Race 1

#6 Catch a Tiger

#3 Ethnic Soul

#5 Compton

#1 Out N Out Disgrace

#6 CATCH A TIGER was a disappointing fifth when making his local debut in an N2L allowance won by a stablemate. He takes a sharp drop in for $25,000 and had good form around two turns in Florida. #3 ETHNIC SOUL grinded from last to be a solid fourth at this level on the main track on July 11. He posted his best lifetime Beyer figure in his first start over the year against very solid starter/optional $15,000 foes on this course; in the hunt again. #5 COMPTON was 1 ½ lengths ahead of Ethnic Soul when finishing second last time. His only previous turf try was his career debut which came sprinting; worth another try on the surface. #1 OUT N OUT DISGRACE ran an even fifth in his first start in 62 days, the same race that Compton and Ethnic Soul exit. He is drawn well for his turf debut.

Race 2

#2 Wilberforce

#1 Hey Cue

#7 Mannix (IRE)

#4 Classic Dancer

#2 WILBERFORCE was a very game third after a poor break when facing starter/optional $10,000 foes on the turf on June 29. He raced well over the Tapeta last fall and looks like an obvious player at this level. #1 HEY CUE was well handled towards the front end when winning at this level and distance in his first start for these connections but ran a bit one paced at Fort Erie on July 13. He figures to be a pacesetter getting back out to seven furlongs. #7 MANNIX (IRE) was a head behind Wilberforce when finishing fourth two-back, then chased the pace and weakened on July 25. He does his best running on the Tapeta and should appreciate the drop in for $7,500. #4 CLASSIC DANCER attracted a $10,000 claim when finishing a distant fourth, stopping after setting the pace on June 14. The new connections have taken their time and drop him in; we'll see how far he lasts on the lead.

Race 3

#5 Posturing

#4 Dreams and Schemes

#3 Adapted

#2 Bravo Kate

#5 POSTURING ran on from last to be second behind the pacesetter Your Valentino on July 6. He stretches out to a route for his third start off of the bench; he raced well at this distance last fall. #4 DREAMS AND SCHEMES broke slowly but recovered and ran a decent fourth against the boys on turf on July 17. She takes on the boys again; doesn't run too many bad ones and looks like a contender. #3 ADAPTED went gate to wire against non-twos for this price on July 11. The two to his inside both have potential to show speed but do not need to; we'll see if he can secure the lead again. #2 BRAVO KATE made the lead but gave way to be third on the turf on July 18. Her speed figures are better on grass but she did have some good synthetic results last year.

Race 4

#6 Interim Analysis - Best Bet

#4 Thor's Cause

#3 Yorkton's Honour

#7 Tony From Angus

#6 INTERIM ANALYSIS dueled on the lead and came up empty against maiden allowance company at Colonial on July 10. He ran well when tagged at Gulfstream in April; should be a big threat if he takes to the Tapeta. #4 THOR'S CAUSE rallied from last to be second behind the impressive Private Label when dropping in for this tag on July 13. His speed figures are very solid for this group and he drawn well; 16th time could be the charm. #3 YORKTON'S HONOUR has picked up checks without being a threat in both of his starts at the maiden allowance level this year and now drops in for a tag for the first time. He had a wide trip last time; could improve with some more ground saved. #7 TONY FROM ANGUS debuted at this distance for $25,000 on July 11 and rallied to be beaten a neck. He takes on tougher but has reason to improve with experience.

Race 5

#6 Poetic Amy

#1 Nikita's Gem

#3 English Jubilee

#7 Design Diva

#6 POETIC AMY was claimed for this price on June 19 from an effort where she ran on well to be fourth behind repeat-winner Logistics. Although her maiden win came on grass I do think turf is her best surface; looks live off of the claim. #1 NIKITA'S GEM has been on the edges for $40,000 in her last two starts and now takes the drop in for $25,000. Win-shy type has very good speed figures for this field; would not want to trust her at too short a price. #3 ENGLISH JUBILEE got back to turf on July 6 and ran on to be a decent fourth against the boys. She makes her first start off of a claim here and does not look out of place. #7 DESIGN DIVA was well-ridden to get back from the 11 hole and rallied to break her maiden over this course on July 3. She looks like a threat but may not have a ton of pace to rally into.

Race 6

#6 Skydigger

#5 Mister Blue

#2 Marcus J

#8 Kentucky Bill

#6 SKYDIGGER is the only runner in this field with a race under her belt, dueling on the lead and keeping on to be third by a neck on July 6. She takes on the boys again; could take advantage of her experience edge. #5 MISTER BLUE is by 14% juvenile debut sire Maclean's Music, out of a Stakes-placed mare who has produced some solid runners including the Grade 3-placed Ready for Candy and debut-winner Bolt Enoree. He outworked a stablemate from the gate on July 18. #2 MARCUS J is by 8% juvenile debut sire Hard Spun, out of a mare whose only other foal to race is a minor winner. He has a very strong looking worktab, including a rapid gate work where he outperformed a stablemate on July 18. #8 KENTUCKY BILL is by 14% juvenile debut sire Frosted, and is the first foal to race out of an unraced mare. His gate works look solid; the Tharrenos barn has been having a strong season with two-year-olds.

Race 7

#3 Hammerhead

#2 English Actor

#4 Westside Tide

#7 Captain Junuh

#3 HAMMERHEAD made his return to Woodbine on June 21, rallying to hit the front in midstretch before getting run down late to be a close third over the inner turf. The winner of that race came back to race very well in an N2X/\$50,000 on Thursday; I think this is a very nice young colt. #2 ENGLISH ACTOR has yet to miss the board in four starts to date. He ran a solid third from a wide post in his first start at this level on July 13; should take to the turf and draws a good post here. #4 WESTSIDE TIDE nearly pulled off an upset in an off-turf N1X/\$32,000 on July 13, stalking the pace and kicking on to be beaten $\frac{3}{4}$ lengths. His turf form in Florida was solid; we'll see if he can run back to that effort here. #7 CAPTAIN JUNUH rallied from well-back to be fourth, two-lengths behind Hammerhead on June 21. Blinkers are added for the first time.

Race 8

#4 Private Label

#6 Humber River

#7 Times a Breeze

#5 Westminster

#4 PRIVATE LABEL showed ability in his first two starts then put it all together with an impressive score in an off-turf race on July 13. If he can run back to that effort he will have a very good shot to double up. #6 HUMBER RIVER was a game third but was disqualified for interference in the stretch when getting out to this distance for the first time on June 21. I'm surprised he wasn't more of a speed factor that day; we'll see what running style they use this time. #7 TIMES A BREEZE routed in his first start off of the layoff on May 31, racing evenly against N2L allowance company. He takes a drop and should step forward with a start under his belt. #5 WESTMINSTER tried N2L allowance company on turf on on July 6, failing to threaten. He has had good efforts routing in British Columbia; drops in class and could be a speed threat.

Race 9

#4 American Woman

#7 Beach Ready

#3 War Painter

#6 Bolt Enoree

#4 AMERICAN WOMAN was prominent early before emptying out when making her local debut in the Alywow. This race does not have anything stellar looking; she has breezed sharply and may like the added distance and switch to Tapeta. #7 BEACH READY has hit the board in 11 of 17 starts on the synthetic south of the border. She has been breezing quickly since arriving at Woodbine; looks like a live new face. #3 WAR PAINTER was a somewhat disappointing fourth when favoured at this level on June 22. Multiple restricted Stakes-winner definitely has the talent to win this and is probably the horse to beat, though likely a short price again. #6 BOLT ENOREE was suspiciously dropped in for $32,000 off of a win against N2X/$50,000 types and ran a disappointing fifth as the favourite while attracting a claim on June 14. She goes for a solid barn who have waited the 30 days and run her back for $32,000 again; we'll see what she shows.

Race 10

#4 Borealis Trail

#2 Kamasi

#5 Trip Aces

#1 Perfectworks

#10 Proudly Hailed (GB)

#4 BOREALIS TRAIL ran a very solid third in his local debut but had a wide trip and failed to fire on July 13. He draws well and should like the turf. #2 KAMASI was second-best behind a runaway winner when debuting in a route on July 13. He gets the turf this time and clearly has potential to be a decent horse. #5 TRIP ACES chased quick fractions and flattened out to be third, four lengths behind Kamasi on July 13. He had a bit of a wide trip when debuting over the turf; could be the main speed in this field. #1 PERFECTWORKS made his turf debut on July 6, rallying to be second behind the impressive Monterey Bay. He will likely appreciate the extra furlong he gets this time. #10 PROUDLY HAILED (GB) ran a very game race to be beaten a half-length in a six furlong sprint for his local debut on June 8. His speed figures make him an obvious contender.
