Betting Basics

Some essentials to get you started with making a wager.

1 How to wager

Place your bet by visiting a teller, or using a self-serve terminal.

To place a bet here are just 5 things you need to know:

- 1 Name of racetrack (choose from any track in the simulcast feeds)
- 2 Number of the race
- 3 Amount of your bet (e.g. $2)
- 4 Type of bet (see step 2)
- 5 Horse's number (see step 4)

Once you have decided what you want to bet, head to the nearest seller's window and use the sample statement as your guide:

Hello, (Racetrack), race 6, $2 to WIN on Horse #4

How to use a self-serve terminal:

- 1 Swipe your Cash Card/Insert Cash
- 2 Enter the initial PIN #1234 (then choose a new PIN)
- 3 Press/Tap the track you would like to bet: (defaults to current race)
- 4 Tap the Horse Number: #4
- 5 Press/Tap the Bet Type: WIN
- 6 Press/Tap the Bet Amount: $2
- 7 Press/Tap the Race Number: Race #6
- 8 Press Green "Make BET" button
- 9 Press/Tap the "Finish with Receipt" button
- 10 Be sure to check your ticket to confirm it's the bet you wanted

To get a Cash Card or for assistance ask a teller, or a staff member.

2 Types of bets

Single horse bets (minimum $2.00 bet is required)

Bet type	Level of difficulty	Explanation and expectation
Win	U U U	Your horse must finish 1st; payoff determined by the win odds.
Place	U U	Your horse must finish 1st or 2nd; payoffs better than to show.
Show	U	Your horse must finish 1st, 2nd, or 3rd; modest payoffs.

Exotic multiple-horse bets

Bet type	Level of difficulty	Explanation and expectation
Exacta*	U U U U	Your horses must finish 1st and 2nd in exact order; riskier bet that can pay a little or a lot, depending on the horses' odds.
Daily double	U U U U U	Pick the winners of two designated consecutive races.
Pick 3, Win 4, Pick 5, Pick 6	U U U U U U	Select the winners of a designated set of consecutive races. The wager must be made prior to the start of the first race in the multi-race wager.
Triactor*	U U U U U U U	Your horses must finish 1st, 2nd, and 3rd in exact order; can be expensive to play if you use a lot of horses.
Superfecta*	U U U U U U U U	Your horses must finish 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th; big payoff possible.

* Exotic bets require the horses to finish in the EXACT order you select, unless you "BOX" the bet, in which case your selections can finish in any order.

All of the numbers and letters in the program might seem confusing or overwhelming at first, but focusing on these sections makes choosing a horse simple.

- Horse's number in the race
- Horse's post position colour
- Horse's colour, sex, age, sire (father), dam (mother), sire of the dam
- Morning line odds
- Horse's name
- Driver and Driver Record (Name, # of wins, # of 2nds, # of 3rds, winning %)

- Trainer information
- Horse's Lifetime record (with best win time, track size, track, age, lifetime wins and lifetime earnings)
- Horse's current record (# of races, # wins, # of 2nds, # of 3rds, and money earned)

4 The odds

Odds are also important to consider when choosing your horse. Horses that are thought to have a better chance of winning will typically have lower odds.

Morning line odds

Odds listed in the race program are the "morning line" odds. These are predictions of how the public will bet on the race. They are set by the track's handicapper when the race program is published, before the wagering starts.

The actual odds will be posted on the Television or in-field on the Tote Board before the race; they change up until post time, depending on how customers are betting on each horse in the race.

Calculating a $2 win prize

To calculate a win prize, find the Odds of a horse on the Television or Tote Board (in-field board).

Multiply the first number by 2, then divide that number by the second digit (if there is one), and then add $2. Simple as that!

Odds	1/2	2/1	7/2	5/1	10/1
Pays	$3.00	$6.00	$9.00	$12.00	$22.00

Helpful facts for betting

- Some racetracks have a television simulcast commentator who tries to identify winning horses (handicaps) between the races. Listen and see if you can pick up any good tips to bet on.
- A good betting method is to choose horses with current odds two to three times higher than their morning line odds.

3 Tips to remember

WIN BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 32% of the time
PLACE BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 53% of the time
SHOW BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 67% of the time

* Numbers listed above are approximate, may vary by racetrack.

WOODBINE™

Woodbine Entertainment and its' employees are honoured to engage in the sport of horse racing and entertainment activities in the meeting place of Etobicoke. Woodbine Racetrack is located within the traditional and treaty Lands of the Mississaugas of the Credit. Known as Adoobiigok, the "Place of the Alders" in Michi Saagiig language, the region is uniquely situated along the Humber River Watershed, which historically provided an integral connection for Anishinaabe, Haudenosaunee, and Wendat peoples between the Ontario Lakeshore and Lake Simcoe/Georgian Bay regions. The territory is covered by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, an agreement between the Anishinaabe and the Haudenosaunee to peaceably take care of the land and resources around the Great Lakes. Woodbine is honoured to care for this land, our human and equine athletes, and provide a place to race responsibly.

Race 1 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#6 SOUTHWIND CASPIAN was ready to roll for his sophomore debut on May 8th and he trotted a mile that would be good enough to win most maiden races. Unfortunately for him, he came up against a well-regarded, sharp debutant who trotted a 27-flat final quarter to get past him late. He fired right back a week later, and he made no mistake as the 1 to 9 favorite, going right down the road for his maiden score. He is in tougher here facing non-winners of two, but he still has some upside and room to improve. Starting from the best post tonight, he gets the call to kick off the guaranteed $75,000 Pick 5.

#1 GO BLUE was good in defeat here in a non-winners of two race on May ninth when he finished second to a big favorite that trotted a 1:54-flat mile in victory. He came back with another good effort as the 1 to 5 favorite in a Grassroots race at Flamboro Downs where he was probably a bit unlucky in defeat. In that mile, he raced third most of the way, then latched onto cover on the final turn, poised to pounce. He swung widest turning for home as a rival that had been following him slid up the pylons. He was a narrow loser, the ground lost by him and gained by the victor being the clear difference between victory and defeat. He gets Trevor Henry now, and that teamster will likely put this gelding into the race leaving the gate. He would be no surprise in this spot.

#8 JAYPORT CASH made a splash in his sophomore debut on May 18th at Flamboro Downs, scoring a huge upset in the first Grassroots race of the year to break his maiden. He got a good trip and a great drive, with Bob McClure making the winning move cutting to the inside turning for home, but he had to be good enough to pass three rivals in Flamboro's short stretch, and he got the job done. He draws wide here, but he has enough gate speed to get position, and he is another one in with a shot.

#4 GREEN MONSTER raced much better at Flamboro Downs in the Grassroots race won by Jayport Cash. He was sent to the front at the outset for the first time in his 14-race career and he led to the stretch but couldn't see it through. That good gate speed that he showed is a positive sign, and I can see him getting positioned near the front tonight and riding a trip to a spot in the Tri or Super.

Race 2 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#4 SHADOW OF AN ANGEL raced much better in his second start of the year, losing by less than a length to a colt that has since scored an upset OSS Gold win, and that effort got the bettors attention last week. He was sent off as the 6 to 5 favorite and he made a middle move to the front looking to bottom out the field. He paced a 26 3/5 third quarter which played into the hands of the second choice, who rode in his pocket. He couldn't stave off the pocket sitter, but his 1:52 1/5 mile sticks out here, as does the 1:51 4/5 mile he paced two starts back. He should prove tough to beat in this spot as the betting favorite.

#1 NOVA BLU raced against the choice in both of his last two miles, and he finished behind him in both of those starts. He did have worse posts in both starts, now he draws better, although the choice still gets a better post tonight. He finished second in three consecutive starts prior to those two miles, and he was raced aggressively in all of those races. He should get a quicker start tonight and race close to the front, and if he lands in the choice's pocket he would be in with a chance. He is the other one that I would consider using in the early Pick 5.

#3 ALL TIME ROCK's sophomore debut was solid, and it as the fastest race of his career by more than two seconds. He was the first leader in that mile then he gave up command to the favorite in the second quarter. He rode the pocket to the lane, and he had a clear shot at the leader, but he finished one-pace while finishing a clear third behind the 7 to 5 favorite and the 6 to 5 second choice. Coming off that career-best mile, he can contend for a good share tonight.

#8 D A SUPER GLO makes his sophomore debut here coming off an okay qualifier where he closed in 28 2/5. He had five starts at two, four of them being in OSS Grassroots. He didn't fare well in those races, but the one time that he raced at tonight's level, he was a closing second. He will likely take back starting from the widest post, and I could see him passing a few of these to land in the bottom of the Tri or Super.

Race 3 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#7 JIMMY WHISPERS comes off two solid efforts against a rival that won both of those starts that he won't have to face tonight, and that gives him a good chance to take his second win of the year tonight. Two starts back, he made a middle move to the front and set solid fractions. He looked good in the lane until Rochester Flash – who sat an inside covered trip to the stretch – found a seam and flew late. In his last start, he got outsprinted leaving the gate, but he drove on to the front on the first turn, only to be overtaken in the second quarter. He then took a shuffle back to fourth but re-rallied between horses to get third, again behind Rochester Flash. He should be able to make the lead again tonight, and if he doesn't get shuffled, he should be right there.

#2 EASILY THE BEST shipped over from Flamboro Downs off a failed first-over effort on May 3rd, and he took no action at the windows. He outraced his odds on that night, going first-over again over the sloppy track. Making his move midway around the final turn, he eventually wore down leader Brudon, only to be nailed by the horse that hid on his cover until deep stretch. That was an improved effort, and Travis Henry, who has impressed here recently, keeps the lines tonight. This gelding can be an Exacta factor tonight.

#5 BRUDON was probably over bet last week when he went off at 4 to 5, but he did race well in defeat when you consider that he led until inside the eight pole then got passed by Easily The Best and the winner of the race, who both were on the better part of the track in deep stretch. This gelding loses leading James Macdonald tonight, but he will likely get another aggressive steer with Travis Cullen in the bike. He is another in with a chance here.

#8 WORLD REVIVAL has raced at this track four times since April 24th and has gone off at 14 to 1 three times and 15 to 1 in the other start. He hasn't come close to winning any of those quartet of starts, but he got much closer in his last two starts, finishing off both miles well. He will likely drop back to last here and look to pass some rivals. I see him possibly sneaking into the bottom of the Tri or Super at around that same 14 to 1 price,

Race 4 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#4 MARLENES LEGACY shipped north in mid May, showed up at Flamboro Downs, and absolutely crushed a field of overmatched maidens. She raced here eight days later in a Grassroots event, and she flashed big speed early, perhaps too much. After opening up a big lead to the quarter, she was passed at the half in a fast 55-flat. She rallied between horses in the stretch to catch the leader but at that point the filly racing first-over was long gone and another fresh rival blew past her for second. She can beat these racing on or near the lead if she gets a softer pace which is very likely.

#2 ETERNAL DELIGHT will take plenty of action here coming off the best race of her career where she dropped more than five seconds and fell just short of scoring a 33 to 1 upset. She started fast enough to land in third, then stayed covered up to the stretch, saving herself for one big late move. She moved out between horses on the final turn then immediately found a seam at the head of the lane. From there, she flew down the far outside and just finished well clear in second. I'm typically careful with these types who often don't come through when asked to do most of the work in their next start, and I wouldn't take a short price here.

#1 MY GELATO comes out of a Grassroots race and some good maiden fields, and she finished on the edges in most of them. She caught the eye five starts back when she flashed home in 26-flat, and she has only managed one fourth-place finish since. Still, her best race would put her right there with these, and this field should be easier than the Grassroots fillies she just faced. She is another in with a decent chance in a race that has no standout.

#8 SARA B DELIGHT comes off a strong sophomore debut that she should be able to build from considering that was only her second lifetime start. She sprinted well leaving the gate from the rail but soon found four rivals to her right blasting off the gate for all they were worth. So, she took back to fifth and took a following trip. She found room in mid stretch and closed nicely for third. I could see her getting an aggressive J R Plante drive tonight, and that gives her a puncher's chance.

Race 5 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#4 PESO HANOVER raced well in the recently concluded Pop Up series, and he lands in a good spot here to get off the schneid and notch his first win of 2025 racing for a $20,000 tag in this optional claimer tonight. In his last start, he went off as the favorite and he was intent on making front, but he got hooked in a duel on the backstretch. That required him to trot a 27 3/5 second quarter which softened him up enough that he was easy prey for the second choice. That was the fourth start in a row where he trotted in 1:55-flat or faster, and that speed stacks up very well in this field. Tonight can be his night.

#3 HEAD OF THE CLASS was interesting last week in his return race because of what he did in his winning May 16th qualifier where he simply bottomed out the field in the third quarter. Him trotting a 55 4/5 middle half in that qualifier, and still having enough left to hold off Grand Circuit winner Emoji Hanover should have been a cause for optimism. He was driven conservatively last week however, and he closed mildly to take a small share. He gets Travis Cullen in the bike now, and there is probably a good chance that he will send him in this spot. He is another one that I would consider for usage on multi-race tickets.

#7 BUCK DANCER is already a four-time winner this year, and that equals the win total of tonight's nine rivals all added together. He comes in off a decent try where he finished second to stablemate Mister Magic, and that was with him coming off two races in a row where he broke stride. He will likely take a stalking approach tonight, and he should add to his total of 11 in the money finishes from 17 starts so far this year.

#2 ZIP ME UP ships in from Flamboro off a string of five straight races where he raced well enough to finish in the top four while facing tough veterans like Sicario. He is sharp and sure-gaited, and he gets aggressive teamster J R Plante in the bike tonight. I can see him leaving for position in the top five, sitting an inside trip, and closing for a spot in the Tri or Super.

Race 6 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#4 TELLS ON A ROLL took a lot of action last week despite starting from the worst post, and she never really got going at any point after dropping back to last at the start. She stayed inside to save ground, then got into all kinds of traffic in the lane while finishing with pace that she couldn't use. Missing a cheque allows her to take another class drop here, and she draws a much better post. This is the spot where she will likely be pointed to the front early in the mile – like she was two starts back racing in the top class – and she is the one to beat. She gets top billing in the opening leg of the middle Pick 5.

#1 SETTN A PRECEDENT is the other class dropper in here coming off a trip similar to the top pick's coming out of the same race where she beat that rival by a couple of lengths. The class drop here is significant when you consider that she has taken three wins and one third the last four times she raced at this level. She is another that will probably get more aggressive in this spot. She is the one most likely to complete the Exactor behind Tells On A Roll.

#3 COZ IM SPECIAL raced well at this level last week, racing first-over a long way, taking over the lead briefly in the stretch, but then getting passed by the rival that she provided perfect cover for. She typically races well at this $50,000 optional claiming level and she has taken a win, a second, and a third in her last five tries in this class. She draws inside tonight after drawing wide in five straight starts. It's interesting that she was a winner last time she started from post three in the Pop Up final on March 14th, but I prefer to use her underneath in this spot facing a couple of tough class dropping mares.

#5 ALABAMA HANNAH is another mare that typically races well at this level that should contend for a share again tonight. Last week, she found the pocket early and rode it to the stretch where she began to look for room. She eventually was able to squeeze between horses and she finished well for third, finishing just behind Coz Im Special. She is a good one to use on the bottom of the Tri and Super tonight.

Race 7 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#10 SIDE EFFECTS is one that I liked last week based on her season opener at Kawartha Downs that I thought would serve as a perfect tightener for her second start. Facing a field of males with her trainer in the bike, she dropped to the back leaving the gate then she made a wide move around the final turn, passing five of those male rivals to finish fourth in a good effort. Last week, she certainly looked ready to win, but not much went right for her. After leaving hard enough to get the pocket early, she found herself following a 120 to 1 shot after some leadership changes. She got jammed up just after the half when the pace slowed and she broke stride. Once she got pacing again, she rallied well wide for third, but she was placed fifth for interference. It was clear that she was capable of winning that race with a clean trip. She draws widest now, but that will only help her price. I'll stick with her.

#4 PLAY PAL is a better filly now than she was earlier this season. She crushed a field of maidens at Flamboro Downs two starts back as the 1 to 5 favorite, then raced here five days later and went off as the 2 to 1 favorite. She took control of that race in the second quarter and sailed to a comfortable win while crushing her lifetime best. That 1:54 3/5 mile was close to three seconds faster than any of her previous miles. She is clearly razor sharp and she will likely be the one to catch tonight.

#5 TOPVILLE CHECKMEIN deserved better last week, but she was affected by a breaker on the final turn and that likely cost her some positions in the end. She had a good looking first-over move going when the leader went on a gallop. Driver Phil Hudon took this filly wide a couple of lanes to avoid the trouble, but that allowed the pocket sitting 1 to 5 favorite to escape the rail then drive away for the win. With a clean trip, this filly should be in the mix for a spot in the Tri or Super.

#9 OCEANSIDE MAGIC raced okay in her seasonal debut, camping out at the back of the field, then making a wide run in the lane to get fourth behind the top pick in this race. She will likely look to sit and rally again, and she should be sharper with that sophomore debut under her belt. She can come on late here and take a share, and she is another one to consider when creating Tri and Super wagers.

Race 8 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#4 WILDTURKEY HANOVER raced well and was fast in his most recent start. His problem was he came up against a rival in Ritchie Rich that is going great guns right now and couldn't be reached in that 1:54-flat mile. That was the second strong race in three starts for this gelding, with those two races sandwiched by a start from post 10 that is a toss. This Ron Waples Jr. pupil brings a 1 for 15 record to the track tonight, but he clearly looks like one of the best ones in here. Another aggressive Phil Hudon steer can get this Grand Circuit placed gelding his second trip to the winner's circle tonight.

#5 FRENCH VODKA caught the eye in his sophomore debut on May 9th when he made a nice closing move from the back after drawing post 10. He was favored by some handicappers on May 16th, but he blew up before the half and that was that for him in that race. He put trotting hobbles on last week and he rebounded nicely, racing first up and just failing to catch a leader that enjoyed soft fractions in the first three quarters of the race. He gets a good post to work from tonight, and I wouldn't be surprised if he gets pointed to the front this time. He is in with a good chance of taking his second win tonight.

#8 THE BEAR A CUD absolutely crushed a field of maidens here two starts back, then he tried his luck in the OSS Grassroots at Flamboro Downs on May 18th. He jumped it off at the start, taking himself out of the race. He seems like a tricky horse to drive, but when he stays flat and is on his game, he typically contends. He will likely be carefully driven in this spot, but I can see him closing for a share if he behaves.

#10 MANFORCE comes into this race off a nice Grassroots win at Flamboro Downs in a spot where he was bet down to the minimum price of 1 to 20. He has the speed to get decent position leaving the gate, but I don't think the tank will get emptied leaving the gate here with this gelding racing between Grassroots starts. I think he takes back and looks to pass some rivals late, and I prefer to us him on the bottom tonight.

Race 9 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#7 WESTERN WISH takes a class drop here and some of her rivals in this race are moving up in class. This is a good spot for her to blast to the front and lead her rivals on a merry chase. She hasn't raced in a class similar to this one since January 3rd, and she took the lead early in that mile and saw it through to the wire as the 2 to 5 favorite. She has since won racing as high as the non-winners of $30,250 last five level, and she stands out in this field. Beat her to greet the cashier.

#1 ONE LAST BET will be happy to see that streaking Ladyterra isn't lined up on the gate with her tonight, but she will still have to get past Western Wish if she wants to get off the 2025 schneid and take her first win in this 18th start. She has been racing very well lately, getting good position early in her miles and finishing well to take shares. She hasn't missed the top four since March 14th, taking shares in eight straight races. She might be up against it trying to beat the top choice in here, but she has a good chance to round out the Exacta.

#2 ROCKNROLL ANNIE is the other class dropper in here, and she did finish ahead of Western Wish last week, but she did get a much softer trip and only beat her by a neck. That was a much better effort though when you consider that she finished ninth in her two previous starts. She came close to winning at this level on May 3rd after shipping north, and she should be in the mix tonight assuming she doesn't regress to one of her previous two performances.

#6 FOREVER BETTOR caught the eye last week making a big late move from tenth to third as the pace slowed. That was a solid effort after she finished well behind One Last Bet in her previous two starts. She once again draws the best post, and I think she will leave to get positioned better at the start of this race. She will probably be passing some rivals late in the mile and she can sneak into the Tri or Super.

Race 10 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#1 EYES OF JUSTICE has been getting better results since he started racing more aggressively, getting positioned closer to the front. That good positioning makes his strong late kick more effective because he has less traffic to worry about and fewer rivals to pass. He comes in off a win at this level where he got positioned third leaving the gate, sat a nice trip to the stretch then rallied for his third win of the year, converting as the even money favorite. He loses Louis-Phillipe Roy tonight but gets another aggressive driver, Trevor Henry, as a replacement. He gets the call to repeat staying at the same level where he just won.

#6 NO ANGEL LIKE ME missed four weeks between her third start back and second start back, and she then produced two almost identical chart lines. In both cases, she dropped back to eighth then made a mild rally to get the smallest cheque. Drawing the best post tonight's provides her with an opportunity to get a bigger piece of the purse by racing more aggressively. I believe that she will be sent leaving the gate in this third start back after missing a month, and she is the other one that I would consider for late multi-race tickets.

#9 MISTER MAGIC dropped and popped last week as the favorite in a solid effort to take his second win of the year, now he moves back up to the $30,000 optional claiming level. He has been consistently around the money in races where he stays flat, and he was a close third at this level two starts back. He will get put into this race leaving the gate as always, and he should be part of the Tri in this field.

#5 RADIO LAB raced better last week when beaten close to five lengths by Eyes Of Justice after failing to get the job done as the even money favorite racing one class lower two starts back. He will likely look to get positioned racing close to the front again tonight, especially since he moves to one of the best posts. He is another to keep in mind when making Tri and Super bets.

Race 11 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#2 STEELWHEEL HANOVER was shooting for his fourth straight win last week racing in a tougher conditioned claimer than he did in his trio of wins. He was used early to make front, then he got hooked at the half by the rival that would go on to win the race. She shriveled up late, possibly partly in due to racing in the slop. He races for Shayne Barrington off the claim tonight with the trainer's main driver Trevor Henry in the bike. He also faces slightly easier, and he can rebound in this spot. He gets the nod to kick off the late double in a spot where he has a good chance to control the race.

#4 ABOVE MYPAYGRADE raced progressively better in each start since finishing sixth to the top pick on May 1st, and that improvement culminated in him taking his sixth win of the season here on May 22nd. That followed three defeats in a row to Steelwheel Hanover, but nothing stays the same forever. This sophomore gelding comes into this race razor-sharp, while the top pick has some question marks after backing up in his latest mile. Travis Cullen can work out another good trip here, and this is one that is hard to leave off late multi-race tickets.

#6 SPORTY BEE scored an upset win at Flamboro Downs two starts back then he missed close to three weeks before trying the top two picks in this race at this track on May 15th. He dropped to the back and then closed mildly, but he did pace his own final quarter in 27 1/5. He is capable of passing a few of these, and he is worth using underneath in this spot at a price.

#7 NO FOOL MACKINLEY was claimed by Daryl Laver three starts back for $8,000, and he subsequently raced well in both starts at Hiawatha Horse Park. Once you go past the top two picks in this race, this isn't the toughest $20,000 conditioned claimer, and this gelding, who has taken 19 slices in his past 45 starts, could be part of the Super.

Race 12 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#2 SORCHA SEELSTER is one of a few class droppers in here that will likely battle for the win in a good anchor leg to the late multi-race tickets. She took a new lifetime mark scoring an upset in the Graduate series final here three starts back, then was simply in too tough in the Magaret Juravinski Memorial and last weeks Fillies and Mares Preferred. She fits well on the class drop in here, and I imagine that she will get an aggressive steer from Scott Young starting from an inside draw. She gets top billing.

#3 ANGOSTURA HANOVER is another class dropper that rates highly in here. She closed with an impressive late rush three starts back to get up for a win racing at this level, then she faced the current queen of the older mares pacing ranks, Caviar N Crackers in two straight and she could do no better than finish on the edges. She is sharp and dangerous at this level, and she will likely get driven more aggressively facing easier tonight.

#9 STYLE FOR A MILE got a tough trip last week, but she still came flying late, uncorking a 26 4/5 kicker to get up for third as the 2 to 1 favorite. That was the fifth start in a row that she started as the favorite, and she took only one win in that quintet of races. Moving outside and facing some droppers, her price will likely climb, but she isn't without a chance in here. I would consider her for late Pick 5 and Pick 4 tickets.

#8 GLENBORO is yet another dropper that merit consideration in this race. She set the pace early in the top class last week then took a shuffle. She almost always blasts off the gate and gets positioned on the lead or not far off it. I prefer to use her underneath in this spot, but her winning would not be a major upset.

#10 COCO JO JO is one of the best mares in here, but unfortunately for her, he draws the widest post, and she will likely be forced to take back early. I can't come up with the trip that she could get to win this race, but I could see her passing a few of these and sneaking into the bottom of the Super or High-5.

CONDITIONS AND ALLOWANCES IN HARNESS RACING - IMPORTANT TO KNOW

The conditions of a race determine whether a horse is eligible to enter. For example many races are restricted to horses that have won a certain number of races or a certain amount of money in a specified number of starts. Many races are restricted to horses entered to be "claimed" (offered for sale) at a specific price.

Allowances in the claiming price itself are given to colts and geldings, four-year-olds and younger and to mares, five-year-olds and younger.

The purpose of the allowance is to keep younger horses more competitive when racing against older and more experienced rivals. Mares are given extra consideration in claiming events because of their potential as broodmares.

The accompanying chart shows what the allowances are, but an example may make them easier to understand. The chart indicates that three-year-olds receive a 50% allowance in claiming races. This means that a three-year-old entered in a $20,000 claiming race carries an actual claiming price of $30,000 (50% higher).

Fillies and mares receive an additional 25% allowance in claiming races. Details of the race conditions and claiming price (if any) are given at the top of each race in the program.

	ALLOWANCES CLAIMING RACES	CONDITION RACES
2 year olds	100%	50% on 2024 earnings
3 year olds	50%	25% on 2024 earnings 50% on 2023 earnings
4 year olds	25%	25% on 2023 earnings

THE MORNING LINE reflects the track oddsmaker's estimate of what each horse's odds will be at post time. The actual odds are established by the amounts wagered by the public on each horse in the win pool.

C.P.M.A. Regulation Changes

Effective January 1st 2012
CPMA will be instituting several new rule changes with regards to the following pari-mutuel pools:

- Pick Pools
- If there are no winners in any leg of a Pick N pool, the entire pool is refunded.
 - If there is a change of surface in any leg that is NOT made known to the public prior to wagering for that pool closing, that leg will pay on all runners.
 - A pool is no longer refunded if the 1st leg in the pool is cancelled or declared no contest.
 - Pick-3: If at least 2 legs are declared no contest or cancelled, the pool is refunded.
 - Pick-4, 5 or 6: If at least 3 legs are declared no contest or cancelled, the pool is refunded.

EXPLANATION OF THE LASIX PROGRAM

After careful study and consultation with Ontario Horsemen's groups, racetrack operators and veterinarians, Agriculture Canada and the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario passed legislation allowing the controlled (or supervised) administration of furosemide, more commonly called "Lasix". "Lasix" is used to alleviate the symptoms of exercise induced pulmonary hemorrhaging in racing horses. Horses will undergo an endoscopic examination of the trachea by a veterinarian licensed by the Ontario Racing Commission and endorsed by an official veterinarian before being allowed on the medication list. Once qualified, horses will be treated with "Lasix" within four hours plus or minus 15 minutes of a scheduled race in a secure retention area under the super vision of racing officials.

All horses on "Lasix" must remain on the program for a minimum of 100 days while racing in this jurisdiction.

- L Denotes horses treated with Lasix.
- (L) Denotes horses treated with Lasix today who were not so treated for their last start.
- (L) Denotes horses treated with Lasix for their last start but not so treated today.

Pari-mutuel wagering and drug control services are provided under the supervision of the Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency, an agency of Agriculture and the Minister of Agriculture. All pari-mutuel pools are calculated and distributed in accordance with the Pari-Mutuel Betting Regulations. The Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency can be contacted at 1-800-268-8835 or locally at 613-759-6100 or E-Mail: cpmawebacpm@agr.gc.ca

RULES AND INFORMATION REGARDING CANADIAN HARNESS AND FOREIGN SEPARATE POOL EVENTS

GENERAL

All pari-mutuel pools are calculated and distributed in accordance with the regulations and directives as issued by Agriculture and Agri-Food Canada ("The Regulations"), under the approval and supervision of the Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency. The Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency can be contacted at 1-800-268-8835 or 613-759-6100 or Email: cpmawebacpm@agr.gc.ca. A complete version of the CPMA regulations can be found at <http://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/regulations/SOR-91-365/>.

All tickets should be held until the result of the race is declared official and prices are posted.

No person under the age of 18 shall purchase or cash a ticket or voucher.

A claim of receiving an incorrect payment or incorrect change must be made to the Mutuel office of the association within twenty four hours of buying or cashing a valid ticket or voucher.

No ruling made by the Stewards/Judges or the Ontario Racing Commission with regard to distribution of purse money or the placing of horses in the order of finish, after the race has been declared official, shall have any bearing on the pay-out prices or distribution of pari-mutuel pools.

Change boards and Photo Finish display monitors are located in the Grandstand. In addition, Photo Finish pictures are shown on the closed-circuit television system. Customers are reminded that mutuel clerks are responsible for all shortages. When making a wager, customers must present sufficient funds at the time of purchase to cover the wagers requested.

ENTRIES AND MUTUEL FIELDS

"Entry" means two or more horses in the same race which, for the purpose of pari-mutuel betting, are coupled or considered as the same betting interest. The most common reason for the coupling of horses in an Entry is the fact that they are owned by the same person.

"Mutuel Field" means two or more horses in the same race which, for the purpose of pari-mutuel betting, are coupled because the number of horses in the race exceeds the number which can be handled separately by the pari-mutuel system. Subject to the Regulations, a bet on one horse of an Entry or Mutuel Field shall be considered a bet on all horses in that Entry or Mutuel Field.

DAILY DOUBLE BETTING (INCLUDING LATE DOUBLE)

A Daily Double bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of the two races specified for the Daily Double. Tickets not selecting the winner of the first half of the Daily Double and all tickets in the second half of the Daily Double not coupled with the declared official winner of the first half of the Daily Double are not winners and are not refunded no matter what circumstances affect the running of the second half of the Daily Double.

Should a horse or horses (not coupled with another starter) be excused from starting in the second race of the Daily Double after the first race of the Daily Double has closed for betting, holders of all Daily Double tickets on such horses, coupled with the winner of the first Daily Double race, shall participate in a Consolation Double pool. (Effective Jan 1, 2012)

EXACTA (Also known as Exactor)/TRIFECTA (Also known as Triactor)/SUPERFECTA

An Exacta, Trifecta, Superfecta is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the first two, three and four horses respectively, representing different betting interests to finish in the exact official order of finish, in the race on which the pool is operated.

SWINGER (Also known as OMNI)

A Swinger is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select horses to finish in any order from the official first 3 positions.

JACKPOT HI-5

A Jackpot Hi-5 bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the exact order of finish of the first 5 runners in the specified Jackpot Hi-5 race. If there are races that have an entry, (i.e. 1 & 1A and/or 2 & 2B), Jackpot Hi-5 will not offer a wager consisting of both halves of the same betting interest. Example: If the same betting interest finishes first and second in a Jackpot Hi-5, the payout would be 1st, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th.

That jackpot portion of the pool will only be paid out if there is a single winning ticket. If there are multiple winning tickets that have correctly chosen the first 5 runners of the race, they will receive 50% of the pool for that day. The other 50% will go over into the Jackpot carryover. If there are no winning tickets with the exact order of finish of the first 5 runners, 100% of the current day's pool will be carried over into the Jackpot.

PICK 3 & PICK 4 BETTING

The Pick 3 & Pick 4 bets are betting transactions in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of three or four successive races specified for the Pick 3 & Pick 4 respectively.

Winning tickets for the Pick 3 & Pick 4 are determined in the following sequence: A) winners of all legs, B) most winners, then refund. If there is a change of surface in any leg that is NOT made known to the public prior to wagering for that pool closing, that leg will pay on all runners. If there are no winners in any leg of a pool, the entire pool is refunded.

PICK 5 BETTING

The Pick 5 bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of five successive races specified for the Pick 5 respectively.

If no one has correctly selected all 5 winners, the entire net pool is carried over to the next available PICK 5.

PICK 6 BETTING

The Pick 6 bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of six successive races specified for the Pick 6 respectively.

If no one has correctly selected all 6 winners, the entire net pool is carried over to the next available PICK 6.

PICK 5 & 6 BETTING

If at least 1 race as part of the Pick 5 or 6 has been cancelled or declared "No contest", but not more than the specified below under Refunds, the net pool shall be distributed to those selecting the most # of winners and NOT include any carryover from a previous pool.

PICK 3, PICK 4, PICK 5 & PICK 6 SCRATCHES

In the event a Pick 3, Pick 4, Pick 5 or Pick 6 ticket designates as a selection a horse which is scratched, excused or determined by the Stewards/Judges to be a non-starter in any of the races comprising the Pick 3, Pick 4, Pick 5 or Pick 6 the favourite, as evidenced by the amount wagered in the win pool at the time of the start of the race in which the scratch occurred, will be substituted for the non-starting selection. In the event that the money bet in the win pool for two or more favourites is identical, the selection with the lowest program number shall be substituted for the non-starting selection.

However, if a scratch occurs in any leg of the Pick 3, Pick 4, Pick 5 or Pick 6 pools before the pool is closed, a ticket including the scratched horse may be cancelled.

REFUNDS

Subject to the Regulations, all monies in all pools on a race are refunded in the event that the race is cancelled, declared off or declared no contest, and all monies bet on a horse are refunded if the horse is a late scratch or does not receive a fair start. These refunds will be communicated to the public through various means such as betting terminals, video display, changes boards and our website.

The Pick(n) pool shall be cancelled and all Pick(n) wagers for the individual performance shall be refunded if:

- Pick-3: at least 2 legs are declared no contest or cancel. (Effective Jan 1, 2012)
- Pick-4, 5 or 6: at least 3 legs are declared no contest or cancel. (Effective Jan 1, 2012)

Where a horse that is part of an Entry is a late scratch or does not receive a fair start and at least one horse of that Entry receives a fair start in the race, all tickets purchased on the Entry remain valid and the purchase price of any such ticket shall not be refunded.

COMMON POOL WAGERING (INTERTRACK BETTING)

In the unlikely event of a communications or computer system failure that prevents pools from merging with the host track's pools before the end of a race, CPMA regulations require that the site must refund all tickets for that race. This refund will be communicated to the public through various means such as video displays, change boards and messages on our website.

FAIR START

If a horse has reached the Fair Start Pole (located 200 feet before the Starting Pole) by the time the mobile gate has reached the Starting Pole, that horse is deemed to have had a fair start. It makes no difference whether or not the horse is on or off stride at that precise moment. Under current policy and regulations, which are designed to be as fair as possible to all bettors on all starters, there is no Recall - a repeat of the entire starting procedure - when a horse does not reach the Fair Start Pole before the gate reaches the Starting Pole. Monies bet on such a horse are refunded in accordance with the regulation concerning refunds.

LOST & OLD TICKETS

WEG issued tickets or vouchers are valid indefinitely, however, they cannot be cashed at a mutuel teller after 2 years from date of issue. Please mail tickets, along with your name and address, to Mutuel Manager, P.O. Box 156, Rexdale, Ontario, M9W 5L2, keeping a photocopy for future reference.

For "Lost Tickets" originally sold at a Woodbine Entertainment Group racetrack or Teletheatre, please enquire at the Mutuel office at Woodbine, Greenwood Teletheatre, or Mohawk. Policy may be subject to change retroactively in the event regulatory bodies amend existing regulations.

ASSOCIATION PERCENTAGE, AND TAXATION/LEVY

The Woodbine Entertainment Group deducts and retains the following percentages from wagers placed at our own licensed sites which are then shared with the horsepeople, host and simulcast associations and the Ontario Racing Commission.

WOODBINE/MOHAWK LIVE: Win, Place & Show: 13.65%. Swinger 14.7%. Trifecta & Pick 4: 21.7%. Double & Exacta 17.2%. Jackpot Hi-5, Pick 5 & Pick 6: 11.7%. All other 23.0%

Horsepeople receive a further 2% on all wagers, except Trifecta wagering where it is 4%. The Ontario Provincial Government retains 0.5% on all bets placed in Ontario. The Canadian Government (through a revolving fund cost recovery basis) retains 0.8% on all wagers placed in Canada for provision of drug control, and audit services.

While every effort is made to provide accurate information in the program, Woodbine Entertainment Group assumes no liability for errors or omissions.
