

Race 1

#7 Rock Hard Rose

#3 Dancin Mary Marie

#2 Faultfinder

#6 Florida Vacation

#7 ROCK HARD ROSE has had three consecutive runner up finishes at this level, most recently missing by a head. Her speed figures are very strong for this group, the one to beat. #3 DANCIN MARY MARIE has had back to back runner up finishes at the $10,000 level and now rises up a class. Stalking/closing type could land a perfect trip if Rock Hard Rose and Florida Vacation wear each other out in a speed duel. #2 FAULTFINDER drops in class after a couple of midpack finishes for $25,000. She wheels back in a week and should be competitive at this level. #6 FLORIDA VACATION showed brief speed but gave way en route to a distant third place finish for $25,000 on November 1. She could be the thorn in the side of Rock Hard Rose early.

Race 2

#7 Firecracker Fiona

#3 Tandhoneywithane

#5 Dancetotherhythm

#1 Loveumissumeanit

#7 FIRECRACKER FIONA controlled the pace but was outkicked late when finishing second behind More Money Hunny 15 days ago. She looks like the controlling speed again. #3 TANDHONEYWITHANE stalked the pace and finished best down the outside to win her non-two for this tag on November 8. She draws well and looks very capable of doubling up. #5 DANCETOTHERHYTHM closed from last to win her non-two for this tag on November 1. She may not have the ideal pace setup to rally from the back here. #1 LOVEUMISSUMEANIT gets significant class relief dropping down from the N1X/$32,000 level and will cutback in distance for her Tapeta debut; we'll see if these changes improve her fortunes.

Race 3

#2 Purrfect Girl

#1 Hay Hay Paula

#5 P. S. Rising Star

#6 Misty Eyed

#2 PURRFECTION GIRL had a bit of a rough trip when finishing fourth behind the runaway Foxy Diva in a starter/optional $15,000 on November 6. She drops in for $7,500 and should be in the hunt. #1 HAY HAY PAULA was 2 ½ lengths better than Purrfect Girl when finishing second on November 6, then came back to finish seventh with a wide trip in a sprint nine days later. She halves in value and is tough to ignore. #5 P. S. RISING STAR rallied to an impressive win at this level on November 6. She has some class droppers to deal with now; we'll see if she's good enough to double up. #6 MISTY EYED was an easy front end winner against $10,000 non-threes in her first start off a $7,500 claim. She gets back in for $7,500 and looks like a major speed threat in her route debut.

Race 4

#2 Dunmore Beach

#5 Vanish

#4 Heart Tap

#7 Lapin de Plage

#2 DUNMORE BEACH has been finishing well in both of his starts to date and now gets out to a route for the first time. Daughter of Quality Road draws well and should not have an issue with the added distance. #5 VANISH fell back to last on the turn but ran on again to pass some tiring foes in her November 1 debut and will likely improve with a start under her belt. #4 HEART TAP got out to this distance on November 8 and ran on well to be second behind La Culasse. She is one of the more experienced runners in this field and is not without a shot. #7 LAPIN DE PLAGE was a length behind Heart Tap when finishing third last time out. She will likely be forwardly placed from the outside.

Race 5

#2 Spun for Flatter

#5 Regal Affair

#9 Rose Fortune

#7 Kasumi's Ghost

#2 SPUN FOR FLATTER debuted at this level on October 25, chasing the pace early before giving way to be fifth, beaten a length for place. She isn't catching the toughest looking group here and could be a speed factor. #5 REGAL MOMENT earned a field-best Beyer of 61 when making a wide rally to be third in her November 8 debut. She broke a bit slowly in that race and has since breezed from the gate hoping to be ready to begin more alertly. #9 ROSE FORTUNE is by 11-for-57 juvenile debut sire Signature Red, and a full sibling to juvenile Stakes-winner Ancient Spirit. She had a solid gate work on the training track on October 29. #7 KASUMI'S GHOST had a wide journey when finishing sixth on debut in the same race as Regal Moment; she may improve with a better start in her second attempt.

Race 6

#5 Light the Lamp - Best Bet

#2 Go Kart Mozart

#7 Roi Soleil

#3 Artemus Citylimits

#5 LIGHT THE LAMP had to wait for a run on the turn then ran on to be a game second behind Roi Soleil at this level on November 2. He loves the shorter distances and should welcome cutting back to five furlongs. #2 GO KART MOZART set the pace and fought on when challenged on the turn but gave way to be third behind Light the Lamp and Roi Soleil on November 2. If the track is as inside speed favouring today as it has been lately he could be tough to catch this time. #7 ROI SOLEIL made his second start off of a midseason layoff on November 2 and was able to rally from last to win. He seems to have returned from the break in very good order and should

fare well again. #3 ARTEMUS CITYLIMITS held on by a nose to win an N1X/$32,000 six days ago. Speedy gelding rises in class but has plenty of back class and could be a contender.

Race 7

#5 A Little Frisky

#4 Crystal Visions

#1 Bessie Abbott (IRE)

#6 Scat Girl

#5 A LITTLE FRISKY lost her path at the head of the lane and fell back to be 10th in the Bessarabian on November 8. Her two previous efforts in Stakes company are solid and she looks very tough in this spot. #4 CRYSTAL VISIONS made a bid for the lead turning for home but came up second best to Design when trying a route on November 15. She won her N1X/$32,000 at this distance and should appreciate the cutback. #1 BESSIE ABBOTT (IRE) stalked early and pounced to win an N1X/$32,000 that was taken off of the inner turf when making her local debut on October 23. She may have a bright future on the synthetic. #6 SCAT GIRL rallied from last to crush N1X/$32,000 foes in a route on October 30. She won at this distance against OS/$40,000 non-twos back in August; we'll see if she can do it against this caliber of foe.

Race 8

#7 Katie's Grace

#4 Piper's Gift

#2 Bells of Paradise

#3 Ashlee B

#7 KATIE'S GRACE was impressive when overcoming a wide trip to win her debut on September 27, then came back to run a game third in the Mazarine. She figures to be tough here if she can work out a trip. #4 PIPER'S GIFT is two-for-two over the Tapeta, crushing maidens on September 20 before stalking the pace and kicking on to an easy win in the Glorious Song. If she can duplicate that form at the route distance she could prove to be very tough to beat. #2 BELLS OF PARADISE tracked the early leader, took the lead in early stretch and held away to win her debut on November 1. She could easily be a speed factor stretching out to a route. #3 ASHLEE B had a wide trip and showed some finishing interest when debuting at this distance on October 25. Maiden takes on very tough foes here but I would not be surprised at all to see her run on for a minor share.

Race 9

#1 Home for a Rest

#7 Purr Factor

#3 Veery

#5 Speedy Freeze

#1 HOME FOR A REST has rallied to have back to back runner up finishes at the N1X/$32,000 level including one to Maximum Fifty, the winningest horse at the meet, on October 11. If she has enough pace to run at she should be a big closing threat here. #7 PURR FACTOR was a one paced fourth when facing N2X/$50,000 does on October 18. She is at her best when she is on the lead and has had time to freshen up; expect her to hustle out of the gate. #3 VEERY had been having success around two turns but went off form in the Trillium and has not recovered. She cuts back in distance and gets significant class relief in this bid to get back to being competitive. #5 SPEEDY FREEZE looked very good when winning the Algoma but did not fire when her best when coming back in an N1X/$32,000 on September 27. She returns from two months off and can rally very strongly on the right day.

Race 10

#9 Military Time

#2 Dixie Law

#1 Navy Street

#4 Buium

#9 MILITARY TIME was extremely impressive when winning his debut in a sprint over this surface but came up flat when trying a route on the inner turf in the Cup and Saucer. It's tough to believe there isn't more in him than he showed last and could rebound getting back to the Tapeta. #2 DIXIE LAW beat the boys in the Cup and Saucer then came back to beat open fillies in the Mazarine. Never mind being a multiple Stakes winner, she is simply the only multiple winner in this field and seems like a deserving favourite from a good post. #1 NAVY STREET scored a nice rallying win on debut when offered for $40,000 but came back in the Display where he ran a very game second after setting the pace. He seems very likely to go for the lead from the rail with the stretch out to nine furlongs. #4 BUIUM was third in the Cup and Saucer before a decent fourth place effort in the Grey on November 2. Despite being a maiden he is the type of one-paced grinder who could pick up a check in basically any spot.

Race 11

#3 Hello Jello

#8 Field Hockey

#1 Knowing

#2 My Boy Bruce

#5 Monday Morning

#3 HELLO JELLO angled off the fence and surged in deep stretch but could not get by the pacesetting Bennys Jets when racing for this tag last week; he looks best here. #8 FIELD HOCKEY drops in for $10,000 for his first start since August 1. He typically does not run his best on the Tapeta but could be the main speed here. #1 KNOWING had to check on the turn and ran on decently enough to be sixth for $15,000 on November 20. He wheels back quickly and gets class relief. #2 MY BOY BRUCE was claimed for $5,000 on October 31 in an effort where he managed to close a bit into a strong headwind to be fourth. He does not look too out of place rising in value tonight. #5 MONDAY MORNING ran on to be third in a $5,000 route 16 days ago and looks like a fringe player here.
