

Race 1

#1 Swiftlet

#6 King Rosso

#2 Hello Stranger

#3 Toronto City

#1 SWIFTLET dueled into the stretch before fading to be fourth over this course on September 21. He returns as a gelding and will shed the blinkers. #6 KING ROSSO rallied to be third, narrowly missing second to Hello Stranger on September 21. He runs well consistent despite being 0-for-17 so far in his career. #2 HELLO STRANGER got up for second over King Rosso on September 21 in his best effort to date. He is still lightly raced and could continue to improve. #3 TORONTO CITY was bothered on the first turn and failed to recover on September 21 but ran two good thirds prior to that race and is definitely worth a look here.

Race 2

#12 Heat Merchant

#8 Little Red Domi

#4 Midnight Arkle

#1 Fairway to Heaven

#12 HEAT MERCHANT was hooking tougher company than you'd expect in Fort Erie and not racing badly. This is the easiest Woodbine field he's hooked in a long time; could be live at a price. #8 LITTLE RED DOMI looks like the clear one to beat, dropping down after failing to fire for $25,000 on September 5. Blinkers are going on for the first time. #4 MIDNIGHT ARKLE has been picking up checks consistently at this level this season, finishing second behind the back-classy Military Time three weeks ago. He figures to show up again. #1 FAIRWAY TO HEAVEN exits a midpack effort against open foes for this tag after finishing a good third two back. He should appreciate getting into the non-three/non-winners in a year category.

Race 3

#9 Wilberforce

#10 Guildsman (FR)

#6 Valley Victory

#5 Winston Blue

#9 WILBERFORCE ran a decent fifth in a starter/optional $10,000 route here on October 5 after a nice $6,250 win on the Fort Erie turf. He is a capable Tapeta sprinter at this level. #10 GUILDSMAN (FR) failed to fire against starter/optional $15,000 company on October 5 in his first start off of a $10,000 claim and now jams in for $7,500. He has plenty of back class; we'll see if he can rebound. #6 VALLEY VICTORY was an impressive winner at this class and distance in his first start for these connections but tired after chasing the pace in the same starter/optional $10,000 route that Wilderforce exits. He could rebound with the cutback and drop. #5 WINSTON BLUE has not fired with his best in his two most recent starts but has won twice for this price this season and could show up with a better effort.

Race 4

#8 Ever Dangerous

#2 Quiet Intent

#10 Hemlo Gold

#9 Walter Me Lad

#8 EVER DANGEROUS could not get by the pacesetter Peja Du and lost place late when finishing third for this price on September 12. He seems logical in this spot. #2 QUIET INTENT looked good winning his non-three for this price two back but was a bit even in his first try against wide open company in September 19. He draws well in a race where most of the obvious threats are hurdled with outside draws. #10 HEMLO GOLD had a bit of a wide journey when finishing fourth, a neck behind Ever Dangerous on September 12, then came back with a good runner-up finish going nine furlongs on the Tapeta. Hopefully he can work out a trip from a tough post. #9 WALTER ME LAD was a very game second when chasing Tazman on September 19. He has not run a bad race this year and could definitely be in the hunt again if he gets a good trip.

Race 5

#2 Souper Iconic

#1 Shinigami

#3 Guard of Honour

#4 Awe Inspired

#2 SOUPER ICONIC scratched and re-entered out of a similar spot yesterday. He didn't fire against non-three/non-winners in a year company three weeks ago but had run two seconds at this level before that and should be competitive here. #1 SHINIGAMI scored his maiden win for $15,000 three weeks ago and quickly halves in value for his first try against winners; pace factor and the one to beat. #3 GUARD OF HONOUR challenged the leaders on the turn but gave way in the stretch when starting from the 13 hole on October 3; should be much more competitive in this shorter field. #4 AWE INSPIRED ran well to be second behind a pacesetting winner at Fort Erie on October 13; he can throw speed figures good enough to be a factor here on the right day.

Race 6

#1 Ask in My Name

#4 Echo With Laughter

#5 Country Living

#2 Mannix (IRE)

#1 ASK IN MY NAME lacked finish when facing starter/optional $15,000 routers on September 26 and had a poor break in the start before that. He had been in great form earlier and should be live with the cutback and drop in for $10,000. #4 ECHO WITH LAUGHTER jams in for $10,000 after failing to fire for $25,000 on September 7 in his first start since June. He should be a pace factor at this level. #5 COUNTRY LIVING does his best running when he makes the early lead. He was outsprinted for $25,000 in his first start against wide open foes on September 27 and promptly jams in for $10,000 and could rebound. #2 MANNIX (IRE) makes his first start in two months after winning in an inner turf route at this level on August 22. His form has improved as the season has gone on; we'll see if he fires again off of the break.

Race 7

#4 Chambers - Best Bet

#5 Alpha Kadin

#8 Pin Boy

#3 Ride for the Purse

#9 Arami's Speightster

#4 CHAMBERS was beaten a nose by Pin Boy in his first start off of the layoff before an easy win for $25,000 on September 26. He drops in for $15,000 for his first try against winners and should be tough to beat. #5 ALPHA KADIN rallied from last to be a big second at this level 13 days ago. His speed figures fit; contender. #8 PIN BOY overcame trouble and held off Chambers to win on September 1 before a distant third for $25,000 20 days later. He drops in for $15,000 and definitely deserves consideration. #3 RIDE FOR THE PURSE ran third in a $25,000 sprint on September 1 before an even try over nine furlongs on October 10; could rally for a share here. #9 ARAMI'S SPEIGHTSTER was a very game second behind Times a Breeze at Fort Erie 11 days ago; we'll see if he retains that improvement getting back to the Tapeta.
