Race 1

#3 Wolfberry

#4 Miss Maxine

#5 Pageant Queen

#7 Naze

#3 WOLFBERRY is by 7% debut sire Collected, and is a sister to debut and multiple Stakes-winner Winterberry. She has had two sharp gate works in company with stablemates. #4 MISS MAXINE is the only one in this field with a start under her belt, dropping back and rallying to be second. The experience edge could make her the one to beat. #5 PAGEANT QUEEN has had plenty of foundation coming into this race, training at Palm Meadows before arriving here; Point of Entry is an 11% debut sire. #7 NAZE is the only one in this field to be debuting with blinkers. Vino Rosso is a 10% juvenile debut sire while the dam was a debut winner at two; she worked evenly with a stablemate from the gate on May 10.

Race 2

#8 Maryland Spirit

#6 Anela Kai

#2 Girl's Nite Out

#5 Leona Whiteblaze

#8 MARYLAND SPIRIT hustled early to battle for the early lead before fading to fourth on June 1, two weeks after a very solid runner-up effort to kick off the season. She has the natural speed to get into good position more comfortably. #6 ANELA KAI hooked a very tough field in her debut in December, chasing the early pace before emptying out. She has a solid string of works coming into her 2025 debut and takes a drop in for $25,000. #2 GIRL'S NITE OUT made the lead when debuting against maiden allowance company on May 25 but weakened in the stretch. She takes a significant drop for her second attempt. #5 LEONA WHITEBLAZE dueled gamely on the lead but was picked up late by a closer against $15,000 company on June 5; hopefully she doesn't bounce off of that effort.

Race 3

#1 Serenading Kitten - Best Bet

#4 Just Like That

#3 Keytothepark

#5 Bold Ripasso

#1 SERENADING KITTEN should appreciate the drop from maiden special weight company and the shorter field she gets this time, after being floated very wide early and making a premature move into contention in her last start on May 31. #4 JUST LIKE THAT chased a hot pace in a turf maiden special weight on June 7 and offered nothing in the stretch. She is offered for a tag for the first time; could get loose on the lead stretching out to a route. #3 KEYTOTHEPARK ran a credible fifth when last competing in a maiden special weight on the Gulfstream turf on April 10. Based on that effort you could argue that she is the one to beat with the drop in for $40,000;

however the fact that her lone Tapeta try is her worst race to date is a concern. #5 BOLD RIPASSO has rallied to be third in a pair of seven furlong sprints to kick off her season and should be happy to get out to two turns for her third start off of the bench.

Race 4

#11 Gather

#6 Shameless Affair

#2 Princessonamission

#10 Kid Gizmo

#11 GATHER was a closing third on the main track on May 29 in her first start of the year. She is definitely better on turf and should be competitive but will need some trip luck from a tough post position. #6 SHAMELESS AFFAIR was in contention on the turn but emptied out to be a distant fifth at this level two weeks ago. Her maiden win came over this turf course; rebound candidate. #2 PRINCESSONAMMISSION battled into the stretch and had a clear advantage midway down the lane but could not hold off Cinnamon Bits when finishing second, a half-length better than Gather on May 29. She should be a pace factor here. #10 KID GIZMO had little to offer when trying the Fort Erie dirt on May 27. Her best speed figures have come on turf; could be a value player.

Race 5

#5 North York

#6 D'aurum

#11 Lady Iona

#3 Lemon Sweets

#5 NORTH YORK was a distant fourth when kicking off her campaign in a Tapeta sprint on May 25. She should move forward in her second start off of the bench and handled the turf well in her career debut last year. #6 D'AURUM finished evenly to be fifth in a race won by an impressive first-time-starter stablemate on May 31. She adds blinkers for her second start off of the bench; ran a solid third over this course in her only previous turf try in October. #11 LADY IONA was not helped by the blinkers when making her return to the races on May 18. They are promptly removed; hopefully she doesn't get hung too wide from the 11 hole. #3 LEMON SWEETS posted some competitive speed figures for this field despite finishing on the fringes last year. She likes this course and could be live.

Race 6

#6 Fortyfiveseventy

#1 Liam's Gift

#3 Awesome Spirit Gal (FR)

#2 Veery

#6 FORTYFIVESEVENTY had a poor break and ran into some traffic when beginning her campaign in the Belle Mahone on May 31. Beaten a nose by Fashionably Fab in the La Prevoyante last year, she should appreciate the slightly easier company she gets to face here. #1 LIAM'S GIFT chased fast fractions, backed off and came back on again to be third in a seven furlong sprint on May 17. She has never missed the top three at Woodbine and is drawn well for the stretch out to two turns. #3 AWESOME SPIRIT GAL (FR) was second-best in a similar spot on the inner turf on May 31 in a game effort. Former Fort Erie-based runner has handled the move to bigger tracks well and figures to be competitive. #2 VEERY set the pace but gave way to be third, 2 ¼ lengths behind Awesome Spirit Gal on May 31. We'll see how far she can go on the lead this time.

Race 7

#3 Flaunt

#5 It Ain't Two (GB)

#6 Love Cervere

#7 Social Code

#3 FLAUNT was never headed when going gate to wire in her debut on May 25. Jumping to Stakes company is a bit of an acid test but her speed figures for that debut were solid, and she is hooking a field without a ton of speed. #5 IT AIN'T TWO (GB) had a poor break and no luck recovering when last racing in the Mamzelle at Churchill but had raced very well to be beaten a length in the Limestone at Keeneland in April. A minor Stakes-winner at Newmarket last year, she should be a factor here with a clean trip. #6 LOVE CERVERE rallied to win the Take The A Train in May. Closing filly definitely has the class to win this but will be hoping for a pace setup. #7 SOCIAL CODE exits a pair of good rallying thirds behind Brindi in the Star Shoot and the Ruling Angel. She will try turf for the first time here.

Race 8

#5 Hammerhead

#7 Wyoming Bill

#1 Side Street

#11 Call Me Sue

#5 HAMMERHEAD gets major class relief after two tries in Graded Stakes company in Kentucky, both with tough posts and trips. He broke his maiden easily over this course and should make his presence felt. #7 WYOMING BILL has had two heartbreaking runner up finishes where he has run too good to lose so far this season, posting a 92 Beyer over this course on May 31. He will go without blinkers for the first time here. #1 SIDE STREET showed a desire to go longer in his first few starts before running third in the Breeders' Stakes then shipping down to New York where he broke his maiden over 11 furlongs. This seems like a good starting off point for the year. #11 CALL ME SUE was a vet scratch a few weeks ago on the main track. Stakes-placed colt has had two very solid breezes over the turf and could be a speed factor in his route debut.

Race 9

#5 Workout Affair

#7 R Canadian Apple

#9 Innisfree Isle

#4 Dixie is a Breeze

#5 WORKOUT AFFAIR set the pace but was outfinished by two very solid looking foes when getting out to this distance on May 31. I wouldn't be surprised to see her take them all the way here. #7 R CANADIAN APPLE made a nice rally to be third by just a neck when debuting over seven furlongs on May 25. That race has already produced a next-out winner; she should appreciate the added distance. #9 INNISFREE ISLE had a rough break and a wide trip when finishing fifth on debut on May 25. Unfortunately she draws wide again, but with some trip luck I could see her being live at a decent price. #4 DIXIE IS A BREEZE is by 18% debut sire Not This Time, out of a mare who has thrown four winners in as many foals including Grade 2 and debut-winner Gigantic Breeze. She has had some good in company workouts; may need a start to figure things out.

Race 10

#6 Paramount Prince

#5 Tosen Wish (IRE)

#7 Dresden Row

#1 Hunt Master

#6 PARAMOUNT PRINCE has only ever had one start on turf, the 2023 Breeders' Stakes in which he was fried in a suicidal early pace duel. Son of Society's Chairman should be able to handle grass; if he gets loose he could be tough to run down. #5 TOSEN WISH (IRE) closed like a freight train to win at this level over this course in October, then was put away after an empty effort in the Autumn; if someone goes with his stablemate he could be a benefactor. #7 DRESDEN ROW won a pair of Grade 3s and never finished worse than third last year. His only turf try came over yielding going in the Toronto Cup where he was a respectable third; should be interesting to see how he handles firmer going. #1 HUNT MASTER was able to hold on to win an N2X/$50,000 on June 1 in his first start since being claimed for that price in April. The Overskate winner is in tough here but is very honest and draws well.

Race 11

#8 Bowman's Run

#7 Unbridled Weather

#5 Maldini

#4 Pierre

#1 Lonny's Gamble

#8 BOWMAN'S RUN had some trouble but finished well to be a respectable fourth in his 2025 debut on May 31 behind Maldini. With a clean trip he should be live here. #7 UNBRIDLED WEATHER showed a lot of potential in a couple of early starts where he was second behind Dewolf, but proved he was the real deal when getting onto the Tapeta and winning the Frost King to close out his season. He clearly is a classy young horse; we'll see if he's ready to go long for the first time off of the layoff. #5 MALDINI was disqualified from a winning effort at this level for interference on May 31, his second consecutive time crossing the wire first; seems like a logical option. #4 PIERRE was empty after some interference at the head of the lane when taking on allowance company on May 10, but came back with a much better effort to be third, a lengths behind Maldini. I think he and Maldini are fairly similar talents; it will be interesting to see if they rival each other throughout the season. #1 LONNY'S GAMBLE had a very good trip when rallying to break his maiden over seven furlongs on June 1. He has raced well at a route before and could earn a check in his first try against winners.
