Race 1

#6 Powaqa

#5 Houlihan

#2 Scary Boo

#4 Six for a Nine

#6 POWAQA started off the season in a five furlong dash that she was never involved in save for passing a couple of tired rivals. She has run well in longer sprints such as this and her better speed figures put her in the hunt with these. #5 HOULIHAN was outsprinted for the early lead by the eventual winner and was outkicked for the minor shares when finishing a distant fourth six days ago. He could get loose on the lead here but figures to be a short price. #2 SCARY BOO missed the start but recovered and put in a respectable effort to be fourth against three-year-olds six days ago; could be much more forwardly-placed with the stretch out from 5 ½ furlongs. #4 SIX FOR A NINE had some good route efforts late last year and goes for connections who have been off to a good start at the meet.

Race 2

#3 Tentomidnight

#1 Linda's Opal

#6 Scat Humor

#5 Zipfire

#3 TENTOMIDNIGHT ran a solid third against maiden allowance company late in the season before closing out the campaign with a disappointing finish off of a wide trip. She plunges in for $15,000 for her first start in the Tiller barn and could be the main speed here. #1 LINDA'S OPAL picked up a few checks last season including a runner-up finish in her first start of the year; could fire fresh. #6 SCAT HUMOR has never hit the board in eight starts to date but has posted competitive speed figures and is dropping back in for $15,000 for her return to the races. #5 ZIPFIRE makes just her third lifetime start here at the age of four and goes for new connections; drops in for a new low tag and is a wild-card.

Race 3

#3 Purr Factor - Best Bet

#5 Our Flag Flying

#4 Sarah's Dancer

#2 Moral Turpitude

#3 PURR FACTOR was part of a four-pronged pace battle, giving way on the far turn but not running terribly in her most recent start at Turfway. She looks like a horse they are trying to get claimed but does look like the main pace in a race filled primarily with routers. #5 OUR FLAG FLYING had no in a few turf route tries at Tampa this winter. Tampa racing is not easy and her synthetic form late last season was solid; her only career sprint was a closing fourth in her lifetime debut. #4 SARAH'S DANCER did not run a bad race in five starts since being claimed by these connections, including a win over this surface and distance. If she is ready to fire off of the layoff she could be a contender. #2 MORAL TURPITUDE showed some late run to be fourth in an OS/$40,000 six furlong dash 13 days ago. The extra furlong and drop in for $25,000 are both positives.

Race 4

#4 Mamba On Three

#3 Master Spy

#1 Determined Fury

#2 Spite Store

#4 MAMBA ON THREE took a plunge in for $5,000 against non-winners since rivals at Tampa in January, was claimed by Mike Dini and now appears for the combo of Zeljcko Krmar and Mary Self. Back-classy son of Big Drama is the only winter-raced runner in this field and looks like truest short distance sprinter in this field. #3 MASTER SPY was unlucky in 2024, having to waste a couple of races around two turns on the Fort Erie turf and getting some tough trips here. He did have a dominant win on the lead against conditioned rivals for this tag in September; with a good trip he could be right there. #1 DETERMINED FURY missed most of the summer, returned late in the year plunging in for bottoms and raced well, winning a conditioned $5,000 race in November. He has always been a consistent tryer and should be competitive in his return. #2 SPITE STORE takes a drop in for $7,500 for his first start after the winter off. Hit-or-miss type had a couple of wins against good company last year; at the right price he's worth a look.

Race 5

#8 Foolish Games

#7 Pluie d'Avril

#2 Gizmo's B F F

#3 Mizzen Ash

#8 FOOLISH GAMES never seemed to be able to get back to form after running a very hard effort in the Ballade in July. She is plunged in for $10,000 for her first start off of the layoff and looks like the main speed. #7 PLUIE D'AVRIL was between horses through most of the backstretch and ran on well to be third behind Gizmo's B F F, galloping out best on May 4; could turn the tables today. #2 GIZMO'S B F F was up on the lead through slow fractions and was able to spurt away to win on May 4. The pace scenario looks much different with Foolish Games present today. #3 MIZZEN ASH closed out 2024 with a win at this level in a route. Although routing is what she prefers, she was beaten a head in a five furlong dash long ago, so I'm sure she will be capable at 6 ½ on the right day.

Race 6

#1 Trip Aces

#6 Special Session

#3 Rideau Hall

#2 Gun Fire

#1 TRIP ACES set a moderate pace at Gulfstream on April 6 but appeared visibly intimidated when headed by a pair of foes on the far turn and backed off. The blinkers are added and they could make a significant difference. #6 SPECIAL SESSION had a rough break, was last and widest early and never got into contention when kicking off his campaign on the Keeneland turf on April 8. All three of his efforts over the local Tapeta last year were very strong. #3 RIDEAU HALL is the lone four-year-old in this field and that may put him at an advantage. His only poor effort last year was his second start in which he may have moved a bit early but also may have simply bounced. #2 GUN FIRE wilted after setting the early pace in his debut in December. The blinkers are removed for his return to the races.

Race 7

#3 She Makes a Point

#1 War Painter

#2 Saccharine

#6 Aspen Dawn

#3 SHE MAKES A POINT had a very nice campaign in Oaklawn after being claimed back by McKnight, winning her final start after previously having run a good third behind eventual Stakes-winner Majestic Oops. She runs more good races than bad and should be dangerous in her return to Woodbine. #1 WAR PAINTER closed out 2024 with a game third behind very tough stablemate Fashionably Fab in the La Prevoyante. She has been super consistent and draws well; she will be hoping for a duel to develop between She Makes a Point and Swingng Mandy. #2 SACCHARINE earned her overdue maiden win on November 17 when taking on the boys. The Breeders' Stakes runner-up was a scratch from an allowance race at Keeneland last month and should be very fit after a winter at Payson Park. #6 ASPEN DAWN did not look her best when running a flat seventh on the Keeneland turf on April 18 but put in a good run to be third over the Gulfstream Tapeta in her previous start.

Race 8

#8 Laughing Out Loud

#4 Beaumont Drive

#1 Mrs. Hot Shot

#2 Moet Monet

#3 Wild Queenie

#8 LAUGHING OUT LOUD had a nice effort to be second by a length over a mile at Turfway two starts ago. With the cutback to seven furlongs she could have a significant conditioning edge. #4 BEAUMONT DRIVE was in far too tough a spot when kicking off her season 12 days ago. She drops back into the appropriate class and gets out to her preferred distance. #1 MRS. HOT SHOT disappointed against the boys in her final 2024 start but had been maintaining good form for quite a while before that and could be worth considering in her first start of the year. #2 MOET MONET looks like the obvious speed in this field. She is best going shorter than this but could get brave with soft enough fractions. #3 WILD QUEENIE is a plodder who could pass tiring rivals for a minor share.
