: at least 2 legs are declared no contest or cancel. (Effective Jan 1, 2012)
- Pick-4, 5 or 6: at least 3 legs are declared no contest or cancel. (Effective Jan 1, 2012)

Where a horse that is part of an Entry is a late scratch or does not receive a fair start and at least one horse of that Entry receives a fair start in the race, all tickets purchased on the Entry remain valid and the purchase price of any such ticket shall not be refunded.

COMMON POOL WAGERING (INTERTRACK BETTING)

In the unlikely event of a communications or computer system failure that prevents pools from merging with the host track's pools before the end of a race, CPMA regulations require that the site must refund all tickets for that race. This refund will be communicated to the public through various means such as video displays, change boards and messages on our website.

FAIR START

If a horse has reached the Fair Start Pole (located 200 feet before the Starting Pole) by the time the mobile gate has reached the Starting Pole, that horse is deemed to have had a fair start. It makes no difference whether or not the horse is on or off stride at that precise moment. Under current policy and regulations, which are designed to be as fair as possible to all bettors on all starters, there is no Recall - a repeat of the entire starting procedure - when a horse does not reach the Fair Start Pole before the gate reaches the Starting Pole. Monies bet on such a horse are refunded in accordance with the regulation concerning refunds.

LOST & OLD TICKETS

WEG issued tickets or vouchers are valid indefinitely, however, they cannot be cashed at a mutuel teller after 2 years from date of issue. Please mail tickets, along with your name and address, to Mutuel Manager, P.O. Box 156, Rexdale, Ontario, M9W 5L2, keeping a photocopy for future reference.

For "Lost Tickets" originally sold at a Woodbine Entertainment Group racetrack or Teletheatre, please enquire at the Mutuel office at Woodbine, Greenwood Teletheatre, or Mohawk. Policy may be subject to change retroactively in the event regulatory bodies amend existing regulations.

ASSOCIATION PERCENTAGE, AND TAXATION/LEVY

The Woodbine Entertainment Group deducts and retains the following percentages from wagers placed at our own licensed sites which are then shared with the horsepeople, host and simulcast associations and the Ontario Racing Commission.

WOODBINE MOHAWK LIVE: Win, Place & Show: 13.65%. Swinger 14.7%. Trifecta & Pick 4: 21.7%. Double & Exacta 17.2%. Jackpot Hi-5, Pick 5 & Pick 6: 11.7%. All other 23.0%

Horsepeople receive a further 2% on all wagers, except Trifecta wagering where it is 4%. The Ontario Provincial Government retains 0.5% on all bets placed in Ontario. The Canadian Government (through a revolving fund cost recovery basis) retains 0.8% on all wagers placed in Canada for provision of drug control, and audit services.

While every effort is made to provide accurate information in the program, Woodbine Entertainment Group assumes no liability for errors or omissions.
