Betting Basics

Some essentials to get you started with making a wager.

1 How to wager

Place your bet by visiting a teller, or using a self-serve terminal.

To place a bet here are just 5 things you need to know:

- 1 Name of racetrack (choose from any track in the simulcast feeds)
- 2 Number of the race
- 3 Amount of your bet (e.g. $2)
- 4 Type of bet (see step 2)
- 5 Horse's number (see step 4)

Once you have decided what you want to bet, head to the nearest seller's window and use the sample statement as your guide:

Hello, (Racetrack), race 6, $2 to WIN on Horse #4

How to use a self-serve terminal:

- 1 Swipe your Cash Card/Insert Cash
- 2 Enter the initial PIN #1234 (then choose a new PIN)
- 3 Press/Tap the track you would like to bet: (defaults to current race)
- 4 Tap the Horse Number: #4
- 5 Press/Tap the Bet Type: WIN
- 6 Press/Tap the Bet Amount: $2
- 7 Press/Tap the Race Number: Race #6
- 8 Press Green "Make BET" button
- 9 Press/Tap the "Finish with Receipt" button
- 10 Be sure to check your ticket to confirm it's the bet you wanted

To get a Cash Card or for assistance ask a teller, or a staff member.

2 Types of bets

Single horse bets (minimum $2.00 bet is required)

Bet type	Level of difficulty	Explanation and expectation
Win	U U U	Your horse must finish 1st; payoff determined by the win odds.
Place	U U	Your horse must finish 1st or 2nd; payoffs better than to show.
Show	U	Your horse must finish 1st, 2nd, or 3rd; modest payoffs.

Exotic multiple-horse bets

Bet type	Level of difficulty	Explanation and expectation
Exacta*	U U U U	Your horses must finish 1st and 2nd in exact order; riskier bet that can pay a little or a lot, depending on the horses' odds.
Daily double	U U U U U	Pick the winners of two designated consecutive races.
Pick 3, Win 4, Pick 5, Pick 6	U U U U U U	Select the winners of a designated set of consecutive races. The wager must be made prior to the start of the first race in the multi-race wager.
Triactor*	U U U U U U U	Your horses must finish 1st, 2nd, and 3rd in exact order; can be expensive to play if you use a lot of horses.
Superfecta*	U U U U U U U U	Your horses must finish 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th; big payoff possible.

* Exotic bets require the horses to finish in the EXACT order you select, unless you "BOX" the bet, in which case your selections can finish in any order.

All of the numbers and letters in the program might seem confusing or overwhelming at first, but focusing on these sections makes choosing a horse simple.

- 1 Horse's number in the race
- 2 Horse's post position colour
- 3 Horse's colour, sex, age, sire (father), dam (mother), sire of the dam
- 4 Morning line odds
- 5 Horse's name
- 6 Driver and Driver Record (Name, # of wins, # of 2nds, # of 3rds, winning %)

- 7 Trainer information
- 8 Horse's Lifetime record (with best win time, track size, track, age, lifetime wins and lifetime earnings)
- 9 Horse's current record (# of races, # wins, # of 2nds, # of 3rds, and money earned)

4 The odds

Odds are also important to consider when choosing your horse. Horses that are thought to have a better chance of winning will typically have lower odds.

Morning line odds

Odds listed in the race program are the "morning line" odds. These are predictions of how the public will bet on the race. They are set by the track's handicapper when the race program is published, before the wagering starts.

The actual odds will be posted on the Television or in-field on the Tote Board before the race; they change up until post time, depending on how customers are betting on each horse in the race.

Calculating a $2 win prize

To calculate a win prize, find the Odds of a horse on the Television or Tote Board (in-field board).

Multiply the first number by 2, then divide that number by the second digit (if there is one), and then add $2. Simple as that!

Odds	1/2	2/1	7/2	5/1	10/1
Pays	$3.00	$6.00	$9.00	$12.00	$22.00

Helpful facts for betting

- Some racetracks have a television simulcast commentator who tries to identify winning horses (handicaps) between the races. Listen and see if you can pick up any good tips to bet on.
- A good betting method is to choose horses with current odds two to three times higher than their morning line odds.

3 Tips to remember

WIN BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 32% of the time
PLACE BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 53% of the time
SHOW BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 67% of the time

* Numbers listed above are approximate, may vary by racetrack.

Woodbine Entertainment and its' employees are honoured to engage in the sport of horse racing and entertainment activities in the meeting place of Etobicoke. Woodbine Racetrack is located within the traditional and treaty Lands of the Mississaugas of the Credit. Known as Adoobiigok, the "Place of the Alders" in Michi Saagiig language, the region is uniquely situated along the Humber River Watershed, which historically provided an integral connection for Anishinaabe, Haudenosaunee, and Wendat peoples between the Ontario Lakeshore and Lake Simcoe/Georgian Bay regions. The territory is covered by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, an agreement between the Anishinaabe and the Haudenosaunee to peaceably take care of the land and resources around the Great Lakes. Woodbine is honoured to care for this land, our human and equine athletes, and provide a place to race responsibly.

Race 1 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#2 WANNABEABIGSTAR showed what the difference is between the $50,000 optional claimer level and the $80,000 optional claimer level last week. Two starts back, kicking home in 26 1/5 was good enough to get him a win at the $50,000 claiming level. Stepped up to the $80,000 level last week, he powered home in 26-flat and didn't get a cheque. Dropping back down tonight gives him a good chance to get back on track and resume his winning ways. He gets top billing in this opening leg of tonight's $75,000 guaranteed Pick 5.

#1 BLUE HUNT, stablemate to the top pick, has been in too tough since his win five starts back here, and he took only two small cheques in his last four starts. Five starts back though, when he dropped to this class level, he drew the rail, and Eddie Hensley sent him right down the road in a 1:49 3/5 smoke show blowout win. His strategy likely won't be any secret in this mile. He will surely look to blast off and take this field on a similar ride as he did in that last win on September 6th. If he gets control early, and is unchallenged to the half, he will likely be hard to pass. He is hard to leave off the early Pick 5.

#3 FORTIFY laid down some big early fractions in his most recent start and he almost lasted on the engine, getting picked off by the top pick here and one other rival late in that mile. He had a wide post then and he draws better now. I could see him landing in Blue Hunt's pocket tonight, and that trip would give him a chance. He is another possibility to consider for the early Pick 5.

#9 ARBITRAGE HANOVER drops a couple of levels to what should be a better spot, but he faces other class droppers that draw better. He is 0 for 14 so far this year, and while it's unlikely that he will get off the schneid in this spot, he could take his sixth slice of the year in this fifteenth start.

Race 2 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#6 GRIT N GRACE was without question the best mare in the race last week, but as can happen, she was a victim of bad racing luck. She was used hard early to take command from the rail, then she let a rival go in the second quarter. She popped out of the pocket again on the last turn and wore the leader down to take command in the lane. She looked home free, but the inside lane opened for the even money favorite who elected to stay in fifth and had a ton of late pace because she was unused early. She finished a game second, and she gets the nod to turn the tables on that rival tonight.

#5 ABSOLUTION is the rival that flew up the inside to nail the choice and one thing you can't question is her sharpness. She kicked it up a notch in the final quarter last week, scooting up the pylons in 25 3/5 to get up for the win. She is a hard trying mare with a motor that never seems to idle, and she will likely be the one to fend off late again in this mile tonight.

#3 TALK CURDY TO ME will no doubt get some attention at the windows tonight because she has been racing against the clear top two older pacing mares in North America in all of her last three starts. Two starts back here, she finished second to Sylvia Hanover while finishing a neck in front of Grit N Grace, although the latter lacked room in the stretch until late in the mile. This mare is capable versus these, but she could get over bet and she is no standout. I'll play to beat her tonight.

#2 CAVIAR N CRACKERS was virtually unbeatable racing at this level in the summer, but nothing lasts forever, and it's hard to stay as sharp as she was for several weeks or months. She is still in the mix, but she seems more likely to take a small share than a win in this spot tonight. I'll limit her use to the bottom rungs of the Tri and Super expecting her to close late for a slice.

#3 LETR SINK SON is one of only two in here that has won a pari-mutuel race, and the black son of Big Jim came into last week's race off a good effort here on September 16th. In that mile, he was mired at the back to the far turn and stuck behind a tiring rival at that point. He was able to get around that one at the three quarter pole, and he angled to the inside in mid stretch, and he flew up the pylons to get third while pacing home in 27 1/5. Off that good mile, it was expected that he would be driven more aggressively last week, and he was. He simply couldn't go with the top two colts late in that mile when they sprinted away from him by soaring through the final quarter in 27-flat. This gelding fits well here, and he gets top billing in this opening leg of tonight's early Pick 4.

#8 I LOVE THIS BAR has a similar profile as the top pick. He came off a nice closing effort two starts back then he drew better, and he got more aggressive. He stole a nice breather – a 59-flat middle half – but he couldn't match the big late kick of the 6 to 5 favorite who powered home. He will likely get put into play leaving the gate again tonight, and he should be the main threat to the choice in this spot.

#9 RED HOT POWERPLAY ships into Mohawk Park after getting three miles in at Flamboro Downs and closing in each one of them. That experience should be helpful as he makes his first start over the bigger oval tonight. Getting Travis Cullen in the bike should mean he will get a more aggressive drive in this spot, and he is in with an upset chance at what should be a good price.

#2 CHOW FOR NOW was producing a 26 4/5 kicker when he was last seen here in a pari-mutuel start in July before getting sick and missing time. He didn't show a lot in his qualifier on October 3rd, but I like that Louis-Phillipe Roy – who drove him in that qualifier – sticks with him when he had other options in here. He could be a good one for the bottom of exotic wagers in this comeback race.

#9 SHOWMETHEMONEY DEO got Doug McNair in the bike two starts back, and he immediately drove the sophomore Bettors Delight filly more aggressively and she raced well while narrowly defeated. She was bet down to 3 to 5 last week coming off that good effort, and she converted in style. Making an aggressive third quarter brush, she pulled away for a 1:52-flat score which lowered her lifetime best mark by more than a second. She seems to fit well here, and I don't mind her getting post nine tonight because she can float out at the start and get similarly positioned in the top five like she was last week. She gets the call to repeat in tonight's opening leg of the 20-cent Pick 6.

#8 P N G SHADOW has taken only one win in 10 starts so far, but she got slices in five of the other nine starts, and she comes into this race off a solid effort in defeat in the $75,000 Grassroots Final. She showed two starts back that she has the speed to go with the top pick when she was a good second to Romantic Beauty when she paced a 1:52-flat mile. In her last start, she got clear sailing up the inside in the stretch, and she lost the three across battle, but she was game to the wire and just missed second. She will likely be a speed threat tonight from the outset and she is another to consider for early multi-race tickets.

#4 WHOA BLACK BETTY, a homebred Lazarus N filly, kicked off her career with a win as the favorite following a sneaky good qualifier where she was asked to do nothing other than follow to the stretch by the leading driver, who also drove her to that debut win. In that qualifying mile, she was angled out in the stretch, and she finished with plenty of pace, coming her final quarter in a snappy 27 1/5 under tight lines to Macdonald. She followed that up with a workmanlike winning debut and the filly that she beat that night has already come back to jog. This filly is in the mix here, and she could improve enough to contend for the win.

#5 EASY STATION closed for second behind the top choice here last week after coming off a break of more than a month and she paced the fastest mile of her career which is significant if you consider that she raced four times at The Red Mile which is probably the fastest racetrack in the world. She should be coming late again, and she should be good for another share.

Race 5 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#6 SO MUCH MORE looked like a mare that needed a start when she finished fourth in her comeback race here on September 26th when she finished an even fourth. She was a much different mare last week, and it was no surprise really if you watched her scoring down where she was full of herself and looked like she could be sitting on a big mile. She certainly was ready. She got an aggressive Doug McNair steer, laid down some serious fractions, and won easier than the half length margin at the wire might suggest. She took her 77th win in her 198th start, now she faces tougher tonight. If she can repeat last week's impressive mile, she has a good chance to beat the class droppers for her 78th victory.

#1 BLUE POINT shipped north and joined the barn of the leading trainer last week and she finished last in the small field in the Fillies and Mares Open. That was a race that she surely needed though as she was coming in with a stale date not having raced in more than six weeks. Missing a cheque for the third start in a row means she gets to drop several levels tonight to a spot where she almost surely will be contentious. She should also be much better coming back in a week this time, and she is one that merits a close look for early multi-race tickets.

#5 TELLS ON A ROLL is another class dropping mare that figures in here in what looks like a good betting race. She is only five races removed from a score at the top level, and she was a close third in the Fillies and Mares Open last week. She will likely be a speed presence here, probably looking for the pocket early. If she can find that golden trip, she can be right there.

#3 ANGOSTURA HANOVER is a mare that typically looks for a covered trip that she can close off, which she did get last week where she closed late on So Much More to make things interesting, although she didn't have enough racetrack to get past that leader. She will probably sit an inside following trip tonight then come on late for a share and she is a good one to use on the bottom of the exotics.

Race 6 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#2 STORMONT BEAUTIFUL has really blossomed in her last three starts, and she comes in off an ultra impressive Gold win on September 30th. In that mile, she tracked the leaders to the last turn where she looked live racing on third-over cover, but the filly that she was following wasn't advancing a step. She was wheeled out three wide coming off the final turn, but she still had about six lengths to make up with time running out. She absolutely exploded with a kind of move rarely seen, turning that deficit into a seven-and-a-half length lifetime best win on the strength of a 26 2/5 final quarter. She is the now filly in this division and she will likely be a popular single in this opening leg of tonight's middle Pick 5.

#10 ROXIE HART went off at close to 100 to 1 last week, and she rolled up late to get up for second, trotting a nice 27 3/5 kicker to get there. She will sit back and look to rally again, and she will also take very little action being that she starts from the 10-hole. She is one of the best closers in this field and it's worth a shot to take her underneath the top pick again looking for some Exacta value.

#5 FOXY AMEE just jogged in the $75,000 Grassroots Final, now she tries her luck in the more lucrative Gold Super Final coming in razor-sharp. Last time she raced in a Gold, she was right there, finishing second on August 9th at this track. I don't see her winning this Final, but she can get a good trip racing close to the front and take a share.

#9 MONALISHI closed as the 3 to 5 favorite in that Gold that was won by Stormont Beautiful on the strength of a strong second place finish against colts some Gold colts the previous week. She lost all chance when she blew up at the start, but you have to wonder if she would have been able to match up with the winner who simply raced out of her skin that night. This is obviously a high-quality sophomore filly that will contend if she stays flat, but I'd be careful to demand a price here with her coming into this race off that break in stride.

BEST BET: STORMONT BEAUTIFUL

Race 7 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#1 CHANTILLY has had a bit of an up and down season due to her having several bouts of sickness, but there is no doubting her quality. She missed five weeks after her most recent bout of sickness, and she showed she was back and ready for tonight's Super Final when she blitzed six of the seven fillies that she meets tonight powering her way to the easiest kind of 1:50 2/5 win while effortlessly kicking home in 25 4/5. Now that she is back in peak form, it is impossible to try to beat her in this field, in my opinion as she tunes up for a likely appearance in the Breeders Crown on her home track.

#2 MILLIE MAY HANOVER tried the Jugette two starts back, and she couldn't go with one of the top fillies in North America. She returned home and again faced one of the best fillies on the continent in Chantilly last time, and I thought she raced well to get third in defeat. She was the only filly in that race that passed more than one rival in the final quarter, and she just missed getting up for second. She will likely offer some Exacta value in this Super Final, and she is the one that I will use to finish closest to Chantilly.

#4 ETERNAL DELIGHT has finished in the Exacta in four of her last five starts, and in the one that she missed she finished ahead of Chantilly in Ottawa in a start where that rival was obviously affected by sickness. This filly will surely blast off looking for the pocket again tonight, and she should be part of the Tri again. She narrowly held Millie May off for second last time, and it wouldn't be a surprise to see her land there again.

#7 PERFECTLY CHIC is having a terrific season having earned close to $300,000 on the strength of a Grand Circuit and Gold win and not missing a single cheque in any of her 15 starts. She missed second to Chantilly by only a neck in a three across battle for place. She is up against it a bit here drawing outside all her main rivals, and a smaller share seems likely for her again. She is a consistent filly that always gives her best, and she is a good one to use underneath.

#8 P L SPENCER couldn't be any sharper coming into this Super Final for sophomore trotting colts and geldings. In his most recent win, he blasted right to the front and was soon passed for the lead by a rival at the quarter. He didn't sit in the pocket long, and after he moved back to the front, he had no stressful moments as he won well. He looked like he was under wraps passing under the wire at the end of a 27-flat final quarter. He should be very tough to beat in here as the odds-on favorite.

#2 NICKEL AND DIME was 1 for 13 when he lined up behind the gate to race on August 12th. He jogged in a Grassroots race that night then he proceeded to run the table in that division culminating in a two-move lifetime best score in the Grassroots Final. He was sold in late July, and he has flourished under the care of conditioner Mark Etsell winning five of seven starts. I don't see him matching strides with P L Spencer here, but he is razor sharp and he could complete the Exacta.

#10 LMC WAGON WHEEL has been good all year, taking three wins and nine slices from 15 starts while earning a few dollars shy of $200,000. He was a Gold winner five starts back when he got the trip and bested P L Spencer, but he has finished behind that rival in all of his last three starts. He gets the worst post for this Super Final and a smaller slice is likely his ceiling mainly due to the post position draw.

#7 GALEN ERSO tried racing first up against P L Spencer last week, and that was a trip that wasn't going to work. He did hang in there to land a small share, and he will likely look to sit and rally this time. He has also had some gait issues, but he stayed flat in both his qualifier and his last start after deploying trotting hobbles. He can work his way into the Tri or Super if he finds a live helmet to follow this time.

#5 CRACK SHOT hadn't raced in close to a month when he lined up behind the gate here in a Gold race on October 2nd after being vet scratched out of the lucrative Kentucky Sires Stakes Final. He qualified well, then he raced even better, blowing a Gold field away and pacing home in 25 4/5. He is back at the top of his game, and he might have to work harder tonight, probably not being gifted another 1:24-flat three quarters, but he gets top billing in this opening leg of tonight's late Pick 5 coming in razor sharp.

#1 BOXER SEELSTER is a gelding that has been seen as improving as he nears the end of his sophomore season, starting with a wide late move that he made in a Gold race four starts back. He has been right there in three subsequent miles, and he had the toughest trip racing against the top choice last time and he stuck around for second in a dead heat. He is sharp and he is one that I could see scoring the upset tonight with the right trip. He is one that I will likely use on late multi-race tickets at a price.

#6 ALLSTAR MANIAC was coming off a sick scratch when he faced Crack Shot in that Gold race, but he didn't have the benefit of a qualifier between starts. He looked a little short in that race, getting passed by two rivals in deep stretch after sitting a nice following trip. He is capable of much better when he is at his sharpest, but I wonder if that one tightener is enough for him to bridge the gap and take down Crack Shot tonight. He would be interesting if the top pick gets over bet.

#7 TIME PASSER entered the Grassroots Final off three straight starts where he finished sixth or worse, but he did show a sign that he might be blasting off the gate because he was leading at the quarter in 25 3/5 in his previous start. He deployed a take no prisoners strategy in the Grassroots Final, and he made front and kept improving his position on his way to a blowout upset score where he crushed his lifetime best, pacing a 1:49-flat score. The company he faces now is much tougher, and a smaller share is probable for him racing in this Gold Super Final tonight.

Even the horse can't believe it.

If you farm or run a stable part-time, Section 31 of the Income Tax Act taxes you at a higher rate. It's hurting farmers, stables, and the future of the sport.

That's not just a bad bet — it's bad policy.

Race 10 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#6 CALICOJACK HANOVER has been racing great for several weeks, having taken wins in two of his last three starts in good fields. Last week, he came up against a tightened up Nijinsky who he defeated the week before. That rival was ready to produce his best that night, however, and this Luc Blais trainee could only follow Nijinsky home as he paced away in a sub-1:48 mile. Starting from the best post, Calicojack Hanover should be good to go racing on the engine here, and he should be the one to catch and beat. He will likely be singled on many tickets in this opening leg of tonight's late Pick 4.

#7 DUBLIN DASHER was the first leader passing under the wire for the first time last week, and after three leadership changes, he found himself racing fourth. He then had the unenviable and impossible task of chasing Nijinsky racing first-over. I thought he did well to hang in there and finish only three quarters of a length behind Calicojack Hanover at the wire. This Always B Miki gelding will likely blast off the gate again, and if he can find the pocket tonight and hold that position to the top of the lane, he has a good chance of scoring the upset. He is the other one in here that I would consider using on late multi-race tickets.

#3 COLD CREEK QUESO takes a big jump up in class tonight, but he has been absolutely flying down the stretch in recent starts, and he will likely be passing some rivals again tonight. He was 1 for 18 when he crossed under the wire on August 23rd. Now he has three wins from 20 starts in 2025, and he is as sharp as he gets. I don't see him passing both of the top two choices in this race, but he can work his way into the bottom of the Tri or Super.

#5 REMEMBER THE ALAMO was heavily bet in his last start when he finished third to Calicojack Hanover. He got an easy opening half that night and he couldn't see it through to the wire on the lead. Now he missed a week, and he faces some rivals that are more than likely sharper than him. He will likely finish on the edges tonight and he offers no value at 5 to 2 in the morning line.

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#7 FIGMENT was an impressive debut winner here on September 9th, where the homebred son of Shadow Play sat fourth early then made an impressive first-over move to pace away from his rivals while finishing in the middle of the track. He made a rise in class that was much more significant that it would appear on paper because stepping up from a maiden race to a non-winners of two class he had to face a rival that was coming into that race off a sub-1:50 win in that second start. He acquitted himself well in that mile, flying home in 26-flat to finish second to that dominant rival. He drew best last week, and the public correctly identified him as an odds-on favorite. He again flashed home in 26-flat to win and we may not have seen his best race yet. He gets the nod to repeat here.

#5 CALLSIGN ROOSTER has been facing some tough Grassroots rivals recently with mixed results. Most recently, he broke stride at the start then he recovered to pace a 55 1/5 back half and a 27 2/5 kicker. He fits well in this spot, but he might have his hands full if Figment unleashes another 26-flat kicker. If this Ian Moore trainee stays flat tonight, he can be an Exacta factor.

#1 PA SALT is a $17,000 London Classic buy that is related to 10 winners, including six $100,000 earners, and he was well prepped for this debut. He qualified nicely at Grand River with a trainer in the bike, rallying for the win while unleashing a 27 3/5 kicker. He then qualified here nine days later where tonight's pilot Doug McNair got a test drive. He kicked in 27 1/5 and that mile and that had him perfectly primed for his debut here on October 2nd. He was patiently driven as the 3 to 5 favorite, and he showed his mettle late in the mile, sprinting hard to get the job done. He steps into the deep end immediately here as this two-year-old faces some sharp elders. I prefer to use him underneath in this spot.

#4 COLD CREEK PANTERA had little chance in both of his last two miles when facing two winners that seemingly freaked and paced the miles of their lives. It seems very unlikely that any of his rivals in here will pace a sub-1:50 mile, and that gives him a chance to stay in the race and come on late. He could sneak into the bottom of the Tri or Super at a good price here.

Race 12 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#3 SNACK ATTACK raced two heats in Delaware on September 18th when contesting the Little Brown Jug and he did alright in the final heat considering he drew wide racing against superstar Louprint who stole a cheap opening half as expected. This gelding made a mild late move in a decent effort. He changed hands on October 6th, and he debuts for the Hensleys here looking for some immediate return on investment, and he fits well in this non-winners of three field. He will likely get an aggressive steer, and it will be no surprise if he takes commend leaving the gate and goes right down the road.

#5 LYONS FRANKY J raced well in defeat last week, following a sharp rival that was ready to win. That rival finished off his mile in 27-flat making him tough to catch, but this colt kept at it and made things interesting in deep stretch. That was his fourth strong outing in a row and if the top pick isn't at his sharpest after missing three weeks, this colt will likely be the one in here. He is the other one that I would consider using on late multi-race tickets with him starting from one of the best posts.

#1 BLAZING CRUISER stepped up to non-winners of three last week, but he took some action, closing at 6 to 1. He sat back early, and it was decided he would stay in around the final turn and into the stretch. He had to wait for room in early stretch and once he got clear sailing, he closed well along the pylons to get third behind Lyons Franky J. He will likely sit a similar trip in this spot tonight and pass some rivals late. He can land in the Tri again.

#6 TH KAY C CRUNCH was racing well in non-winners of two when he stepped up to face Grand Circuit colts on October 6th and finished on the edges. He isn't a bad fit in this field, but he has now missed more than a month and he faces some sharp rivals tonight. I'll take a wait and see approach here expecting this gelding to finish on the edges tonight.

Race 13 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#2 TROSA A was good in his comeback race here on September 27th when he closed for third and paced a 27-flat kicker. He then drew post 10 and lost the leading driver, and he closed only mildly in that mile, as expected. He gets a few factors swinging his way tonight: he draws much better, he gets the leading driver back and he should get a much better trip. James Macdonald will likely find a live helmet to follow here, and this gelding gets the nod in a competitive looking field.

#1 JMR SPEAK AWAY was 30 to 1 from post nine two starts back, and he showed little. He moved to the 1-hole last week, which isn't a ton better than post nine, but he got bet down to 13 to 1. Someone clearly liked him. He produced a big late charge, closing down the middle of the track to fall just short. He gets the rail post again, and he will probably be looking to pass several horses in here, but he is sharp, and he is in play here for use on late multi-race tickets.

#4 NAZARE raced well enough to win at a similar class level to tonight's two starts back, but he fell prey to Cold Creek Queso who closed like he was shot out of a cannon in the stretch. He finished behind that same rival in his last start where he showed his usual early speed then took a shuffle. He projects to get a good trip racing close to the front tonight, and he is yet another contender to consider.

#6 R J RINGO does his best work racing on the engine, and starting from the best post tonight, he has a good chance to make front early and embark on a speed mission. If he holds the lead to the final turn and gets clear, he could prove tough to catch in here. He could close as an overlay, and he is another that is worth a look in this spot.

#8 LAMBORGHINI LOU returned to Ontario following a stint in New York state and he closed mildly to get the smallest cheque in his return race. Starting from a wide post, it seems likely that he will get stacked up on excess cover again, and I prefer to use him on the bottom of the exotics in this spot.

CONDITIONS AND ALLOWANCES IN HARNESS RACING - IMPORTANT TO KNOW

The conditions of a race determine whether a horse is eligible to enter. For example many races are restricted to horses that have won a certain number of races or a certain amount of money in a specified number of starts. Many races are restricted to horses entered to be "claimed" (offered for sale) at a specific price.

Allowances in the claiming price itself are given to colts and geldings, four-year-olds and younger and to mares, five-year-olds and younger.

The purpose of the allowance is to keep younger horses more competitive when racing against older and more experienced rivals. Mares are given extra consideration in claiming events because of their potential as broodmares.

The accompanying chart shows what the allowances are, but an example may make them easier to understand. The chart indicates that three-year-olds receive a 50% allowance in claiming races. This means that a three-year-old entered in a $20,000 claiming race carries an actual claiming price of $30,000 (50% higher).

Fillies and mares receive an additional 25% allowance in claiming races. Details of the race conditions and claiming price (if any) are given at the top of each race in the program.

	ALLOWANCES CLAIMING RACES	CONDITION RACES
2 year olds	100%	50% on 2025 earnings
3 year olds	50%	25% on 2025 earnings 50% on 2024 earnings
4 year olds	25%	25% on 2024 earnings

ALLOWANCES FOR PURSE EARNINGS

When Fillies/Mares compete against Colts/Geldings (normally on the trot) Fillies/Mares will receive an additional 25% on the condition of the race.
ie: nw $5,000 (FM $6,250) last 5 or $12,000 (FM $15,000) last 10 starts.

C.P.M.A. Regulation Changes

Effective January 1st 2012
CPMA will be instituting several new rule changes with regards to the following pari-mutuel pools:

- Pick Pools
- If there are no winners in any leg of a Pick N pool, the entire pool is refunded.
 - If there is a change of surface in any leg that is NOT made known to the public prior to wagering for that pool closing, that leg will pay on all runners.
 - A pool is no longer refunded if the 1st leg in the pool is cancelled or declared no contest.
 - Pick-3: If at least 2 legs are declared no contest or cancelled, the pool is refunded.
 - Pick-4, 5 or 6: If at least 3 legs are declared no contest or cancelled, the pool is refunded.

EXPLANATION OF THE LASIX PROGRAM

After careful study and consultation with Ontario Horsemen's groups, racetrack operators and veterinarians, Agriculture Canada and the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario passed legislation allowing the controlled (or supervised) administration of furosemide, more commonly called "Lasix". "Lasix" is used to alleviate the symptoms of exercise induced pulmonary hemorrhaging in racing horses. Horses will undergo an endoscopic examination of the trachea by a veterinarian licensed by the Ontario Racing Commission and endorsed by an official veterinarian before being allowed on the medication list. Once qualified, horses will be treated with "Lasix" within four hours plus or minus 15 minutes of a scheduled race in a secure retention area under the super vision of racing officials.

All horses on "Lasix" must remain on the program for a minimum of 100 days while racing in this jurisdiction.

- L Denotes horses treated with Lasix.
- L

 Denotes horses treated with Lasix today who were not so treated for their last start.

 Denotes horses treated with Lasix for their last start but not so treated today.

Pari-mutuel wagering and drug control services are provided under the supervision of the Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency, an agency of Agriculture and the Minister of Agriculture. All pari-mutuel pools are calculated and distributed in accordance with the Pari-Mutuel Betting Regulations. The Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency can be contacted at 1-800-268-8835 or locally at 613-759-6100 or E-Mail: cpmawebacpm@agr.gc.ca

RULES AND INFORMATION REGARDING CANADIAN HARNESS AND FOREIGN SEPARATE POOL EVENTS

GENERAL

All pari-mutuel pools are calculated and distributed in accordance with the regulations and directives as issued by Agriculture and Agri-Food Canada ("The Regulations"), under the approval and supervision of the Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency. The Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency can be contacted at 1-800-268-8835 or 613-759-6100 or Email: cpmawebacpm@agr.gc.ca. A complete version of the CPMA regulations can be found at <http://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/regulations/SOR-91-365/>.

All tickets should be held until the result of the race is declared official and prices are posted.

No person under the age of 18 shall purchase or cash a ticket or voucher.

A claim of receiving an incorrect payment or incorrect change must be made to the Mutuel office of the association within twenty four hours of buying or cashing a valid ticket or voucher.

No ruling made by the Stewards/Judges or the Ontario Racing Commission with regard to distribution of purse money or the placing of horses in the order of finish, after the race has been declared official, shall have any bearing on the pay-out prices or distribution of pari-mutuel pools.

Change boards and Photo Finish display monitors are located in the Grandstand. In addition, Photo Finish pictures are shown on the closed-circuit television system. Customers are reminded that mutuel clerks are responsible for all shortages. When making a wager, customers must present sufficient funds at the time of purchase to cover the wagers requested.

ENTRIES AND MUTUEL FIELDS

"Entry" means two or more horses in the same race which, for the purpose of pari-mutuel betting, are coupled or considered as the same betting interest. The most common reason for the coupling of horses in an Entry is the fact that they are owned by the same person.

"Mutuel Field" means two or more horses in the same race which, for the purpose of pari-mutuel betting, are coupled because the number of horses in the race exceeds the number which can be handled separately by the pari-mutuel system. Subject to the Regulations, a bet on one horse of an Entry or Mutuel Field shall be considered a bet on all horses in that Entry or Mutuel Field.

DAILY DOUBLE BETTING (INCLUDING LATE DOUBLE)

A Daily Double bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of the two races specified for the Daily Double. Tickets not selecting the winner of the first half of the Daily Double and all tickets in the second half of the Daily Double not coupled with the declared official winner of the first half of the Daily Double are not winners and are not refunded no matter what circumstances affect the running of the second half of the Daily Double.

Should a horse or horses (not coupled with another starter) be excused from starting in the second race of the Daily Double after the first race of the Daily Double has closed for betting, holders of all Daily Double tickets on such horses, coupled with the winner of the first Daily Double race, shall participate in a Consolation Double pool. (Effective Jan 1, 2012)

EXACTA (Also known as Exactor)/TRIFECTA (Also known as Triactor)/SUPERFECTA

An Exacta, Trifecta, Superfecta is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the first two, three and four horses respectively, representing different betting interests to finish in the exact official order of finish, in the race on which the pool is operated.

SWINGER (Also known as OMNI)

A Swinger is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select horses to finish in any order from the official first 3 positions.

JACKPOT HI-5

A Jackpot Hi-5 bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the exact order of finish of the first 5 runners in the specified Jackpot Hi-5 race. If there are races that have an entry, (i.e. 1 & 1A and/or 2 & 2B), Jackpot Hi-5 will not offer a wager consisting of both halves of the same betting interest. Example: If the same betting interest finishes first and second in a Jackpot Hi-5, the payout would be 1st, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th.

That jackpot portion of the pool will only be paid out if there is a single winning ticket. If there are multiple winning tickets that have correctly chosen the first 5 runners of the race, they will receive 50% of the pool for that day. The other 50% will go over into the Jackpot carryover. If there are no winning tickets with the exact order of finish of the first 5 runners, 100% of the current day's pool will be carried over into the Jackpot.

PICK 3 & PICK 4 BETTING

The Pick 3 & Pick 4 bets are betting transactions in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of three or four successive races specified for the Pick 3 & Pick 4 respectively.

Winning tickets for the Pick 3 & Pick 4 are determined in the following sequence: A) winners of all legs, B) most winners, then refund. If there is a change of surface in any leg that is NOT made known to the public prior to wagering for that pool closing, that leg will pay on all runners. If there are no winners in any leg of a pool, the entire pool is refunded.

PICK 5 BETTING

The Pick 5 bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of five successive races specified for the Pick 5 respectively.

If no one has correctly selected all 5 winners, the entire net pool is carried over to the next available PICK 5.

PICK 6 BETTING

The Pick 6 bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of six successive races specified for the Pick 6 respectively.

If no one has correctly selected all 6 winners, the entire net pool is carried over to the next available PICK 6.

PICK 5 & 6 BETTING

If at least 1 race as part of the Pick 5 or 6 has been cancelled or declared "No contest", but not more than the specified below under Refunds, the net pool shall be distributed to those selecting the most # of winners and NOT include any carryover from a previous pool.

PICK 3, PICK 4, PICK 5 & PICK 6 SCRATCHES

In the event a Pick 3, Pick 4, Pick 5 or Pick 6 ticket designates as a selection a horse which is scratched, excused or determined by the Stewards/Judges to be a non-starter in any of the races comprising the Pick 3, Pick 4, Pick 5 or Pick 6 the favourite, as evidenced by the amount wagered in the win pool at the time of the start of the race in which the scratch occurred, will be substituted for the non-starting selection. In the event that the money bet in the win pool for two or more favourites is identical, the selection with the lowest program number shall be substituted for the non-starting selection.

However, if a scratch occurs in any leg of the Pick 3, Pick 4, Pick 5 or Pick 6 pools before the pool is closed, a ticket including the scratched horse may be cancelled.

REFUNDS

Subject to the Regulations, all monies in all pools on a race are refunded in the event that the race is cancelled, declared off or declared no contest, and all monies bet on a horse are refunded if the horse is a late scratch or does not receive a fair start. These refunds will be communicated to the public through various means such as betting terminals, video display, changes boards and our website.

The Pick(n) pool shall be cancelled and all Pick(n) wagers for the individual performance shall be refunded if:

- Pick-3: at least 2 legs are declared no contest or cancel. (Effective Jan 1, 2012)
- Pick-4, 5 or 6: at least 3 legs are declared no contest or cancel. (Effective Jan 1, 2012)

Where a horse that is part of an Entry is a late scratch or does not receive a fair start and at least one horse of that Entry receives a fair start in the race, all tickets purchased on the Entry remain valid and the purchase price of any such ticket shall not be refunded.

COMMON POOL WAGERING (INTERTRACK BETTING)

In the unlikely event of a communications or computer system failure that prevents pools from merging with the host track's pools before the end of a race, CPMA regulations require that the site must refund all tickets for that race. This refund will be communicated to the public through various means such as video displays, change boards and messages on our website.

FAIR START

If a horse has reached the Fair Start Pole (located 200 feet before the Starting Pole) by the time the mobile gate has reached the Starting Pole, that horse is deemed to have had a fair start. It makes no difference whether or not the horse is on or off stride at that precise moment. Under current policy and regulations, which are designed to be as fair as possible to all bettors on all starters, there is no Recall - a repeat of the entire starting procedure - when a horse does not reach the Fair Start Pole before the gate reaches the Starting Pole. Monies bet on such a horse are refunded in accordance with the regulation concerning refunds.

LOST & OLD TICKETS

WEG issued tickets or vouchers are valid indefinitely, however, they cannot be cashed at a mutuel teller after 2 years from date of issue. Please mail tickets, along with your name and address, to Mutuel Manager, P.O. Box 156, Rexdale, Ontario, M9W 5L2, keeping a photocopy for future reference.

For "Lost Tickets" originally sold at a Woodbine Entertainment Group racetrack or Teletheatre, please enquire at the Mutuel office at Woodbine, Greenwood Teletheatre, or Mohawk. Policy may be subject to change retroactively in the event regulatory bodies amend existing regulations.

ASSOCIATION PERCENTAGE, AND TAXATION/LEVY

The Woodbine Entertainment Group deducts and retains the following percentages from wagers placed at our own licensed sites which are then shared with the horsepeople, host and simulcast associations and the Ontario Racing Commission.

WOODBINE MOHAWK LIVE: Win, Place & Show: 13.65%. Swinger 14.7%. Trifecta & Pick 4: 21.7%. Double & Exakta 17.2%. Jackpot Hi-5, Pick 5 & Pick 6: 11.7%. All other 23.0%

Horsepeople receive a further 2% on all wagers, except Trifecta wagering where it is 4%. The Ontario Provincial Government retains 0.5% on all bets placed in Ontario. The Canadian Government (through a revolving fund cost recovery basis) retains 0.8% on all wagers placed in Canada for provision of drug control, and audit services.

While every effort is made to provide accurate information in the program, Woodbine Entertainment Group assumes no liability for errors or omissions.

THANK YOU

Thank you valued partners for your continues support before the gate and beyond the wire
