

Race 1

#5 Froginapond

#6 Beach Cricket

#4 Miss Boujee

#7 Chevonaruta

#5 FROGINAPOND passed some tiring foes when sprinting in a race with a lone speed winner on November 6. She had a good race around two turns on turf earlier in the season and could be live at a price here. #6 BEACH CRICKET rallied to finish a non-threatening second at this level on November 6. She has raced well in both of her starts since being purchased by these connections and looks like the one to beat. #4 MISS BOUJEE tracked the pace and finished evenly to be sixth when last competing on October 16. She should be well positioned in a race without much serious speed. #7 CHEVONARUTA rallied to be third, a length behind Beach Cricket last time in what has been by far her best effort on this surface.

Race 2

#2 Her Obsession

#3 Daisycrest

#7 Hyper Holiday

#6 Danish Cookie

#2 HER OBSESSION swung very wide and ran on to be fourth behind a lone speed winner on November 6. She catches a much shorter field and seems very logical. #3 DAISYCREST was empty when finishing eighth in the same race that Her Obsession exits but has picked up several checks this season and could rebound. #7 HYPER HOLIDAY was a closing fourth for \$10,000 on October 30 after being beaten for \$4,000 at Fort Erie earlier that month; would not be a surprise here. #6 DANISH COOKIE rallied up the inside to be fifth, $\frac{3}{4}$ lengths behind Her Obsession on November 6. She is at her best on turf.

Race 3

#3 Sobiech - Best Bet

#5 Deputy Ghost

#4 Balboni's Crew

#1 Kentucky Bill

#3 SOBIECH dug in after setting the pace to break her maiden against $40,000 fillies on October 4. She takes on the boys here but has the best speed figures and looks like the clear one to beat. #5 DEPUTY GHOST dropped in for this tag and was a convincing five length winner on November 1. If someone wears down Sobiech on the lead he should be the one to take advantage. #4 BALBONI'S CREW was the best of a bad bunch when beating $15,000 maidens on November 8. I think we will see him at his best on turf next year but should be in the money here in the meantime. #1 KENTUCKY BILL recovered from a poor start to break his maiden for this tag on September 7. He has been breezed lightly since,

Race 4

#5 Heat Merchant

#6 Echo With Laughter

#3 Cut'em Loose

#7 Midnight Arkle

#5 HEAT MERCHANT raced well against solid foes in Fort Erie before running a solid third from a tough post in his return to Woodbine on October 24. He drops in for bottoms and catches a smaller field this time. #6 ECHO WITH LAUGHTER gets in for bottoms after a couple of fringe efforts at the starter optional $10,000 level. He could be capable of showing more speed at this reduced level. #3 CUT'EM LOOSE was second best behind the class-dropping He Shoots He Wins in a $10,000 non-three on October 31 and looks logical with these. #7 MIDNIGHT ARKLE did not have the best of trips and ran better than the program line suggests when facing open foes on November 7; the move back to conditioned company will make things easier for him.

Race 5

#5 Crumlin Fashion

#4 Katherine's Club

#2 Minimum Forty

#6 Silent Strike

#5 CRUMLIN FASHION raced wide, moved to the lead on the turn and hung to finish third when last racing on November 1. With a more ideal trip she should be able to find the winner's circle. #4 KATHERINE'S CLUB has had three runner up finishes in as many starts in her career to date. She cuts back to a Tapeta sprint after setting the pace around two turns on the inner turf on October 16. #2 MINIMUM FORTY is by 12% debut sire Souper Speedy, out of debut winning, multiple Stakes-winning Sam Pohdi Pohdi, whose progeny include the rapid 10-for-18 Maximum Fifty. It would not be a surprise to see her show speed in her debut. #6 SILENT STRIKE cut back to five furlongs and ran a decent third against maiden allowance company on the inner turf on November 1. She may be at her best on turf but is definitely worth a look in this short field.

Race 6

#5 Socially Intact

#6 Silverdart

#3 Baytown Glinda

#2 It's Pay Day

#5 SOCIALLY INTACT came up empty after a check late on the turn last week. She ran a decent sixth for \$40,000 two starts ago and could rebound; the blinkers come off. #6 SILVERDART is by 12% juvenile debut sire Mendelssohn, and is the first foal to start out of an unraced Stormy Atlantic mare. She debuts for quite a bit less than her purchase price at the local yearling sale and has a nondescript worktab. #3 BAYTOWN GLINDA has been breezing at Turfway and had many gaps between works in the summer but comes into this race off of a steady string of $\frac{3}{8}$ and $\frac{1}{2}$ mile moves. Inexpensive purchase is by 14% juvenile debut sire Good Magic, out of an unraced mare who has had one winner in two foals to start. #2 IT'S PAY DAY is by 11% juvenile debut sire Candy Ride, out of an unraced mare who has had three winners in four foals to start including debut winner Pretty Edgy. The worktab is nondescript.

Race 7

#1 Alluring Amy

#6 Mystical Magic

#4 Sans Dancer

#9 Knockonwood

#1 ALLURING AMY stalked the pace and lacked finish when fourth against maiden special weight company on November 1. She drops in for $40,000 and draws inside this time. #6 MYSTICAL MAGIC was 1 ¼ lengths better than Alluring Amy when greenly rallying from last to be third on November 1, her debut effort. She figures to take support getting class relief in her second attempt. #4 SANS DANCER has been no worse than fourth in six starts to date, most recently rallying very well to be third against the boys on November 1. She is the most experienced runner in this field and should fare well again. #9 KNOCKONWOOD debuted in the same race as Mystical Magic, showing some interest on the turn before flattening out to be sixth; could offer some value and has the right to improve.

Race 8

#7 Happy Quad

#6 Secret Threat

#4 Commander at Sea

#3 Ry Pie

#7 HAPPY QUAD had to take back from a tight spot early, swung wide and finished a bit evenly when trying to close into a strong headwind on October 31. He attracted a $10,000 claim that night and looks live for the new connections. #6 SECRET THREAT raced evenly to be sixth when dropping in for this price on October 30. He is more than capable of beating these but is reliant on having a pace setup to close into. #4 COMMANDER AT SEA has not missed a check in seven starts this year, most recently finishing 1 ½ lengths better than Happy Quad when third on October 31. His speed figures are solid and he would not be a surprise at all here. #3 RY PIE rallied from last to be third in the same race that Secret Threat exits after having been outfinished by Commander at Sea in his previous start; could definitely be in the hunt here.

Race 9

#6 Abino Bay

#5 Call Me Kaykay

#2 Ain't No Girly Girl

#9 Silly Risk

#6 ABINO BAY had a troubled trip when taking on OS/$40,000 mares on the inner turf on October 16, but was beaten a head for this tag on September 25 and looks very logical getting back to a Tapeta sprint. #5 CALL ME KAYKAY is another who had a rough trip in the October 16 inner turf race before being scratched in the paddock on Breeders' Cup weekend. She drops in for $25,000 while shedding the blinkers; she ran a credible fourth in a Tapeta sprint at the start of the season and will be a big price. #2 AIN'T NO GIRLY GIRL was second best in a route for this tag on October 17, finishing on the wrong lead. That was her best speed figure to date; we'll see if she can repeat it cutting back to seven furlongs. #9 SILLY RISK was rank when debuting in a maiden allowance route on October 10 and came up empty. She quickly plunges in for $25,000 and will add blinkers.

Race 10

#1 Bossy Candy

#6 Souper Diva

#9 Zabarta

#5 Sipping History

#1 BOSSY CANDY was well clear of the rest of the field when finishing second against maiden special weight company in her debut on November 1. She should be well positioned from the inside and would not be a surprise in this spot. #6 SOUPER DIVA did not make the lead and lacked finish while exchanging bumps in the stretch en route to a distant fourth place finish in the South Ocean. She is taken off of lasix here and will likely try for the lead. #9 ZABARTA dominated $25,000 maidens on October 10 then came back nine days later to romp in the South Ocean. If she has pace to close into she could definitely earn her third consecutive score. #5 SIPPING HISTORY did not have the cleanest of trips when finishing third in the South Ocean. She has not run a bad race to date and could be a little overlooked here.

Race 11

#2 Sinclarity

#6 Verdejo

#8 Forester's Exec

#7 Xarabella

#2 SINCLARITY was beaten a neck by the class-dropping Breezero when racing over the inner turf on November 2. She has had a great season and should be tough with these. #6 VERDEJO led in midstretch and fought gamely when beaten a head by Super Sicily while being claimed back by these connections for $25,000 15 days ago. Although winless this year she is a true hard knocker and is always tough for me to ignore. #8 FORESTER'S EXEC went through her non-two and non-three conditions in back to back efforts and now takes the step into first level allowance company. She may find these tougher but the confidence should be high with three wins in her last four starts. #7 XARABELLA stalked the pace and finished best to break her maiden on October 25. Her speed figures are solid; contender.

Race 12

#6 Hello Jello

#1 Bennys Jet

#5 Souper Strider

#7 Tiernan

#9 Arami's Speightster

#6 HELLO JELLO broke his maiden for this tag then bumped up to $15,000 for his first try against winners and ran a decent third. He drops back in and should be live. #1 BENNYS JETS was beaten a head for $15,000 on November 2 when stalking the pace after a rough start. He will likely be a speed threat from the rail. #5 SOUPER STRIDER rallied up a live rail and held on to break his maiden on October 31 in a fairly questionable field; we'll see if he can handle winners. #7 TIERNAN continues to drop in value after offering little in the stretch for $15,000 on November 2; he makes his second start with the blinkers back on here. #9 ARAMI'S SPEIGHTSTER was empty when making his return to Woodbine on October 24 but ran a very game race when beaten a head by a respectable foe at Fort Erie 11 days prior; worth a look at a price.
