Betting Basics

Some essentials to get you started with making a wager.

1 How to wager

Place your bet by visiting a teller, or using a self-serve terminal.

To place a bet here are just 5 things you need to know:

- 1 Name of racetrack (choose from any track in the simulcast feeds)
- 2 Number of the race
- 3 Amount of your bet (e.g. $2)
- 4 Type of bet (see step 2)
- 5 Horse's number (see step 4)

Once you have decided what you want to bet, head to the nearest seller's window and use the sample statement as your guide:

Hello, (Racetrack), race 6, $2 to WIN on Horse #4

How to use a self-serve terminal:

- 1 Swipe your Cash Card/Insert Cash
- 2 Enter the initial PIN #1234 (then choose a new PIN)
- 3 Press/Tap the track you would like to bet: (defaults to current race)
- 4 Tap the Horse Number: #4
- 5 Press/Tap the Bet Type: WIN
- 6 Press/Tap the Bet Amount: $2
- 7 Press/Tap the Race Number: Race #6
- 8 Press Green "Make BET" button
- 9 Press/Tap the "Finish with Receipt" button
- 10 Be sure to check your ticket to confirm it's the bet you wanted

To get a Cash Card or for assistance ask a teller, or a staff member.

2 Types of bets

Single horse bets (minimum $2.00 bet is required)

Bet type	Level of difficulty	Explanation and expectation
Win	U U U	Your horse must finish 1st; payoff determined by the win odds.
Place	U U	Your horse must finish 1st or 2nd; payoffs better than to show.
Show	U	Your horse must finish 1st, 2nd, or 3rd; modest payoffs.

Exotic multiple-horse bets

Bet type	Level of difficulty	Explanation and expectation
Exacta*	U U U U	Your horses must finish 1st and 2nd in exact order; riskier bet that can pay a little or a lot, depending on the horses' odds.
Daily double	U U U U U	Pick the winners of two designated consecutive races.
Pick 3, Win 4, Pick 5, Pick 6	U U U U U U	Select the winners of a designated set of consecutive races. The wager must be made prior to the start of the first race in the multi-race wager.
Triactor*	U U U U U U U	Your horses must finish 1st, 2nd, and 3rd in exact order; can be expensive to play if you use a lot of horses.
Superfecta*	U U U U U U U U	Your horses must finish 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th; big payoff possible.

* Exotic bets require the horses to finish in the EXACT order you select, unless you "BOX" the bet, in which case your selections can finish in any order.

All of the numbers and letters in the program might seem confusing or overwhelming at first, but focusing on these sections makes choosing a horse simple.

- Horse's number in the race
- Horse's post position colour
- Horse's colour, sex, age, sire (father), dam (mother), sire of the dam
- Morning line odds
- Horse's name
- Driver and Driver Record (Name, # of wins, # of 2nds, # of 3rds, winning %)
- Trainer information
- Horse's Lifetime record (with best win time, track size, track, age, lifetime wins and lifetime earnings)
- Horse's current record (# of races, # wins, # of 2nds, # of 3rds, and money earned)

4 The odds

Odds are also important to consider when choosing your horse. Horses that are thought to have a better chance of winning will typically have lower odds.

Morning line odds

Odds listed in the race program are the "morning line" odds. These are predictions of how the public will bet on the race. They are set by the track's handicapper when the race program is published, before the wagering starts.

The actual odds will be posted on the Television or in-field on the Tote Board before the race; they change up until post time, depending on how customers are betting on each horse in the race.

Calculating a $2 win prize

To calculate a win prize, find the Odds of a horse on the Television or Tote Board (in-field board).

Multiply the first number by 2, then divide that number by the second digit (if there is one), and then add $2. Simple as that!

Odds	1/2	2/1	7/2	5/1	10/1
Pays	$3.00	$6.00	$9.00	$12.00	$22.00

Helpful facts for betting

- Some racetracks have a television simulcast commentator who tries to identify winning horses (handicaps) between the races. Listen and see if you can pick up any good tips to bet on.
- A good betting method is to choose horses with current odds two to three times higher than their morning line odds.

3 Tips to remember

WIN BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 32% of the time
PLACE BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 53% of the time
SHOW BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 67% of the time

* Numbers listed above are approximate, may vary by racetrack.

Race 1 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#6 STYLE FOR A MILE missed getting a cheque in her last start after drawing post 10, dropping to the back, and showing little. That poor placing should prove to be a blessing in disguise though, because not getting any part of that purse dropped money off her card that was earned when she finished a good second in the top class here five starts back. If you go back nine starts, you will find that she throttled a better field than this one, taking a 1:49-flat lifetime mark with Doug McNair providing an aggressive winning steer. She gets everything in her favor tonight: a class drop, moving from the worst post to the best one, and a return of McNair to the sulky. She is the clear top pick as we kick off the first night of the Breeders Crown with the opening leg of the $75,000 guaranteed Pick 5.

#5 COCO JO JO was used hard early in her last start, parked past the quarter to make front where she immediately came under siege and was relegated to sitting the pocket. She followed the leader through swift fractions to the stretch where she started to back up, eventually finishing last of 10. She is one of a few that gets to drop in class tonight and she is obviously capable of better. She will likely look for an easier trip and a live helmet to follow tonight, and I could see her rebounding and getting a better result.

#3 CARRERA SUNSET N is the stranger in here, making her first North American start after shipping overseas from Australia. She looked good in her winning qualifier on October 3rd, although she beat a much easier field that morning than she will meet tonight. She adds Lasix but she has now missed three weeks, so there are some mixed signals here. I'm inclined to take a wait and see approach with this six-year-old daughter of Downbytheseaside. Perhaps the tote board will provide some clues.

#4 GENTRIFY is another mare that adds Lasix tonight who has also missed some time not having raced since September 26th. She comes out of a race where the leader was allowed to crawl around the track in 1:25 1/5 then flew home in 26 3/5, making it impossible for the closers to gain any ground. She fired a 27 1/5 kicker, and she is capable of sneaking into the Tri or Super in this field tonight.

Race 2 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#6 COLD CREEK FUEGO didn't convert as the 8 to 5 favorite in Leg 2 of this Pop Up series, but she certainly paced a huge trip in defeat. After floating out from post six, she made an early three wide move just past the quarter to get around a couple of rivals that were just sitting out there in the two path, stalled. From there, she moved methodically first-over until she got close to the leader at the three-quarter pole. She chased that rival home, finishing a clear second, and she should get a much better trip here starting from the best post. She gets the nod to turn the tables in this Pop Up Series Final.

#5 SIMPLY THE BEST raced great to finish second beaten only a length by Chantilly in the Gold Super Final here on October 11th, and she fired right back in five days to contest the second leg of this Pop Up Series. She was just as sharp, and she floated out and tucked in third from her wide post then she made a quick move to the front after the quarter. From there, she led all the way, and she had no problem holding Cold Creek Fuego safe. She is the one that they will have to catch again as the probable favorite.

#2 MACAPELO SEELSTER was sent off as an 85 to 1 longshot in Leg 2 last week with most bettors likely thinking she would be dropping to the back at the start seeing as she drew the widest post. Driver Tyler Borth had other ideas though, and he blasted this mare right to the front. She was overtaken by Simply The Best in the second quarter and followed that winner home from there, riding the pocket home. She was no threat to either of the top two finishers in the stretch, but she did stick around for third. She can get a similar trip and result tonight.

#7 ALL MY WISHES pressed a slow pace racing first-over in the opening leg of this series and she prevailed. She wasn't as good last week in Leg 2 in a mile where every fraction was faster than in her previous mile. She is better than she showed that night, though, and I could see her closing for a share tonight. She is probably a good one to use on the bottom of the Tri or Super in this spot.

Race 3 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#5 LASTDRIVEDOWNMAIN, a Captain Crunch homebred, got sent out for his maiden voyage last week by breeder/owner/trainer Megan Scran off some good recent qualifying miles, and he raced well with tonight's pilot Scott Zeron in the bike. After leaving fast enough to land in the pocket, he was relegated to third on the backstretch as the 4 to 5 favorite made a middle move to the lead. He sat patiently in third to the top of the stretch where he moved outside and began to close. He chased well to the wire, closing on the winner while finishing several lengths clear of the third-place finisher. With that good debut race under his belt, he should have a big shot in here in this second start. He gets top billing in this opening leg of tonight's early Pick 4.

#3 BARBADIAN BREEZE is a homebred son of sensational sire Cattlewash out of a race mare that locals will likely be familiar with, one who took 20 wins from her 119 starts all raced in tracks in Ontario. She has produced only one winner from three starters so far, but this colt showed in his lone qualifier that he is the best of the bunch, pacing a winning mile that was almost four seconds faster than any mile paced by any of his siblings in qualifiers or for purses. Assuming he will drop a couple of seconds on debut here, he can be right there at first asking. He is one that merits a close look for use on early multi-race tickets.

#8 OVER BET was bet down to 7 to 5 for his second start here two weeks ago, and he could do no better than follow in a mile that was paced in a wicked 1:51 4/5 for this non-winners of one or $8,000 lifetime class. There isn't much chance that this race will go that fast and while he appears to be a decent fit in here, he has yet to make any kind of significant move of his own in any of the races. Starting from a wide post tonight, I prefer to use him underneath.

#2 MAGICAL DUNDAS shipped into Mohawk Park last week coming off a nice maiden score at Flamboro Downs and he dropped close to three seconds while finishing third to dominant Solar Voltage. That was a decent effort, but he was six lengths behind the top pick in this race at the wire. He seems destined for another small share tonight and he is likely best used underneath.

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#9 SANTAFES APPETITE is a mare that I was looking forward to seeing on October 10th because she made an eye catching late move the previous week when she was a closing fourth to Superior Delight. After dropping to the back early, she was sitting last around the far turn racing on fifth-over cover. She was last as the field turned for home and she lost ground peeling widest. She was still last at the eighth pole, at which point she kicked into high gear. She was airborne in deep stretch and after finishing fourth, she was in front about four strides past the wire. She was a judges scratch due to transportation issues on October 10th, now she comes into tonight's race off a stale date, and she draws a wide post. While there is obvious risk in backing her tonight, I think those aforementioned factors will lead to her being sent postward at a big price tonight. I'll take a George Springer style swing for the fences with her in this opening leg of tonight's 20-cent Pick 6.

#2 HES EXPRESS will get lots of play at the windows tonight, and with good reason. She takes a multi-level class drop and shows a last out mile paced in 1:51-flat where she was a closing fourth to a mare that would likely go off at 1 to 9 in this field. Five starts back, this Carmen Auciello pupil defeated a decent Pop Up Series field where she was raced aggressively, and she will likely get that kind of a steer here tonight. She is clearly the one to beat in this field.

#7 MIKKI SIXX was the winner of the Niagara Series her last Boxing Day then came right back to win again but her form tailed off after that pair of victories. She raced at higher classes than this one all year, and she gets class relief and looks ready to roll coming off a pair of good qualifiers with tonight's driver Doug McNair in the bike. She is fast enough to go with these, and she is another that merits a close look for early multi-race tickets.

#10 SUPERIOR DELIGHT has been an absolute win machine this season taking 14 wins from 27 starts while completing the Exacta on six other occasions. She is the epitome of a racehorse that is classified perfectly because it seems she is always right there racing at tonight's level. I'm not sure she can get the trip she needs starting from out there, and I'll play to beat her tonight.

Race 5 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#2 BLUE POINT dropped from the top class two starts back, and she was bet down to 2 to 1. She tried to make a middle move to the front after drawing the rail post. A charged up So Much More refused to let her clear, and her night was over at that point. She backed up to last in a mile then she rebounded nicely last week when she dropped to this level, moving first-over around the last turn and chasing the leading 1 to 5 favorite home while gaining on that rival late. That was a much better mile, and I'll give her a slight nod in what appears to be a wide-open cash leg of the early Pick 5 that has several possibilities.

#9 SETTN A PRECEDENT was raced very aggressively at this level two starts back and she held off a rival that came back the next week, stepped up one level, and scored an upset. She then stepped up one level herself, drew widest, dropped to the back and closed in 26 3/5 to stay sharp. She drops back to the level that she won at two starts back and Louis-Phillipe Roy sticks with her when he had some options in here. An aggressive steer is likely in this spot tonight, and she is another multi-race ticket possibility.

#7 MS QUICK SAND is capable at this level, you only need to look four starts back for the evidence. She was the first and last leader that night in a fast mile in which she was clearly best, and that win came racing one level higher than tonight's classification. She has excuses in her last three starts: she was racing to high and/or drew the rail which isn't ideal for her. Getting off the rail post tonight, I could see her getting a more aggressive steer and a much better result. She should go off at a square price, and she is another that I would consider in this competitive looking field.

#6 WICKED N SINGLE tried racing first up against Chantilly in the Gold Superfinal and that was never going to work. She eventually fell back to last, and she can go much better here assuming she can find a live helmet to follow after starting from the best post. Sharp improvement from this sophomore filly tonight would not surprise me.

Race 6 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#2 NEZUKO KAMADO S closed from the back to win her Breeders Crown elimination and while that wasn't the preferred racing style here last week, she was helped by her rivals cutting some wild early fractions then coming home in a glacial 30 seconds flat. Still, this Marcus Melander trainee looked razor-sharp in victory, and nothing says she needs to start eighth in this lucrative Final. She shoots for a fifth straight win here and she gets top billing in the opening leg of tonight's middle Pick 5.

#6 BINGO NIGHT kept her perfect in-the-money record intact in her elimination, and she gets a great opportunity tonight drawing the best post. She was part of a wicked pace that included a wild 55 1/5 middle half, and she finished best of the fillies that were racing near the front. She could get a golden trip here, and one trait that she possesses that should serve her well is she has shown herself to be sure gaited. She is in with an upset chance in this dash.

#9 SETYOURSIGHTSHIGH had missed three weeks when she entered last week's Breeders Crown elimination, and she got picked off by the filly that rode her perfect cover. She didn't lose much in defeat other than the right to draw from posts one through six. She should be sharper now and she has the requisite speed to overcome her wide draw. Having the best driver in the world sitting behind her won't hurt either. She would be no surprise if she turned the tables tonight.

#5 STORYBOOK LOVE was sent off at the crazy price of 33 to 1 in her elimination last week when you consider that she finished second beaten a length to Nezuko Kamado S in the Big Apple final in her previous start and second beaten a neck in a Grand Circuit race here in September. She defiantly outraced those odds, tripping out to score the big upset. I prefer to use her underneath in this Final, but there are probably worse longshots in this program that you could drop a couple of bucks on.

Race 7 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#3 LOUA DIPA has blossomed into a bona fide superstar as this season progressed and if you watched any of her last three starts, you, like me, are probably wondering how she lost three times this year. She has been just that dominant. She made so many moves in her facile elimination win that it looked like Ronnie Wrenn Jr. was driving a Ferrari down the 401 darting in an out of traffic. That's how handy she is. There isn't anything left to say other than if the unthinkable happened and she got beat, that would be the biggest upset of the weekend. She is like a free square in the middle Pick 5 but there is really no value in that.

#9 IM A LOU LOU, stablemate to the choice, paced a terrific mile in her elimination, coming her own back half in a stellar 53-flat, and she still could get no closer than three and a quarter lengths behind Loua Dipa at the wire. She also closed like a rocket in her previous start while winning a division of the International Stallion Stake in Lexington. She couldn't be any sharper coming into this Breeders Crown Final, yet she stands almost no chance because her stablemate is so good. She does have an excellent chance of completing another Burke Brigade Exacta, however.

#1 BETTOR BE A STAR was sent off at 103 to 1 in her elimination and she showed she was better than that when she rallied to get third behind the top two choices for this Final. She stayed in until the stretch where she was stuck behind a wall of fillies. She had no choice but to idle briefly then try to come around all of them and she rallied nicely on the wide side to get up for third. She could trip out and get another piece tonight and she is a good one to use on the bottom.

#5 DAYA is a local hope that has battled hard all season, taking five wins from 11 starts while missing the board only once. She gets one of the best posts for this Final and I could see her blasting for position then sticking around for a small slice. She is another one to consider for use on the bottom of the Tri or Super.

BEST BET: LOUA DIPA

Race 8 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#1 APEX was setting a new Canadian Record while winning the Mohawk Million when he was last seen here, and he got a buy into tonight's Breeder Crown Final, so he comes in fresh. He showed he was ready to resume battle when he jogged in his qualifier here last Friday with regular driver Dexter Dunn in the bike. He stands out in this field of rookie colt and gelding trotters and the value might have to be found underneath.

#4 NIX NACKEN came into last week's elimination razor-sharp having taken wins in two of his previous three starts, the only loss coming by a scant nose in a race that was trotted in 1:51 2/5. He was up against it though after Diabolic Hill stole a 58-flat opening half then sprinted away to a big lead on the last turn. This Muscle Hill gelding pulled three wide early on the last turn, but the damage was already done. He had no chance of catching the leader who was powering home with a 55 1/5 back half. He finished well to get second and he could offer some Exacta value tonight.

#3 DIABOLIC HILL got a very tough trip after starting from a wide post in Apex's record setting Mohawk Million win, but he persisted and came on to get third in an excellent effort. He qualified nicely at The Meadowlands then jogged in his elimination and he will likely go off as a clear second choice tonight. I'm not sure his best race beats Apex, so I will try to create some value by beating him out of the Exacta on the potential scenario that he battles that rival at some point and gets picked off late for second.

#2 SPENCER HANOVER parlayed a blowout win in the Big Apple Final with a sharp elimination victory here last week where he rode cover to the lane then exploded on the far outside while under tight lines to Jason Bartlett. He gets class tested now facing some better colts, but if he can find that same trip, he could be right there at the wire. This is a division that seems to be getting deeper as the season progresses, but they still all have to knock off top dog Apex.

Race 9 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#6 BEAU JANGLES showed in the Grade 1 $1,000,000 Metro Pace what I suspected very early in his rookie season: he is the best two-year-old pacing colt or gelding in North America. He showed his mettle after racing three wide around the first turn then getting strung out on the backstretch by the race favorite. He provided a perfect pocket journey for the favorite who got a clear shot at him in mid stretch, and he showed the heart of a champion to dig in and fend off that unbeaten colt. He has since scored two easy wins against some overmatched Ontario-breds, then he easily handled Frantic Hanover again last week in his elimination for this Breeders Crown Final for two-year-old pacing colts and geldings. He looked like he had plenty in reserve finishing off his mile last week, now he draws the best post. He is strictly the one to beat as we kick off the late Pick 5 here.

#2 BRANDON BLVD couldn't have been much sharper coming into this Breeders Crown elimination last week having paired winning 1:49 1/5 miles. He showed versatility in those two winning miles winning racing on the lead and from far back, then he that he got a perfect trip chasing a wild early pace last week, and he pulled away in the lane to set a Canadian Record, pacing the fastest mile by any two-year-old in history in this country. He is the "now" colt in this division, but I'm not sure he can beat Beau Jangles on the square here unless he gets a similar type of dreamy set up like he got last week.

#3 MELILLO could turn out to be a bit of a wise guy horse here because of the trip he got in his elimination last week. He turned for home racing near the back of the pack and he angled off the rail looking to start a rally when he suffered interference, and he had to check. He changed course late in the mile and closed up the pylons quickly nearing the wire, but the pace was really slowing at that point. He is one that I would consider using underneath, I don't see him as a win threat.

#1 SHOW ME YOUR ACE sat a good trip last week and he closed best against Beau Jangles to get up for second now he draws inside where he will likely sit a similar kind of trip and look to rally late again. That was his fourth strong mile in a row last week, so he is getting good at the right time. He will likely pass a few of these late and he should end up landing in the Tri or Super.

Race 10 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#1 TALK CURDY TO ME paced two good miles here since shipping back from Ohio after unsuccessfully trying the Dayton Pacing Derby. Last week, she dropped back and came fourth-over in the back half. She tipped out in the lane, and she dug in pacing to the wire to get up for second over a stubborn Absolution. None of them were going to catch the leader who raced terrific. This Fillies and Mares Open came up a little light with several of the entrants moving up in class. This mare draws the rail again, but I think she will get a more aggressive steer from Louis-Philippe Roy in this spot. She gets top call in this opening leg of tonight's late Pick 4.

#8 SEACLUSION N will get some attention at the windows after she made a nice late move in the stretch in her North American debut here where she finished only a length behind Talk Curdy To Me after drawing the widest post. She took back at the start and trailed to the stretch then she closed well in close quarters to get up for fourth. That initial start over this track should set her up perfectly for a more aggressive try tonight, and it would be no surprise if driver J R Plante sent her right to the front leaving the gate and tried to go right down the road. This daughter of Sweet Lou is hard to overlook in this spot.

#7 GRIT N GRACE was the first leader last week, then she found herself sitting third at the quarter following some leader changes. She stayed glued to the pylons for the rest of the mile, and she took a shuffle, then she tried to rally along the pylons where she was in tight, and she seemed reluctant to pass down in there. She can get a better trip racing on or near the lead tonight, and she should offer a good price. She is another one that I would consider using on late multi-race tickets.

#2 SORCHA SEELSTER will probably get bet a little tonight after flying home in 25 4/5 last week, but she steps up several levels now facing some rivals that paced 1:48 and change miles on the same night. She has finished in the money in all four starts since taking six weeks off in the summer, and she will likely close for another slice despite stepping up in class tonight.

Race 11 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#8 MASSTERCRAFT comes into tonight's race having finished fifth in four consecutive starts, but perhaps those middle of the pack finishes can be at least partially explained by the company he has been keeping. The winners of those races were: What About Elmo (twice), Emoji Hanover, and Dahlquist Hanover (who freaked and trotted a sub-1:51 mile that night.) Any of those horses would likely be a big favorite in this field. This Kyle Bossence trainee hasn't raced this low since early August and he took his fifth win of the year that night as the overwhelming 2 to 5 favorite. He gets the nod here in a spot where his price should be decent starting from a wide post.

#4 PERFETTO is still going at age 10 as he creeps closer to becoming a harness racing millionaire. He came off the shelf 17 days ago and he raced well in defeat, winning the race for place behind blowout winner Dahlquist Hanover who was simply in another galaxy that night. He finished a half length behind Masstercraft in that spot, and he can be even sharper tonight. He is another one that merits a close look for use on late multi-race tickets.

#2 TRUFFLES TOO raced tough from post nine here two starts back at this level, getting picked off late in the mile after a big speed try where he attempted to lead all the way. He then moved up into a very tough non-winners of $12,000 last four class that was won by Emoji Hanover who is racing in the Breeders Crown Open Mares Trot Final tomorrow night. This gelding made an uncharacteristic break in that race, and he can be part of the exotics if he stays flat tonight.

#5 P L ROBERT G comes off a solid effort where he raced first-over and chased the heavy 2 to 5 favorite home while finishing a clear second. The third-place finisher from that mile has already come back to win after dropping one class level. This Kadabra gelding was having some gait issues that are seemingly solved now, and he can close for another slice if he stays flat again.

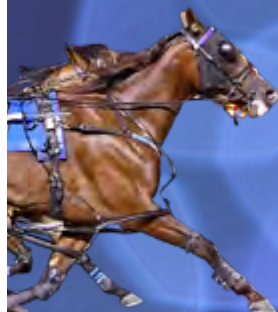

SPOT PLAY: MASSTERCRAFT

Race 12 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#1 STONE SAWYER came into her last start having missed three weeks, but she had some terrific form including a narrow defeat in a race for Prospect Series types here in late August. Somehow, she was still let go as a 49 to 1 bomb, but that didn't deter driver Jonathan Drury, who gave her an aggressive steer. She converted and paid $100, now she faces tougher. She surely won't close at 49 to 1 tonight, but she will offer a square price on the class rise and she gets the call to repeat, once again starting from the rail.

#10 BONHOMIE HANOVER came close to winning at this level three starts back then she had excuses in her next two miles. Two starts back, she broke at the start and lost all chance immediately. Then she was too far back after starting from the nine-hole. She closed well in both her last two starts showing that she is sharp, and she has a chance if she gets put into this race starting from the widest post. She is another one that will offer a square price, and it makes sense to go price shopping in some of these races that don't include favorites like Apex and Beau Jangles.

#9 SHOWMETHEMONEY DEO was a sharp winner here two starts back, pacing a 55-flat back half to get the job done and lower her lifetime mark by more than a second. She got a rougher ride last time, racing three wide into the opening turn and parking past the opening quarter before touching down on the lead, and those early exertions took their toll on her late. She could do in here if she can work out a slightly better trip, and she is another contender to consider in a competitive looking field.

#2 COLD CREEK ESPERO looked terrific winning here at this level on September 19th, powering home in 26 2/5 to get up for her third win. She then qualified between starts, and she closed well to get slices in her next two starts. She will be lurking looking to pass rivals late and if there is mid race battling that leads to this race falling apart late, she will be right there at the wire.

Race 13 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#9 COCO PUFF POWER makes her second start back following a two-month break, and she raced well from post 10 here two weeks ago which is a good mile that she can build from. She left well enough from the widest post to drop in sixth then she picked up some cover and she turned for home racing third-over, following the two mares that would end up finishing first and second. She tipped and closed willingly, just missing third. She gets to drop to the lowest conditioned level now and she draws slightly better. She will likely be more aggressive in this spot, and she gets top billing in the anchor leg of the late multi-race tickets.

#2 CATCH MY PASSION finds a better spot tonight after facing some tough sophomore pacing fillies in her last three starts. Not much went right for her last time after starting from the second tier post and that line is likely best tossed. She can go much better in this easier spot, and she is worth a look for late multi-race tickets at what should be a good price.

#3 WIFEY SAID SO was an impressive winner here last week, rallying widest and best in the lane, closing relentlessly to get up in the final strides. That was her fourth win in her last six starts and the 14th victory in 36 starts this year. This win machine comes to play every week, and it's hard to leave her off late multi-race tickets even though she faces tougher tonight.

#5 CHELSIS CHOICE is another that is in easier tonight that merits a look, but she is an infrequent winner having taken victories in just under 10 per cent of her starts in 2025. She will probably get more aggressive in this spot, and she isn't impossible, but I prefer to use her underneath.

#8 FLIGHT CREW N took two wins in a row after dropping into claimers now she steps up one level and gets another wide post. She has also missed two-and-a-half weeks, and I'm inclined to bet against her this time, but keep in mind she has had no problem clearing to the front from wide posts and she may have to be caught tonight.

CONDITIONS AND ALLOWANCES IN HARNESS RACING - IMPORTANT TO KNOW

The conditions of a race determine whether a horse is eligible to enter. For example many races are restricted to horses that have won a certain number of races or a certain amount of money in a specified number of starts. Many races are restricted to horses entered to be "claimed" (offered for sale) at a specific price.

Allowances in the claiming price itself are given to colts and geldings, four-year-olds and younger and to mares, five-year-olds and younger.

The purpose of the allowance is to keep younger horses more competitive when racing against older and more experienced rivals. Mares are given extra consideration in claiming events because of their potential as broodmares.

The accompanying chart shows what the allowances are, but an example may make them easier to understand. The chart indicates that three-year-olds receive a 50% allowance in claiming races. This means that a three-year-old entered in a $20,000 claiming race carries an actual claiming price of $30,000 (50% higher).

Fillies and mares receive an additional 25% allowance in claiming races. Details of the race conditions and claiming price (if any) are given at the top of each race in the program.

ALLOWANCES CLAIMING RACES CONDITION RACES

2 year olds	100%	50% on 2025 earnings
3 year olds	50%	25% on 2025 earnings 50% on 2024 earnings
4 year olds	25%	25% on 2024 earnings

ALLOWANCES FOR PURSE EARNINGS

When Fillies/Mares compete against Colts/Geldings (normally on the trot) Fillies/Mares will receive an additional 25% on the condition of the race. ie: nw $5,000 (FM $6,250) last 5 or $12,000 (FM $15,000) last 10 starts.

C.P.M.A. Regulation Changes

Effective January 1st 2012
CPMA will be instituting several new rule changes with regards to the following pari-mutuel pools:

- Pick Pools
- If there are no winners in any leg of a Pick N pool, the entire pool is refunded.
 - If there is a change of surface in any leg that is NOT made known to the public prior to wagering for that pool closing, that leg will pay on all runners.
 - A pool is no longer refunded if the 1st leg in the pool is cancelled or declared no contest.
 - Pick-3: If at least 2 legs are declared no contest or cancelled, the pool is refunded.
 - Pick-4, 5 or 6: If at least 3 legs are declared no contest or cancelled, the pool is refunded.

EXPLANATION OF THE LASIX PROGRAM

After careful study and consultation with Ontario Horsemen's groups, racetrack operators and veterinarians, Agriculture Canada and the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario passed legislation allowing the controlled (or supervised) administration of furosemide, more commonly called "Lasix". "Lasix" is used to alleviate the symptoms of exercise induced pulmonary hemorrhaging in racing horses. Horses will undergo an endoscopic examination of the trachea by a veterinarian licensed by the Ontario Racing Commission and endorsed by an official veterinarian before being allowed on the medication list. Once qualified, horses will be treated with "Lasix" within four hours plus or minus 15 minutes of a scheduled race in a secure retention area under the super vision of racing officials. All horses on "Lasix" must remain on the program for a minimum of 100 days while racing in this jurisdiction.

- L Denotes horses treated with Lasix.
- L

 Denotes horses treated with Lasix today who were not so treated for their last start.

 Denotes horses treated with Lasix for their last start but not so treated today.

Pari-mutuel wagering and drug control services are provided under the supervision of the Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency, an agency of Agriculture and the Minister of Agriculture. All pari-mutuel pools are calculated and distributed in accordance with the Pari-Mutuel Betting Regulations. The Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency can be contacted at 1-800-268-8835 or locally at 613-759-6100 or E-Mail: cpmawebacpm@agr.gc.ca

RULES AND INFORMATION REGARDING CANADIAN HARNESS AND FOREIGN SEPARATE POOL EVENTS

GENERAL

All pari-mutuel pools are calculated and distributed in accordance with the regulations and directives as issued by Agriculture and Agri-Food Canada ("The Regulations"), under the approval and supervision of the Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency. The Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency can be contacted at 1-800-268-8835 or 613-759-6100 or Email: cpmawebacpm@agr.gc.ca. A complete version of the CPMA regulations can be found at <http://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/regulations/SOR-91-365/>.

All tickets should be held until the result of the race is declared official and prices are posted.

No person under the age of 18 shall purchase or cash a ticket or voucher.

A claim of receiving an incorrect payment or incorrect change must be made to the Mutuel office of the association within twenty four hours of buying or cashing a valid ticket or voucher.

No ruling made by the Stewards/Judges or the Ontario Racing Commission with regard to distribution of purse money or the placing of horses in the order of finish, after the race has been declared official, shall have any bearing on the pay-out prices or distribution of pari-mutuel pools.

Change boards and Photo Finish display monitors are located in the Grandstand. In addition, Photo Finish pictures are shown on the closed-circuit television system. Customers are reminded that mutuel clerks are responsible for all shortages. When making a wager, customers must present sufficient funds at the time of purchase to cover the wagers requested.

ENTRIES AND MUTUEL FIELDS

"Entry" means two or more horses in the same race which, for the purpose of pari-mutuel betting, are coupled or considered as the same betting interest. The most common reason for the coupling of horses in an Entry is the fact that they are owned by the same person.

"Mutuel Field" means two or more horses in the same race which, for the purpose of pari-mutuel betting, are coupled because the number of horses in the race exceeds the number which can be handled separately by the pari-mutuel system. Subject to the Regulations, a bet on one horse of an Entry or Mutuel Field shall be considered a bet on all horses in that Entry or Mutuel Field.

DAILY DOUBLE BETTING (INCLUDING LATE DOUBLE)

A Daily Double bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of the two races specified for the Daily Double. Tickets not selecting the winner of the first half of the Daily Double and all tickets in the second half of the Daily Double not coupled with the declared official winner of the first half of the Daily Double are not winners and are not refunded no matter what circumstances affect the running of the second half of the Daily Double.

Should a horse or horses (not coupled with another starter) be excused from starting in the second race of the Daily Double after the first race of the Daily Double has closed for betting, holders of all Daily Double tickets on such horses, coupled with the winner of the first Daily Double race, shall participate in a Consolation Double pool. (Effective Jan 1, 2012)

EXACTA (Also known as Exactor)/TRIFECTA (Also known as Triactor)/SUPERFECTA

An Exacta, Trifecta, Superfecta is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the first two, three and four horses respectively, representing different betting interests to finish in the exact official order of finish, in the race on which the pool is operated.

SWINGER (Also known as OMNI)

A Swinger is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select horses to finish in any order from the official first 3 positions.

JACKPOT HI-5

A Jackpot Hi-5 bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the exact order of finish of the first 5 runners in the specified Jackpot Hi-5 race. If there are races that have an entry, (i.e. 1 & 1A and/or 2 & 2B), Jackpot Hi-5 will not offer a wager consisting of both halves of the same betting interest. Example: If the same betting interest finishes first and second in a Jackpot Hi-5, the payout would be 1st, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th.

That jackpot portion of the pool will only be paid out if there is a single winning ticket. If there are multiple winning tickets that have correctly chosen the first 5 runners of the race, they will receive 50% of the pool for that day. The other 50% will go over into the Jackpot carryover. If there are no winning tickets with the exact order of finish of the first 5 runners, 100% of the current day's pool will be carried over into the Jackpot.

PICK 3 & PICK 4 BETTING

The Pick 3 & Pick 4 bets are betting transactions in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of three or four successive races specified for the Pick 3 & Pick 4 respectively.

Winning tickets for the Pick 3 & Pick 4 are determined in the following sequence: A) winners of all legs, B) most winners, then refund. If there is a change of surface in any leg that is NOT made known to the public prior to wagering for that pool closing, that leg will pay on all runners. If there are no winners in any leg of a pool, the entire pool is refunded.

PICK 5 BETTING

The Pick 5 bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of five successive races specified for the Pick 5 respectively.

If no one has correctly selected all 5 winners, the entire net pool is carried over to the next available PICK 5.

PICK 6 BETTING

The Pick 6 bet is a betting transaction in which a purchaser of a ticket undertakes to select the official winners of each of six successive races specified for the Pick 6 respectively.

If no one has correctly selected all 6 winners, the entire net pool is carried over to the next available PICK 6.

PICK 5 & 6 BETTING

If at least 1 race as part of the Pick 5 or 6 has been cancelled or declared "No contest", but not more than the specified below under Refunds, the net pool shall be distributed to those selecting the most # of winners and NOT include any carryover from a previous pool.

PICK 3, PICK 4, PICK 5 & PICK 6 SCRATCHES

In the event a Pick 3, Pick 4, Pick 5 or Pick 6 ticket designates as a selection a horse which is scratched, excused or determined by the Stewards/Judges to be a non-starter in any of the races comprising the Pick 3, Pick 4, Pick 5 or Pick 6 the favourite, as evidenced by the amount wagered in the win pool at the time of the start of the race in which the scratch occurred, will be substituted for the non-starting selection. In the event that the money bet in the win pool for two or more favourites is identical, the selection with the lowest program number shall be substituted for the non-starting selection.

However, if a scratch occurs in any leg of the Pick 3, Pick 4, Pick 5 or Pick 6 pools before the pool is closed, a ticket including the scratched horse may be cancelled.

REFUNDS

Subject to the Regulations, all monies in all pools on a race are refunded in the event that the race is cancelled, declared off or declared no contest, and all monies bet on a horse are refunded if the horse is a late scratch or does not receive a fair start. These refunds will be communicated to the public through various means such as betting terminals, video display, changes boards and our website.

The Pick(n) pool shall be cancelled and all Pick(n) wagers for the individual performance shall be refunded if:

- Pick-3: at least 2 legs are declared no contest or cancel. (Effective Jan 1, 2012)
- Pick-4, 5 or 6: at least 3 legs are declared no contest or cancel. (Effective Jan 1, 2012)

Where a horse that is part of an Entry is a late scratch or does not receive a fair start and at least one horse of that Entry receives a fair start in the race, all tickets purchased on the Entry remain valid and the purchase price of any such ticket shall not be refunded.

COMMON POOL WAGERING (INTERTRACK BETTING)

In the unlikely event of a communications or computer system failure that prevents pools from merging with the host track's pools before the end of a race, CPMA regulations require that the site must refund all tickets for that race. This refund will be communicated to the public through various means such as video displays, change boards and messages on our website.

FAIR START

If a horse has reached the Fair Start Pole (located 200 feet before the Starting Pole) by the time the mobile gate has reached the Starting Pole, that horse is deemed to have had a fair start. It makes no difference whether or not the horse is on or off stride at that precise moment. Under current policy and regulations, which are designed to be as fair as possible to all bettors on all starters, there is no Recall - a repeat of the entire starting procedure - when a horse does not reach the Fair Start Pole before the gate reaches the Starting Pole. Monies bet on such a horse are refunded in accordance with the regulation concerning refunds.

LOST & OLD TICKETS

WEG issued tickets or vouchers are valid indefinitely, however, they cannot be cashed at a mutuel teller after 2 years from date of issue. Please mail tickets, along with your name and address, to Mutuel Manager, P.O. Box 156, Rexdale, Ontario, M9W 5L2, keeping a photocopy for future reference.

For "Lost Tickets" originally sold at a Woodbine Entertainment Group racetrack or Teletheatre, please enquire at the Mutuel office at Woodbine, Greenwood Teletheatre, or Mohawk. Policy may be subject to change retroactively in the event regulatory bodies amend existing regulations.

ASSOCIATION PERCENTAGE, AND TAXATION/LEVY

The Woodbine Entertainment Group deducts and retains the following percentages from wagers placed at our own licensed sites which are then shared with the horsepeople, host and simulcast associations and the Ontario Racing Commission.

WOODBINE MOHAWK LIVE: Win, Place & Show: 13.65%. Swinger 14.7%. Trifecta & Pick 4: 21.7%. Double & Exakta 17.2%. Jackpot Hi-5, Pick 5 & Pick 6: 11.7%. All other 23.0%

Horsepeople receive a further 2% on all wagers, except Trifecta wagering where it is 4%. The Ontario Provincial Government retains 0.5% on all bets placed in Ontario. The Canadian Government (through a revolving fund cost recovery basis) retains 0.8% on all wagers placed in Canada for provision of drug control, and audit services.

While every effort is made to provide accurate information in the program, Woodbine Entertainment Group assumes no liability for errors or omissions.
