Handicapper's Journal – Doug McPherson Thursday, December 12th 2024

Race 1

#2 Blackdiamond Dinny #4 Kid Gizmo #6 Villi Olento #5 Ghostly Perfection

#2 BLACKDIAMOND DINNY went gate to wire while attracting a $5,000 claim on November 22. She has to take on better company but could be the controlling speed again. #4 KID GIZMO ran an improved third when cutting back to a sprint on November. She plunges down from the $25,000 level here while stretching back out to a route; I prefer her around one turn but she may have a class edge. #6 VILLI OLENTO had some trouble when finishing second in a similar spot on November 24. She is capable of being a bit closer to the pace if she wants to. #5 GHOSTLY PERFECTION finished up well to be fourth in a sprint last time and has had good results at this distance in the past.

Race 2

#1 Iron Pyrite
#2 Cymbal Court
#5 Tabloid Material
#3 Super Sicily

#1 IRON PYRITE dueled through slow fractions and weakened in the stretch when facing OS/$40,000 foes on November 28. She drops back in for $25,000 and catches a field with plenty of speed, which benefits her as she prefers to have a target to run at. #2 CYMBAL COURT ran a decent third when dropping in for this tag on November 7. She has been racing in shorter sprints and may prefer the added furlong she gets here; she did race well in a route back when she was still a maiden. #5 TABLOID MATERIAL ran evenly over the dirt in the Rondeau Bay back in September and now returns from a three-month break. She takes on older company for the first time while racing for a tag she has had success for in the past; a bit of a wild-card. #3 SUPER SICILY set the pace before tiring in the stretch when finishing fifth against the boys on November 15; she will have other speed to deal with here.

Race 3

#5 I'm a Gambler (IRE) #2 Ironstone #4 Scoot Daddy #1 Souped Up

#5 I'M A GAMBLER (IRE) stalked the pace and pounced to win at this level on November 16. He was nearly able to beat Patches O'Houlihan in the Bold Venture back in August and should be good enough to win again here. #2

IRONSTONE came running late to be a credible fourth behind I'm a Gambler last time, missing second by a neck. There could be some pace for him to close into from Souped Up and Babbo. #4 SCOOT DADDY won an N2X/$50,000 here in September before going to Keeneland where he ran a very good third after briefly hitting the front. He has been lightly campaigned this year and could have a freshness advantage. #1 SOUPED UP has had a fantastic season, winning three of his seven starts and never finishing worse than fourth. He graduates to this level after a nice N2X/$50,000 score and does not look out of place.

#5 Kee's Flatter #2 Serenading Amaya #4 Prized Spirit #10 No Visor

#5 KEE'S FLATTER stretches out to a route after running an improved third on the drop in for this tag on November 2 with a bit of trouble. Her full brother, Keen Flatter, is a route winner in Alberta. #2 SERENADING AMAYA raced wide when debuting at this distance on November 21 and ran second behind stablemate Pickford Sweet. She should improve with a start under her belt and draws a good post. #4 PRIZED SPIRIT stalked a quick pace and came up empty when offered for $15,000 on November 21. She will go without blinkers for the first time and may appreciate the slower pace of this route. #10 NO VISOR set slow fractions before flattening out and finishing a distant third in the same race that Serenading Amaya exits. She raced better two starts ago when closing.

Race 5

#1 Legally Charitable - Best Bet #4 I Have an Idea #5 Faithful Creek #7 Souper Cop

#1 LEGALLY CHARITABLE stalked the pace and kicked clear to a comfortable score against $5,000 non-twos on November 22. Though she is moving up in class, she is still fairly lightly raced and the confidence edge could be worth a look in this field. #4 I HAVE AN IDEA set the pace but had little to offer in the stretch when finishing fourth in a route for this price on November 24. Her form is a mixed bag though she is normally better going long, but her speed figures are solid for this group. #5 FAITHFUL CREEK rallied to win her non-two for this price two-back but never really got involved when racing wide in a $15,000 non-three on November 21. She could be more effective with a better trip. #7 SOUPER COP is another who is looking to rebound off of a poor effort with a wide trip. She is inconsistent but capable of popping with an effort good enough to win this on the right day.

#1 Warhol #8 Priceless Will #7 Indian Peak

#6 Noah's Ark

#1 WARHOL stalked a hot pace and ran a solid third when making his Tapeta debut in an N2L allowance on November 15. That race was won by Coronation Futuritywinner Babbo and runner-up Arabian Prince has since won with an 84 Beyer; could be a speed threat in his third start off of the bench. #8 PRICELESS WILL overcame a speed-bias when rallying to win for $25,000 two starts ago, then missed by a half-length at this level on November 14 in a race that has produced two next-out winners. He has only missed the board once this year: an obvious contender. #7 INDIAN PEAK is dropping back in for this tag after running a respectable but nonthreatening third in an N2X/$50,000 on November 24. He should be in striking range and should appreciate the class drop. #6 NOAH'S ARK was a troubled sixth in a nine furlong route at this level on October 27. He was able to win at this distance against $25,000 non-threes in September and could be a bit of a sleeper here.

Race 7

#5 Saucy Name #1 Spellcheck #2 Remarkably Human

#3 Pretty Good Joke

#5 SAUCY NAME continued her trend of hanging and getting beat on November 23 where she finished second in her fifth consecutive race as the beaten favourite. She will go without blinkers for the first time in her career, a change that has helped plenty of hangers in the past. #1 SPELLCHECK chased the pace before giving way to be seventh in a maiden special weight race where she did not embarrass herself on November 23. She plunges in for $25,000; she was meant to be a good horse and could be more effective here. #2 REMARKABLY HUMAN tried to make a bid on the turn but never reached contention when debuting against maiden special weight company on November 23. Blinkers and lasix are added for her second attempt. #3 PRETTY GOOD JOKE dueled with Saucy Name and ended up third, a half-length behind that foe on November 23; fringe player.

#5 Thatsitthatsall #7 Beaumont Drive #4 Mo Twilight #2 Rookie Court\

#5 THATSITTHATSALL is on a run of respectable form. hitting the board in two of her last three and missing second by just 2 1/4 lengths when finishing seventh twoback. In a race with very few to get excited about, she seems worth consideration. #7 BEAUMONT DRIVE never got involved in a $15,000 5 1/2 furlong dash on November 21 but was in good form before that and could rebound. #4 MO TWILIGHT was an easy maiden $7,500 winner while attracting a claim in July but did not fire at all 10 days later when trying the Fort Erie dirt and will now make her return to the races. She figures to be a speed factor and could be tough off of the freshening. #2 ROOKIE COURT set the pace before hitting the wall in a $25,000 route on November 17. She can post speed figures good enough to win this and her maiden win did come in a Tapeta sprint.

Race 9

#3 Pluie d'Avril #5 Bridge to Nowhere #2 Taylormoon #4 Norma No #9 Old Secrets

#3 PLUIE D'AVRIL was not far behind Taylormoon for the show spot when finishing fifth for this price on November 21. She has since been purchased by her original connections; with eight lifetime wins she is the cowinningest horse in this race. #5 BRIDGE TO NOWHERE exits a clear second-place finish in a starter/optional $10,000 route on November 23. Her speed figures are solid; looks live with the drop and the cutback. #2 TAYLORMOON was a half-length better than Pluie d'Avril when finishing third last time, an improvement after a couple of disappointing efforts, and figures to be in the hunt again. #4 NORMA NO looked sharp when stalking and pouncing to win a conditioned $7,500 on October 17 over next-out winner Emerald Lake. She was a vet scratch on November 7, #9 OLD SECRETS has been racing well in recent starts, most recently finishing second to Lois Len on November 7. She was a vet scratch on November 24.
