

Race 1

#6 Easter Sunday Girl

#1 Cheat the Devil

#3 No Visor

#5 Lillz Star

#6 EASTER SUNDAY GIRL had an easy maiden win over this course and distance for $15,000 four starts ago but has been in less than ideal spots since. She plunges in for bottoms and gets back to a sprint. #1 CHEAT THE DEVIL was able to win on the front end for $10,000 two-back, then bumped up to the $25,000 level on September 20 where she was outclassed. She should be a front end threat dropping in for bottoms. #3 NO VISOR exits a credible fourth-place effort for $15,000 on September 20. She has been in good recent form and should be competitive once again. #5 LILLZ STAR was bothered going into the turn in an empty effort on September 4. The blinkers are removed after being added last time.

Race 2

#9 Neenah

#4 Starship Serenity

#5 Lady Izzy

#3 Design Diva

#9 NEENAH raced wide and rallied into slow fractions to be third on the Tapeta on September 13. She ran a very nice third over this course two-back. #4 STARSHIP SERENITY was a much-the-best winner when breaking her maiden for this price on the Tapeta on September 13. She likes this turf course and is in with a shot to double up. #5 LADY IZZY had a bit of a rough early run when making her seasonal debut on September 13, finishing fifth behind Regal Moment and Neenah. She could fare better now that she has a start under her belt this year. #3 DESIGN DIVA has a great record over this turf course. She bumps up in value after a pair of good third-place efforts for $25,000.

Race 3

#5 Ryo Amazing - Best Bet

#9 Strike a Note

#7 Naughty Destiny

#4 Noyzee Girl

#5 RYO AMAZING made a menacing rally up the dead rail but understandably flattened out to be fourth when last racing on September 4. The blinkers come off. #9 STRIKE A NOTE swung wide and rallied to be a non-threatening third when dropping in for this tag on September 18. She has made just two lifetime starts and could continue to improve. #7 NAUGHTY DESTINY led into deep stretch but was unable to hold when finishing third by a length for $25,000 on the inner turf on August 16. Her lone Tapeta start was not inspiring but she deserves another try on the surface. #4 NOYZEE GIRL was bothered at the start and was beaten just two lengths for place when last racing on September 11; she has been competitive at this level.

Race 4

#4 McGill

#3 My Cash Factor

#6 Holiday Rose

#7 Bravo Kate

#4 MCGILL was held up in a bit of traffic and ran a very smart second behind the well-meant Candid Candace when returning to Woodbine on September 11. She catches a field of several class jumpers and should be the clear one to beat. #3 MY CASH FACTOR was claimed for $7,500 from a runner-up effort behind the speedy Love You Lippy on September 19. She gets some extra distance to work with here. #6 HOLIDAY ROSE had a nice rallying win against non-twos for this price two back but failed to threaten when finishing sixth in the same race that McGill exits; could run on for a share. #7 BRAVO KATE is a wild card dropping in off of an absolute clunker for $25,000 on the inner turf. The Beyers in the 60s she had been posting before that would make her a serious player here.

Race 5

#1 Phillip My Wine

#2 Wagner

#3 Pierre

#4 El Cohete

#1 PHILLIP MY WINE stalked the early pace en route to a dominant win against N2L allowance company over this course on September 14. He should be very tough to beat getting to take on OS/$40,000 company here. #2 WAGNER tried a five furlong dash over this course on September 1 and failed to make a serious dent against a very solid group. He will probably find this distance much more suitable. #3 PIERRE made a rally on the far turn but flattened out when taking on N1X/$32,000 company on the synthetic on September 13. He put in a huge effort to be beaten a half-length at this class and surface two back. #4 EL COHETE was 3 ½ lengths behind Pierre when finishing third over this course three back, then came back with a decent fourth-place effort in a Tapeta sprint on September 7; worth some consideration.

Race 6

#7 Sultry Sophie

#2 Ecliptical Ladybug

#6 Black Goddess

#1 Nashyan

#7 SULTRY SOPHIE takes the blinkers off for her route debut here. She has legitimate sprint speed and should be the controlling speed on the stretch out to a route. #2 ECLIPTICAL LADYBUG chased the pacesetting winner and lost place in deep stretch when travelling seven furlongs on September 6. She had a decent route effort on the inner turf back on June 14. #6 BLACK GODDESS wheels back quickly after failing to threaten in a sprint last week. Her route form is respectable. #1 NASHYAN was 1 ¾ lengths behind Ecliptical Ladybug last time. Her form has better sprinting back that is more due to the lower levels she has been competing at than the distances.

Race 7

#6 Liam's Awesome

#5 Proud Mischief

#7 Tattoosonmysoul

#3 Magic Modie

#2 Zeena Swift

#6 LIAM'S AWESOME hooked another class dropper in Voice From Above and was a clear second-best for this price on September 11. She should have honest fractions to run into here. #5 PROUD MISCHIEF did not fire when trying the Fort Erie dirt on September 1 in her first start off of a claim from a winning effort for this price. She could rebound getting back to the Tapeta. #7 TATTOOSONMYSOUL dueled on faded to be fifth, four lengths behind Liam's Awesome on September 11. She has had an up-and-down pattern this year; we'll see if she sustains her speed here. #3 MAGIC MODIE halves in value after coming up empty for $15,000 on September 11. She is another pace factor in this spot. #2 ZEENA SWIFT never fired when last racing for $15,000 on August 21. She won her non-two for this tag two-back.
