

Race 1

#4 Chrome's Angel

#6 Kavala

#1 Helluva Holiday

#3 Golden Train

#4 CHROME'S ANGEL may be overshadowed by her class-plunging stablemate here but ran a number of decent races last year. She should be forwardly placed and has the numbers to be competitive if the stablemate fails to fire. #6 KAVALA is the eye-catcher in this field. Stakes-placed filly wintered at Gulfstream so she should be very fit, but was vet scratched twice over the winter, once for $20,000 and then for $16,000, and is now plunged in for $7,500. At her best she wins this for fun; a matter of what price you're willing to take. #1 HELLUVA HOLIDAY showed some class as a two-year-old but failed to live up to it last year, sliding down the class ladder as the season progressed. She failed to threaten in her first start against non-threes for $15,000 and halves in value for her return to the races. #3 GOLDEN TRAIN stalked the pace and kicked clear to win a $5,000 non-two to close out her 2023 campaign. She could be a pace factor.

Race 2

#2 Basketball Jones - Best Bet

#1 Banderero

#6 Robitaille

#3 Secret Storm

#2 BASKETBALL JONES wintered well at Gulfstream while removing bar shoes, hitting the board in each of his three starts, all around two turns. His speed figures stand out and he is arguably better sprinting. #1 BANDERERO is another coming in off of Gulfstream form. He fought the rider while saving ground before showing some late interest against $8,000 company on April 6. He has never sprinted before but his pedigree suggests he may appreciate it. #6 ROBITAILLE was winless in 2023 but nonetheless got into productive form towards the end of the season with a pair of close runner-up finishes. He has not sprinted since he was a maiden though he was beaten a half-length at this distance once. #3 SECRET STORM could be a pace factor in a field with several routers. He missed a couple of months in the middle of last season; the winter off may have done him some good.

Race 3

#3 Always a Way

#1 Meko Makee

#2 Red Ensign

#6 Cornwall

#3 ALWAYS A WAY had a very busy winter in Florida, making six starts at Gulfstream against tougher company than this. The class drop and having nearly six weeks between starts should both be positives. #1 MEKO MAKEE was 5 $\frac{3}{4}$ lengths better than Always a Way in a 5 $\frac{1}{2}$ furlong dash in October before a flat effort in the Clarendon. He drops in for a new low tag for his three-year-old debut and figures to be one of the pace factors. #2 RED ENSIGN disappointed as the favourite in a route attempt in December but had been in solid form in two previous starts. He should fare well in his 2024 debut. #6 CORNWALL raced well in both of his starts last year, breaking his maiden second-time-out in a route. If you foresee a pace battle that falls apart, this could be a live closer at a decent price.

Race 4

#7 Speedy Hans

#4 C C's Kingdom

#2 Soulmate

#6 Silent Miracle

#7 SPEEDY HANS has not been seen since being claimed from an okay effort in a turf route at Saratoga in July. Back-classy seven-year-old has done his best running in Tapeta sprints; a logical choice in his first start off of the bench. #4 C C'S KINGDOM returned from Penn National in fine form last year before missing some time in the summer, but returned in the fall and had a couple more good efforts. I would not be surprised if he handles the jump to this level well. #2 SOULMATE looked a little washy but nevertheless ran a game second on the lead at Turfway on March 30. Two-back he was second behind the very back-classy Voodoo Zip; definitely worth a look. #6 SILENT MIRACLE raced for this price six days ago, checking sharply on the turn, catching back up to the field turning for home then flattening out. I think it was a better effort than it looks; could hit the ticket.

Race 5

#1 Lady Eva

#5 Kantbackoff

#7 Tempora

#4 Big Ginger

#1 LADY EVA closed out 2023 with two runaway wins for this price. She trained in Ocala over the winter; should be forwardly placed from the inside. #5 KANTBACKOFF returns from Gulfstream where she was able to pick up a couple of small checks in route races. She definitely seems to prefer sprinting and has the recency advantage. #7 TEMPORA has not been seen since March 2023 where she had a claim voided by the vet at Gulfstream. She has breezed regularly this spring; figures to show some speed. #4 BIG GINGER was pressed on the lead and ran a game third to close out 2023. She ran very well off the layoff last year and was able to win from a stalking position in July.

Race 6

#2 Destin Night

#6 Arctic Blonde

#1 Majestic Appeal

#7 Villi Olento

#2 DESTIN NIGHT was picked up late when debuting for this price in December, then returned in a maiden special weight route against the boys 15 days later where she faltered on the far turn. This is the appropriate spot; blinkers are removed. #6 ARCTIC BLONDE missed the start, angled wide and looked a bit green but ran on decently in her debut on December 16. There is room to improve; could offer value. #1 MAJESTIC APPEAL ran a decent race but was just a bit outclassed in the stretch when finishing sixth on October 14. She was scratched from a maiden special weight race last week in favour of this easier spot. #7 VILLI OLENTA returns from Florida where she ran decently in a pair of turf routes. She had her head cocked and seemed to be trying to lay in through much of her most recent start.

Race 7

#8 Ready for Shirl

#3 Metaphysical

#1 Kin's Concerto

#5 Firing Bullets

#8 READY FOR SHIRL had a hot pace to run at and looked very good when breaking her maiden on debut in a turf route at Keeneland. Half-sister to Shirl's Speight looks like she could be any kind; we'll see what she does turning back in distance and switching to the Tapeta. #3 METAPHYSICAL has shown the ability to be competitive on all three surfaces, both sprinting and routing. She was placed in a trio of Stakes as a three-year-old including the Grade 3 Dogwood at Churchill before going to auction in November; an intriguing new face. #1 KIN'S CONCERTO was able to slip up the rail on the far turn when finishing second behind a lone speed winner at Gulfstream in February. That winner returned to win the Grade 3 Herecomesthebride; tough to knock what this filly has done in just two starts. #5 FIRING BULLETS made a good rally when finishing fourth at Fair Grounds two back, then showed up on opening weekend and ran a credible second behind a decent looking stablemate who had been imported from Europe. She isn't hooking an easy field here but could earn a slice.

Race 8

#6 Border Town

#1 Secret Reserve

#2 Nice Ace

#5 South Bend

#6 BORDER TOWN had a wide trip when racing in a tough Handicap route on the Gulfstream Tapeta in January, then came back to be beaten a head in a solid starter/optional $50,000 on turf. He looks like he could be the main speed here and should appreciate getting back to one turn. #1 SECRET RESERVE closed out 2023 with a narrow win in the Steady Growth against Ontario Sired company. Although that was his only win of the season he did post a few big efforts including a narrow third in the Vigil in which he would have won with one more jump. #2 NICE ACE had a short but productive campaign at Presque Isle last year, winning three of four starts including a pair of Stakes. 11-time winner has speed figures that stack up; we'll see how he fires off of the bench. #5 SOUTH BEND has not been seen since December 2022. Multiple Graded Stakes-placed runner was a starter in the 2020 Kentucky Derby; he has been gelded during his extended break and will try the synthetic for the first time.

Race 9

#6 Quiet Maddelena

#7 Miss Bobbit

#9 Charlotte's Silver

#2 Mi Tormenta

#4 Natasha's Bizniz

#6 QUIET MADDELENA closed out 2023 with a game second behind an impressive front-end winner on November 30. She had a pretty productive campaign, hitting the board in six of nine starts and looks solid here. #7 MISS BOBBIT had a wide trip on April 27 and tried hard to earn the third place spot. She enjoys these shorter sprints and could be in the hunt with a better trip. #9 CHARLOTTE'S SILVER made a move on the turn but was outkicked for show by Miss Bobbit on April 27. She had some solid form last fall; could move forward in her second start off of the bench. #2 MI TORMENTA saved ground when finishing second on April 27, ahead of Miss Bobbit and Charlotte's Silver. She is not particularly consistent but draws well again. #4 NATASHA'S BIZNIZ passed a couple of foes to earn the fifth-place spot on April 27 and looks like a fringe player again.
