Betting Basics

Some essentials to get you started with making a wager.

1 How to wager

Place your bet by visiting a teller, or using a self-serve terminal.

To place a bet here are just 5 things you need to know:

- 1 Name of racetrack (choose from any track in the simulcast feeds)
- 2 Number of the race
- 3 Amount of your bet (e.g. $2)
- 4 Type of bet (see step 2)
- 5 Horse's number (see step 4)

Once you have decided what you want to bet, head to the nearest seller's window and use the sample statement as your guide:

Hello, (Racetrack), race 6, $2 to WIN on Horse #4

How to use a self-serve terminal:

- 1 Swipe your Cash Card/Insert Cash
- 2 Enter the initial PIN #1234 (then choose a new PIN)
- 3 Press/Tap the track you would like to bet: (defaults to current race)
- 4 Tap the Horse Number: #4
- 5 Press/Tap the Bet Type: WIN
- 6 Press/Tap the Bet Amount: $2
- 7 Press/Tap the Race Number: Race #6
- 8 Press Green "Make BET" button
- 9 Press/Tap the "Finish with Receipt" button
- 10 Be sure to check your ticket to confirm it's the bet you wanted

To get a Cash Card or for assistance ask a teller, or a staff member.

2 Types of bets

Single horse bets (minimum $2.00 bet is required)

Bet type	Level of difficulty	Explanation and expectation
Win	U U U	Your horse must finish 1st; payoff determined by the win odds.
Place	U U	Your horse must finish 1st or 2nd; payoffs better than to show.
Show	U	Your horse must finish 1st, 2nd, or 3rd; modest payoffs.

Exotic multiple-horse bets

Bet type	Level of difficulty	Explanation and expectation
Exacta*	U U U U	Your horses must finish 1st and 2nd in exact order; riskier bet that can pay a little or a lot, depending on the horses' odds.
Daily double	U U U U U	Pick the winners of two designated consecutive races.
Pick 3, Win 4, Pick 5, Pick 6	U U U U U U	Select the winners of a designated set of consecutive races. The wager must be made prior to the start of the first race in the multi-race wager.
Triactor*	U U U U U U U	Your horses must finish 1st, 2nd, and 3rd in exact order; can be expensive to play if you use a lot of horses.
Superfecta*	U U U U U U U U	Your horses must finish 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th; big payoff possible.

* Exotic bets require the horses to finish in the EXACT order you select, unless you "BOX" the bet, in which case your selections can finish in any order.

All of the numbers and letters in the program might seem confusing or overwhelming at first, but focusing on these sections makes choosing a horse simple.

- Horse's number in the race
- Horse's post position colour
- Horse's colour, sex, age, sire (father), dam (mother), sire of the dam
- Morning line odds
- Horse's name
- Driver and Driver Record (Name, # of wins, # of 2nds, # of 3rds, winning %)
- Trainer information
- Horse's Lifetime record (with best win time, track size, track, age, lifetime wins and lifetime earnings)
- Horse's current record (# of races, # wins, # of 2nds, # of 3rds, and money earned)

4 The odds

Odds are also important to consider when choosing your horse. Horses that are thought to have a better chance of winning will typically have lower odds.

Morning line odds

Odds listed in the race program are the "morning line" odds. These are predictions of how the public will bet on the race. They are set by the track's handicapper when the race program is published, before the wagering starts.

The actual odds will be posted on the Television or in-field on the Tote Board before the race; they change up until post time, depending on how customers are betting on each horse in the race.

Calculating a $2 win prize

To calculate a win prize, find the Odds of a horse on the Television or Tote Board (in-field board).

Multiply the first number by 2, then divide that number by the second digit (if there is one), and then add $2. Simple as that!

Odds	1/2	2/1	7/2	5/1	10/1
Pays	$3.00	$6.00	$9.00	$12.00	$22.00

Helpful facts for betting

- Some racetracks have a television simulcast commentator who tries to identify winning horses (handicaps) between the races. Listen and see if you can pick up any good tips to bet on.
- A good betting method is to choose horses with current odds two to three times higher than their morning line odds.

3 Tips to remember

WIN BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 32% of the time
PLACE BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 53% of the time
SHOW BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 67% of the time

* Numbers listed above are approximate, may vary by racetrack.

WOODBINE™

Woodbine Entertainment and its' employees are honoured to engage in the sport of horse racing and entertainment activities in the meeting place of Etobicoke. Woodbine Racetrack is located within the traditional and treaty Lands of the Mississaugas of the Credit. Known as Adoobiigok, the "Place of the Alders" in Michi Saagiig language, the region is uniquely situated along the Humber River Watershed, which historically provided an integral connection for Anishinaabe, Haudenosaunee, and Wendat peoples between the Ontario Lakeshore and Lake Simcoe/Georgian Bay regions. The territory is covered by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, an agreement between the Anishinaabe and the Haudenosaunee to peaceably take care of the land and resources around the Great Lakes. Woodbine is honoured to care for this land, our human and equine athletes, and provide a place to race responsibly.

Race 1 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#2 JOEL AND THE JETS raced well to get second in the Hempt Consolation at Pocono Downs in his most recent start, picked off late by the 6 to 5 favorite that followed him into the lane. He is good enough to win this race, and he is almost sure to offer an overlaid price facing three rivals all riding win streaks of at least three races, including Allstar Maniac, who got the better trip to beat this colt on July 26th here in a three-year-old Open. I'm going to go price shopping with this Ian Moore trainee to kick off tonight's $75,000 guaranteed Pick 5.

#7 FRANCO SANTANA N shoots for his fifth win in a row here, and he faces tougher tonight, but he is a five-year-old and many of the rivals he faced tonight are sophomore Gold colts racing between stakes engagements. So, while it is hard to predict intent for all of the sophomores, this gelding figures to be on go when the starter car pulls away and he should get positioned near the front early. He did beat the choice off a perfect pocket ride on August 2nd. He is another that should offer a square price that is in with a chance.

#5 ALLSTAR MANIAC served notice to Gold colts three starts back here when he thumped a field of non-winners of three, pacing a 25 4/5 kicker on the end of a 1:49 3/5 trouncing. He has since reeled off two more impressive wins, including a first-over 1:49-flat lifetime best score at Grand River in a Gold race in his last start. My only cause for concern is the 19 days between starts with bigger races still to come on his 2025 calendar. He is obviously one of the best horses in here. I'm just not willing to take a short price on him under the circumstances.

#4 FIFTH AND FIVE is another sophomore colt riding a win streak that comes into tonight's race showing a stale date, not having raced since August 2nd. He has excelled in the Grassroots division, now he faces tougher and that factor, coupled with his inactivity, makes me think that he will likely be a fringe player tonight. He is one that I would use on the bottom of Tri and Super bets.

Race 2 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#1 BEAU JANGLES just keeps going, winning each race without being threatened at all, and they certainly weren't going to beat him last time after gifting him a pedestrian 58 3/5 opening half. He cruised under the line pacing an effortless 26-flat final quarter, and he faces a similar field tonight in this Grand Circuit race. Perhaps the only question left regarding this sensational colt at this point is: how good is he really? I guess we will find out if and when he gets a serious challenge in one of his races. As for tonight, he will likely take another easy win once again going off at 1 to 9.

#2 CALLSIGN ROOSTER, stablemate to Beau Jangles, shipped to Mohawk Park on August 8th boasting a perfect four for four record and he got bet down to 1 to 5 favorite. He looked good until he was confronted in the third quarter where a rival blew right past him almost like he was stood still. He was much better last week where he made two moves and on that occasion, he flipped the script and made the decisive backstretch move. Aside from facing his imposing stablemate, this doesn't seem to be the toughest Grand Circuit race. I'll side with him to complete the Exacta.

#3 REDLAND ROCKET MAN looked good taking a 1:52-flat new lifetime mark two starts back facing Grassroots horses then he was elevated to the Gold level. He paced a good mile last week, closing for third behind Beau Jangles and a sharp Borderline Mobby, who wasn't getting caught for second following in the pocket while slow fractions were being cut. He will likely look to sit and rally again, and he should be able to close for another share tonight.

#4 STINGRAY DEO hasn't raced since finishing third in the Dream Maker series final, his second good effort in a row. His best race puts him in the equation to complete the Exacta, but I wonder where he will get away from the gate considering he has dropped back in most of his miles. It may be hard to close here in a race that will once again very likely be controlled by Beau Jangles. I prefer to use him on the bottom in this spot.

BEST BET: BEAU JANGLES

Race 3 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#1 ELLIOT MOOSE shows one start at this class level and on that night, he was very intentional, making two early moves to the front, then bottoming out the field. Since then, he has been in three races that were all paced in 1:50-flat or faster. He is a better fit in this field, and there is a chance history can repeat in this spot. I'll call him to upset here as a 15 to 1 shot in the morning line looking for some value in the early Pick 5 and the early Pick 4 that starts right here.

#8 MYULTIMATE SNOWY A was flying late in that race that Elliot Moose won at this class level on July 26th, which was his second local start after shipping north. He comes into tonight's race off a mile where he tried to rally wide into a 26 4/5 kicker on the end of a 1:48 4/5 mile. He managed to come on late for a cheque. Doug McNair sticks with him over Wheels On Fire which is notable to me because he typically is loyal to owner Brad Grant. In what appears to be a wide-open race, this hard-closing gelding is worth using.

#4 MAYHEM HANOVER dropped and popped now he moves back up in class and faces some class droppers. He can improve again in this fifth start racing out of the leading trainer's barn, and he does pick up the leading driver tonight. I could see him getting over bet in this spot which looks much tougher than his last race though, and I'm inclined to try to beat him.

#2 SERIOUSLY HANOVER dropped into an optional claimer last week and he raced well in defeat. He found the pocket early and rode a good trip to the stretch, then he found room between horses and gave favored Dirty Lil Piglet a race to the wire, falling just short. He should be able to get another good trip here racing close to the front again, and he is likely a good one to use on the bottom.

Race 4 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#4 DAYA broke a Canadian Record two starts back at Grand River Raceway on Industry Day when they were flying all afternoon long. She came up against unbeaten A Clean Deal in her next start, the only filly that had beaten her racing for a purse to that point. She couldn't fend that rival off and she surprisingly backed up to firth in the lane. She does not have to face A Clean Deal again tonight, and this Bulldog Hanover filly should bounce back in this spot. She has a good chance to control the pace tonight, and she gets top billing in the opening leg of tonight's 20-cent Pick 6.

#5 NAUGHTY DELIGHT has gotten faster in every mile since debuting with a Grassroots win at this track on July 7th, and she comes out of the same race as Daya, where she passed that rival in the lane to finish third behind A Clean Deal. She has never been asked for speed leaving the gate in any of her miles; she has got away sixth in all three of her starts. She will need to be careful in this short field, and I think she will be more forwardly placed leaving the gate tonight. On paper, she is the main threat to the choice, and she is the logical alternative for those looking to try to beat Daya.

#6 FABULOUS HANOVER has yet to take her maiden win, but she has been right there in all three of her starts, and it's notable that top trainer Nancy Takter ships her north for this Grand Circuit race. Drawing outside in a six-horse field likely isn't bad for her because she has some options when the gate pulls away. She probably would need to drop another second to challenge for the win tonight, and while I prefer to use her underneath, that feat likely isn't impossible in this spot.

#2 BRIANS HALO raced in all legs and finals of the Whenuwishuponastar series, and she paced progressively faster in each one of those miles while chasing the same winner every week. I like that she paired up 26 4/5 kickers in her last two starts, and she can likely sit a following trip close to the lead tonight and stick around for a share. She is a good one to use on the bottom of the Tri or Super.

Race 5 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#7 ERVIN HANOVER finished off his 2024 season in style, winning four in a row by large margins, two of them being paced in sub-1:48 time in November at Mohawk Park, a feat that is virtually unheard of. He spent the early part of this year chasing stablemate Brue Hanover, who was unbeatable early in the year. He reached peak form in his past two starts beating that stablemate twice, making impressive late brushes in both of those wins. He gets Louis-Phillipe Roy back tonight, and he drove him to all those four fast wins last fall. I expect a more aggressive steer in this first elimination for this year's edition of the Canadian Pacing Derby, and he gets the nod in this anchor leg of the early Pick 5.

#6 SABONIS was an absolute win machine last year, taking victories in 16 of 18 starts, but it took him a while to get his second win this year – eight starts to be exact. That second victory came in the Dan Patch Stakes in his last start, however, and he was full value for that win over some of the best older pacers on the continent. Starting from the second tier put him behind the eight ball, but he was aggressive, moving first-over, putting away favored Little Rocket Man, then holding off the closers. His connections paid $40,000 to supplement him to this race, and he draws best in this elimination. He will likely be the one to fend off in the lane tonight.

#5 RUTHLESS HANOVER came into the McKee Memorial on Hambletonian Day off his first win of the season and he was expected to get sent forward which is when he typically performs best. He was strangely taken back though, then he faced the impossible task of trying to close into a 53 4/5 back half. He gets Doug McNair in the bike tonight and he draws well. He could go a long way on the lead in this spot.

#4 CELTIC SPIRIT N interests me as a longshot to use underneath in this spot shipping in and moving into leading trainer Menary's barn. He kicked in 26-flat and 25 4/5 in his past two starts, and if he can work out a covered trip tonight, I can see him passing some of these and landing in the bottom of the Tri or Super.

SPOT PLAY: ERVIN HANOVER

Race 6 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#1 BORDERLINE MOBBY turned heads when he won his debut passing the leaders while under a death grip here on June 28th, then he had the misfortune of running into Beau Jangles in his next four starts. He took shares in all four of those races, and he was smartly driven last time to make front early which ensured he was racing in Beau Jangles pocket. He doesn't have to face that rival here, and while the leading driver abandons him to drive the morning line favorite, he picks up Yannick Gingras in the bike. I don't think we will get the morning line price of 6 to 1, but he won't be favored, either. I'll call him to upset in this opening leg of tonight's middle Pick 5.

#6 TILTHECOWSCOMEHOME has a similar profile as the choice in that he made an impressive late move to win his debut then he faced imposing Beau Jangles in his next three starts. He raced well in all of those starts, finishing second, ahead of the top pick in here every one of those miles. He draws the best post in this short field, and he stacks up well on paper. The deciding factor to me picking the winner was the lame vet scratch on August 14th, but he is capable if he is close to his best.

#3 SWEET LOVIN LOU is certainly hard to fault coming into this Grand Circuit race unbeaten and pacing faster miles in every race. He swept the Dream Maker series, and he took the fastest mark of any in here in the final. My concern with backing him at a short price tonight is I think he faces some tougher rivals, and he will get a stiffer challenge. He might be up to it, but I am not willing to take him as the favorite to find out.

#4 DAD has done nothing wrong to date, finishing in the money in all his five starts so far and he wasn't far behind Sweet Lovin Lou in the Dream Maker Final. He will likely get positioned near the front leaving the gate tonight and ride another good following trip to a share.

Race 7 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#6 SUGAR PACKET was conservatively driven in the prep for this race, and that strategy put her in an impossible spot, trying to win racing first up chasing a leader that crawled through the middle half in 1:01 3/5. Understandably, she couldn't bridge the gap, but she did trot a 27-flat kicker which should have her primed for this lucrative final of this Grade 1 Grand Circuit race. Starting from the best post, I think it's almost a surety that she will get sent forward leaving the gate, and she gets top billing here.

#9 ONE BELLE brings a perfect record into this final and she has been raced aggressively in every one of those wins. I don't mind the wide post for her tonight as she can float out, let the dust settle, then be the last one to clear to the front. She has shown versatility winning racing on the engine and off a first-over trip. She is obviously one of the best ones in here, and if she gets any breather on the engine, she will be tough in here. She is hard to leave off the middle Pick 5.

#2 BINGO NIGHT has done nothing wrong to this point of her five-race career, winning four and falling victim to trip and pace in the one loss. She took the bull by the horns in the prep for this race and controlled the race through qualifier like fractions, and there was no catching her. She is another live contender in what should be a good betting race.

#8 SHIMMERING HANOVER has taken slices in every one of her four starts, and she has flashed good gate speed in every one of those miles. I don't think she is good enough to beat all of the top three picks in here, but she is sure gaited, and we know it's likely that she will work out a good trip racing close to the front. She is likely a good one to use on the bottom of the Tri and Super.

Race 8 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#6 BYTHEMISSAL looked like a reasonable facsimile of his best self again in the Dan Patch Stakes, and that could be a good sign leading to this elimination for this year's edition of The Canadian Pacing Derby. In that last mile, he was in bad cover coming into the stretch, and he had a long way to come. He started to close gradually, then he really kicked it into a higher gear in the final few strides approaching the wire. He got up for second, which looked impossible at the eighth pole. Drawing best and getting regular driver Yannick Gingras in the bike tonight should mean that he gets positioned closer to the front at the start. He gets the nod to take his fourth win of the year in this tenth start.

#2 CAPTAIN LUKE worked out a perfect pocket trip in the Sam McKee Memorial on Hambletonian day to get the job done, but trip didn't go as well for him in his next start, the Dan Patch Stakes. He left for position then took a following trip and he was the fourth one back on the inside racing around the last turn which was a tough spot to try to close from. He did get some racing room along the inside in the lane and closed for a small share. He is the type that needs a trip to win, and he can be dangerous in this spot if he can find the pocket early.

#4 COACH STEFANOS had everything go wrong for him in the Dan Patch, starting with getting hung out early then never seeing the pylons. That line is a toss for me; he is capable of much better. He gets James Macdonald back in the bike tonight, and that teamster steered him to an upset win in last year's Breeders Crown. He likely won't get the pace he needs tonight, but he could be one to watch for next week's final if he qualifies.

#7 ABUCKABETT HANOVER is having a sub par season by his standards, having taken only a single win and earned only $57,000 from eight starts after earning more than $1,000,000 last season. He is capable of closing for a good share against these, though, and I could see him coming on late to land in the bottom of the Tri or Super in this spot tonight.

Race 9 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#2 TH CHECK ME OUT came into her last Gold race off a decent third place finish is a Canadian Record mile in the Battle of the Belles at Grand River on Industry Day. She was expected to contend in that Gold race, but she had a broken check bit before the start, and she was declared a non-starter for wagering purposes. She finished sixth of seven in a line that is best tossed. She stacks up well in this Grand Circuit field, and she gets top call to kick off tonight's late Pick 5.

#4 ADINA HANOVER was impressive in her first two starts racing from behind and saving her best for the lane. She was then sent first up in her next two starts, and she performed admirably, taking third twice behind the filly that swept that stakes series. She fits well here, and she should be right there versus these if she can work out a slightly better trip. She is the other one that I would consider using on the late Pick 5.

#6 JEN TILLY comes off a fast mile where she finished second behind a still unbeaten filly, and that is the fastest race on the page which is likely the main factor that made her the 9 to 5 morning line favorite. She also draws best, and she gets Yannick Gingras in the bike tonight, so she has a lot going for her on paper. She is still winless, however, and she will likely get asked to do more work in this spot tonight. There are no guarantees that she will thrive under that circumstance, and I'm inclined to play against her here as a likely underlay.

#5 TWIN B FIERCE, like the rest of her rivals, was no match for Jay in the Whenuwishuponastar series, but she did give that filly a bit of a scare in the final. She comes into this Grand Circuit race sharp, and she is another one that will take action, but I don't see that she holds any specific advantage over the ones listed above. I prefer to use her underneath in this spot.

Race 10 Selections

The Horseplayer’s Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#2 MAGIC PUNK brought a two-race win streak into the elimination for this year’s Grade 1 William Wellwood Memorial and he got Dexter Dunn in the bike for the first time. After leaving well enough from the rail to secure pocket position, he made a backstretch move to the front, only to be overtaken by the second choice. He popped out again in the lane, and under confident Dunn handling, he had no problem re-rallying for the win while producing a 26 4/5 kicker, the fastest of his career. That was an impressive mile, and he is the clear top pick here to kick off tonight’s late Pick 4.

#5 CAMBRIDGE HANOVER showed for the first time last week why his owners dished out $1,000,000 for him at the Harrisburg sale. After improving in his previous start, he was better again last week, grinding first-over, taking over the lead in mid stretch, then just getting nosed out by the rival that he provided the cover for. He loses Dexter Dunn who opted for the top pick, but, if he can work out a slightly better trip in this spot, he might be able to score the upset.

#6 ARDONNE was the winner of the other elimination for this final, capitalizing on the good trip following Cambridge Hanover to the lane then pouncing on that rival. Responding to Scott Zeron urging, he got up on the line to take his maiden win. He draws the best post, and he is an obvious contender, but I’m not sure he gets the same kind of trip tonight, though, so I’d be careful to not take a short price with this colt.

#7 FIRST CLASS MASS produced a nice closing effort in the elimination for this race, and he came on late to take a slice while trotting a 26 4/5 kicker. He also closed well in his previous start, and he will likely be passing some of these in the final quarter. He is probably a good one to use on the bottom at a price tonight.

Race 11 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#2 REMEMBER THE ALAMO shipped north, missed four weeks and joined the Ben Baillargeon barn last week and he was very live, almost pulling off a front end win despite having the stale date. It took a razor-sharp Ervin Hanover to chase him down and that rival is one of the favorites in one of the eliminations for the Canadian Pacing Derby tonight. Now, he returns quicker, and he gets a key driver change to Louis-Phillipe Roy tonight and he should prove very tough to beat in this spot.

#1 DUBLIN DASHER got a trip that he couldn't overcome last week. He elected to stay inside rather than pull into a flow that wasn't advancing, and he got jammed up in the stretch, and he didn't get clear sailing until he reached the tote board. At that point, it was too late. He is the one that is most likely to knock off the choice tonight, and he is the other one that I would consider using on late multi-race tickets.

#3 TAURASI, like the top two picks, drops from the top class tonight and exits the same race as that duo. He sat in Remember The Alamo's pocket to the lane, and he had a clear shot at him, but he couldn't gain, although he did keep Dublin Dasher trapped in until deep stretch. He seems more likely to take a slice than a win in this spot, and I'll use him underneath.

#6 WRITE ME A ROSE is interesting here getting Scott Zeron and starting from the best post, but he faces some tough class droppers who, like him, will probably also have designs on making front early. I could see him taking a tuck in third or fourth and riding a good trip to a small share.

Race 12 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#2 ROCHESTER FLASH has been on fire since being claimed by Garry Merner on July 19th, and he comes into this Pop Up series final off a lifetime-best performance in Leg 2. He fired 26 2/5 first and last quarters in that mile and he faces the same rivals tonight. He gets top billing here in a spot where he should be able to get positioned near the front again.

#7 JK BLACK GOLD set most of the pace in Leg 2 before getting beaten by Rochester Flash who picked him off late. He came back a week later to ride a pocket trip to victory, now he holds a recency advantage on his main rival. I don't think there is any doubt that Doug McNair will be blasting with him tonight, and he is the obvious main threat to the top pick. I won't be surprised if this race comes down to a sprint between these two similar to the way Leg 2 played out.

#5 UNCLE SHANK A wants to race on the front but so too do the two mentioned above, so something will have to give in this race. He could be the first one down to the pylons, then get relegated to third here after a couple of early leadership changes. I could see him sitting a good trip and staying for a share and he is probably a good one to use underneath in this spot.

#1 WANNABEABIGSTAR has been sharp for a while, but he hasn't had the best racing luck in many of his miles. Starting from the rail tonight, he will likely be in mid pack then ride an inside following trip. He can re emerge in the lane and pass a couple of rivals to sneak into the bottom of the Tri or Super. He is worth a look for the bottom of exotic wagers.

Even the horse can't believe it.

If you farm or run a stable part-time, Section 31 of the Income Tax Act taxes you at a higher rate. It's hurting farmers, stables, and the future of the sport.

That's not just a bad bet — it's bad policy.

Race 13 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#7 AQUINAS HANOVER gets to drop to face non-winners of two tonight following a decent effort in a good non-winners of three field last Saturday where he produced a solid closing effort to get fourth. He gets Bob McClure back in the bike, and that teamster drove him to a second-place finish last time this gelding faced non-winners of two five starts back. That 1:50-flat mile that night qualifies him as a contender here, and I'll call him to notch the upset in this anchor leg of the late multi-race tickets.

#8 BACKUP PLAN got Doug McNair back in the bike last week, got bet down to 9 to 5 favorite, and dominated on the engine to jog in the same class that he contests here. He can be very good when he is on his game, and he is the obvious one to beat here.

#1 CENTURY LUCIFER exits the same race as Aquinas Hanover, and he finished ahead of that rival after being parked out most of the way. He gapped cover on the final turn, but he was relentless in the lane, closing gamely between horses to win the race for place behind the strong winner. That was a solid effort, and he is another one in here that is worth a close look for late Pick 5 and Pick 4 tickets.

#6 TH KAY C CRUNCH comes in off two narrow losses at this level, so there isn't much doubt that he will take a lot of action at the windows tonight. I think he faces a tougher field in this spot tonight, while he will contend for a share again, he is one that I will try to beat as a likely underlay coming into this race with 0 wins and 5 seconds from nine tries this year.

#2 SMILING DANCER returned from a break due to sickness, qualified well, then raced decently to take third behind Backup Plan. He will likely find his way into the outer flow again tonight, and he can close for a small share in this spot.

CONDITIONS AND ALLOWANCES IN HARNESS RACING - IMPORTANT TO KNOW

The conditions of a race determine whether a horse is eligible to enter. For example many races are restricted to horses that have won a certain number of races or a certain amount of money in a specified number of starts. Many races are restricted to horses entered to be "claimed" (offered for sale) at a specific price.

Allowances in the claiming price itself are given to colts and geldings, four-year-olds and younger and to mares, five-year-olds and younger.

The purpose of the allowance is to keep younger horses more competitive when racing against older and more experienced rivals. Mares are given extra consideration in claiming events because of their potential as broodmares.

The accompanying chart shows what the allowances are, but an example may make them easier to understand. The chart indicates that three-year-olds receive a 50% allowance in claiming races. This means that a three-year-old entered in a $20,000 claiming race carries an actual claiming price of $30,000 (50% higher).

Fillies and mares receive an additional 25% allowance in claiming races. Details of the race conditions and claiming price (if any) are given at the top of each race in the program.

	ALLOWANCES CLAIMING RACES	CONDITION RACES
2 year olds	100%	50% on 2025 earnings
3 year olds	50%	25% on 2025 earnings 50% on 2024 earnings
4 year olds	25%	25% on 2024 earnings

ALLOWANCES FOR PURSE EARNINGS

When Fillies/Mares compete against Colts/Geldings (normally on the trot) Fillies/Mares will receive an additional 25% on the condition of the race. ie: nw $5,000 (FM $6,250) last 5 or $12,000 (FM $15,000) last 10 starts.

C.P.M.A. Regulation Changes

Effective January 1st 2012
CPMA will be instituting several new rule changes with regards to the following pari-mutuel pools:

- Pick Pools
- If there are no winners in any leg of a Pick N pool, the entire pool is refunded.
 - If there is a change of surface in any leg that is NOT made known to the public prior to wagering for that pool closing, that leg will pay on all runners.
 - A pool is no longer refunded if the 1st leg in the pool is cancelled or declared no contest.
 - Pick-3: If at least 2 legs are declared no contest or cancelled, the pool is refunded.
 - Pick-4, 5 or 6: If at least 3 legs are declared no contest or cancelled, the pool is refunded.

EXPLANATION OF THE LASIX PROGRAM

After careful study and consultation with Ontario Horsemen's groups, racetrack operators and veterinarians, Agriculture Canada and the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario passed legislation allowing the controlled (or supervised) administration of furosemide, more commonly called "Lasix". "Lasix" is used to alleviate the symptoms of exercise induced pulmonary hemorrhaging in racing horses. Horses will undergo an endoscopic examination of the trachea by a veterinarian licensed by the Ontario Racing Commission and endorsed by an official veterinarian before being allowed on the medication list. Once qualified, horses will be treated with "Lasix" within four hours plus or minus 15 minutes of a scheduled race in a secure retention area under the super vision of racing officials. All horses on "Lasix" must remain on the program for a minimum of 100 days while racing in this jurisdiction.

- L Denotes horses treated with Lasix.
- L

 Denotes horses treated with Lasix today who were not so treated for their last start.
- L

 Denotes horses treated with Lasix for their last start but not so treated today.

RULES AND INFORMATION REGARDING CANADIAN HARNESS AND FOREIGN SEPARATE POOL EVENTS

GENERAL

All pari-mutuel pools are calculated and distributed in accordance with the regulations and directives as issued by Agriculture and Agri-Food Canada ("The Regulations"), under the approval and supervision of the Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency. The Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency can be contacted at 1-800-268-8835 or 613-759-6100 or Email: cpmawebacpm@agr.gc.ca. A complete version of the CPMA regulations can be found at <http://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/regulations/SOR-91-365/>.

All tickets should be held until the result of the race is declared official and prices are posted.

No person under the age of 18 shall purchase or cash a ticket or voucher.

A claim of receiving an incorrect payment or incorrect change must be made to the Mutuel office of the association within twenty four hours of buying or cashing a valid ticket or voucher.

No ruling made by the Stewards/Judges or the Ontario Racing Commission with regard to distribution of purse money or the placing of horses in the order of finish, after the race has been declared official, shall have any bearing on the pay-out prices or distribution of pari-mutuel pools.

Change boards and Photo Finish display monitors are located in the Grandstand. In addition, Photo Finish pictures are shown on the closed-circuit television system. Customers are reminded that mutuel clerks are responsible for all shortages. When making a wager, customers must present sufficient funds at the time of purchase to cover the wagers requested.

ENTRIES AND MUTUEL FIELDS

"Entry" means two or more horses in the same race which, for the purpose of pari-mutuel betting, are coupled or considered as the same betting interest. The most common reason for the coupling of horses in an Entry is the fact that they are owned by the same person.

"Mutuel Field" means two or more horses in the same race which, for the purpose of pari-mutuel betting, are coupled because the number of horses in the race exceeds the number which can be handled separately by the pari-mutuel system. Subject to the Regulations, a bet on one horse of an Entry or Mutuel Field shall be considered a bet on all horses in that Entry or Mutuel Field.

DAILY DOUBLE BETTING (INCLUDING LATE DOUBLE)

A Daily Double bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of the two races specified for the Daily Double. Tickets not selecting the winner of the first half of the Daily Double and all tickets in the second half of the Daily Double not coupled with the declared official winner of the first half of the Daily Double are not winners and are not refunded no matter what circumstances affect the running of the second half of the Daily Double.

Should a horse or horses (not coupled with another starter) be excused from starting in the second race of the Daily Double after the first race of the Daily Double has closed for betting, holders of all Daily Double tickets on such horses, coupled with the winner of the first Daily Double race, shall participate in a Consolation Double pool. (Effective Jan 1, 2012)

EXACTA (Also known as Exactor)/TRIFECTA (Also known as Triactor)/SUPERFECTA

An Exacta, Trifecta, Superfecta is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the first two, three and four horses respectively, representing different betting interests to finish in the exact official order of finish, in the race on which the pool is operated.

SWINGER (Also known as OMNI)

A Swinger is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select horses to finish in any order from the official first 3 positions.

JACKPOT HI-5

A Jackpot Hi-5 bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the exact order of finish of the first 5 runners in the specified Jackpot Hi-5 race. If there are races that have an entry, (i.e. 1 & 1A and/or 2 & 2B), Jackpot Hi-5 will not offer a wager consisting of both halves of the same betting interest. Example: If the same betting interest finishes first and second in a Jackpot Hi-5, the payout would be 1st, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th.

That jackpot portion of the pool will only be paid out if there is a single winning ticket. If there are multiple winning tickets that have correctly chosen the first 5 runners of the race, they will receive 50% of the pool for that day. The other 50% will go over into the Jackpot carryover. If there are no winning tickets with the exact order of finish of the first 5 runners, 100% of the current day's pool will be carried over into the Jackpot.

PICK 3 & PICK 4 BETTING

The Pick 3 & Pick 4 bets are betting transactions in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of three or four successive races specified for the Pick 3 & Pick 4 respectively.

Winning tickets for the Pick 3 & Pick 4 are determined in the following sequence: A) winners of all legs, B) most winners, then refund. If there is a change of surface in any leg that is NOT made known to the public prior to wagering for that pool closing, that leg will pay on all runners. If there are no winners in any leg of a pool, the entire pool is refunded.

PICK 5 BETTING

The Pick 5 bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of five successive races specified for the Pick 5 respectively.

If no one has correctly selected all 5 winners, the entire net pool is carried over to the next available PICK 5.

PICK 6 BETTING

The Pick 6 bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of six successive races specified for the Pick 6 respectively.

If no one has correctly selected all 6 winners, the entire net pool is carried over to the next available PICK 6.

PICK 5 & 6 BETTING

If at least 1 race as part of the Pick 5 or 6 has been cancelled or declared "No contest", but not more than the specified below under Refunds, the net pool shall be distributed to those selecting the most # of winners and NOT include any carryover from a previous pool.

PICK 3, PICK 4, PICK 5 & PICK 6 SCRATCHES

In the event a Pick 3, Pick 4, Pick 5 or Pick 6 ticket designates as a selection a horse which is scratched, excused or determined by the Stewards/Judges to be a non-starter in any of the races comprising the Pick 3, Pick 4, Pick 5 or Pick 6 the favourite, as evidenced by the amount wagered in the win pool at the time of the start of the race in which the scratch occurred, will be substituted for the non-starting selection. In the event that the money bet in the win pool for two or more favourites is identical, the selection with the lowest program number shall be substituted for the non-starting selection.

However, if a scratch occurs in any leg of the Pick 3, Pick 4, Pick 5 or Pick 6 pools before the pool is closed, a ticket including the scratched horse may be cancelled.

REFUNDS

Subject to the Regulations, all monies in all pools on a race are refunded in the event that the race is cancelled, declared off or declared no contest, and all monies bet on a horse are refunded if the horse is a late scratch or does not receive a fair start. These refunds will be communicated to the public through various means such as betting terminals, video display, changes boards and our website.

The Pick(n) pool shall be cancelled and all Pick(n) wagers for the individual performance shall be refunded if:

- Pick-3: at least 2 legs are declared no contest or cancel. (Effective Jan 1, 2012)
- Pick-4, 5 or 6: at least 3 legs are declared no contest or cancel. (Effective Jan 1, 2012)

Where a horse that is part of an Entry is a late scratch or does not receive a fair start and at least one horse of that Entry receives a fair start in the race, all tickets purchased on the Entry remain valid and the purchase price of any such ticket shall not be refunded.

COMMON POOL WAGERING (INTERTRACK BETTING)

In the unlikely event of a communications or computer system failure that prevents pools from merging with the host track's pools before the end of a race, CPMA regulations require that the site must refund all tickets for that race. This refund will be communicated to the public through various means such as video displays, change boards and messages on our website.

FAIR START

If a horse has reached the Fair Start Pole (located 200 feet before the Starting Pole) by the time the mobile gate has reached the Starting Pole, that horse is deemed to have had a fair start. It makes no difference whether or not the horse is on or off stride at that precise moment. Under current policy and regulations, which are designed to be as fair as possible to all bettors on all starters, there is no Recall - a repeat of the entire starting procedure - when a horse does not reach the Fair Start Pole before the gate reaches the Starting Pole. Monies bet on such a horse are refunded in accordance with the regulation concerning refunds.

WEG issued tickets or vouchers are valid indefinitely, however, they cannot be cashed at a mutuel teller after 2 years from date of issue. Please mail tickets, along with your name and address, to Mutuel Manager, P.O. Box 156, Rexdale, Ontario, M9W 5L2, keeping a photocopy for future reference.
