

Race 1

#1 Souper Success

#2 Mr. Marshall

#4 Absolute Chairman

#3 Confusing

#1 SOUPER SUCCESS catches a soft field for the level after a respectable winter campaign against solid foes at Gulfstream. He could be more tactically positioned in this field without much true sprint speed. #2 MR. MARSHALL was able to win his first two tries off of the claim at the end of the season but did have much luck in winter campaign at Laurel and Penn National. He could get back to form returning home and figures to be a speed factor. #4 ABSOLUTE CHAIRMAN had a good Fort Erie campaign last year but came up empty when racing at this level on December 8 after being claimed back by these connections. He could earn a minor share in his return to the races. #3 CONFUSING went badly off form in his final two starts of the season but did have some eye-catching efforts earlier in the 2024 season. He is more of a router; we'll see how he fares in this starting off point.

Race 2

#4 Its Just Money

#2 Road to Versailles

#6 If You Insist

#7 Hanlan

#4 ITS JUST MONEY raced three-wide while chasing the eventual top two finishers in his most recent start in New Orleans, a race that has produced two next-out winners. He was racing well over the Tapeta last year. #2 ROAD TO VERSAILLES looks like the one to beat at a short price. He had the ideal Gulfstream Tapeta inside-out trip when beaten a neck on April 3 with a strong 74 Beyer. #6 IF YOU INSIST closed out 2024 with a pair of solid efforts for $25,000, missing place by a head in his December 8 race. Claimed for just $7,500, he drops in for $15,000 here and is capable of showing speed in shorter sprints like this. #7 HANLAN set a comfortable tempo en route to an unchallenged maiden win for this tag on December 7. He may not get as easy a trip this time but should put in a competitive effort.

Race 3

#1 Mo Argento

#4 Flashy Motor

#2 Silent and Sinful

#6 Miss Demanding

#1 MO ARGENTO dueled with the 2-5 favourite but laboured in the final furlong when debuting at Colonial last month. The blinkers are going on for her second attempt; her speed and recency could make her tough. #4 FLASHY MOTOR tugged at Zayas for about three furlongs, took a run at the eventual winner on the far turn but faltered after failing to get by when racing in a turf mile at Gulfstream on February 28. I don't think that effort is as bad as it looks on paper; the cutback to a sprint looks welcomed. #2 SILENT AND SINFUL had two tough beats at this level last fall before closing out the season with a respectable fifth-place finish against winners. She was beaten just a head in her first start off of the bench last year. #6 MISS DEMANDING was wide down the backstretch and showed some late interest when finishing third on the Fair Grounds turf on March 3 and could be a decent price.

Race 4

#3 Just Pray

#1 Silent Strike

#2 Rhaenyra

#6 Citori

#3 JUST PRAY has been training in Palm Meadows over the winter and got her gate card in a local drill last week. Daughter of 13% debut sire Reload is a half-sibling to multiple Stakes-winner Rockcrest. #1 SILENT STRIKE had some hard luck in her first two starts, then briefly hit the front before being outfinished in her final start of the season on November 30. She has trained at Payson Park over the winter and should be plenty ready for her return to the races. #2 RHAENYRA did not run a truly bad race in four starts last year. She has shown some speed and will add blinkers here. #6 CITORI is by 9% debut sire The Factor, out of a restricted Stakes-winning mare who has not had a debut winner in four foals to race. She trained in South Carolina over the winter; noting that she has four consecutive gate breezes, I would pay attention to her behaviour at the gate.

Race 5

#2 Speed Figures

#1 Rat Portage

#4 He Shoots He Wins

#3 Highland Life

#2 SPEED FIGURES broke very sharply and was able to prevail in a Florida-bred first level allowance on February 15. He has been training at Fair Gill and could be the speed of the speed. #1 RAT PORTAGE had a wide trip in a tough spot at this level on November 24, adding blinkers on that day. They are removed here; he gets to go for the waived claiming price here; his best efforts last year were earlier in the season. #4 HE SHOOTS HE WINS performed very well in two starts after being claimed for $7,500 by these connections. Quick son of Society's Chairman continues to rise up the class ladder but does not look out of bunch. #3 HIGHLAND LIFE closed out 2024 with a credible third with a solid speed figure at this level. He can be a hit and miss type but his best figures are strong.

Race 6

#5 Giant Teddy - Best Bet

#6 Sigiloso

#2 Junior Hot Shot

#3 Moon Landing

#5 GIANT TEDDY went to Turfway last month, steadying shortly after the start, making an early advance while racing wide and flattening out in the stretch. He should be able to return to form here with a clean trip. #6 SIGLIOSO ran much better than it looks on paper while attracting a $25,000 claim from a route last month at Turfway where he raced wide throughout. His sprint form in the past has been very solid, with a very good record in shorter sprints such as this. #2 JUNIOR HOT SHOT had a stellar three-year-old campaign, winning a pair of restricted Stakes and hitting the exactor in six of eight starts. He was a narrow second at this level to close out the season and was able to win when coming off of the layoff last year. #3 MOON LANDING has had trouble getting out of the gate effectively in recent starts at Gulfstream. He hooked a very salty group in a starter/optional $50,000 last time and should be more at home with these.

Race 7

#1 War of Destiny

#4 Big Vince

#3 Church and State

#2 Mansetti

#1 WAR OF DESTINY was able to break his maiden when sprinting in his second start before giving way as the pacesetter in an allowance route on December 6. He has been gelded over the winter; his winning speed figure puts him in the hunt. #4 BIG VINCE exits a third-place effort in the Animal Kingdom at Turfway which was won by the very solid Kale's Angel. Rivelli-trainee looks like the main speed but may have to deal with Mansetti early. #3 CHURCH AND STATE was an impressive winner of his first two starts before heading to Turfway for a try in the Leonatus where he finished an even fourth. He cuts back for his return to the races; if the pace falls apart he could be a benefactor. #2 MANSETTI set quick fractions and held off to win against a questionable group in the Clarendon but was empty early when trying a dirt mile in the Jerome at Aqueduct in January. The blinkers will be taken off for his return to Woodbine.

Race 8

#4 Lucky Score

#1 Old Chestnut

#9 Poulin in O T

#5 Hunt Master

#3 Armstrong

#4 LUCKY SCORE showed nothing in two starts in 2024 and now makes his first start in 10 months. Multiple Graded Stakes-winner trained in Ocala over the winter; we'll see if he's ready to go off of the layoff. #1 OLD CHESTNUT had a wide trip in a tough turf mile two starts ago at Gulfstream but returned to form with a close third-place effort in a solid starter/optional $50,000; back-classy veteran should be running on late. #9 POULIN IN O T had a wide trip and ran a credible fifth in a solid N2X/$62,500 on the turf at Gulfstream after winning his previous start in a conditioned $35,000 claimer. He could be the quickest early from the outside post. #5 HUNT MASTER finished a decent third while attracting a $32,000 claim to close out 2024. Restricted Stakes-winner had some solid efforts at this level early last year. #3 ARMSTRONG was a non-threatening fourth in the Kennedy Road in his first start off of a claim for this price. He wintered in Florida but did not get to race over the winter; worth a look.
