

Race 1

#2 Just Magnificent

#3 English Jubilee

#5 Under Agreement (FR)

#1 Rashmi

#2 JUST MAGNIFICENT raced well when tracking a hot pace and finishing third over this course on August 3 before coming back with a midpack effort in the Algoma. She could be a pace factor in this field. #3 ENGLISH JUBILEE exits the same August 3 race that Just Magnificent competed in, dropping back early before closing strongly to be beaten a head. She could be the one to beat. #5 UNDER AGREEMENT (FR) had a good trip when debuting in New York in June but could not threaten the top two when sent off as the favourite. She has since been purchased at auction and could find this company a bit easier. #1 RASHMI was not horribly wide but never saw the fence and finished evenly when racing at Kentucky Downs two weeks ago. She has breezed at Ellis in the interim and will compete for a tag for the first time.

#8 No Time

#5 Tiz Her Money

#3 Afleet Flatter

#9 Keytothepark

#8 NO TIME had trouble on the backstretch when finishing a non-threatening eighth in a race won by well-regarded stablemate Winterberry on August 24. Half-sister to Grade 1 winners Count Again and Ransom the Moon should like the turf. #5 TIZ HER MONEY debuted with a midpack effort in a turf route at Saratoga which was topped by three runners with starts under their belts. She is a sister to multiple Graded Stakes-winning sprinter Boardroom. #3 AFLEET FLATTER was passing foes in the stretch when finishing sixth, 1 ½ lengths better than No Time on August 24. I think that will prove to be a key race down the line; we'll see how this daughter of Ami's Flatter takes to the grass. #9 KEYTOTHEPARK was in contention in the stretch but was outkicked when finishing third on debut in a turf sprint. Blinkers are added for her second attempt.

#7 Tabei

#4 Pocket Pair

#10 Seven P R C

#2 Top of D Mountain

#7 TABEL showed speed and ran a good second behind the previously experienced Scary Speedy when debuting on July 27, then added blinkers and came up empty when taking a shot in the Muskoka. The blinkers come back off; could circle back to a better effort. #4 POCKET PAIR chased the pace and flattened out after making a bid on the turn in a maiden special weight on August 31. She is offered for a tag for the first time; a possible speed threat. #10 SEVEN P R C did not get out of the gate as sharply as possible and looked a bit green but did not run terribly despite dead-heating for last in her August 31 debut. I can definitely see reason for her to improve, especially with the move to the OS/$40,000 level. #2 TOP OF D MOUNTAIN has hit the board in each of her three starts at this level, most recently a game second by ¾ lengths; a logical option.

#4 Whisper Not (GB) - Best Bet

#1 Fighter in the Win

#2 Onenightstandards

#9 Steak and Cheese

#4 WHISPER NOT (GB) was never less than three-wide when finishing sixth in his local debut against N2X/$50,000 company on July 28, likely feeling a bit deflated after he was unable to keep up with Niagara Skyline on the far turn. He drops in for $32,000 and should have a much easier time working out a good trip. #1 FIGHTER IN THE WIN had a wide trip when sprinting on the EP Taylor against N2X/$50,000 types on August 25 for his first start off of the claim. Although his only win at the meet has come sprinting I do think routing is where he is best. #2 ONENIGHTSTANDARDS ran a solid third when dropping in for this tag and attracting a claim on August 4. His speed figures fit; definite contender. #9 STEAK AND CHEESE was pressed on the lead and was able to prove best to win for $25,000 over this course on August 25; will be trying to hold on for a share moving back up to this tougher class.

Race 5

#9 Latin Fever (IRE)

#13 Mountain Breeze (IRE)

#4 Winterberry

#8 Ready for Candy

#9 LATIN FEVER (IRE) was never covered when racing at least four-wide from a tough post but nevertheless found enough to win her debut at Leopardstown. This is obviously a massive acid test but there could be some more talent here than she will be given credit for. #13 MOUNTAIN BREEZE (IRE) already has five starts under her belt in Great Britain with Group Stakes placings at Newmarket on her resume. Appleby-trainee should be a deserving favourite here; she will have to work out a trip from the outside draw. #4 WINTERBERRY dominated her competition in a front-end win on August 24. Her pedigree does not scream turf but she is tough to totally ignore off of that eye-catching debut. #8 READY FOR CANDY has raced very well in both of her turf starts to date, most recently finishing second in the Catch a Glimpse. She may be a little overlooked behind the European invader and the Casse brigade.

Race 6

#11 Forever Dixie

#9 Solo Album

#8 Fashionably Fab

#5 Blueberry Fields

#11 FOREVER DIXIE was completely empty when racing over good turf in the Canadian on August 10. Although capable on turf she is definitely much better on the synthetic; closing mare could have a solid pace to run at and could rebound. #9 SOLO ALBUM was very gritty on the front end when holding off Forever Dixie to win the Trillium on July 20. She has speed but does not need the lead to race effectively; the time off after the Trillium was likely warranted as it was a very tough effort. #8 FASHIONABLY FAB has really taken a step forward this year, going from solid Ontario Sired Stakes mare to legitimate Graded Stakes type, winning the Belle Mahone before being beaten a neck in the Trillium. She shifts back to Tapeta after finishing a decent fourth in the Canadian. #5 BLUEBERRY FIELDS makes her Stakes debut here after proving best in an N2X/$50,000 on August 17. Half-sister to Woodbine Mile-winner Town Cruise obviously needs to step up here but is a very game race mare and is certainly deserving of a shot with this quality of foe.

Race 7

#5 Blue Rose Cen (IRE)

#2 Moira

#6 Cinderella's Dream (GB)

#3 Fev Rover (IRE)

#5 BLUE ROSE CEN (IRE) had a breakout 2023 season in France, highlighted by wins in the Group 1 Prix de Diane and Prix de l'Opera. She is winless this year, hooking the incredibly tough Mqse de Sevigne in three of her four starts so far; could be the boss in her North American debut. #2 MOIRA was able to overcome a three-wide trip to get up and beat Fev Rover in the Beverly D at Colonial last month. She has only crossed the wire outside the top three once in her entire career. #6 CINDERELLA'S DREAM is two-for-two in North America, winning the Belmont Oaks Invitational and the Saratoga Oaks Invitational. The only loss of her career so far came in the Group 1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket; we'll see how she handles her first start against older mares. #3 FEV ROVER (IRE) set the pace and looked like a winner in midstretch but was caught late by Moira in the Beverly D. She has had a back-and-forth rivalry with Moira since last year; if she plans on setting the pace she may have company from Full Count Felicia.

#2 Frosted Over

#4 J P Hellish

#6 Volcanic

#5 Ron's Gizmo

#2 FROSTED OVER is in search of his first win since the 2022 Dominion Day. He came up empty when last racing at Turfway in January; appears to have been working well in preparation for his comeback. #4 J P HELLISH dropped back in for this tag on August 4 and was able to prove best after tracking a quick pacesetter. The only poor effort on his form came two back over a wet EP Taylor turf which he may not have cared for; I thought his effort three-back in the Eclipse was huge. #6 VOLCANIC made his local debut on July 27 in the Seagram, where he sat a few lengths off of pacesetting stablemate and eventual winner Paramount Prince, coming up empty in the stretch. He had some big efforts over the Gulfstream Tapeta last year; the drop in for $50,000 should improve his chances. #5 RON'S GIZMO rallied to be beaten a half-length by J P Hellish two-back then came back with a very solid fourth on the inner turf on King's Plate day. There is a lot of speed in this race; maybe he will get the perfect set up.

#9 Al Qudra (IRE)

#10 New Century (GB)

#4 First Resort

#6 Cairo Caper

#9 AL QUDRA (IRE) was fifth by a length in the 22-horse Coventry Stakes at Ascot on June 18 before returning with a win in the Pat Eddery which he won on the lead. He is the most experienced runner in this field and looks like the class too. #10 NEW CENTURY (GB) was second-best to Al Qudra in the Pat Eddery then came back on August 14 to win the Stonehenge at Salisbury over today's distance. He seems like a logical alternative to the presumptive favourite. #4 FIRST REPORT was a comfortable winner on debut at Ellis Park, then shipped to Saratoga where he ran second to the closing Showcase after being pressed through fast fractions. He tries the turf for the first time; his dam won the Catch a Glimpse and was beaten a neck in the Natalma. #6 CAIRO CAPER has won both of his turf starts to date with solid speed figures in both, most recently edging by in late stretch to win the Soaring Free. He could be the best of the local runners.

#2 Naval Power (GB)

#5 Filo Di Arianna (BRZ)

#4 Big Rock (FR)

#1 Playmea Tune

#2 NAVAL POWER (GB) returned from a year-long layoff with a win in the Singspiel at Meydan, then crossed the Atlantic and has had two big runner-up efforts, one to stablemate Master of the Seas in the Maker's Mark Mile before a narrow loss to Program Trading in the Turf Classic on Kentucky Derby day. This could be the perfect spot for him to earn his first Grade 1 win. #5 FILO DI ARIANNA (BRZ) is a perfect five-for-five over the EP Taylor turf, coming into this race off of wins in the Highlander and the King Edward. Speedy gelding has raced well against the likes of Cogburn but this could be his toughest task at a mile to date. #4 BIG ROCK (FR) has not threatened in three starts this year against Group 1 company. Winner of the 2023 Queen Elizabeth II at Ascot by six lengths, he clearly is not short on talent; blinkers will be added for his North American debut. #1 PLAYMEA TUNE was a dominant winner of his first two starts, then came up a neck short of upsetting Patches O'Houlihan in the Bold Venture. They elect to take a shot here instead of the Vigil; his dam has produced a few turf winners.

#5 War Bomber (IRE)

#3 I'm a Gambler (IRE)

#7 Patches O'Houlihan

#6 Rockcrest

#5 WAR BOMBER (IRE) was narrowly beaten in both the Connaught Cup and the King Edward, losing the latter by a nose to Filo Di Arianna. He is a Graded Stakes-winner on the Tapeta and could have a good showing cutting back to six furlongs. #3 I'M A GAMBLER (IRE) will likely be a popular alternative to Patches O'Houlihan, finishing gamely to be third by just a half-length to that foe in the Bold Venture. He has clearly taken to the Tapeta very well and could be able to take advantage if Patches is not able to bring his best today. #7 PATCHES O'HOULIHAN dominated Ontario Sired rivals in the Pink Lloyd in his delayed seasonal debut but had to work hard to win the Bold Venture, holding off Playmea Tune by just a neck with I'm a Gambler not far behind. If someone like Rockcrest or Remuda are able to wear him down on the lead it may not be his day. #6 ROCKCREST engaged a rapid pacesetter and ran a solid fourth all things considered when returning from a 3 ½ month break in the Vice Regent. He has not been as good this year as he was in impressive 2023 campaign in which he was fourth by just a half-length to Patches O'Houlihan in this race.

#5 Wicked Django

#1 South Bend

#10 Souped Up

#3 Wentrü

#8 Junipero Serra

#5 WICKED DJANGO gets back to allowance company after three big efforts in Graded Stakes events including two solid thirds behind Paramount Prince over the Tapeta. He should prove tough at this level. #1 SOUTH BEND has really taken well to the Tapeta in three starts over the surface, most recently finishing a close third behind J P Hellish. He will likely be coming from the back with Wicked Django. #10 SOUPED UP exits a non-threatening second behind Patches O'Houlihan in the Pink Lloyd on July 28. He has raced well in routes before and could be a speed threat from the outside. #3 WENTRU ran evenly when sixth in the same race that South Bend exits on August 4. He makes his second start off of a 3 ½ month break; Grade 3-winner may have a bit more to offer this time. #8 JUNIPERO SERRA rises in class after back-to-back wins, first in an N2L allowance then for $40,000 non-three. He has to take on saltier company here but could earn a share.
