#1 Holiday Snooze

#5 Starvin

#7 Run Matteo Run

#2 Alzado

#1 HOLIDAY SNOOZE ran on well to be fourth while attracting a claim for this price in his route debut on August 1. He gets back onto the Tapeta where he has posted solid speed figures. #5 STARVIN did not have the best of trips when kicking off his season for $40,000 on August 3. He should be live taking a class drop for his second start off of the layoff. #7 RUN MATTEO RUN ran well to be fourth in the same August 3 rave that Starvin competed in before coming back on the inner turf on August 24 where he was a non-threatening fourth. He should be in the hunt at this level. #2 ALZADO set moderate fractions before fading in deep stretch to be sixth in his first start off of a $15,000 claim. He could be the pacesetter again; it's tough to say if he is as good on the Tapeta as he is on turf.

Race 2

#6 Katherine's Gem

#5 Hard to Capture

#7 Lois Len

#2 Hay Hay Paula

#6 KATHERINE'S GEM bobbled at the break but recovered and rallied to be a good second behind the very nice Galley Head when racing on the inner turf on August 21. She gets back to the Tapeta and should appreciate cutting back to one turn. #5 HARD TO CAPTURE has not been worse than fourth in six starts this season, most recently finishing second at this level on August 29; should be rallying for another strong effort. #7 LOIS LEN was making her first start in two months when setting the pace and giving way to be third, nosed out for place by Hard to Capture on August 29. She could be a little tighter this time and could be tough if she gets an easy time on the lead. #2 HAY HAY PAULA was an allowance winner at Fort Erie two back before an even fourth in a route on August 15. She gets more time between starts this time and is definitely better sprinting.

Race 3

#7 Kinzie Girl

#10 El Barrio

#1 Scotch Mist

#6 Meilani

#7 KINZIE GIRL has not had the best of trips in her two tries on turf, most recently in the Catch a Glimpse. She could offer some value if she can work out a ground saving trip in her route debut. #10 EL BARRIO showed good finishing interest when rallying to be second in her turf debut behind the impressive Luster. Blinkers and lasix are added for this move to the inner course. #1 SCOTCH MIST is by 13-for-86 juvenile debut sire Volatile, out of a debut-winning mare who won a Stakes over a mile on dirt at two. She outworked a stablemate from the gate on August 30. #6 MEILANI was in contention well into the stretch but flattened out when last racing on August 17. She may not have liked the yielding going that day; could be a speed threat getting out to a mile.

Race 4

#7 Starship Serenity

#3 Bella Classica

#4 Bertha

#2 Dixie Is a Breeze

#7 STARSHIP SERENITY has been putting in very good efforts to hit the board in her three most recent tries at this level. She has solid speed figures and appears to be hooking a manageable field. #3 BELLA CLASSICA raced wide and was never involved when facing maiden allowance foes on turf on August 2. She gets in for a tag for the first time and has decent speed figures for this field. #4 BERTHA rallied to be third in a sprint for this price in her first start off of a $25,000 claim and should not mind getting back out to a route. #2 DIXIE IS A BREEZE was in a tough spot between horses early and never fired when debuting against maiden special weight company on June 21. She has had time to reset and gets easier company for her second attempt.

Race 5

#1 Regal Moment

#5 Good as Gone

#6 Just Magnificent

#3 Lady Izzy

#1 REGAL MOMENT put in a very nice effort to be third in the Algoma on August 24. She gets back out to a route here and catches a field without much speed. #5 GOOD AS GONE got out to a route for the first time this season on August 30 and ran a good second behind Spun Around. Her two turn record is very solid and she should be one of the main players again. #6 JUST MAGNIFICENT was just a half length behind Regal Moment when finishing fifth in the Algoma and figures to be finishing on well again. #3 LADY IZZY closed out her two-year-old season with a good third place finish against winners with a 62 Beyer. She makes her delayed seasonal bow here; we'll see if she's ready to fire.

Race 6

#4 Thesecretadversary (IRE)

#10 Wild Desert (IRE)

#5 Two Out Hero

#9 Military Time

#4 THESECRETADVERSARY (IRE) had been very close in his first three attempts before breaking through to break his maiden in the Churchill Stakes at Tipperary. He should not be too far off of the pace and should fare well. #10 WILD DESERT (IRE) had a difficult trip when finishing third in the Group 2 Superlative at Newmarket on July 12. Godolphin homebred was an impressive debut winner and should be tough to beat here. #5 TWO OUT HERO dominated by 12 lengths in his debut over the Tapeta, then showed he was able to rate a bit when stalking and going on to win the Soaring Free; we'll see if he tries to rate again on the stretch out or goes for the lead. #9 MILITARY TIME was very visually impressive when winning his debut on August 31. If he can duplicate that effort on the grass he could be a factor here.

Race 7

#4 Wild Pansy (FR)

#9 Five Towns (GB)

#6 Literate

#10 Caitlinhergrtness

#4 WILD PANSY (FR) makes her North American debut here after closing out 2024 with a pair of wins in France. She thrived when switching to the synthetic overseas and should be competitive here. #9 FIVE TOWNS (GB) raced well in her first couple of starts of the year but hasn't had the best of trips recently at Monmouth. She is two-for-two on synthetic surfaces and could be a factor with some racing luck. #6 LITERATE rallied up the inside to run down Caitlinhergrtness in the Trillium before failing to factor on turf in the EP Taylor. She does her best running on turf and should be more competitive this time. #10 CAITLINHERGRTNESS chased the pace before flattening out to be fifth in the EP Taylor. She looked brilliant when winning the Belle Mahone in her first start of the year but has not been able to run back to that yet; needs some racing luck from this post.

Race 8

#10 Deep Learning

#5 Dance to the Music (GB)

#1 Corsia Veloce

#3 Sweet Fusion

#10 DEEP LEARNING rallied strongly to break her maiden on debut at Saratoga on August 8. She will need racing luck from this post but looks like she has the potential to be a very nice turf filly. #5 DANCE TO THE MUSIC (GB) has won both of her starts to date at Newmarket, winning the Group 3 Sweet Solera when last competing on August 9. The lone European invader in this field should make her presence felt. #1 CORSIA VELOCE was very game when holding on to beat the boys on debut, then showed a nice kick on the turf when winning the Catch a Glimpse. She could be a pace factor stretching out to a mile from the inside. #3 SWEET FUSION rallied from the back to be second behind Corsia Veloce in the Catch a Glimpse; may appreciate the stretch out to a route.

Race 9

#2 Notable Speech (GB) - Best Bet

#8 Win for the Money

#3 One Stripe (SAF)

#5 Wyoming Bill

#2 NOTABLE SPEECH (GB) is a multiple Group 1 winner in England who comes into this race off of a narrow loss in the Prix Jacques Le Marois at Deauville. Godolphin homebred was beaten less than a length in last year's Breeders' Cup Mile and looks like the clear class of this field. #8 WIN FOR THE MONEY kept on well to be third when last racing in the Grade 1 Fourstardave at Saratoga. The defending champion of this race makes his third start off of a layoff here and may be ready for a peak effort. #3 ONE STRIPE (SAF) is a multiple Group 1 winner in South Africa who makes his North American debut here. He had a tough trip in his last start at Kenilworth; he has been based at Fair Hill and is an intriguing player here. #5 WYOMING BILL has really taken a step forward this year, finishing his races well and earning good speed figures, most recently beaten $\frac{3}{4}$ lengths by Gas Me Up in the King Edward. He likes this course and would not shock me if he was right there; blinkers are going on.

Race 10

#6 Victory Achieved

#2 Simcoe

#7 Horsepower

#4 Cruden Bay

#6 VICTORY ACHIEVED was clearly second-best behind Simcoe when last racing in the Bold Venture which was his first start since January. He is capable of showing more speed and could be better in his second start off of the bench. #2 SIMCOE opened up at will when going gate to wire in the Bold Venture. Son of Uncle Mo has reinvented himself as a very nice sprinter and looks like the one to beat; he has not been worse than second in his last seven starts. #7 HORSEPOWER was able to win the Karl Boyes over the Presque Isle Tapeta before coming back to be a decent fourth in the Van Clief at Colonial. Consistent gelding has hit the exactor in nine of his 14 lifetime starts. #4 CRUDEN BAY put in a huge effort when rallying in time to win the Connaught Cup in his first start of the year, then like hit the front too early before giving way to be fourth in the King Edward. He may appreciate the fast fractions he should have in front of him here.

Race 11

#1 Possiblemente

#3 Bachelor Pad

#4 Pierre

#9 Grandson

#1 POSSIBLEMENTE last raced on July 13 where he took the lead on the backside before being outfinished and settling for third in an N3X/$80,000. He gets significant class relief dropping in for $32,000 and has won at the nine furlong distance before. #3 BACHELOR PAD stalked and proved best when winning a $25,000 route on August 23. Versatile veteran loves to win and is worth a look taking a shot at this level. #4 PIERRE pressed the pace and ran a very game second to the very solid Itsastormymonday in an OS/$40,000 non-three on August 7. Other than a troubled trip in his first start of the season he has not had a bad race this year. #9 GRANDSON rallied well to be second on the inner turf on August 29. He makes just his third start of the year here and gets back to the surface over which he has earned three of his four lifetime wins.

Race 12

#6 Jayhawk

#5 Lac Macaza

#9 Junipero Serra

#3 Niagara Skyline

#2 Awesome Bourbon

#6 JAYHAWK was pressed through moderate fractions and missed by a neck to War Court when making his first start since December 2023 on August 2; could be tough if he takes to the turf. #5 LAC MACAZA made a premature move before emptying out to be seventh in his first start off of the claim in the Seagram Cup. A Stakes-winner on turf, he should be able to get back to form in this spot. #9 JUNIPERO SERRA rallies from last to be fourth in the same race that Jayhawk exits. This race should have quite a bit more pace to rally into. #3 NIAGARA SKYLINE proved best in deep stretch to win a sprint at this level on August 16. He figures to be very forward getting out to a mile. #2 AWESOME BOURBON held on when going gate to wire against N1X/$32,000 types on August 16; we'll see how he handles the jump to the N2X level.
