Race 1

#6 Silver Is Best

#2 Maker's Flatter

#5 Souper Diva

#3 Big Bold and First

#6 SILVER IS BEST is a full sibling to two debut winners in as many siblings to race. He had a fast gate work in company on June 8. #2 MAKER'S FLATTER had a solid half mile gate work in company with another foe on May 31. His full sibling only raced twice; Ami's Flatter is 3-for-11 with debuting juveniles so far. #5 SOUPER DIVA showed some tactical speed before weakening in her debut on May 24. She gets class relief and a slight cutback in distance which is unusual to see in these early season baby races. #3 BIG BOLD AND FIRST was outworked by Silver Is Best on June 8 but still worked quickly. The dam has thrown two juvenile winners in six foals to race at two; neither of them won on debut.

Race 2

#1 Punkin Boy

#8 Night Striker

#7 Mlah Said

#4 Armino

#1 PUNKIN BOY was a one-paced fourth against $25,000 foes on the Tapeta on May 25. He is still lightly-raced and has speed figures that put him in line here; we'll see how he handles the turf as he continues to drop down. #8 NIGHT STRIKER never factored in a seven furlong race on May 17 but at least has a tightener under his belt now. He has only missed the top three once on turf; blinkers are being re-added. #7 MIAH SAID chased a rapid pace and faded to be a distant fourth in the same race that Night Striker exits. He may end up being the pacesetter if he's as sharp today as he was last time. #4 ARMINO is dropping sharply from the OS/$40,000 level on June 1. Blinkers are being re-added; she did pass some tiring foes when she tried this course last year.

Race 3

#1 Road to Versailles

#7 Indy One

#3 Glasweigian

#5 Tutti Contenti

#1 ROAD TO VERSAILLES finished gamely to be beaten a neck at this level in his first start off of a $15,000 claim. There are a few speed types to the outside; he could land a very good stalking trip. #7 INDY ONE got loose on the lead and dominated maidens for this tag on May 22. If he can outspurt the other speed types he could double up. #3 GLASWEIGIAN was pressed on the lead and kept on well to be fourth, just a neck behind Road to Versailles on May 25. He really has not run a bad race since arriving at Woodbine and looks like a logical contender. #5 TUTTI CONTENTI allowed another rival to secure the lead and chased gamely to the wire when dropping in for $15,000 on May 30. We'll see if he pursues the lead more aggressively this time.

Race 4

#6 Awesome Bourbon

#2 Summer Commander

#5 Cooler Man

#3 El Cohete

#6 AWESOME BOURBON ran a huge third (placed second) against N2X/$50,000 company on May 18. He gets huge class relief here; with a good trip he will be tough. #2 SUMMER COMMANDER ran a game second behind the pacesetter Its Time to Shine when kicking off his season on May 4. He has missed the top three only twice thus far in his career and looks very logical in his second start off of the bench. #5 COOLER MAN made a premature move, led into the stretch and gave way to be fifth beaten just 1 ¾ lengths on May 25. With a more patient ride he should be on the board. #3 EL COHETE came up a neck short in the same race that Cooler Man exits. Similar to Summer Commander he is in the money far more often than not; don't ignore.

Race 5

#2 Teaforthetillerman

#7 Pin Boy

#6 Shinigami

#5 Just Jacobo

#2 TEAFORTHETILLERMAN is by Higher Power, who is yet to throw a debut winner, and the first foal to race out of an unraced mare. She worked well from the gate with a stablemate on May 21. #7 PIN BOY pressed a contested pace and faded late in the stretch when racing on turf on May 30. He may be set up for a good effort in his third start off of the bench. #6 SHINIGAMI raced wide and came up empty when heavily favoured on May 11. I definitely think he is good enough to win; hopefully he can save some ground this time. #5 JUST JACOBO narrowly missed third when finishing well on May 24, his first start off of the bench. Would not be surprised to see him step forward.

Race 6

#6 Phillip My Wine - Best Bet

#7 American Decision

#8 Roar of the Crowd

#3 Deputy Daddy

#6 PHILLIP MY WINE overcame a wide trip and a contested pace to win his first start off of the bench on

May 30. Luck has not been on his side in a small number of starts but he has raced well every time; could have a bright future. #7 AMERICAN DECISION gets onto the EP Taylor turf for the first time since his maiden win in July. He has a habit of losing position on the turn and I think he prefers the wider, sweeping turn this course offers. #8 ROAR OF THE CROWD finished fifth but was beaten just 2 ¾ lengths in a respectable effort at this level on May 18. He is a pretty consistent tryer who has been in some tough spots; ran a good second in his only previous turf try. #3 DEPUTY DADDY settled towards the back, made a circling rally and was able to prove best in a shorter sprint on May 24. Turf is a new question.

Race 7

#5 Tiz Romantic

#2 Ever Dangerous

#6 Blast in the Snow

#4 Mason's Gamble

#5 TIZ ROMANTIC last raced at Gulfstream on March 1, finishing a closing third in an N2X/$62,500 won by the very solid Seminole Chief. He drops in for $32,000 and isn't hooking the toughest group for the level either. #2 EVER DANGEROUS threw in a clunker as the favourite when making his local debut in an N2X/$50,000 on May 10. Although he has raced well on Tapeta before that, he does seem better on turf and could rebound with the drop in for $32,000. #6 BLAST IN THE SNOW was able to win his first start off of the bench last year. This level suits him well, the N2X/$50,000 seems just a bit too tough for him; versatile type seems to be able to run well from any position. #4 MASON'S GAMBLE ran on to a midpack finish in an N2X/$50,000 on May 18. He is winless since September 23 but should appreciate getting in for this tag and likes this turf course.

Race 8

#4 Blanco

#1 Souper Tuscan

#5 Globecrest

#2 Golden Truth

#4 BLANCO is by elite sire Curlin who hits at 13% with debut runners, out of a Grade 3-winning mare who has thrown three winners in as many foals to race including debut-winner Striker. He outworked a stablemate from the gate on June 1. #1 SOUPER TUSCAN was privately purchased after his strong runner-up debut effort in September in which he earned a solid 71 Beyer, beaten by eventual multiple Stakes-winner Mansetti. We'll see how he fires in his return to the races. #5 GLOBECREST is by 6% debut sire Global Campaign, and the first foal to race out of an unraced Macho Uno mare. He had a good gate work in company with a pair of stablemates on May 10. #2 GOLDEN TRUTH rallied to be second-best with a

74 Beyer on May 24. He regressed after a solid debut last year; we'll see what he offers this time around.

Race 9

#3 Lucky Score

#1 Covey (GB)

#4 True Temper

#6 Perfect Crime

#3 LUCKY SCORE has had two good rallying efforts on the Tapeta since returning from the layoff. A Grade 2-winner on turf, he could prove very tough with a good trip on this course. #1 COVEY (GB) has been training at Turfway since departing California in April. He adds blinkers for the new connections; a class 2 handicap winner in England last year, I think he will fit here. #4 TRUE TEMPER won his first three lifetime starts but was sidelined after coming up empty in the Holiday Cheer at Turfway in December 2023. He was able to post a 93 Beyer at one point; a wild-card coming off of the layoff. #6 PERFECT CRIME was a decent fifth when kicking off his season in the same race that Lucky Score exits. Although most of his wins have come on the Tapeta I do think he is at his best on the turf; worth some consideration.

Race 10

#7 Posturing

#9 Maximus Magic

#2 Your Valentino

#6 Drum Roll Please

#1 The New Maybe

#7 POSTURING exploded in the stretch when drawing off to win by six lengths when dropping in for this tag in November. He was able to run well off the layoff last year; if he has speed to run at he could be tough here. #9 MAXIMUS MAGIC had a disappointing winter campaign at Oaklawn and now makes his first start in two months. Although his form is dominated by routes he has had good sprint efforts; a wild card on the drop in for $25,000. #2 YOUR VALENTINO was allowed to secure a fairly easy lead and found enough to win against $15,000 foes while attracting a claim on May 30. He will probably not have as easy a time making the lead but could get brave if he gets things his way. #6 DRUM ROLL PLEASE plunges in for $25,000 in his first start ever for a tag. The 2023 Jerome-winner is a wild card in his first start over a synthetic surface. #1 THE NEW MAYBE was second best after hounding the pace on the drop in for $15,000 on May 30. He rises back up to the $25,000 level; another pace factor.
