Handicapper's Journal – Doug McPherson Friday, October 31st, 2025

Race 1

#5 Galvaston

#3 Colonel Mustard

#1 Mid Day Image

#7 Tricky Magician

#5 GALVASTON ran a good second in an open $7,500 behind repeat winner Kinetic Stone on September 26 before a midpack effort behind the runaway El Alacran at that level two weeks ago. He is overdue for a win and should be live at this level. #3 COLONEL MUSTARD broke slowly and rallied to a midpack finish in a route two weeks ago. He is a capable sprinter with the right pace setup. #1 MID DAY IMAGE dueled on the lead and came up empty when last racing on October 3. He is not at his best on the Tapeta but hooks a field where he could be the controlling speed. #7 TRICKY MAGICIAN had been picking up checks against tougher earlier in the season but was empty early when last racing on October 12. He gets in for bottoms; we'll see if he can rebound.

Race 2

#5 My Boy Bruce

#4 Souper Iconic

#3 Final Run for Love

#8 Daddy Send Money

#5 MY BOY BRUCE plunges down from the $15,000 level and gets an extra furlong to work with after finishing fifth on October 11 and is catching a suspect group. #4 SOUPER ICONIC was a non-threatening second behind a lone speed winner last week. He has finished second in five of seven starts this year; logical option. #3 FINAL RUN FOR LOVE had a very solid campaign in Fort Erie, hitting the board in seven of 10 starts and missing a check only in his first start of the year. He has not been on the synthetic since his career debut; his speed figure fit and he is definitely worth a look. #8 DADDY SEND MONEY comes into this race off of a trio of runner-up finishes at Fort Erie, earning an inflated 70 Beyer most recently. He could be a speed threat here.

Race 3

#1 Napa Spirit (IRE)

#7 Indy One

#6 Highly Flammable

#2 Jamiesta

#1 NAPA SPIRIT (IRE) had a poor trip on a rail favouring track when attracting a $10,000 claim 19 days ago. Speedy gelding has otherwise been having a very good campaign and could rebound with a clean trip. #7 INDY ONE looks for his fifth win of the season, rolling through his conditions quickly before winning against open foes at this level on October 5. The confidence should be skyhigh. #6 HIGHLY FLAMMABLE tried hard but came up a half-length short to the bias-aided Kinetic Stone when returning from a layoff at the $10,000 level on October 12. He looks competitive in his second start off of the bench despite the rise in value. #2 JAMIESTA has finished gamely to hit the board in two starts since shedding blinkers and could benefit if a pace duel ensues.

Race 4
#1 Clear Position
#7 Daou

#6 Wunhappy Wabbit

#2 Chargethatmountain

#1 CLEAR POSITION raced against a rail bias when finishing a non-threatening fifth against the boys at this level on October 11. She could offer value with hopes to improve with experience and racing luck. #7 DAOU has gotten loose on the lead but has tired in the stretch in two starts at this tag. We'll see how long she lasts against this field. #6 WUNHAPPY WABBIT made a nice rally to be second against the boys when dropping in for this tag on September 7 but failed to fire when getting back up to the $40,000 level on October 4. She goes with blinkers for the first time. #2 CHARGETHATMOUNTAIN is by 15% juvenile debut sire Old Forester, out of an unplaced mare who has had two winners in three foals to race including restricted Stakes-placed Jo Daddy; not getting in too tough for her debut.

#7 Sassy Melissa #1 Really Thirsty #6 Worry Less #2 Victoria Elizabeth

#7 SASSY MELISSA was empty in both of her starts against much tougher back in July and now returns from a three month break with a plunge in for bottoms. She has some back class and returns with a steady string of breezes. #1 REALLY THIRSTY could have a recency edge over the other main threats, coming into this race off of a runner-up finish three weeks ago in a five furlong dash. She should be a speed factor from the rail with the added furlong. #6 WORRY LESS was a gate to wire winner on an extremely hot night on July 24 before coming up empty on August 21. She returns with a massive plunge down from the $25,000 level; like Sassy Melissa it's a bit of a your guess is as good as mine situation. #2 VICTORIA ELIZABETH ran on to be fourth in the same race that Really Thirsty exits on October 10. Hit or miss-type has had some solid efforts this season.

#2 Happy Quad - Best Bet #3 He Shoots He Wins #6 Commander At Sea #1 Cut'em Loose

#2 HAPPY QUAD didn't love the Fort Erie dirt but was able to find the winners circle when getting back to the Tapeta against $15,000 non-twos on October 11. He drops in for $10,000 for this move to the non-three condition. #3 HE SHOOTS HE WINS was sent to the lead but wilted when dropping in for $25,000 on October 13 and continues to drop in value, going all the way down to the $10,000 level today. He could be the quickest out of the gate here. #6 COMMANDER AT SEA bumped up to the $15,000 level when returning from a two month break on September 26 and finished well to be third. He has not missed a check this year and has competitive speed figures. #1 CUT'EM LOOSE dueled from the outside draw and faltered when last racing on October 3. Although that race was for a lower tag there were come back-classy foes eligible for the non-winners in a year condition; this group is arguably easier.

Race 7

#1 Crumlin Trouble #3 Foresters Exec

#6 Rhaenyra #2 Suigu Belle

#1 CRUMLIN TROUBLE broke her maiden for $15,000, then her non-two for $25,000 and now bumps up to the $40,000 level in this bid to keep the win streak going. She figures to stalking from the inside with the cutback to 5 ½ furlongs. #3 FORESTERS EXEC exits a rallying win against non-twos in an inner turf dash on September 20. She ran against the bias on dirt in the Rondeau Bay and is otherwise in good form. #6 RHAENYRA set a fairly easy pace but gave way to be third when last racing 13 days ago. The Georgian Bay winner may appreciate the cutback in distance. #2 SUIGU BELLE proved best late when winning her non-two for $25,000 and attracting a claim on September 20; speed factor.

Race 8

#7 Souper Strider #6 Ashuka #1 Devil's Tongue #3 Big Lew #8 Z Hub

#7 SOUPER STRIDER dueled through rapid fractions and emptied out when dropping in for this tag on October 18. His previous speed figures were strong and he catches a field where he should be the main speed. #6 ASHUKA has raced well in three starts since returning from a layoff, running a decent fourth in the same race that Souper Strider exits. He has had many chances but should be in the hunt again. #1 DEVIL'S TONGUE had a rough start and ran a non-threatening fifth of six when dropping in for $15,000 on October 11 and continues to drop in value; he has had some speed figures that would put him in the hunt. #3 BIG LEW has been empty in his two most recent starts but has had a trio of runner-up finishes for this tag this year and could be worth a look if he is a decent price. #8 Z HUB has not been seen since an empty run off of a wide trip on September 7. The blinkers come off for the first time; fringe player.
